By order of the Board of Directors,

*Chairman of the Board,
President and Chief Executive Officer*

Santa Ana, California
October 15, 2002

ALL STOCKHOLDERS ARE URGED TO ATTEND THE MEETING IN PERSON OR BY PROXY. WHETHER OR NOT YOU EXPECT TO BE PRESENT AT THE MEETING, PLEASE COMPLETE, SIGN AND DATE THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD AND RETURN IT PROMPTLY IN THE ENCLOSED POSTAGE PAID ENVELOPE FURNISHED FOR THAT PURPOSE .

PROXY STATEMENT

The accompanying proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of Corinthian Colleges, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company or Corinthian), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held at 10:00 a.m., California time, on November 21, 2002, at the DoubleTree Club Hotel, California Ballroom, 7 Hutton Centre Drive, Santa Ana, California 92707, and any adjournments thereof. This Proxy Statement and accompanying form of proxy were first sent to stockholders on or about October 15, 2002.

All share numbers and share prices provided in this Proxy Statement have been adjusted to reflect the two-for-one stock splits of the shares of the Company's common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the Common Stock), effected in the form of stock dividends in December 2000 and May 2002.

Record Date and Outstanding Shares

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on October 1, 2002 as the record date (the Record Date) for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting and any adjournments thereof. As of the Record Date, Corinthian had outstanding 43,184,606 shares of Common Stock. Each of the outstanding shares of Common Stock is entitled to one vote on all matters to come before the Annual Meeting.

Voting of Proxies

Dennis N. Beal and Dennis L. Devereux, the persons named as proxies on the proxy card accompanying this Proxy Statement, were selected by the Board of Directors to serve in such capacity. Messrs. Beal and Devereux are both executive officers of Corinthian. Each executed and returned proxy will be voted in accordance with the directions indicated thereon, or if no direction is indicated, such proxy will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors contained in this Proxy Statement. Each stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before the shares it represents are voted. Revocation of a proxy is effective upon receipt by the Secretary of Corinthian of either (i) an instrument revoking the proxy or (ii) a duly executed proxy bearing a later date. Additionally, a stockholder may change or revoke a previously executed proxy by voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

Required Vote

Directors. A plurality of the shares of Common Stock voted in person or by proxy is required to elect the nominees for directors. A plurality means that the two nominees receiving the largest number of votes cast will be elected. Stockholders will not be allowed to cumulate their votes in the election of directors.

Ratification of Auditors. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Common Stock represented in person or by proxy is required to ratify the appointment by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Ernst & Young LLP as Corinthian's independent auditors. A properly executed proxy marked Abstain with respect to the proposal to ratify Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditor will not be voted, although it will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present. Accordingly, an abstention will have the same effect as a vote against this proposal.

Voting by Street Name Holders

If you are the beneficial owner of shares held in street name by a broker, the broker, as the record holder of the shares, is required to vote those shares in accordance with your instructions. If you do not give instructions to the broker, the broker will nevertheless be entitled to vote the shares with respect to discretionary items but will not be permitted to vote the shares with respect to non-discretionary items (in which case, the shares will be treated as broker non-votes).

Quorum and Broker Non-Votes

The required quorum for transaction of business at the Annual Meeting will be a majority of the shares entitled to vote that are issued and outstanding as of the Record Date. Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by the election inspectors appointed for the meeting and will determine whether or not a quorum is present. The election inspectors will treat broker non-votes as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. However, for purposes of determining the outcome of any matter as to which the broker has indicated that it does not have discretionary voting authority, those shares will be treated as not present and not entitled to vote with respect to that matter (even though those shares are considered entitled to vote for quorum purposes and may be entitled to vote on other matters).

Summary Annual Report to Stockholders

Corinthian's Form 10-K, which is incorporated into Corinthian's Annual Report to Stockholders for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002 and contains financial and other information pertaining to Corinthian, is being furnished to stockholders simultaneously with this Proxy Statement.

