FUSION NETWORKS, INC. AND SUBSIDIARY
(A DEVELOPMENT STAGE COMPANY)

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 1999

1. THE COMPANY AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

Fusion Networks, Inc., (the "Company") a development stage company, was incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware on June 30, 1999. The Company is a start-up Internet company founded to provide improved Internet content and services to Latin American markets and to the Spanish and Portugese speaking population around the world through their Internet Web Site LatinFusion.com.

On September 23, 1999 the Company formed a wholly-owned Columbian subsidiary, Fusion Networks DE Colombia LTDA for the purpose of conducting the Company's business in Colombia, South America.

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying financial statements as of December 31, 1999 and for the period then ended consolidate the accounts of the parent company and its wholly-owned subsidiary. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Edgar Filing: FUSION NETWORKS HOLDINGS INC - Form 8-K/A

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Use of Management's Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are depreciated for financial accounting purposes on the straight-line method over their respective estimated useful lives. Upon retirement or other disposition of these assets, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and the resulting gains or losses are reflected in the results of operations. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to operations. Renewals and betterments are capitalized. Depreciation of leased equipment under capital leases is included in depreciation.

Investments

The company accounts for its investments in debt and equity securities in accordance with the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities" (SFAS 115), which requires that investments in debt securities and marketable equity securities be designated as trading, held-to-maturity or available-for-sale.

Management determines the appropriate classification of its investments in debt and equity securities at the time of purchase and reevaluates such determinations at each balance sheet date. Debt securities for which the Company does not have the intent or ability to hold to maturity are classified as available for sale, along with any investments in equity securities. Securities available for sale are carried at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses, net of income taxes, reported as a separate component of Stockholder's Equity.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 121 (SFAS 121), "Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to be Disposed of". SFAS 121 requires that if facts and circumstances indicate that the cost of fixed assets or other assets may be impaired, an evaluation of recoverability would be performed by comparing the estimated future undiscounted pre-tax cash flows associated with the asset to the assets carrying value to determine if a write-down to market value or discounted pre-tax cash flow value would be required.

1. THE COMPANY AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Revenue Recognition

The Company's revenues will be derived principally from the sale of "infomercials" which are full multimedia advertisements including animated graphics, sound and voice. Additional revenues will be derived from corporate sponsorships of various services and games provided on LatinFusion.com as well as from e-commerce commissions and transaction fees.

Product Development

Costs incurred in conjunction with the development of new products are charged to expense as incurred. Material software development costs subsequent to the establishment of technological feasibility will be capitalized. Based upon the Company's product development process, technological feasibility is established upon the completion of a working model. To date attainment of technological feasibility and general release to customers have substantially coincided.

Comprehensive Income

The Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 130, (SFAS 130) "Reporting Comprehensive Income". This statement establishes rules for the reporting of comprehensive income and its components which require that certain items such as foreign currency translation adjustments, unrealized gains and losses on certain investments in debt and equity securities, minimum pension liability adjustments and unearned compensation expense related to stock issuances to employees be presented as separate components of stockholders' equity.

Earnings (Loss) Per Share

The Company calculates earnings per share in accordance with SFAS No. 128, "Computation of Earnings Per Share" and SEC Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 98. Accordingly, basic earnings per share is computed using the weighted average number of common and dilutive common equivalent shares outstanding during the period. Common equivalent shares consist of the incremental common shares issuable upon the conversion of the Preferred Stock (using the if-converted method) and shares issuable upon the exercise of stock options (using the treasury stock method); common equivalent shares are excluded from the calculation if their effect is anti-dilutive.

Stock Splits

On August 23, 1999, the Company's Board of Directors authorized a 1,000 for 1 forward stock split of its common stock and amended the par value of the common stock to $0.00001 and increased the authorized shares to 3,000,000 for shareholders of record at the close of business on August 23, 1999.

On November 16, 1999, the Company's Board of Directors authorized a 17.7333333 for 1 stock split of its common stock effective November 18, 1999 for shareholders of record at the close of business on November 18, 1999.

All share and per-share amounts in the accompanying consolidated financial statements have been restated to give effect to both the 1000 for 1 and the subsequent 17.7333333 for 1 stock splits.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to significant concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and cash equivalents. The Company maintains the majority of its cash and cash equivalents with one financial institution and this creates an inherent concentration of credit risk.

Start-Up Activities

The American Institute of Certified Public Accountants recently issued Statement of Position ("SOP") 98-5, "Reporting the Costs of Start-up Activities". SOP 98-5 requires start-up costs, as defined, to be expensed as incurred and is effective for financial statements for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 1998. The Company expenses all start-up costs as incurred in accordance with this statement and therefore the issuance of SOP 98-5 had no material impact on the Company's financial statements.

Income Taxes

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, (SFAS 109) "Accounting for Income Taxes". SFAS 109 requires the recognition of deferred tax liabilities and assets for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the financial statements or tax returns. Under this method, deferred tax liabilities and assets are determined based on the difference between the financial statement carrying amounts and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect in the years in which the differences are expected to reverse. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized.

