Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the three months ended June 30, 2002 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending March 31, 2003. For further information, refer to the condensed consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2002.

3. Finance Receivables

Finance receivables consist of automobile finance installment contracts and direct consumer loans and are detailed as follows:

Finance receivables, gross contract	$124,643,998
Less:
Unearned interest	(29,876,628)
	94,767,370
Nonrefundable dealer reserves	(11,686,394)
Allowance for credit losses	(4,679,493)
Finance receivables, net	$ 78,401,483

The terms of the receivables range from 12 to 60 months and bear a weighted average effective interest rate of 24%.

4. Line of Credit

The Company has a $75 million Line of Credit facility (the Line) which expires on November 30, 2004. Borrowings under the Line bear interest at the prime rate. The Company also has several LIBOR pricing options available. If the outstanding balance falls below $10 million the Line bears interest at the prime rate plus 2.00%. Pledged as collateral for this credit facility are all of the assets of Nicholas Financial, Inc. and its subsidiaries.

5. Notes Payable - Related Party

The Company's notes payable consisted of unsecured, interest at 9.5%, principal and interest due upon 30-day demand notes totaling $548,739.

6. Derivatives and Hedging

In June 1998, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities" ("SFAS 133"). This statement establishes requirements for accounting and reporting of derivative instruments and hedging activities. SFAS 133 was updated by the issuance of SFAS No. 137, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities - Deferral of the Effective Date of SFAS No. 133" and SFAS No. 138 "Accounting for Certain Derivative Instruments and Certain Hedging Activities - amendment of FASB Statement No. 133." As amended, SFAS 133 establishes accounting and reporting standards for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts (collectively referred to as derivatives), and for hedging activities.

The Company adopted the provisions of SFAS 133, as amended by SFAS 137 and SFAS 138, on April 1, 2001, which requires that all derivative instruments be recorded on the balance sheet at fair value. The estimated fair value of derivative financial instruments represents the amount required to enter into similar offsetting contracts with similar remaining maturities based on quoted market prices.

The Company utilizes interest rate swaps to manage its interest rate exposure. The swaps effectively convert a portion of the Company's floating rate debt to a fixed rate, more closely matching the interest rate characteristics of the Company's finance receivables. When entering into contracts intended by the Company to receive hedge accounting treatment, the Company formally designates and documents the financial instrument as a hedge of a specific underlying exposure, as well as the risk management objectives and strategies for undertaking the hedge transaction.

The Company has entered into the following cash-flow hedges:

Date Entered	Notional Amount	Fixed Rate Of Interest	Maturity Date
May 11, 1999	$10,000,000	5.81%	May 24, 2002
August 19, 1999	10,000,000	5.80%	August 1, 2003
May 17, 2000	10,000,000	6.87%	May 17, 2004
March 30, 2001	10,000,000	4.89%	March 30, 2003
October 5, 2001	10,000,000	3.85%	October 5, 2004
June 28, 2002	10,000,000	3.83%	July 2, 2005

The Company utilizes the above noted interest rate swaps to manage its interest rate exposure. The swaps effectively convert a portion of the Company's floating rate debt to a fixed rate, more closely matching the interest rate characteristics of the Company's finance receivables.

The Company has also entered into various interest rate option agreements with maturities through May 17, 2004.

For cash-flow hedge transactions, changes in the fair value of the derivative instrument are recorded as a component of other comprehensive income, and reclassified into earnings in the same period or periods during which earnings are affected by the variability of the cash flows of the hedged item. Any ineffective portion of a derivative instrument's change in fair value is immediately recognized in earnings.

Critical Accounting Policy

The Company's critical accounting policy relates to the allowance for losses on loans. It is based on management's opinion of an amount that is adequate to absorb losses in the existing portfolio. The allowance for credit losses is established through a provision for loss based on management's evaluation of the risk inherent in the loan portfolio, the composition of the portfolio, specific impaired loans and current economic conditions. Such evaluation, which includes a review of all loans on which full collectibility may not be reasonably assured, considers among other matters, the estimated net realizable value or the fair value of the underlying collateral, economic conditions, historical loan loss experience, management's estimate of probable credit losses and other factors that warrant recognition in providing for an adequate credit loss allowance.

Consolidated net income increased for the three month period ended June 30, 2002 to $1,013,165 from $881,013 for the three month period ended June 30, 2001. Earnings were favorably impacted by an increase in the outstanding loan portfolio. The Company's NDS subsidiary did not contribute significantly to consolidated operations in the three month periods ended June 30, 2002 or 2001.

