Dear Fellow Blockbuster Stockholder:

Gregory S. Meyer, CFA ("Meyer", "we" or the "Proponent") is the beneficial owner of 620,000 shares of Class A common stock and 25,000 shares of Class B common stock of Blockbuster Inc. ("Blockbuster" or the "Company"), representing approximately 0.44% of the outstanding shares of Class A common stock of the Company. For the reasons set forth in the attached Proxy Statement, we believe that the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") has not acted in the best interests of its stockholders. Specifically, we believe the Board lacks sufficient expertise and alignment of interests with shareholders which has led to a significant loss of shareholder value over the past several years.

Mr. Meyer initially identified two sitting Blockbuster directors whose value to the Company was unclear, James W. Crystal and Gary J. Fernandes. In his initial proxy statement, Mr. Meyer opposed Mr. Crystal for a litany of reasons including low share ownership, lack of relevant industry experience, overboarding, and a questionable related party transaction. On May 21, 2010, the Company announced that Mr. Crystal would no longer stand for re-election at the annual meeting of stockholders (the "Annual Meeting"). Accordingly, Mr. Meyer has updated his proxy materials to oppose Gary J. Fernandes for the reasons discussed in this proxy statement.

We believe the overall strength of the Board would be improved with the addition of Gregory S. Meyer, CFA. We are therefore seeking your support at the Annual Meeting scheduled to be held on June 24, 2010 at 10:00 a.m. Central Standard Time and at any adjournments, postponements or continuations thereof at 1201 Elm Street, 21st Floor, Dallas, Texas 75270 for the following:

1. To elect Gregory S. Meyer, CFA to the Company's Board of Directors instead of Gary J. Fernandes and to elect six other nominees for a one-year term ending in 2011;

2. To approve the following advisory (non-binding) resolution:

RESOLVED, that the stockholders hereby ratify the compensation of the named executive officers set forth in the Summary Compensation Table and the accompanying narrative disclosure in this proxy statement of material factors provided to understand the Summary Compensation Table (but excluding the Compensation Discussion & Analysis).

3. To ratify the appointment of PriceWaterhouseCoopers LLP to serve as independent accountants for fiscal 2010;

4. To approve an amendment to Blockbuster's second amended and restated certificate of incorporation, as amended (the "Current Charter"), to (a) effect the conversion of each outstanding share of Class B common stock into one share of Class A common stock, (b) rename the Class A common stock as "common stock," and (c) eliminate provisions relating to the Class B common stock and Blockbuster's dual class common stock structure (collectively, the "Conversion Amendment"); and

5. To approve an amendment to the Current Charter to effect a reverse stock split of Blockbuster's issued and outstanding common stock, if the Conversion Amendment is approved, or Blockbuster's issued and outstanding Class A common stock and Class B common stock, if the Conversion Amendment is not approved, with the stock split occurring at an exchange ratio that will be within a range of 1-for-15 and 1-for-25 and that will be determined by Blockbuster's Board of Directors; and

6. To consider such other matters, if any, as may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

We are not seeking control of the Board. Rather, we are seeking one (1) out of seven (7) seats on the Board to ensure that the interests of the stockholders, the true owners of the Company, are vigorously represented in the boardroom by truly qualified and independent representatives. Through the attached Proxy Statement, we are soliciting proxies to elect not only Gregory S. Meyer, CFA as a director, but also the candidates who have been nominated by the Company other than Gary J. Fernandes. This gives stockholders the ability to vote for the total number of directors up for election at the Annual Meeting. The names, backgrounds and qualifications of the Company's nominees, and other information about them, can be found in the Company's proxy statement. There is no assurance that any of the Company's nominees will serve as directors if our nominee is elected.

We urge you to carefully consider the information contained in the attached Proxy Statement and then to support our efforts by signing, dating and returning the enclosed GOLD proxy card today.

If you have already voted a proxy card furnished by the Company's management, you have every right to change your vote by signing, dating and returning a later dated proxy.

GREGORY S. MEYER, CFA

Gregory S. Meyer, CFA ("Meyer", "we" or the "Proponent") is a stockholder of Blockbuster Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Blockbuster" or the "Company"). We believe that the Board of Directors of the Company ("the Board") has not acted in the best interests of its stockholders. We believe the overall strength of the Board would be improved by the addition to the Board of Gregory S. Meyer, CFA. 5. To approve an amendment to the Current Charter to effect a reverse stock split of Blockbuster's issued and outstanding common stock, if the Conversion Amendment is approved, or Blockbuster's issued and outstanding Class A common stock and Class B common stock, if the Conversion Amendment is not approved, with the stock split occurring at an exchange ratio that will be within a range of 1-for-15 and 1-for-25 and that will be determined by Blockbuster's Board of Directors; and
6. To consider such other matters, if any, as may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

This Proxy Statement is soliciting proxies to elect not only Mr. Meyer, but also the candidates who have been nominated by the Company other than Gary J. Fernandes. This gives stockholders who wish to vote for Mr. Meyer the ability to vote for seven (7) nominees in total.

