InterContinental Hotels Group PLC - Sale of 16 Staybridge Suites Hotels to
Hospitality Properties Trust for $185 million

InterContinental Hotels Group PLC (IHG) today announces it has sold 16 Staybridge Suites' hotels in the United States to Hospitality Properties Trust (HPT) for $185 million in cash. As part of the transaction these hotels continue to operate within the Staybridge Suites' brand, IHG having entered into a management agreement on these hotels with HPT for a period of 20 years with options to extend. The amount paid by HPT is over $15 million more than the book value of the assets and the sale will not have a material effect on earnings in the year to December 2003.

Commenting on the transaction Richard North, Chief Executive, InterContinental Hotels Group said:

"We have successfully developed and grown the Staybridge Suites' brand over the last five years and it now has critical mass in the upscale extended stay segment. As a consequence, we no longer need to own these assets. The deal is consistent with our strategy to prove brand concepts and then reduce capital intensity whilst converting the income stream into management or franchise fees. HPT is one of the strongest and most respected real estate investment trusts in the market and we are delighted to be working in partnership with them"

Richard Solomons, Finance Director, InterContinental Hotels Group said:

"The Staybridge Suites' brand is making good progress with 55 hotels open and over 40 in the pipeline. This transaction is a direct consequence of the continuing review of our asset base and represents a step along the path to improving the group's return on capital."

Note to Editors

Staybridge Suites is IHG's organically developed upscale extended stay brand offering self-catering services and amenities designed specifically for those on extended travel. There are 55 Staybridge Suites hotels, all of which are located in the Americas, representing 1% of IHG's total rooms. These properties are now split 4 owned and leased, 16 managed and 35 franchised.

The transaction involves the sale of 16 Staybridge Suites hotels in the United States to HPT for $185 million. IHG has simultaneously entered into a long term management agreement with HPT.

The transaction has features typical of HPT transactions: an owner's priority return of $16.9 million per year, plus percentage participations in operating revenues in excess of negotiated amounts; retention of a security deposit equal to $16.9 million; 5% of gross revenues at the hotels will be escrowed for capital expenditures; and payment of the owner's priority return to HPT is guaranteed by IHG until the financial results from IHG's operations of these hotels reaches negotiated levels. IHG's management contract for these hotels has an initial term expiring in 2023 and IHG has two renewal options for 12.5 years each thereafter.

The 16 hotels purchased by HPT have 1,960 guest suites and are geographically diversified in 11 states: California (2); Colorado; Florida; Georgia (2); Maryland; Massachusetts (2); Michigan; North Carolina; South Carolina; Texas (3); and Washington State. The average age of these hotels is about three years.