Three months ended June 30, 2002 compared to three months ended June 30, 2001

Interest Income and Loan Portfolio

Interest revenue increased 15% to $5.2 million for the period ended June 30, 2002, from $4.5 million for the period ended June 30, 2001. The net finance receivable balance totaled $78.4 million at June 30, 2002, an increase of 17% from the $67.1 million at June 30, 2001. The primary reason net finance receivables increased was the increase in the receivable base of several existing branches. The gross finance receivable balance increased 17% to $124.6 million at June 30, 2002 from $106.7 million at June 30, 2001. The primary reason interest revenue increased was the increase in the outstanding loan portfolio. The gross portfolio yield decreased from 22.49% for the period ended June 30, 2001 to 22.32% for the period ended June 30, 2002.

Computer Software Business

Sales for the period ended June 30, 2002 were $82,376 compared to $99,120 for the period ended June 30, 2001, a decrease of 17%. This decrease was primarily due to lower revenue from the existing customer base and the continued emphasis on the finance subsidiary.

Operating Expenses

Operating expenses, excluding provision for credit losses and interest expense, increased to $2.2 million for the period ended June 30, 2002 from $1.9 million for the period ended June 30, 2001. This increase of 17% was primarily attributable to the additional staffing of several existing branches, increased general operating expenses and the opening of 3 additional branch offices.

Interest Expense

Interest expense decreased to $964,063 for the period ended June 30, 2002 as compared to $995,832 for the period ended June 30, 2001. This decrease was due to a reduction in the average cost of outstanding borrowings from 7.98% during the three months ended June 30, 2001 to 6.94% during the three months ended June 30, 2002.

Analysis of Credit Losses

Because of the nature of the borrowers under the Contracts and its direct consumer loan program, the Company considers the establishment of adequate reserves for credit losses to be imperative. The Company segregates its Contracts into pools for purposes of establishing reserves for losses. Each such pool consists of the loans purchased by a Company branch office during a three month period. The average pool consists of 73 Contracts with an aggregate initial principal amount of approximately $596,563. As of June 30, 2002, the Company had 379 active pools.

The Company pools Contracts according to branch location because the branches purchase contracts in different markets located in Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Ohio. All Contracts purchased by a branch during a fiscal quarter comprise a pool. This method of pooling by branch and quarter allows the Company to evaluate the different markets where the branches operate. The pools also allow the Company to evaluate the different levels of customer income, stability, credit history, and the types of vehicles purchased in each market.

A pool retains an amount equal to 100% of the discount into a reserve for credit losses. In situations where, at the date of purchase, the discount is determined to be insufficient to absorb all potential losses associated with the pool, a portion of future unearned income associated with that specific pool will be added to the reserves for credit losses until total reserves have reached the appropriate level. Subsequent to the purchase, if the reserve for credit losses is determined to be inadequate for a pool which is not fully liquidated, then a charge to income is used to reestablish adequate reserves. If a pool is fully liquidated and has any remaining reserves, the excess reserves are accreted into income.

In analyzing a pool, the Company considers the performance of prior pools originated by the branch office, the performance of prior Contracts purchased from the dealers whose Contracts are included in the current pool, the credit rating of the borrowers under the Contracts in the pool, and current market and economic conditions. Each pool is analyzed monthly to determine if the loss reserves are adequate, and adjustments are made if they are determined to be necessary. As of June 30, 2002, the Company had established reserves for losses on Contracts of $16,139,139 or 13.48% of gross outstanding receivables under the Contracts.

The provision for credit losses was $547,066 for the three month period ended June 30, 2002 as compared to $352,649 for the three month period ended June 30, 2001. The Company decreased its total reserve percentage from 13.81% for the period ended June 30, 2001 to 13.48% for the period ended June 30, 2002. Management believes that the reserve adjustments made during the three month period ended June 30, 2002 are consistent with its reserve methodology.

Income Taxes

The Company's effective tax rate remained relatively consistent at 37.27% for the three months ended June 30, 2002, as compared to 37.90% for the three months ended June 30, 2001.