As of May 25, 2010, the approximate date on which this Proxy Statement and the enclosed GOLD proxy card are first being distributed to stockholders, Mr. Meyer is the beneficial owner of 620,000 shares of Class A common stock and 25,000 shares of Class B common stock of Blockbuster Inc. ("Blockbuster" or the "Company"), representing approximately 0.44% of the issued and outstanding shares of Class A common stock of the Company.

REASONS FOR THE SOLICITATION

We are concerned about the future of Blockbuster and the ability of the incumbent Board to stabilize the Company, position it for future growth, and increase shareholder value. We believe the incumbent Board has presided over a massive destruction of shareholder value that should not go unrecognized. In particular, we remain concerned with the misalignment of the current Board's interests with those of the Company's shareholders and the lack of certain core competencies and relevant experience on the Board to today's rapidly evolving home entertainment industry. We believe that the election of a truly independent director with a fresh perspective and highly relevant industry experience will significantly enhance the prospects for the Company's stockholders to regain lost stockholder value and create future gains.

Lack of Alignment of Current Board with Shareholders

Mr. Meyer owns more shares of Blockbuster than any non-management director and more shares than any executive of the Company with the exception of CEO and Chairman Jim Keyes. Further, in contrast to Mr. Meyer, who purchased all of the shares he owns in the open market with his own money, the incumbent non-management directors have a shockingly low share ownership, even though each director has been awarded thousands of shares each year he/she has served on the Board. In our opinion, the current directors' economic incentives are not aligned with those of the Company's shareholders.

Mr. Meyer is the beneficial owner of 620,000 shares of the Company's Class A common stock and 25,000 shares of the Company's Class B commons stock. Mr. Meyer invested in Blockbuster because of its historically dominant market share position, strong brand awareness, and a belief that the multi-channel distribution strategy advocated by Blockbuster CEO and Chairman Jim Keyes had the potential to be successful if executed properly. We believe the CEO should be supported by a well-informed and strategically minded Board that understands the rapidly evolving home entertainment industry. Mr. Meyer intends to work constructively with current management by providing important strategic insight, guidance, support and monitoring in a manner only one with a significant stake and relevant industry know-how can provide. We believe Blockbuster shareholders and management deserve a better, more effective Board.

Mr. Meyer initially identified two sitting Blockbuster directors whose value to the Company was unclear, James W. Crystal and Gary J. Fernandes. In his initial proxy statement, Mr. Meyer opposed Mr. Crystal for a litany of reasons including low share ownership, lack of relevant industry experience, overboarding, and a questionable related party transaction. On May 21, 2010, the Company announced that Mr. Crystal would not stand for re-election at the annual shareholders meeting. Accordingly, Mr. Meyer has updated his proxy materials to oppose Gary J. Fernandes.

A Discussion of Gary J. Fernandes, the director Mr. Meyer seeks to replace

As discussed in more detail below, we believe that Gary J. Fernandes has had over five years to prove his value as a director of Blockbuster and has failed to demonstrate his ability to serve the shareholders.

Relevant Experience

It is not clear which part of Mr. Fernandes' background provides direct relevance to Blockbuster. He appears to have no significant experience in the video rental industry, nor in the broader home entertainment industry. The Company's 2010 proxy statement states "Mr. Fernandes brings technology expertise to the Board through his executive management experience at several technology-based companies, including EDS." We question whether one's executive management experience from over 12 years ago at a firm like EDS is specifically relevant to the rapidly evolving field of Home Entertainment.

More to the point, it is difficult to see what good Mr. Fernandes' 'technology expertise' has done for Blockbuster shareholders over the past five years given that during this time Blockbuster has lost significant market share to companies that outmaneuvered it using innovative technologies such as DVD rental kiosks and streaming video, resulting in a significant loss of shareholder value. By contrast, as discussed in further detail below, Mr. Meyer has spent the last eight years in the fastest growing segment of the video rental industry and was one of the pioneers in the DVD rental kiosk space which comprises one of Blockbuster's key future distribution channels as it diversifies away from brick-and-mortar stores.

Track Record

Mr. Fernandes is the longest serving member of the Blockbuster Board, having presided over more destruction in shareholder value than any other current director. Mr. Fernandes was appointed as a director in December 2004 when the price of the Company's Class A common stock was over $9 per share. As of this writing, the stock trades at $.35 per share, representing a loss of over 95% of its value. That is not an impressive track record of value creation by any standard. By contrast, one of Blockbuster's competitors, Netflix, was trading around $12 per share at the time Mr. Fernandes joined the Blockbuster Board and trades today at over $100 per share, representing a gain of over 800% during the time that Blockbuster lost 95% of its value. Mr. Meyer believes this startling disparity of outcomes is a result of cumulative poor decisions made on behalf of the Blockbuster Board, largely due to a lack of aligned interests with the shareholders. Netflix used a solid core of technology and innovative business practices to create value for its shareholders during this time. If Mr. Fernandes truly possessed the 'technology expertise' that is claimed in Blockbuster's proxy statement, one wonders how he could have presided over such an extreme disparity in outcomes.