PROPOSAL 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Corinthian's Board of Directors currently consists of six directors. Article V of Corinthian's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides that the Board of Directors shall be classified with respect to the terms for which its members shall hold office by dividing the members into three classes. At the Annual Meeting, two Class I directors will be elected, each for a term of three years expiring at Corinthian's Annual Meeting of Stockholders in 2005. Both of the nominees, Loyal Wilson and Michael P. Berry, are presently serving as directors of Corinthian. The Board of Directors recommends that the stockholders vote in favor of the election of the nominees named in this Proxy Statement to serve as directors of Corinthian. See Nominees below. Michael P. Berry was appointed to the Board of Directors on August 26, 2002 to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Dr. Carol D. Amico in July 2001 following her confirmation by the United States Senate to be Assistant Secretary of Education. The four remaining directors whose terms of office do not expire in 2002 will continue to serve after the Annual Meeting until such time as their respective terms of office expire or their successors are duly elected and qualified. See Other Directors below. If at the time of the Annual Meeting any of the nominees should be unable or decline to serve, the persons named as proxies on the proxy card will vote for such substitute nominee or nominees as the Board of Directors recommends, or vote to allow the vacancy created thereby to remain open until filled by the Board of Directors, as the Board of Directors recommends. The Board of Directors has no reason to believe that any nominee will be unable or decline to serve as a director if elected.

Nominees

The names of the nominees for the office of director and certain information concerning such nominees are set forth below:

He received a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from the University of North Carolina and a Masters in Business Administration from Indiana University.

Michael P. Berry, age 54, was appointed to the Board of Directors on August 26, 2002 to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Dr. Carol D. Amico. At such time, Mr. Berry was also appointed to both the Board's Audit and Compensation Committees. Mr. Berry currently serves as the President and Chief Operating Officer of the restaurant division of The Cheesecake Factory Incorporated. Prior to joining The Cheesecake Factory in May 2002, Mr. Berry served as President of Barnes and Noble Booksellers from February 2001 to May 2002. Previously, Mr. Berry was Senior Vice President of Operations for The Disneyland Resort and Downtown Disney from January 1998 to February 2001 and Vice President of Food Operations and Concept Development from April 1996 to January 1998. Before joining Disney, Mr. Berry held senior positions at Harvard University, the University of California at Irvine and the University of California at Los Angeles. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR ALL OF THE NOMINEES FOR ELECTION AS CLASS I DIRECTORS.

Director Compensation

Each non-employee director is paid an annual fee of $18,000 for his or her services as a director, $1,000 for each Board of Directors meeting attended and $500 for each Board Committee meeting attended. All non-employee directors are reimbursed for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in attending Board of Directors meetings and Committee meetings.

Also, upon first being appointed or elected to the Board of Directors, each non-employee director has received, and each new non-employee director will receive in the future, a stock option grant to purchase 12,000 shares of Common Stock at the then-current market price. These stock options vest at the rate of 50% on each of the first and second anniversaries of the grant date.

In addition, immediately following each annual meeting of stockholders, each director automatically receives a stock option grant to purchase 10,000 shares of Common Stock. Each of these options are granted at the then-current market price and all such options become 100% vested on the first anniversary of the grant date.

Attendance At Meetings

The Board of Directors met in person or conducted telephonic meetings a total of 10 times during fiscal year 2002. During that same period, the Board has acted 11 times by unanimous written consent. Each director has attended at least 75% of all Board meetings and applicable Committee meetings held during the period for which such person has been a director.

Committees of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has established an Audit Committee and a Compensation Committee, each comprised entirely of directors who are not officers of Corinthian. The Board of Directors has no nominating committee; selection of nominees for the Board is made by the entire Board of Directors.

The Audit Committee is currently comprised of Mr. Wilson, Mr. Massimino, Ms. Skladany and Mr. Berry. Prior to July 27, 2001, the members of the Audit Committee were Mr. Wilson, Mr. Massimino and Dr. Carol D'Amico. On July 27, 2001, Dr. D'Amico resigned from our Board of Directors to accept a position as Assistant Secretary of Adult and Vocational Education for the United States Department of Education. On August 28, 2001, Ms. Skladany was appointed to replace Dr. D'Amico as a member of the Audit Committee. On August 26, 2002, Mr. Berry became a member of the Board of Directors and was simultaneously appointed to the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by our Board of Directors, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix A. The Audit Committee is responsible for reviewing the internal accounting procedures of the Company and the results and scope of the audit and other services provided by the Company's independent auditors, consulting with the Company's independent auditors and retaining the Company's independent auditors. The Audit Committee met four times during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002. Each person who was a member of the Audit Committee at relevant times attended all such meetings.

The Compensation Committee is currently comprised of Mr. Wilson, Mr. Massimino, Ms. Skladany and Mr. Berry. Prior to Mr. Berry's appointment to the Compensation Committee on August 26, 2002, the members of the Audit Committee were Mr. Wilson, Mr. Massimino and Ms. Skladany. The Compensation Committee has the authority to supervise all matters related to the compensation of executive officers of the Company, including determining policies and practices, changes in compensation and benefits for management, determination of employee benefits and all other matters relating to employee compensation, including matters relating to the administration of the Company's 1998 Performance Award Plan, as amended. Additionally, the Compensation Committee has authority to administer the Company's Employee Stock Purchase Plan. The Compensation Committee met twice during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002. Each person who was a member of the Compensation Committee at relevant times attended all such meetings.

