First Data Plans to Voluntarily
Re-submit Antitrust Filing;
Resubmission Begins New 30-Day Waiting Period

DENVER, May 9, 2003 First Data Corp. (NYSE: FDC) today said it intends to re-file its pre-merger notification and report form regarding its pending merger under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act. The decision will allow staff at the U.S. Department of Justice's antitrust division more time to review the proposed transaction.

The initial Hart-Scott-Rodino submission was completed on April 10, 2003. Based on First Data's discussions with the Department of Justice, First Data will withdraw the original filing and re-file the documents with the DOJ and the Federal Trade Commission.

The re-filing will start a new thirty-day regulatory review period that would have otherwise expired on May 12, 2003. First Data's approach to this regulatory approval is the same as it has been in the past, which is to engage directly with the regulators to address their questions. First Data and Concord EFS (NYSE: CE), believe that the approval process will be equally effective with this transaction.

The re-filing is a procedural step to allow informal discussions to continue for an additional 30 days without requiring the Justice Department to issue a formal statutory request for additional information.

First Data and Concord continue to believe the transaction will close in the second half of 2003 and remain committed to working cooperatively with the Department of Justice's antitrust division as it conducts its review.