Alignment of Interests/Share Ownership

While Mr. Fernandes should be applauded for agreeing to forego the cash compensation portion of his director fees in lieu of equity grants in the current year, this gesture is too little, too late. Mr. Fernandes has already received hundreds of thousands of dollars of cash compensation in director's fees since first being appointed to Board. And despite being granted shares each year since being appointed as a director in December 2004, Mr. Fernandes still owns significantly fewer shares than Mr. Meyer, who, like other stockholders, paid for all of his shares out of his own pocket.

Is Mr. Fernandes Too Close to Blockbuster CEO Jim Keyes?

Mr. Fernandes served on the Board of 7-Eleven, Inc. during the entire time that Jim Keyes was CEO of that company from 2000 to 2005. Mr. Fernandes was a member of Blockbuster's Nominating Committee during the CEO search that resulted in Mr. Keyes being appointed CEO of Blockbuster in 2007. In total, Mr. Fernandes has served as a Board member of a company led by Jim Keyes for eight of the last ten years. Most recently, Mr. Fernandes was Chair of Blockbuster's Compensation Committee which, according to the Company's 2010 proxy statement, awarded Mr. Keyes 80% of his 2009 target bonus despite financial results for the Company which substantially missed guidance and a stock price that was down nearly 50% for the year.

Shareholder Lawsuits at 7-Eleven: Alleged Breach of Fiduciary Duty to Shareholders

Mr. Keyes was CEO and Mr. Fernandes was a board member of 7-Eleven, Inc. when that company was sold to 7-Eleven Japan in a 2005 going-private transaction that generated numerous lawsuits in which both Mr. Keyes and Mr. Fernandes were named defendants including:

- Kaufman v. Suzuki et al., No. 05-09450-C (68th District Court, Dallas County).
- Casden v. 7-Eleven, Inc., et al., No. 05-08944-M (298th District Court, Dallas County).
- Green Meadows Partners L.P. v. Devening, et al., No. 05-11507-A (County Court at Law No. 1, Dallas County).
- Siebels et al. v. Suzuki et al., No. 05-09600-G (134th District Court, Dallas County).
- Gillespie v. Suzuki et al., No. 05-11878-C (County Court at Law No. 3, Dallas County).

According to a Schedule 14D9 filed with the SEC by 7-Eleven, Inc. in September 2005, "the Petitions initiating the lawsuits generally allege, among other things, that the defendants have breached fiduciary duties owed to the Company's shareholders other than Parent and Purchaser in connection with the Offer, that the Offer Price is inadequate and that a majority of the defendants have conflicts of interest with respect to the Offer."

According to the complaint of John Gillespie, a shareholder of 7-Eleven Inc., (No. CC - 05 - 11878 - C), the plaintiff by his attorneys alleged the following:

- "This is a stockholder derivative action on behalf of 7-Eleven Inc. ("7-Eleven" or the "Company") against its entire Board of Directors and certain top officers for breach of fiduciary duty arising out of defendants' efforts to complete a majority shareholder and management-led buyout, via a Tender Offer, of 7-Eleven at a grossly inadequate and unfair price (the "Proposed Acquisition") and their efforts to provide certain insiders and directors with preferential treatment at the expense of, and which is unfair to, the public shareholders.

- In pursuing the unlawful plan to cash out 7-Eleven's public stockholders for grossly inadequate consideration, each of the defendants violated applicable law by directly breaching and/or aiding the other defendants' breaches of their fiduciary duties of loyalty, due care, independence, good faith and fair dealing.

- In fact, instead of attempting to obtain the highest price reasonably available for 7-Eleven for the Company and its shareholders, the Individual Defendants spent a substantial effort tailoring the structural terms of the Acquisition to meet the specific needs of Seven-Eleven Japan Co., Ltd. (“Seven-Eleven Japan”), the Company’s majority shareholder.

- In essence, the Proposed Acquisition is essentially a fait accompli to strip the minority shareholders of their 7-Eleven shares on terms preferential to Seven-Eleven Japan and certain of the Individual Defendants. By abusing their power as directors, officers and majority shareholders, the defendants are attempting to strategically subvert the interests of plaintiff on behalf of the Company and the other public stockholders of 7-Eleven. Plaintiff, on behalf of the Company, seeks to enjoin the Proposed Acquisition.”

This history raises the question: How are stockholder interests best represented by Mr. Keyes and Mr. Fernandes serving on the Board of Blockbuster together?

Judgment: The Circuit City Offer

Stockholders should also remember that Mr. Fernandes was a sitting Blockbuster director when the Company announced on April 14, 2008 that it had offered to acquire (now-defunct) Circuit City for between $6.00 and $8.00 per share in cash, subject to due diligence. The offer was made in a letter sent to Circuit City CEO Philip Schoonover on February 17, 2008 on behalf of the Blockbuster Board of Directors, which stated that it fully supported the offer. The Board should have been focusing on the core business of Blockbuster rather than speculating on the acquisition of other struggling retailers. We believe it was this lack of focus and poor judgment at the Board level that contributed to the rapid loss of market share and the declining stock price of Blockbuster over the past several years.