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires Corinthian's officers (as defined under Section 16), directors and persons who beneficially own greater than 10% of a registered class of Corinthian's equity securities to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). Based solely on a review of the forms it has received, Corinthian believes that during fiscal 2002 all Section 16 filing requirements applicable to its officers, directors and 10% beneficial owners were complied with by such persons, except that the Company filed a Form 3, Initial Statement of Beneficial Ownership, on behalf of Bruce Deyong, President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company's Corinthian Schools, Inc. subsidiary, more than the required 10 days after Mr. Deyong was appointed to such position.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The Compensation Committee members are Loyal Wilson, Jack D. Massimino, Michael P. Berry and Linda Arey Skladany. For the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002, the Company's Compensation Committee consisted of Mr. Wilson, Mr. Massimino and Ms. Skladany. None of such persons is or has ever been an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is comprised entirely of non-employee directors and establishes Corinthian's compensation strategy and policies and determines the nature and amount of all compensation for Corinthian's executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers. The objectives of the Board of Directors in determining the levels and components of executive compensation are to (i) attract, motivate and retain talented and dedicated executive officers, (ii) provide executive officers with both cash and equity incentives to further the interests of Corinthian and its stockholders, and (iii) compensate executive officers at levels comparable to those of executive officers at other comparable companies.

Generally, the compensation of all executive officers is composed of:

a base salary,

perquisites,

bonuses, and

periodic stock options.

The Compensation Committee believes that these components offer the executive officers competitive compensation, while aligning their interests with those of the Company's stockholders. Through the use of stock options and annual bonuses, the executive officers are individually rewarded for their improvement of the Company's performance.

Base Salaries. In determining the base salaries of the Named Executive Officers in fiscal 2002, the Board of Directors considered the performance of each executive in past years, the nature of the executive's responsibilities, the salary levels of executives at comparable publicly held companies and Corinthian's general compensation practices.

In the beginning of fiscal 2002, the Compensation Committee directed management to commission a report from a professional, independent executive compensation consulting firm regarding the level of executive compensation for companies in the same or similar industries, of approximately the same size, and in the same or similar geographic regions. Based on the data compiled by such consulting firm, and taking into account the superior operational performance and stock price appreciation of the Company over the past three years, the Compensation Committee granted increases in the base salaries of each of the Named Executive Officers for fiscal 2002 to the amounts reflected in the table entitled Executive Compensation and Other Information.

Bonuses. Discretionary bonuses for each Named Executive Officer are directly tied to achievement of specified goals by the Company and such executive and are a function of criteria which the Compensation Committee believes appropriately takes into account the specific areas of responsibility of the particular officer. Discretionary bonuses are paid as a percentage of the officer's base salary. The performance objectives in fiscal 2002 were based primarily on revenue and net income growth for fiscal 2002, compared to the prior year, and other individual criteria. All such bonus criteria were established at a time when the Company's actual performance in relation to the target remained uncertain (as defined in Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code). The Compensation Committee may in the future impose, in its discretion, additional conditions or terms for the payment of bonuses, including the creation of other financial, strategic or individual goals.

During fiscal 2002, the Company's revenues and net income increased 38.5% and 51.4%, respectively, and significantly exceeded the thresholds previously set by the Compensation Committee for the payment of full targeted bonuses to the Named Executive Officers. Based on a formula established by the Committee at the start of the fiscal year, and taking into account the achievement of specific operational objectives for certain of the Named Executive Officers, the Compensation Committee awarded the Named Executive Officers between approximately 120% and 122% of each such executive's targeted bonus for fiscal 2002.

