EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Amendment No. 1 to the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the Year ended December 31, 2009 (the “Original Filing”) is being filed in order to file one exhibit thereto which was inadvertently not filed and to amend and restate Item 11 so as to include in the Summary Compensation Table and the description of the Money Purchase Plan information as to the compensation of Erwin Cheldin who retired from being the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer effective April 1, 2009. This Amendment No. 1 to the Original Filing does not reflect events occurring after the filing of the Original Filing or modify or update those disclosures affected by subsequent events. Except as described above, no other modifications or changes have been made to the Original Filing or the exhibits filed therewith.

Employment Agreements

The Company has employment agreements with Cary L. Cheldin, Lester A. Aaron and Terry L. Kinigstein.

Cary L. Cheldin - On March 17, 2008, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Cary L. Cheldin that became effective on December 15, 2007, with a term ending December 31, 2012. The employment agreement of Cary L. Cheldin was amended effective April 1, 2009, to indicate the change in his offices and responsibility and to extend the end of the term of the agreement from December 31, 2012 to December 31, 2013. On March 24, 2010 the employment agreement was amended again to extend the end of the term of the Agreement from December 31, 2013 to December 31, 2014. This agreement is terminable by the Company or Mr. Cheldin at any time upon written notice. Mr. Cheldin's agreement provides for, among other things:

- A minimum annual base salary of $297,400 which was increased by the March 24, 2010 amendment to no less than $315,000 as a result of the changes in his offices and responsibilities. The annual base salary is subject to increase from time to time at the discretion of the Board of Directors.
- An annual bonus provided that the Company's consolidated net income (prior to deductions for income taxes and current bonuses paid to all executive officers of the Company, including Mr. Cheldin, but after deducting discretionary bonuses paid to all employees) for the most recent four fiscal quarters ending prior to such payment date is equal to or greater than $4 million. The amount of the bonus is determined by the Board of Directors, in its discretion, but it is not to be less than $54,000, less any amounts paid as a discretionary bonus since the immediately preceding January. The agreement does not prevent the Board of Directors from electing, in its discretion, to grant a discretionary bonus in the event the net income goal of $4 million is not met.
- Mr. Cheldin is entitled to employment benefits, including holidays, personal leave, sick leave, vacation, health insurance, disability insurance, life insurance, and pension plans as provided by the Company's policies in effect from time to time. The disability insurance is required to be in an amount sufficient to provide compensation to Mr. Cheldin, if disabled, equal to 70% of the compensation that Mr. Cheldin would be entitled to under the agreement. Benefits cannot be reduced from those provided to Mr. Cheldin as of December 15, 2007. If the agreement is terminated by the Company for cause or by Mr. Cheldin for other than a breach by the Company, payments of base salary, bonus, and benefits shall cease. Mr. Cheldin is entitled only to payments of accrued but unpaid salary and vacation for periods or partial periods that occurred prior to the date of termination. Cause, as defined in the agreement, includes chronic alcohol or drug addiction by Mr. Cheldin, fraud or unlawful appropriation of any money or other assets or properties of the Company by Mr. Cheldin, a material breach by Mr. Cheldin of the terms of his employment agreement which is not cured within ten (10) days after the Company has given Mr. Cheldin written notice describing such material breach, the conviction of Mr. Cheldin of any felony involving moral turpitude or any other serious crime involving moral turpitude, Mr. Cheldin's gross moral turpitude relevant to his office or employment with the Company, and Mr. Cheldin's willful engagement in misconduct which is demonstrably and materially injurious to the Company.
- If the agreement is terminated by the Company without cause or by Mr. Cheldin on account of a breach of the agreement by the Company, Mr. Cheldin is entitled to (a) immediate payment in full of his salary for the remainder of the term of the agreement, without discount or mitigation, (b) his bonus for the remainder of the term of the agreement (without giving effect to the termination), and (c) his benefits for the remainder of the term of the agreement (without giving effect to the termination).
- The Company has the option to terminate the agreement if Mr. Cheldin becomes permanently disabled and is no longer able to perform the essential functions of his position with reasonable accommodation, provided that the Company has provided the required disability insurance benefit as part of his benefits. The agreement terminates on the death of Mr. Cheldin, which is not considered a termination by the Company without cause.