Related Party Transactions: Fernandes Holds Interest in Real Estate that Leases Buildings to Blockbuster

Per Blockbuster’s proxy statement, Mr. Fernandes holds a general partner interest and a limited partner interest in two real estate limited partnerships that each lease one retail building to Blockbuster. Despite the closing of thousands of Blockbuster brick-and-mortar locations over the past several years, the locations owned by the partnerships affiliated with Mr. Fernandes have remained open. According to the Company’s proxy statement, because the transactions between Blockbuster and the limited partnerships were at arm’s length, Mr. Fernandes had no direct involvement with any such transactions, and the transactions in question involved only two of Blockbuster’s thousands of domestic leases, the Board determined that Mr. Fernandes’ independence is not impaired under applicable NYSE standards and that he satisfies the heightened standards of independence applicable to audit committee members under Rule 10A-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act and compensation committee members under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act and Section 162(m) of the Code.

Mr. Meyer will act with uncompromised independence and a total commitment to stockholder interests.

A Comparison of the Nominee Candidates: Meyer vs. Fernandes

	Gregory S. Meyer, CFA	Gary J. Fernandes
Direct Experience in Home Entertainment Industry	YES	NO
Accredited Financial Expertise	YES	NO
Substantial Shares Purchased with his own money	YES	NO
Brings Fresh Perspective to Board	YES	NO
Director since BBI was trading at over $9 per share	NO	YES
Owns real estate that leases space to Blockbuster	NO	YES
Served on a Board with Jim Keyes prior to Blockbuster	NO	YES

Which Candidate will provide more value to the Company?

We question whether Mr. Fernandes is the right nominee for the Company and whether he has added value and will add value to the Company when compared to Mr. Meyer who has significantly greater share ownership, all paid for out of his own pocket, and more relevant industry experience. We believe Mr. Meyer will bring much needed insight, accountability and a fresh and relevant perspective to the Board that is desperately needed at the present time.

Mr. Meyer will serve you, the stockholders and true owners of Blockbuster and will bring expertise and a fresh perspective to Blockbuster.

Mr. Meyer, if elected, will comprise a minority of the Board and will be wholly independent, with no vested interest in any single strategic direction, other than taking the steps necessary to enhance stockholder value and capitalize on the opportunities available to the Company.

BLOCKBUSTER STOCKHOLDERS HAVE AN ALTERNATIVE: MR. MEYER IS A HIGHLY QUALIFIED & INDEPENDENT DIRECTOR CANDIDATE

Mr. Meyer is a candidate who is committed to taking the necessary steps to enhance stockholder value. Mr. Meyer has the necessary experience and skill set to execute on this commitment, both operationally and strategically. Mr. Meyer is independent of management and the current Board and is committed to selecting and executing the right plans, operationally and strategically, for the optimization of value for all Blockbuster stockholders and the realization of a share price worthy of Blockbuster's intrinsic value.

The following are highlights of the relevant operational and strategic experience of Mr. Meyer:

Direct Relevant Industry Expertise

Mr. Meyer spent the last eight years of his career in the highest growth segment of the video rental industry. He founded, built, successfully operated, and sold one of the leading companies in the DVD rental kiosk space. Mr. Meyer has developed a broad and deep understanding of all aspects of the home entertainment retail marketplace and is very familiar with brick-and-mortar, by-mail, kiosk-based, and online distribution strategies for home entertainment products. Mr. Meyer will bring a fresh perspective and clearly complimentary business experience to the Board of Blockbuster if elected.

Mr. Meyer founded DVDXpress in 2001, a pioneer in the DVD rental kiosk industry and as CEO built that company to 1,000 locations in 30 US States and the UK. Mr. Meyer sold DVDXpress to Coinstar Inc. in 2007 and served as Managing Director responsible for the DVDXpress division within Coinstar from 2007 to 2009 when it was merged with Redbox. The combined DVD kiosk division within Coinstar now comprises over 23,000 kiosks accounting for over 18% of the US DVD rental market and responsible for the majority of Coinstar's revenue and EBITDA.

Financial Expertise

Mr. Meyer's prior experience includes the founding of an Internet-based trading platform for fixed-income securities, and acting as vice president in the Fixed Income Division of a bulge bracket Wall Street firm. We believe this experience in the bond market is highly relevant to understanding the various debt restructuring options that Blockbuster is considering at the moment. Mr. Meyer is particularly concerned that Blockbuster selects the optimal restructuring option, if one is indeed required, that results in the lowest possible dilution, if any, of shareholders.

Mr. Meyer also holds the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation- a qualification for finance and investment professionals, particularly in the fields of investment management and financial analysis of stocks, bonds and their derivative assets. The program focuses on portfolio management and financial analysis, and provides a generalist knowledge of other areas of finance. In addition to being considered one of the most rigorous financial accreditation programs, the CFA program contains a significant focus on ethics and includes a review of corporate governance best practices. No current or nominated Blockbuster director holds the CFA designation nor anything equivalent.

