Dear Shareholder:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of shareholders of Angelica Corporation ("Angelica") to be held on July 29, 2008 at 10:00 a.m., local time, at Doubletree Hotel & Conference Center, 16625 Swingley Ridge Road, Chesterfield, Missouri 63017.

At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of May 22, 2008 (the "Merger Agreement") that Angelica entered into with Clothesline Holdings, Inc. ("Parent") and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Clothesline Acquisition Corporation ("Merger Sub"). Under the Merger Agreement, Parent will acquire Angelica by means of a merger of Merger Sub with and into Angelica. As a result of the merger, each issued and outstanding share of Angelica common stock (other than dissenting shares) will be converted into the right to receive $22.00 in cash, without interest and less applicable tax withholding.

The Board of Directors of Angelica has approved the Merger Agreement and determined that the merger is in the best interests of Angelica and its shareholders, and recommends that you vote "FOR" the approval of the Merger Agreement.

Your vote is important. The affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Angelica's common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting is required to approve the Merger Agreement. All of the directors and executive officers of Angelica, who, as of June 30, 2008, owned an aggregate of 645,491 shares of our common stock, or 6.49% of the outstanding shares, have indicated that they intend to vote for approval of the Merger Agreement. Steel Partners II, L.P., a shareholder who, as of May 27, 2008, owned 18.76% of the outstanding shares of our common stock, has entered into a voting agreement with Parent, pursuant to which it has agreed to vote in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Shareholders are urged to read carefully the accompanying proxy statement, which contains a detailed description of the merger and related matters. You may also obtain more information about Angelica from documents it has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting personally, as soon as possible please complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and mail it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope, cast your vote via the Internet or telephone (as specified on the proxy card), or instruct your broker, bank or other nominee how to vote your shares (if your shares are held in "street name"). If you attend the special meeting, you may, by following the procedures outlined in the accompanying proxy materials, vote in person if you wish, even if you have previously voted by submitting your proxy. You should not send in the certificates for your shares of common stock until you receive specific instructions at a later date.

We thank you for your prompt attention to this matter and your support.

Sincerely,

Stephen M. O'Hara
President and Chief Executive Officer

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities regulatory agency has approved or disapproved the merger, passed upon the merits or fairness of the merger or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of the disclosures in this document. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

The accompanying proxy statement is dated July 3, 2008 and is first being mailed to Angelica shareholders on or about July 3, 2008.

ANGELICA CORPORATION

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

To be held July 29, 2008

To the Shareholders of Angelica Corporation:

A Special Meeting of Shareholders of Angelica Corporation ("Angelica") will be held at Doubletree Hotel & Conference Center, 16625 Swingley Ridge Road, Chesterfield, Missouri 63017 on July 29, 2008, at 10:00 a.m. local time, for the following purposes:

1. To consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of May 22, 2008 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and among Angelica, Clothesline Holdings, Inc. ("Parent") and Clothesline Acquisition Corporation ("Merger Sub"), pursuant to which, upon the merger becoming effective, each share of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Angelica (other than shares held by shareholders who properly demand dissenter's rights in compliance with all of the required procedures under Missouri law) will be converted into the right to receive $22.00 in cash, without interest;
2. To consider and vote upon any proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes for approval of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting; and
3. To transact such other business as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on June 30, 2008 as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting and any postponements and adjournments thereof. A list of shareholders entitled to vote at the special meeting will be available for examination by Angelica's shareholders for any purpose germane to the special meeting: (i) at the special meeting upon the request of an Angelica shareholder or (ii) for a period of ten (10) days prior to the special meeting during ordinary business hours at Angelica's principal executive offices at 424 South Woods Mill Road, Chesterfield, Missouri, 63017-3406.

We urge you to read the accompanying proxy statement carefully as it sets forth details of the proposed merger and other important information related to the merger.

Your vote is important, regardless of the number of shares of Angelica's common stock you own. The adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative approval of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Angelica's common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Even if you plan to attend the special meeting in person, we request that you submit your proxy prior to the special meeting by signing and returning the enclosed proxy card, voting via the Internet or telephone (as specified on the proxy card), or instructing your broker, bank or other nominee how to vote your shares (if your shares are held in "street name") to ensure that your shares will be represented at the special meeting if you are unable to attend. If you fail to submit your proxy and do not attend the special meeting in person, it will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

If the merger is consummated, holders of Angelica's common stock entitled to vote on the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement who did not vote in favor thereof and who properly elected to dissent pursuant to Section 351.455 of the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri (the "MGBCL") will have the right to receive payment of the "fair value" of their shares pursuant to Section 351.455 of the MGBCL. The full text of Section 351.455 of the MGBCL is included as Appendix C to the proxy statement accompanying this Notice of Special Meeting of Shareholders. For a summary of the dissenters' rights of Angelica's shareholders, see "THE MERGER Dissenters' Rights" in the accompanying proxy statement. Failure to comply strictly with the procedures set forth in Section 351.455 of the MGBCL will cause a shareholder to lose dissenters' rights.