Lester A. Aaron - On March 17, 2008, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Lester A. Aaron that became effective on December 15, 2007 with a term ending December 31, 2010. The employment agreement of Lester A. Aaron was amended effective April 1, 2009, to extend the end of the term of the Agreement from December 31, 2010 to December 31, 2011 and on March 24, 2010, it was amended again to extend the end of the term of the Agreement from December 31, 2011 to December 31, 2012. This agreement is terminable by the Company or Mr. Aaron at any time upon written notice. Mr. Aaron's agreement provides for, among other things:

- A minimum base salary of $199,500 which was increased by the March 24, 2010 amendment to no less than $237,000. The annual base salary is subject to increase from time to time at the discretion of the Board of Directors.
  - An annual bonus provided that the Company's consolidated net income (prior to deductions for income taxes and current bonuses paid to all executive officers of the Company, including Mr. Aaron, but after deducting discretionary bonuses paid to all employees) for the most recent four fiscal quarters ending prior to such payment date is equal to or greater than $4 million. The amount of the bonus is determined by the Board of Directors, in its discretion, but it is not to be less than $49,500, less any amounts paid as a discretionary bonus since the immediately preceding January. The agreement does not prevent the Board of Directors from electing, in its discretion, to grant a discretionary bonus in the event the net income goal of $4 million is not met.
- Mr. Aaron is entitled to employment benefits, including holidays, personal leave, sick leave, vacation, health insurance, disability insurance, life insurance, and pension plans as provided by the Company's policies in effect from time to time. The disability insurance is required to be in an amount sufficient to provide compensation to Mr. Aaron, if disabled, equal to 70% of the compensation that Mr. Aaron would be entitled to under the agreement. Benefits cannot be reduced from those provided to Mr. Aaron as of December 15, 2007. If the agreement is terminated by the Company for cause or by Mr. Aaron for other than a breach by the Company, payments of base salary, bonus, and benefits shall cease. Mr. Aaron is entitled only to payments of accrued but unpaid salary and vacation for periods or partial periods that occurred prior to the date of termination. Cause, as defined in the agreement, includes chronic alcohol or drug addiction by Mr. Aaron, fraud or unlawful appropriation of any money or other assets or properties of the Company by Mr. Aaron, a material breach by Mr. Aaron of the terms of his employment agreement which is not cured within ten (10) days after the Company has given Mr. Aaron written notice describing such material breach, the conviction of Mr. Aaron of any felony involving moral turpitude or any other serious crime involving moral turpitude, Mr. Aaron's gross moral turpitude relevant to his office or employment with the Company, and Mr. Aaron's willful engagement in misconduct which is demonstrably and materially injurious to the Company.
- If the agreement is terminated by the Company without cause or by Mr. Aaron on account of a breach of the agreement by the Company, Mr. Aaron is entitled to (a) immediate payment in full of his salary for the remainder of the term of the agreement, without discount or mitigation, (b) his bonus for the remainder of the term of the agreement (without giving effect to the termination), and (c) his benefits for the remainder of the term of the agreement (without giving effect to the termination).
- The Company has the option to terminate the agreement if Mr. Aaron becomes permanently disabled and is no longer able to perform the essential functions of his position with reasonable accommodation, provided that the Company has provided the required disability insurance benefit as part of his benefits. The agreement terminates on the death of Mr. Aaron, which is not considered a termination by the Company without cause.