Mr. Meyer is also a member of the New York Society of Security Analysts (NYSSA), a leading forum for the investment community since 1937. NYSSA was founded by a group of professionals that included Benjamin Graham, the "father of securities analysis" and one of the most influential men in the history of finance.

Mr. Meyer serves on the Board of Advisors of Value Movies, a 501(c)3 organization that encourages children ages 8-17 to regularly view movies with positive messages and uplifting inspirational lessons that build character and foster a sense of ethics.

Mr. Meyer received a BA degree, summa cum laude, in Economics and French from Dartmouth College and an MBA with a concentration in finance/accounting from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth.

BACKGROUND DESCRIPTION OF CONTACTS BETWEEN MR. MEYER AND BLOCKBUSTER INC.

The following is a description of Mr. Meyer's contacts with Blockbuster Inc through April 30, 2010.

On February 18, 2010 Mr. Meyer sent a letter via Federal Express to both members of the Company's Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee, Ms. Jackie Clegg and Mr. Edward Bleier, formally requesting consideration for a seat on the Board. Delivery of these letters was confirmed by Federal Express. The letters contained a summary of Mr. Meyer's professional qualifications, a description of the reasons Mr. Meyer felt he could contribute constructively to the Board, and a request for a timely reply. Mr. Meyer did not receive any direct reply to either of these two letters.

On February 25, 2010, after not receiving a response to the letters sent to Ms. Clegg or Mr. Bleier of the Company's Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee, Mr. Meyer sent via Federal Express a timely notice to Mr. Rod McDonald, Vice President, Secretary & General Counsel of Blockbuster, nominating himself for election to the Board in compliance with the notice procedures provided for in Section 2.10 of the Company's Bylaws.

On March 1, 2010 Mr. Meyer sent via Federal Express a letter to Blockbuster Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer Mr. Jim Keyes to inform him of the letters he had sent to both members of the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee and the Company's Secretary & General Counsel over the preceding weeks, and included copies of all letters sent to such individuals. Mr. Meyer also informed Mr. Keyes that he had sent a letter to Mr. Carl Icahn, a former director, on February 22, 2010 requesting his support of Mr. Meyer's efforts to join the board. Mr. Meyer provided a description of why he felt it was in the Company's best interests to have him serve on the board, stated his desire to work in a positive and constructive manner with Mr. Keyes, and asked for Mr. Keyes' support in this regard.

On March 9, 2010 Mr. McDonald sent an email to Mr. Meyer in which he acknowledged receipt of Mr. Meyer's February 25, 2010 nomination notice and asked to facilitate a telephone call between Mr. Keyes and Mr. Meyer for later that week. In response, Mr. Meyer scheduled a call with Mr. Keyes for March 11, 2010 and also sent proof of his stock ownership to Mr. McDonald per his request.

On March 11, 2010, Mr. Meyer spoke with Mr. Keyes via telephone regarding his interest in joining the Board. During their conversation, Mr. Keyes and Mr. Meyer discussed issues related to Mr. Meyer's interest in a nomination to the Board, including his opinions on the Company's recent and historical performance, and the performance and abilities of the Board and Company management. Mr. Meyer expressed his intention to work in a positive and constructive manner with Mr. Keyes and his team to address the challenges currently faced by Blockbuster and to position the Company for a successful future. Mr. Keyes agreed to coordinate a telephone call between Mr. Meyer and Mr. Bleier, the current Chair of the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee (who replaced Ms. Clegg following her resignation from the Board on March 5, 2010), regarding Mr. Meyer's interest in joining the Board.

On March 18, 2010, Mr. Meyer spoke with Mr. Bleier by telephone about the Board nomination process and about Mr. Meyer's opinions and recommendations in support of his candidacy. Mr. Bleier stated that he had never received Mr. Meyer's original letter dated February 18, 2010 and did not have a copy of Mr. Meyer's curriculum vitae to review. Mr. Meyer subsequently emailed Mr. Bleier a copy of his curriculum vitae during the call for Mr. Bleier's review. During the approximately twenty minute telephone call, Mr. Meyer suggested an in-person meeting with Mr. Bleier to provide a more thorough overview of his qualifications, capabilities, and interest in serving on the Board. Mr. Bleier declined this offer.

On March 22, 2010, Mr. Keyes contacted Mr. Meyer by telephone and notified him that the Board had determined not to nominate Mr. Meyer for election at the annual meeting. Mr. Keyes informed Mr. Meyer that he did not know him well enough to be comfortable adding Mr. Meyer to 'his Board'. In response, Mr. Meyer offered to rectify this by flying to Dallas to meet with Mr. Keyes in person that week to discuss his candidacy and ideas in more detail. Mr. Keyes declined this offer. During the call, Mr. Keyes offered Mr. Meyer a consulting role at Blockbuster if Mr. Meyer would agree to drop his bid for a director's seat. In response, Mr. Meyer reiterated his belief that it was in the best interest of the Company and its stockholders for him to pursue a seat on the board, and he informed Mr. Keyes and Mr. McDonald, via email, that he intended to move forward with the pursuit of a Board seat as outlined in his February 25, 2010 notice. Mr. McDonald responded to Mr. Meyer's email the same day, notifying him that his notice, while timely, did not indicate whether he intended to solicit proxies from stockholders in support of his nomination. Mr. Meyer responded to Mr. McDonald's email on March 23, 2010 confirming his intention to deliver a proxy statement and form of proxy to stockholders with respect to his nomination.