15

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's cash flows for the three months ended June 30, 2002 and June 30, 2001 are summarized as follows:

	Three months ended June 30, 2002	Three months ended June 30, 2001
Cash provided by (used in):
Operating Activities -	$ 1,686,634	$ 1,565,405
Investing Activities - (primarily purchase of Contracts)	(2,930,792)	(2,463,127)
Financing Activities	1,896,906	881,560
Net increase (decrease) in cash	652,748	(16,162)

The Company's primary use of working capital during the three months ended June 30, 2002 was the funding of the purchase of Contracts. The Contracts were financed substantially through borrowings on the Company's Line of Credit. The Line of Credit is secured primarily by Contracts, and available borrowings are based on a percentage of qualifying Contracts. As of June 30, 2002 the Company had approximately $19.9 million available under the Line of Credit. Since inception, the Company has also funded a portion of its working capital needs through cash flows from operating activities.

The self-liquidating nature of installment Contracts and other loans enables the Company to assume a higher debt-to-equity ratio than in most businesses. The amount of debt the Company incurs from time to time under these financing mechanisms depends on the Company's need for cash and it's ability to borrow under the terms of its Line of Credit. The Company believes that borrowings available under the Line of Credit as well as cash flow from operations and, if necessary, the issuance of additional subordinated debt and, or the sale of additional securities in the capital markets, will be sufficient to meet its short term funding needs.

The Company renewed its credit facility on June 28, 2002. The new loan agreement expires November 30, 2004 and bears interest at the prime rate and offers several LIBOR pricing options. The new loan agreement released Bank One as a secondary bank and added First Tennessee Bank. The Company is pleased with its new banking relationship and believes it will be beneficial for future expansion.

Future Expansion

The Company currently operates twenty-four branch locations, fifteen in the State of Florida, three in the State of Georgia, three in the State of North Carolina, one in the state of South Carolina and two in the state of Ohio. Each office is budgeted (size of branch, number of employees and location) to handle up to 1,000 accounts and up to $7,500,000 in outstanding receivables. To date three of our branches have reached this capacity.

The Company intends to continue its expansion through the purchase of additional Contracts and the expansion of its direct consumer loan program. As the branches continue to add customers, the size of the loan portfolio will continue to grow. With the added volume in each branch and as the company adds new branches, it will be necessary for the Company to increase the size of its Line of Credit.

The Company currently intends to continue its expansion through the purchase of additional Contracts and the expansion of its direct consumer loan program. In order to increase the size of the Company's portfolio of Contracts, it will be necessary for the Company to open additional branch offices and increase the size of its revolving Line of Credit arrangement, either with its current lender or another lender. The Company, from time to time, has and will meet with private investors and financial institutions that specialize in investing in subordinated debt. The Company also intends to continue its policy of not paying dividends and using earnings from operations to purchase Contracts or make direct consumer loans. The Company believes that opportunity for growth continues to exist in Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Ohio and intends to continue its expansion activities in those states. The Company is currently expanding its automobile financing program in the State of Ohio. The Company has targeted certain geographic locations within the State of Ohio where it believes there is a sufficient market for its automobile financing program. The Company is currently purchasing Contracts in the State of Ohio utilizing employees who reside in the State of Ohio. These employees are developing their respective markets in Ohio and the Company has created a Central Buying Office in its Corporate Headquarters to purchase, process and service these Contracts. The Company's strategy is to monitor these new markets and ultimately decide where and when to open actual branch locations. No assurances can be given, however, that any further such expansion will occur. The Company is also analyzing other markets in States the Company does not currently operate in, however no assurance can be given that any expansion will occur in these new markets.

Forward-Looking Information

This 10-QSB contains various forward-looking statements and information that are based on management's beliefs and assumptions, as well as information currently available to management. When used in this document, the words "anticipate", "estimate", "expect", and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Although the Company believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, it can give no assurance that such expectations will prove to be correct. On August 9, 2001, the Company issued 111,111 shares of its Common Stock to the Mahan Family Trust (the "Family Trust") pursuant to the Family Trust's exercise of its conversion right under a Convertible Promissory Note, dated November 30, 1992 (the "Family Trust Note"), issued by the Company in favor of the Family Trust. The aggregate principal amount of the Family Trust Note was $500,000 and the maturity date was November 30, 2001, subject to certain prepayment rights granted to the Company thereunder. Pursuant to such rights, the Company gave notice on July 10, 2001 that it intended to prepay the Family Trust Note in full. Under the terms of the Family Trust Note, this notification entitled the Family Trust to convert the note into shares of Common Stock, at a conversion price of $4.50 per share. As result of such conversion, the Family Trust Note was cancelled. The issuance of shares of the Company's Common Stock pursuant to this transaction is claimed to be exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to Section 4(2) thereof.