Terry L. Kinigstein - On April 1, 2009, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Terry L. Kinigstein that became effective on April 1, 2009 with a term ending December 31, 2011. On March 24, 2010, it was amended to extend the end of the term of the Agreement from December 31, 2011 to December 31, 2012. This agreement is terminable by the Company or Mr. Kinigstein at any time upon written notice. Mr. Kinigstein's agreement provides for, among other things:

- A minimum annual base salary of no less than $195,800 which was increased by the March 24, 2010 amendment to no less than $198,300. The annual base salary is subject to increase from time to time at the discretion of the Board of Directors.
- An annual bonus provided that the Company's consolidated net income (prior to deductions for income taxes and current bonuses paid to all executive officers of the Company, including Mr. Kinigstein, but after deducting discretionary bonuses paid to all employees) for the most recent four fiscal quarters ending prior to such payment date is equal to or greater than $4 million. The amount of the bonus is determined by the Board of Directors, in its discretion, but it is not to be less than $15,000, less any amounts paid as a discretionary bonus since the immediately preceding January. The agreement does not prevent the Board of Directors from electing, in its discretion, to grant a discretionary bonus in the event the net income goal of $4 million is not met.
- Mr. Kinigstein is entitled to employment benefits, including holidays, personal leave, sick leave, vacation, health insurance, disability insurance, life insurance, and pension plans as provided by the Company's policies in effect from time to time. The disability insurance is required to be in an amount sufficient to provide compensation to Mr. Kinigstein, if disabled, equal to 70% of the compensation that Mr. Kinigstein would be entitled to under the agreement. Benefits cannot be reduced from those provided to Mr. Kinigstein as of April 1, 2009. If the agreement is terminated by the Company for cause or by Mr. Kinigstein for other than a breach by the Company, payments of base salary, bonus, and benefits shall cease. Mr. Kinigstein is entitled only to payments of accrued but unpaid salary and vacation for periods or partial periods that occurred prior to the date of termination. Cause, as defined in the agreement, includes chronic alcohol or drug addiction by Mr. Kinigstein, fraud or unlawful appropriation of any money or other assets or properties of the Company by Mr. Kinigstein, a material breach by Mr. Kinigstein of the terms of his employment agreement which is not cured within ten (10) days after the Company has given Mr. Kinigstein written notice describing such material breach, the conviction of Mr. Kinigstein of any felony involving moral turpitude or any other serious crime involving moral turpitude, Mr. Kinigstein's gross moral turpitude relevant to his office or employment with the Company, and Mr. Kinigstein's willful engagement in misconduct which is demonstrably and materially injurious to the Company.
- If the agreement is terminated by the Company without cause or by Mr. Kinigstein on account of a breach of the agreement by the Company, Mr. Kinigstein is entitled to (a) immediate payment in full of his salary for the remainder of the term of the agreement, without discount or mitigation, (b) his bonus for the remainder of the term of the agreement (without giving effect to the termination), and (c) his benefits for the remainder of the term of the agreement (without giving effect to the termination).
- The Company has the option to terminate the agreement if Mr. Kinigstein becomes permanently disabled and is no longer able to perform the essential functions of his position with reasonable accommodation, provided that the Company has provided the required disability insurance benefit as part of his benefits. The agreement terminates on the death of Mr. Kinigstein, which is not considered a termination by the Company without cause.

Option/SAR Grants and Stock Awards in Last Fiscal Year

No stock options, stock appreciation rights or stock awards were granted to any named executive officer during the year ended December 31, 2009.

Options/SAR Exercises and Stock Awards Vesting in Last Fiscal Year and Unexercised Options/SAR and Stock Awards at Fiscal Year End

No stock options or stock appreciation rights were exercised by, nor any stock award vested in favor of, any named executive officer during the year ended December 31, 2009; and no options, stock appreciation rights or stock awards were held by any named executive officer at December 31, 2009.