On March 29, 2010, Mr. Meyer sent an email to Mr. Keyes requesting that he reconsider his decision not to add Mr. Meyer to the slate of director nominees in order to avoid the unnecessary cost and distraction of a prolonged proxy contest, and informing Mr. Keyes that should he not reverse his decision, Mr. Meyer intended to file preliminary proxy materials in support of his nomination on April 1, 2010. Mr. Meyer did not receive a response from Mr. Keyes to this email.

On March 31, 2010, Mr. McDonald sent an email to Mr. Meyer requesting that Mr. Meyer delay filing preliminary proxy materials to allow additional time for the Board to consider his request for nomination to the Board. Mr. Meyer agreed and also notified Mr. McDonald that he intended to submit a request to inspect stockholder information pursuant to Section 220 of the Delaware General Corporation Law ("DGCL 220"). On April 1, 2010, Mr. Meyer submitted his DGCL 220 request to Mr. McDonald.

On April 4, 2010, Mr. McDonald notified Mr. Meyer by email that the Board had determined to move forward with its original slate of director nominees for election at the Company's annual meeting and not nominate Mr. Meyer.

On April 6, 2010, Mr. Meyer sent an email to Mr. Keyes requesting the contact information for the Company's legal and financial advisors in order to discuss Mr. Meyer's ideas with respect to a potential time sensitive financial transaction which Mr. Meyer believed could save the Company hundreds of millions of dollars over the subsequent few years while conserving liquidity in the near term, without any dilution to Blockbuster stockholders. On April 7, 2010, Mr. McDonald sent an email to Mr. Meyer stating that Mr. Keyes had passed along his inquiry and, as such, Mr. McDonald wanted to set up a conference call between Mr. Meyer and the Company's financial advisor, Rothschild, and legal advisor, Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP. The call was arranged for the same day, prior to which Mr. Meyer sent the participants on the call, as well as Mr. Keyes and Mr. McDonald a summary confidential memo with respect to the proposed transaction.

On April 8, 2010, Mr. McDonald responded to Mr. Meyer's DGCL 220 request, informing him that the Company would produce the requested materials as of the record date for the annual meeting and requesting that he execute a confidentiality agreement prior to inspection of the materials. In response, on April 9, 2010, Mr. Meyer informed Mr. McDonald by email that he would contact Mr. McDonald to arrange a mutually agreeable date, time and place for inspection of the requested materials. On April 12, 2010, Mr. Meyer executed the requested confidentiality agreement and suggested April 15, 2010 as the date on which he would like to commence inspection of the materials.

On April 14, 2010, Mr. McDonald informed Mr. Meyer via email, and on a confidential basis, that the Company was considering moving the date of its annual meeting due to reasons wholly unrelated to the proxy contest with Mr. Meyer. Mr. McDonald suggested that the parties delay production and inspection of the requested materials until the Board had made a final determination in this regard. On April 15, 2010, Mr. McDonald informed Mr. Meyer that the Board had determined to delay the annual meeting and record dates, and the parties agreed to contact one another closer to the time of the new record date to set up a mutually agreeable time and place for Mr. Meyer's inspection of the DGCL 220 materials.

On April 28, 2010, Mr. Meyer sent an email to Mr. McDonald to schedule a date to commence inspection of the updated DGCL 220 materials. In response, Mr. McDonald indicated that he would contact Mr. Meyer when the Company received the updated stockholder lists. On May 11, 2010, a representative of Mr. Meyer retrieved the requested DGCL 220 materials.

On May 12, 2010, Mr. Meyer sent an email to Mr. Simeon Gold, the partner at Blockbuster's legal advisor Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, asking what the specific reasons were for deeming Mr. Meyer's proposed financial transaction from April 6, 2010 unworkable. As of May 24, 2010 Mr. Gold had not replied.

PROPOSAL NO. 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

We are seeking your support at the Annual Meeting to elect Gregory S. Meyer, CFA to the Board. The Board is currently composed of seven (7) directors and seven (7) directors are up for election at the Annual Meeting to serve one-year terms expiring at the 2011 annual meeting of stockholders and until their successors have been selected and qualified. We are seeking your support at the Annual Meeting to elect Mr. Meyer instead of Gary J. Fernandes. Your vote to elect Mr. Meyer will have the legal effect of replacing one (1) incumbent director of the Company with Mr. Meyer. If elected, Mr. Meyer will represent a minority of the members of the Board. We are not seeking control of the Board. Rather, we are seeking one (1) out of seven (7) seats on the Board to ensure that the interests of the stockholders, the true owners of the Company, are vigorously represented in the boardroom by truly independent representatives who understand the home entertainment retail and distribution business.