2. INVESTMENTS

As of December 31, 1999 the fair value of the investment in equity securities classified as available for sale securities approximated cost.

3. PLAN OF OPERATIONS

Fusion Networks, Inc. is a development stage company in the process of developing LatinFusion.com, a universal portal offering a comprehensive suite of Internet products, services and solutions to Latin America and other Spanish and Portuguese speaking markets. The Company believes that by offering an integrated platform of content, community and commerce and related services, all produced locally and in Spanish or Portuguese, with the specific needs and desires of the Spanish and Portuguese speaking population as its focus, LatinFusion.com will be well positioned to capitalize on the anticipated growth of the Internet throughout the Spanish and Portugese speaking world.

3. PLAN OF OPERATIONS (Continued)

In order to capitalize on the anticipated growth of the Internet throughout the Spanish and Portugese speaking population, the Company intends to establish credibility in the Spanish and Portugese speaking markets by establishing a local presence in those markets and developing content tailored to those markets. The Spanish and Portugese speaking populations of the world share important cultural and linguistic characteristics. To succeed in serving the Internet needs of these communities the Company believes it is critical to establish itself as a part of that community and display a sensitivity to the needs of that community. While existing Internet providers produce native language content for the Spanish and Portugese speaking community, the majority of their content is translations of English language content.

The Company believes that in order to create loyalty and a sense of community among Spanish and Portugese speaking Internet users, a Web site must contain content which is both locally produced and produced in Spanish and/or Portugese.

The Company intends to establish and grow the LatinFusion.com site from a local base in key markets to larger regional presences. To begin this process, the Company will establish an initial presence in the Bogota, Colombia market to support its initial pilot operations. The Company will establish the infrastructure and local content development and support teams to ensure that the LatinFusion.com site develops a reputation for quality, responsiveness and reliability of both the Web site and related services.

All content will be developed locally and will be multi-cultural as well as multilingual (available in Spanish, Portugese and English). By locally producing native language content with reliable services, the Company believes LatinFusion.com will become a recognized name and preferred Web site for Internet users in the Bogota market. The Company also feels that by establishing a favorable reputation in Bogota, the LatinFusion.com site will quickly gain recognition and a favorable reputation in the surrounding region. The Company plans to repeat this process in other key markets throughout Latin America as well as in certain key markets in the United States and Europe.

In addition to establishing credibility and local presence in the Spanish and Portugese markets, the Company plans to offer a comprehensive range of Internet products and services tailored to those markets. The LatinFusion.com site is expected to be initially divided into seven channels, each offering a broad array of related products and services. The channels will include (1) home, where users can access time, weather, and currency data, search engines and a help desk; (2) media, which will provide access to national, regional and local newspapers, regional magazines and regional television and radio broadcasts; (3) guides, where users can access community, entertainment and tourist information for selected regions and cities; (4) commerce, providing access to a wide variety of on-line shopping options, on-line banking and on-line investment options; (5) games, where users can access interactive games, (6) connection, providing users with access to e-mail, video chat, Internet telephone services and other communication tools, and (7) contests, where users can participate in various contests. The Company plans to monitor new products and services as well as user demand for those products and services and will add such to assure that users have the broadest range of Internet products and services available.

Edgar Filing: FUSION NETWORKS HOLDINGS INC - Form 8-K/A

The Company also plans to utilize state-of-the-art technologies to improve their users Internet experience. The Company intends to continually adopt the latest technologies to both overcome bandwidth limitations and provide the richest, most entertaining multimedia experience available on the Internet. LatinFusion.com has been designed using Macromedia's Flash 4.0 which will offer streaming video, interactive on-screen graphics and full stereo sound throughout the site. The Company believes that the adoption of this technology will differentiate LatinFusion.com from many of the sites on the Internet and make it an exciting and enjoyable Web site to visit. The Company plans to consistently monitor new technologies and will adopt new technologies to assure that LatinFusion.com offers the richest and most attractive Internet experience available.

Utilizing state-of-the-art technology also allows the Company to deploy innovative new advertising strategies to better serve both users and advertisers. Presently, advertising on the Internet today consists principally of banners placed on Web sites which are linked to an advertiser's Web site. The Company has adopted a new, non-banner, advertising model which it believes will be better received by both Web users and advertisers. Utilizing Macromedia Flash 4.0, the Company will produce Ainfomercials@ which are ten seconds or less in length and will include full multimedia, including graphics, sound and voice. These infomercials will be downloaded in the background and run between page views, and will be customized and targeted based on the user demographics associated with the Web page being viewed. The Company believes this type of advertising is similar to highly targeted television advertising, which is a proven and long standing means of advertising, and will produce superior results to traditional banner advertising.

4. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

At December 31, 1999 property and equipment consist of the following:

Office equipment	$610,025
Furniture and fixtures	23,306
Automobiles	37,165

	670,496
Accumulated depreciation	(27,938)

	$642,558

5. RELATED PARTIES

Edgar Filing: FUSION NETWORKS HOLDINGS INC - Form 8-K/A

The Company currently leases approximately 1,600 square feet of office space in an office building in Miami, Florida, from Latam Holding, Inc., a Florida corporation, whose principle owner is Enrique Bahamon, a stockholder, director and the Chief Financial Officer of the Company. The lease is for a term of one year which commenced on July 1, 1999 and calls for a monthly base rent of $2,500. The related expense for this lease for the period ended December 31, 1999 was $14,355. As of December 31, 1999, the Company was current on all rental obligations due the related party.

5. RELATED PARTIES (Continued)

During 1999, the Company entered into an agreement with Red Colombia, a company domiciled in Bogota, Colombia, owned in part by Hernando Bahamon and Felipe Santos, principal stockholders, officers and/or directors of the Company, under which Red Colombia agreed to provide certain Web site development services, at a total cost of $229,171, which was expensed for the period ended December 31, 1999.

6. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Merger Agreement

On July 26, 1999 the Company announced that it entered into a non-binding merger agreement with IDM Environmental Corp. (collectively with its subsidiaries referred to herein as "IDM") a New Jersey based publicly traded corporation, pursuant to which IDM agreed to form a holding company known as Fusion Networks Holding, Inc. ("FNH") with both the Company and IDM merging with subsidiaries of FNH. On August 18, 1999 the agreement was amended and became a definitive agreement. As a result both the Company and IDM will become wholly owned subsidiaries of FNH.

The stockholders of the Company will receive one share of common stock of FNH for each share of the Company's common stock held and the stockholders of IDM will receive one share of FNH for each share of IDM common stock held, resulting in the current stockholders of the Company owning approximately 89% of FNH common stock. The proposed plan of merger is subject to a number of conditions including, but not limited to, regulatory approvals and the receipt of stockholder approval from both the Company and IDM.

Employment Agreement

In September 1999, Hernando Bahamon, President, CEO and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company, entered into a Service Agreement with the Company pursuant to which Mr. Bahamon agreed to provide services to the Company in connection with the launch of its Bogota, Colombia Web site. The agreement provides for monthly compensation of $15,000 and runs for a term of six months from July 1, 1999 subject to automatic renewal on a monthly basis thereafter. It is anticipated that Mr. Bahamon will enter into a long-term employment agreement with the Company following the merger.

Edgar Filing: FUSION NETWORKS HOLDINGS INC - Form 8-K/A

Year 2000

The Company has contacted, and in the future intends to contact, their third-party vendors, licensors and providers of software, hardware and services regarding their Year 2000 readiness. Because LatinFusion.com is a new network and the Company intends to utilize new equipment and software which is Year 2000 compliant, they believe that their network will perform correctly through Year 2000 and beyond. Due to the highly dynamic nature of their business, however, they will continue the testing process through Year 2000 and beyond and will continue to confirm that their third-party vendors, licensors and providers are Year 2000 ready.

6. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES (Continued)

Foreign Operations -----

The Company will be relying heavily on foreign Internet markets, primarily in Latin America, for its operations. The market for Internet services in Latin America is in an early stage of development and is an unproven medium for advertising and other commercial services. In addition, there are several factors involved in increasing the use of the Internet in Latin America for commercial purposes which include security, reliability, cost, ease of development, administration and quality of service. In addition, the telecommunications structure in Latin America is not as well developed as in the United States or Europe. Access to the Internet requires a relatively advanced telecommunications infrastructure and continued development of the telecommunications infrastructure will have a substantial impact on the Company's ability to deliver services and on the market acceptance of the Internet in Latin America in general. Social, political and economic conditions in Latin America could also have an effect on the Company's operations. The volatility of these conditions could make it difficult for the Company to sustain their expected growth in revenues and earnings, which could have an adverse effect on their stock price. Currency exchange rates have also been somewhat volatile throughout Latin America and the economies of these areas have experienced significant economic downturns. Poor economic conditions in Latin American countries may cause the Company's customers to reduce their advertising spending, which could have an adverse effect on the Company.

7. STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

Common Stock -----

The holders of Common Stock have no preemptive rights and the Common Stock has no redemption, sinking fund or conversion provisions. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote on any matter submitted to the holders and to equal rights in the assets of the Company upon liquidation. All of the outstanding shares of Common Stock are fully paid and nonassessable.

Edgar Filing: FUSION NETWORKS HOLDINGS INC - Form 8-K/A

On August 23, 1999, the Company's Board of Directors authorized a 1,000 for 1 forward stock split of its common stock and amended the par value of the common stock to $0.00001 and increased the authorized shares to 3,000,000 for shareholders of record at the close of business on August 23, 1999. All share and per-share amounts in the accompanying financial statements have been restated to give effect to the 1,000 for 1 forward stock split.