You are cordially invited to attend the special meeting. However, whether or not you plan to be personally present at the special meeting, please promptly complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it in the envelope provided, vote via the Internet or telephone (as specified on the proxy card) or instruct your broker, bank or other nominee how to vote your shares (if your shares are held in "street name"). If you properly sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you wish to vote, your vote will be counted as a vote in favor of approval of the Merger Agreement and in favor of any proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary. If you do not return your proxy card, do not vote via the Internet or telephone, do not attend the special meeting and vote in person, or do not instruct your broker, bank or other nominee how to vote your shares (if your shares are held in "street name"), it will have the same effect as a vote against the approval of the Merger Agreement, but will not affect the outcome of the vote regarding the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary. No postage is necessary if mailed in the United States. If you are a shareholder of record, or hold a valid proxy to vote at the meeting, and attend the special meeting, you may, by following the procedures discussed in the accompanying proxy materials, revoke your proxy by voting in person.

Angelica's board of directors recommends that you vote "FOR" the adoption of the Merger Agreement and "FOR" approval of discretionary authority to the persons named as proxies to vote to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

Stephen M. O'Hara
President and Chief Executive Officer

PROXY STATEMENT

SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

JULY 29, 2008

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

The following questions and answers are provided for your convenience and briefly address some questions you may have about the merger and the special meeting of Angelica shareholders. These questions and answers may not address all questions that may be important to you as an Angelica shareholder. Please also consult the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this proxy statement, the appendices to this proxy statement, and the documents referred to in this proxy statement.

Except as otherwise specifically noted in this proxy statement or as the context otherwise requires, "we," "our," "us" and similar words in this proxy statement refer to Angelica Corporation and its subsidiaries. In addition, we sometimes refer to Angelica Corporation as "Angelica" or the "Company." We refer to Clothesline Holdings, Inc. as "Parent" and to Clothesline Acquisition Corporation as "Merger Sub."

Q: What am I being asked to vote on?

A: You are being asked to vote upon a proposal to approve a Merger Agreement that provides for the proposed acquisition of Angelica by Parent, and to grant the persons named as proxies discretionary authority to vote to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in the event that there are not sufficient votes to approve the Merger Agreement. The proposed acquisition would be accomplished through a merger of Merger Sub, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent, with and into Angelica. After the merger, Angelica will be the surviving corporation and Parent will own all of our common stock.

Q: Where and when is the special meeting?

A: The special meeting will take place at Doubletree Hotel & Conference Center, 16625 Swingley Ridge Road, Chesterfield, Missouri 63017 on July 29, 2008, at 10:00 a.m. local time.

Q: What will Angelica's shareholders receive in the merger?

A: If the merger is consummated, our shareholders will receive $22.00 in cash, without interest and less any applicable tax withholding, for each share of Angelica common stock they own (other than dissenting shares). See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT Consideration to be Received in the Merger."

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After you read this proxy statement carefully and consider how the merger affects you, mail your completed, dated and signed proxy card in the enclosed return envelope, or vote via the Internet or telephone (as specified in the proxy card), as soon as possible so that your shares can be voted at the special meeting of our shareholders. If you hold your shares in "street name," follow the instructions from your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote your shares. Please do not send in your stock certificates with your proxy.

Q: How does Angelica's board of directors recommend I vote?

A: At a meeting held on May 22, 2008, Angelica's board of directors approved the Merger Agreement and declared the Merger Agreement and the merger to be in the best interests of Angelica and its shareholders. Except with respect to Stephen M. O'Hara, our President and Chief Executive Officer, our board of directors consists solely of independent directors. Our independent directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and declared the Merger Agreement and the merger to be in the best interests of Angelica and its shareholders. Citing the potential appearance of a conflict of interest arising out of his continued employment with Angelica following the merger, Mr. O'Hara abstained from voting on the Merger Agreement and the merger. Our board of directors recommends that you vote "FOR" approval of the Merger Agreement and "FOR" approval of the proposal to grant discretionary authority to the persons named as proxies to vote to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies. See "THE MERGER Recommendation of Angelica's Board and Reasons for the Merger." When considering the recommendation by our board of directors in favor of the merger, you should be aware that our directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, your interests. See "THE MERGER Interest of our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger."

Q: What vote of shareholders is required to approve the proposals at the special meeting?

A: Approval of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Angelica's common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting.

The proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting entitled to vote thereon.