THE PROPONENT'S NOMINEE

We have nominated one (1) highly qualified nominee, who, if elected, will exercise his independent judgment in accordance with his fiduciary duties as a director in all matters that come before the Board. Mr. Meyer is independent of the Company in accordance with the SEC and New York Stock Exchange rules on board independence. If elected, and subject to his fiduciary duties as a director, Mr. Meyer would work constructively with the other members of the Board to take those steps deemed necessary or advisable to maximize value for all stockholders.

Set forth below is the name, age, citizenship, business address, present principal occupation and employment and material occupations, positions, offices or employments for the past fifteen years of Mr. Meyer. This information has been furnished by Mr. Meyer.

Gregory S. Meyer (Age 38): Mr. Meyer is currently an independent consultant to investors in public and private companies in the home entertainment industry with a focus on identifying and analyzing new and emerging channels of content distribution. Previously, Mr. Meyer founded DVDXpress in 2001, a pioneer in the DVD rental kiosk industry and as CEO built that company to 1,000 locations in 30 US States and the UK. Mr. Meyer sold DVDXpress to Coinstar Inc. in 2007 and served as Managing Director responsible for the DVDXpress division within Coinstar from 2007 to 2009 when it was merged with Redbox. The combined DVD kiosk division within Coinstar now comprises over 23,000 kiosks accounting for over 18% of the US DVD rental market and responsible for the majority of Coinstar's revenue and EBITDA.

Mr. Meyer's prior experience includes the founding of an Internet-based trading platform for fixed-income securities, and acting as vice president in the Fixed Income Division of a bulge bracket Wall Street firm. We believe this experience in the bond market is highly relevant to understanding the various debt restructuring options that Blockbuster is considering at the moment. Mr. Meyer is particularly concerned that Blockbuster elects the optimal restructuring option, if one is indeed required, that results in the lowest possible dilution, if any, of shareholders.

Mr. Meyer serves on the Board of Advisors of Value Movies, a 501(c)3 organization that encourages children ages 8-17 to regularly view movies with positive messages and uplifting inspirational lessons that build character and foster a sense of ethics. Mr. Meyer received a BA degree, summa cum laude, in Economics and French from Dartmouth College and an MBA with a concentration in finance/accounting from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth. Mr. Meyer holds the Certified Financial Analyst designation.

The principal business address of Mr. Meyer is 245 Eighth Avenue, Suite 108, New York, New York 10011. Mr. Meyer is not currently a party to any legal proceedings that are adverse to the Company or its subsidiaries. Mr. Meyer is a U.S. Citizen.

Mr. Meyer, if elected, intends to act in accordance with his fiduciary duty and recuse himself from voting should any conflict of interest arise in the future. Other than as stated herein, there are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Meyer and any other person or persons pursuant to which the nomination of Mr. Meyer described herein is to be made, other than the consent by Mr. Meyer to be named in this Proxy Statement and to serve as a director of the Company if elected as such at the Annual Meeting. Mr. Meyer is not a party adverse to the Company or any of its subsidiaries and does not have a material interest adverse to the Company or any of its subsidiaries in any material pending legal proceedings.

We do not expect that Mr. Meyer will be unable to stand for election, but, in the event that Mr. Meyer is unable to serve or, for good cause, will not serve, the Shares represented by the enclosed GOLD proxy card will be voted for a substitute nominee to the extent this is not prohibited under the Company's bylaws or applicable law and subject to any advance notice provisions which affect our ability to designate other nominees. In addition, we reserve the right to nominate substitute person(s) if the Company makes or announces any changes to the Company's bylaws or takes or announces any other action that has, or if consummated would have, the effect of disqualifying Mr. Meyer. In any such case, Shares represented by the enclosed GOLD proxy card will be voted for such substitute nominee(s) to the extent this is not prohibited under the Company's bylaws or applicable law. Subject to any advance notice provisions which affect our ability to designate other nominees, we reserve the right to nominate additional persons if the Company increases the size of the Board above its existing size. Additional nominations made pursuant to the preceding sentence are without prejudice to the position of the Proponent that any attempt to increase the size of the current Board or to classify the Board constitutes an improper manipulation of the Company's governance.

YOU ARE URGED TO VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF MR. MEYER ON THE ENCLOSED GOLD PROXY CARD.

APPROVAL OF AN AMENDMENT TO THE COMPANY'S CURRENT CHARTER TO EFFECT
THE REVERSE STOCK SPLIT

Please refer to the Company's 2010 Proxy Statement for a discussion of such proposal. We intend to vote, and recommend that you vote, FOR this proposal.

VOTING AND PROXY PROCEDURES

Blockbuster has two classes of common stock outstanding: (1) Class A common stock, which is entitled to one vote per share; and (2) Class B common stock, which is entitled to two votes per share. The holders of Class A common stock and Class B common stock will vote together as a single class on the matters to be considered at the annual meeting, and their votes will be counted and totaled together. The record date for determining the Class A common stockholders and Class B common stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting and any adjournment thereof was the close of business on April 28, 2010, at which time the Company had issued and outstanding 144,655,892 shares of Class A common stock and 72,000,000 shares of Class B common stock.