Stock Options. Periodically, the Compensation Committee has, and expects in the future to, grant stock options to executive officers and other key employees in order to provide a long-term incentive. The value of such stock options is directly tied to the performance of the Company's Common Stock. These options provide an incentive to maximize stockholder value because they reward option holders only if stockholders also benefit. The exercise price of these stock options is the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant. In general, the options vest in equal annual installments over a four-year period beginning one year after the date of grant. Vesting periods are used to retain key employees and to emphasize the long-term aspect of contribution and performance. In making stock option grants to executives and other key employees, the Compensation Committee considers a number of factors, including the performance of such persons, achievement of specific delineated goals, the responsibilities and the relative position of such persons within Corinthian, review of compensation of executives and key employees in comparable companies and review of the number of stock options each such person currently possesses.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. At the start of fiscal 2002, Mr. Moore's annual base salary was increased to $375,000 per year. Mr. Moore was also granted 150,000 stock options during the fiscal year (after giving effect to the Company's May 2002 two-for-one stock split). Mr. Moore's salary increase and option grant during fiscal 2002 were based, in part, upon the Committee's review of data compiled by a professional, independent executive compensation consulting firm, which compared overall compensation for chief executive officers of companies in the same or similar industries, of approximately the same size, and in the same or similar geographic regions. In addition, the Compensation Committee also considered the Company's superior financial and stock price performance over the past several years and Mr. Moore's contribution to the Company's success. Mr. Moore's bonus was determined in the same manner as that of the other Named Executive Officers. The Compensation Committee believes Mr. Moore's overall compensation package was generally competitive for fiscal 2002 with the salaries of chief executive officers of companies of our size, structure and complexity.

Compliance with Section 162(m). The Compensation Committee currently intends for all base salary and bonus compensation paid to the Named Executive Officers to be tax deductible to Corinthian pursuant to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Section 162(m) provides that compensation paid to the Named Executive Officers in excess of $1,000,000 cannot be deducted by Corinthian for federal income tax purposes unless, in general, such compensation is objective, performance based, and established by a committee of independent directors, and the plan or agreement providing for such performance based compensation has been approved in advance by stockholders.

The Compensation Committee believes that the executive compensation policies described in this report are in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. The various compensation mechanisms maintain an appropriate balance between motivating the achievement of short-term goals and strategically incentivizing long-term success. The Compensation Committee will continue to monitor the overall effectiveness of the compensation program to ensure that it will continue to successfully meet our needs.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is comprised entirely of non-employee directors, each of whom are independent directors for the purposes of the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD) listing standards and Section 301 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee, a copy of which is included as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement. Prior to July 27, 2001, the Audit Committee was comprised of Loyal Wilson, Jack D. Massimino and Dr. Carol D. Amico. On July 27, 2001, Dr. D. Amico resigned from the Board to accept a position as Assistant Secretary of Adult and Vocational Education for the Department of Education. On August 28, 2001, the Board appointed Linda Skladany to the Audit Committee. On August 26, 2002, Michael P. Berry became a member of the Board and was simultaneously appointed to the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee held four meetings during fiscal year 2002. In January 2002, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Board appoint Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent accountants, replacing Arthur Andersen LLP, which change became effective in February 2002.

The Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and establishing and reviewing the financial reporting process. The Company's independent accountants are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and to issue a report thereon. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

During the 2002 fiscal year, the Audit Committee met and held discussions with management and the Company's independent accountants, Ernst & Young LLP (and prior to February 2002, Arthur Andersen LLP). Management represented to the Audit Committee that the Company's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally acceptable accounting principles and the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002 with management and Ernst & Young LLP.

The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002 with the Company's management, and has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards Board Standard No. 61, as amended Communication with Audit Committees. Ernst & Young LLP also provided to the Audit Committee the written disclosure required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 Independence Discussions with Audit Committees. The Committee discussed with Ernst & Young LLP that firm's independence and has determined that the non-audit services provided by that firm are compatible with maintaining its independence.

Based on the Audit Committee reviews and discussions with management and Ernst & Young LLP, the Audit Committee recommended that the Board of Directors include the audited consolidated financial statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for filing with the SEC for the year ended June 30, 2002.

FEES PAID TO INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees billed for professional services rendered by Ernst & Young LLP for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002, and the reviews of the financial statements included in the Company's Form 10-Qs for such fiscal year were approximately $150,000. For the period prior to February 2002, Arthur Andersen LLP billed the Company approximately $16,000 for similar services.

Financial Information Systems Design And Implementation Fees

No fees were billed for professional services rendered by Ernst & Young LLP or Arthur Andersen LLP for financial systems design and implementation services for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002.

All Other Fees

The aggregate fees for professional services rendered by Ernst & Young LLP and Arthur Andersen LLP, other than the services referred to above, were approximately $22,000 and $82,000, respectively, for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002. Such amounts related primarily to tax compliance services. The Audit Committee has determined that the provision of these services is compatible with maintaining the independence of such firms.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

The Company has employment agreements (the "Employment Agreements") with each of the Named Executive Officers. The initial term of each of the Employment Agreements is two years, which is automatically extended for an additional year on the first anniversary date of the agreement and each subsequent anniversary date, unless either the Company or such executive gives a termination notice to the other party at least one year prior to the expiration date of the then-current term. The maximum term of the Employment Agreements is five years.

