Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On August 24, 2012, Craig J. Hart, Senior Vice President, Controller and Chief Accounting Officer of Tyson Foods, Inc. (the "Company"), announced his resignation from his current position with the Company effective immediately. Mr. Hart presently intends to remain with the Company in another position until at least December 31, 2012.

Also on August 24, 2012, the Company appointed Curt T. Calaway to the position of Senior Vice President, Controller and Chief Accounting Officer. Mr. Calaway, age 38, joined the Company in 2006 and has served as Vice President – Audit & Compliance since 2008. Prior to his current position, Mr. Calaway served as the Company's senior director of financial reporting.

In connection with his appointment, Mr. Calaway will be entitled to receive an annual base salary of not less than $275,000 and will be eligible to participate in the Company's annual performance incentive plan and supplemental executive retirement plan. In addition, Mr. Calaway is entitled to receive, on such dates specified by the Company consistent with the Company's past practice, an annual grant of 21,200 options to purchase shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock. Mr. Calaway also received a restricted stock grant valued at $165,000 in connection with his appointment that will vest three years from the date of the grant.

There is no family relationship between Mr. Calaway and any director or other officer of the Company, nor is there any arrangement between Mr. Calaway and any other person(s) pursuant to which he was selected to serve as the Company's Senior Vice President, Controller and Chief Accounting Officer. Mr. Calaway is not a party to any related party transactions required to be reported pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.