Stockholders who sell Shares before the Record Date (or acquire them without voting rights after the Record Date) may not vote such Shares. Stockholders of record on the Record Date will retain their voting rights in connection with the Annual Meeting even if they sell such Shares after the Record Date.

Shares represented by properly executed GOLD proxy cards will be voted at the Annual Meeting as marked and, in the absence of specific instructions, (i) will be voted FOR the election of Mr. Meyer to the Board and FOR the election of the candidates who have been nominated by the Company other than Gary J. Fernandes, (ii) will be voted FOR approval of the following advisory (non-binding) resolution: RESOLVED, that the stockholders hereby ratify the compensation of the named executive officers set forth in the Summary Compensation Table and the accompanying narrative disclosure in this proxy statement of material factors provided to understand the Summary Compensation Table (but excluding the Compensation Discussion & Analysis) (iii) will be voted FOR the proposal to ratify the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to serve as independent registered public accounting firm for the Company for fiscal 2010, (iv) will be voted FOR approval of an amendment to the Company's Current Charter to effect the conversion of the Class B Common Stock, (v) will be voted FOR approval of an amendment to the Company's Current Charter to effect the reverse stock split, and (vi) will be voted in the discretion of the persons named as proxies on all other matters as may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

This Proxy Statement is soliciting proxies to elect not only Mr. Meyer, but also the candidates who have been nominated by the Company other than Gary J. Fernandes. This gives stockholders who wish to vote for Mr. Meyer and such other persons the ability to do so. Under applicable proxy rules, we are required either to solicit proxies only for Mr. Meyer, which could result in limiting the ability of stockholders to fully exercise their voting rights with respect to the Company's nominees, or to solicit for Mr. Meyer and for fewer than all of the Company's nominees, which enables a stockholder who desires to vote for Mr. Meyer to also vote for those of the Company's nominees for whom we are soliciting proxies. The names, backgrounds and qualifications of the Company's nominees, and other information about them, can be found in the Company's proxy statement. There is no assurance that any of the Company's nominees will serve as directors if Mr. Meyer is elected.

QUORUM

In order to conduct any business at the Annual Meeting, a quorum must be present in person or represented by valid proxies. The presence in person or by proxy of the holders of a majority of the outstanding Shares entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum. Shares present which are properly withheld as to voting, and Shares present with respect to which a broker indicates that it does not have authority to vote ("broker non-votes"), will not be counted for any purpose other than determining the presence of a quorum at the Annual Meeting.

VOTES REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL

Vote required for the election of directors. According to the Company's proxy statement, the election of directors, because it is a contested election, will be determined by the plurality of the votes cast by the holders of Shares represented (in person or by proxy) and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting provided a quorum is present. Consequently, the seven nominees who receive the greatest number of votes cast will be elected as directors of the Company. Abstentions will not count either in favor of, or against, election of a nominee.

Vote required for the ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP. According to the Company's proxy statement, the vote required to approve the ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as its independent registered public accounting firm is the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Shares represented and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions from voting will have the same legal effect as voting against ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP.

Vote required for approval of the Proposal to combine Class A common stock and Class B common stock into a single class and to obtain approval to execute a reverse stock split. According to the Company's proxy statement, the vote required to approve the Proposal to combine Class A common stock and Class B common stock into a single class and to obtain approval to execute a reverse stock split is the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Shares represented and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions from voting will have the same legal effect as voting against the proposal to combine Class A common stock and Class B common stock into a single class and to obtain approval to execute a reverse stock split.

We believe that there are no dissenter's rights of appraisal on the matters to be voted on in this Proxy Statement.

DISCRETIONARY VOTING

If you hold your Shares in street name (that is, if you hold your Shares through a broker, bank or other holder of record), you may be able to vote by telephone or via the Internet. Please refer to the information on the voting instruction form forwarded to you by your bank, broker or other holder of record to see which voting options are available to you.

REVOCAION OF PROXIES

Stockholders of the Company may revoke their proxies at any time prior to exercise by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person (although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy) or by delivering a written notice of revocation. The delivery of a subsequently dated proxy which is properly completed will constitute a revocation of any earlier proxy. The revocation may be delivered either to Gregory S. Meyer, c/o InvestorCom, Inc. 65 Locust Avenue, Third Floor, New Canaan, CT 06840 or to the Secretary of the Company at 1201 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas 75270, or any other address provided by the Company. Although a revocation is effective if delivered to the Company, we request that either the original or photo copies of all revocations be mailed to Gregory S. Meyer, c/o InvestorCom, Inc. 65 Locust Avenue, Third Floor, New Canaan, CT 06840 so that we will be aware of all revocations and can more accurately determine if and when proxies have been received from the holders of record on the Record Date and the number of outstanding Shares represented thereby. Additionally, InvestorCom, Inc. may use this information to contact stockholders who have revoked their proxies in order to solicit later dated proxies for the election of Mr. Meyer.

IF YOU WISH TO VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF MR. MEYER TO THE BOARD PLEASE SIGN, DATE AND RETURN PROMPTLY THE ENCLOSED GOLD PROXY CARD IN THE POSTAGE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED.