The Employment Agreements provide for the payment of an annual base salary of not less than $375,000 for Mr. Moore, $310,000 for Mr. St. Pierre, $250,000 for Mr. Devereux, $225,000 for Mr. Beal and $225,000 for Ms. Wilson. The amount of these base salaries will be reviewed annually by the Compensation Committee and may be increased above such levels. The Named Executive Officers are also entitled to participate in and be covered by all bonus, incentive, health insurance, 401K and other plans and benefits currently established for the employees of the Company. In addition, the Employment Agreements provide the Named Executive Officers with vacation benefits of no less than three weeks per year and reimbursement of all business expenses. If the Company terminates a Named Executive Officer's employment without cause (as defined in the Employment Agreements), or if a Named Executive Officer terminates his employment under certain circumstances set forth in the Employment Agreements, then such person is entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to, in the case of Mr. Beal and Ms. Wilson, the value of such person's annual base salary and average annual bonus for the previous two fiscal years, and, in the case of Messrs. Moore, St. Pierre and Devereux, two times the value of such person's annual base salary and average annual bonus for the previous two fiscal years.

In the event of a change in control of the Company (as defined in the Employment Agreements), each Named Executive Officer would be entitled to receive a payment equal to two times the value of such executive's base salary and average annual bonus for the two most recent fiscal years. In the cases of Mr. Beal and Ms. Wilson, if such payment results in the imposition of excise taxes under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), then such executive's payment will either be (a) the full payment amount, or (b) such lesser amount that would result in no portion of the payment being subject to such excise tax, whichever of the foregoing amounts results in the receipt by such executive, on an after-tax basis, of the greatest amount of such payment. In the cases of Messrs. Moore, St. Pierre and Devereux, if such payment results in the imposition of excise taxes under Section 4999 of the Code, such executive is entitled to receive an additional payment so that, after payment by such executive of all applicable excise taxes, such person retains an amount equal to the amount he would have retained had no excise tax been imposed.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The Company has no reportable certain relationships or related transactions.

PROPOSAL 2

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has appointed Ernst & Young LLP, independent certified public accountants, as auditors of Corinthian's financial statements for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003. Ernst & Young LLP has acted as auditors for Corinthian since February 2002. The Audit Committee has determined to afford stockholders the opportunity to express their opinions on the matter of auditors, and, accordingly, is submitting to the stockholders at the Annual Meeting a proposal to ratify the Audit Committee's appointment of Ernst & Young LLP. If a majority of the shares voted at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, are not voted in favor of the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP, the Audit Committee will interpret this as an instruction to seek other auditors. It is expected that representatives of Ernst & Young LLP will be present at the meeting and will be available to respond to appropriate questions. They will be given an opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF ERNST & YOUNG LLP AS THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS OF CORINTHIAN'S FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2003.

MISCELLANEOUS AND OTHER MATTERS SOLICITATION

The cost of this proxy solicitation will be borne by Corinthian. Corinthian may request banks, brokers, fiduciaries, custodians, nominees and certain other record holders to send proxies, proxy statements and other materials to their principals at Corinthian's expense. Such banks, brokers, fiduciaries, custodians, nominees and other record holders will be reimbursed by Corinthian for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of solicitation. Corinthian does not anticipate that costs and expenses incurred in connection with this proxy solicitation will exceed an amount normally expended for a proxy solicitation for an election of directors in the absence of a contest.

PROPOSALS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Stockholder proposals intended to be considered at Corinthian's 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders must be received by the Secretary of Corinthian at its principal executive offices no later than June 17, 2003 in order to be considered for inclusion in Corinthian's Proxy Statement and form of proxy relating to that meeting. If a stockholder notifies Corinthian of such stockholder's intent to present a proposal for consideration at Corinthian's 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders after August 31, 2003, Corinthian, acting through the persons named as proxies in the proxy materials for such meeting, may exercise discretionary voting authority with respect to such proposal without including information regarding such proposal in its proxy materials.

OTHER BUSINESS

The Board of Directors is not aware of any other matters to be presented at the Annual Meeting other than those mentioned in Corinthian's Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders enclosed herewith. If any other matters are properly brought before the Annual Meeting, however, it is intended that the persons named in the proxy will vote as the Board of Directors directs.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Included herewith is a copy of Corinthian's Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended June 30, 2002, as filed with the Commission.