Omnibus Stock Plan

The Company's 1999 Omnibus Stock Plan (the "1999 Plan") that covered 500,000 shares of the Company's common stock (subject to adjustment in the case of stock splits, reverse stock splits, stock dividends, etc.) was adopted by the Board of Directors in March 1999 and approved by shareholders on June 4, 1999. The 1999 Plan terminated by its terms on March 15, 2009. As of that date, the only securities outstanding under the 1999 Plan were employee stock options covering an aggregate of 124,650 shares of common stock, all of which were fully exercisable. The termination of the 1999 Plan did not effect any of the outstanding stock options, all of which continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms. None of the outstanding options are held by a named executive officer. The 1999 Plan is administered by the Board of Directors or a committee authorized by the Board of Directors, consisting of at least two directors each of whom is not an officer or employee of the Company and meeting the qualifications set forth in Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Presently, the 1999 Plan is being administered by the Board of Directors.

All outstanding options under the 1999 Plan will terminate upon consummation of (a) a dissolution of the Company or (b) in case no provision has been made for the survival, substitution, exchange, or other settlement of any outstanding option, stock appreciation rights and/or unvested stock issuances, a merger or consolidation of the Company with another corporation in which the shareholders of the Company immediately prior to the merger will own less than a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the surviving corporation after the merger, or a sale of all or substantially all of the assets and business of the Company to another corporation.

Equity Compensation Plan Information

The following table shows the total number of outstanding options and shares available for other future issuance of options under the Company's equity compensation plans as of December 31, 2009.

Plan Category	Number of securities to be issued upon exercise of outstanding options, warrants, and rights (a)	Weighted-average exercise price of outstanding options, warrants and rights (b)	Number of securities remaining available for future issuance under equity compensation plans (excluding securities reflected in column (a)) (c)
Equity compensation plans approved by security holders:
1999 Omnibus Stock Plan (1)	64,650	$ 3.11	0

Equity compensation plans not approved by security holders:	0	0.00	0
Total	64,650	$ 3.11	0

(1) The 1999 Omnibus Stock Plan terminated by its terms on March 15, 2009. The termination of the 1999 Omnibus Stock Plan did not effect any of the outstanding stock options granted pursuant to the 1999 Omnibus Stock Plan, all of which continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

Retirement Plans

Profit Sharing Plan

During the fiscal year ended March 31, 1986, the Company adopted the Unico American Corporation Profit Sharing Plan. Company employees who are at least 21 years of age and have been employed by the Company for at least two years are participants in such Plan. Pursuant to the terms of such Plan, the Company annually contributes for the account of each participant an amount equal to a percentage of the participant's eligible compensation as determined by the Board of Directors. Participants must be employed by the Company on the last day of the plan year to be eligible for contribution. Participants are entitled to receive distribution of benefits under the Plan upon retirement, termination of employment, death, or disability.

Money Purchase Plan

During the year ended December 31, 1999, the Company adopted the Unico American Corporation Money Purchase Plan. As of the plan year ended March 31, 2009, Messrs. Cary L. Cheldin, Erwin, Chledin and Lester A. Aaron were the only remaining active plan participants. Mr. Erwin Cheldin ceased being a participant and Mr. Terry L. Kinigstein became a participant in the plan in the plan year beginning April 1, 2009. Pursuant to the terms of such Plan, the Company annually contributes to the account of each participant an amount equal to a percentage of the participant's eligible compensation as determined by the Board of Directors. However, amounts contributed to the Unico American Corporation Profit Sharing Plan will be considered first in determining the actual amount available under the Internal Revenue Service maximum contribution limits. Participants must be employed by the Company on the last day of the plan year to be eligible for contribution. Participants are entitled to receive distribution of benefits under the Plan upon retirement, termination of employment, death, or disability.

Director Compensation

The compensation of the Company's non-employee directors paid by the Company for the last completed fiscal year is as follows:

Name	Fees Earned or Paid in
	Cash $	Total $
David A. Lewis, CPCU	9,000	9,000
Warren D. Orloff	9,000	9,000
Donald B. Urfrig	9,000	9,000
George C. Gilpatrick	9,000	9,000
Erwin Cheldin (1)	6,000	6,000
Jon P. Kocourek (2)	6,000	6,000

(1) Mr. Erwin Cheldin retired from being the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer and an employee of the Company effective April 1, 2009.

(2) Mr. Kocourek resigned as a Director of the Company effective October 8, 2009.