All of the directors and executive officers of Angelica, who, as of June 30, 2008, owned an aggregate of 645,491 shares of our common stock, or 6.49% of the outstanding shares, have indicated that they intend to vote for approval of the Merger Agreement. Steel Partners II, L.P., a shareholder who, as of May 27, 2008, owned 18.76% of the outstanding shares of our common stock, has entered into a voting agreement with Parent, pursuant to which it has agreed to vote in favor of the adoption and approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the special meeting?

A: Only shareholders of record as of the close of business on June 30, 2008, the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to receive notice of the special meeting and to vote at the special meeting, or at any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting. As of the record date, 9,555,680 shares of our common stock, held by 1,029 shareholders of record, were outstanding.

Most of our shareholders hold their shares beneficially through a broker, bank or other nominee rather than directly in their own names as shareholders of record. As summarized below, there are some distinctions between shares held of record and those owned beneficially:

SHAREHOLDER OF RECORD If your shares are registered directly in your name then you are considered the shareholder of record of those shares and these proxy materials are being sent directly to you. As the shareholder of record, you have the right to grant a proxy or vote in person at the meeting.

BENEFICIAL OWNER If your shares are held through a broker, bank or other nominee (e.g., shares held in a "brokerage account"), then you are considered to be the beneficial owner of shares held in "street name" and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by your broker, bank or other nominee who is considered the shareholder of record of those shares. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote your shares. You are also invited to attend the special meeting. However, because you are not the shareholder of record, you may not vote these shares in person at the meeting unless you first obtain a legal proxy from your broker, bank or other nominee holding your shares.

Q: May I vote in person?

A: Yes. If you are a shareholder of record you may attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person, rather than signing and returning your proxy card or voting via the Internet or telephone. If you are the beneficial owner of shares held in "street name," you must get a proxy from your broker, bank or other nominee in order to attend the special meeting and vote those shares.

Q: May I vote via the Internet or telephone?

A: If you are a shareholder of record, you may submit a proxy by telephone or electronically through the Internet by following the instructions included with your proxy card.

If you are the beneficial owner of shares held in "street name," please check your proxy card or contact your broker, bank or other nominee to determine whether you will be able to provide voting instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee by telephone or electronically.

Proxies submitted via the Internet or telephone must be received by 5:00 a.m. Eastern time on July 29, 2008.

Q: How are votes counted?

A: For the proposal relating to the Merger Agreement, you may vote FOR, AGAINST or ABSTAIN. Approval of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Abstentions will not count as votes cast on the proposal relating to the approval of the Merger Agreement. As a result, if you ABSTAIN, it has the same effect as if you vote AGAINST the approval of the Merger Agreement.

For the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, you may vote FOR, AGAINST or ABSTAIN. The approval of any proposal to adjourn the special meeting requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote thereon. Abstentions will not count as votes cast on the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies. As a result, if you ABSTAIN, it has the same effect as if you vote AGAINST adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

Q: How will my proxy be voted?

A: If proxies are properly dated, executed and returned, the shares they represent will be voted at the special meeting in accordance with the instructions of the shareholder. If proxies are properly dated, executed and returned but no specific voting instructions are given, the related shares will be voted as follows:

FOR the approval of the Merger Agreement;

FOR the grant of discretionary authority to the persons named as proxies to vote to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

Q: What happens if I do not return my proxy card, do not vote via the Internet or telephone, do not attend the special meeting and vote in person, or do not instruct my broker, bank or other nominee how to vote my shares (if my shares are held in "street name")?

A: Approval of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Therefore, if you do not return your proxy card, do not vote via the Internet or telephone, do not attend the special meeting and vote in person, or do not instruct your broker, bank or other nominee how to vote your shares (if your shares are held in "street name") it will have the same effect as if you voted against approval of the Merger Agreement. The approval of any proposal to adjourn the special meeting requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of our common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote thereon. If you do not return your proxy card, do not vote via the Internet or telephone, do not attend the special meeting and vote in person, or do not instruct your broker, bank or other nominee how to vote your shares (if your shares are held in "street name"), it will not affect the outcome of the vote on this matter because these votes will not be considered present and entitled to vote for this purpose.

Q: If my broker, bank or other nominee holds my shares in "street name," will my broker, bank or other nominee vote my shares for me?

A: Your broker, bank or other nominee will not be able to vote your shares without instructions from you. You should instruct your broker, bank or other nominee to vote your shares following the procedure provided by your broker, bank or other nominee. A broker non-vote generally occurs when a broker, bank or other nominee holding shares on your behalf does not vote on a proposal because the nominee has not yet received your instructions and lacks discretionary power to vote the shares.

Approval of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Broker non-votes will not count as votes cast on a proposal. As a result, broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the Merger Agreement. The approval of any proposal to adjourn the special meeting requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote thereon. Therefore, broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of the vote on the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies because these votes will not be considered present entitled to vote for this purpose. See "THE SPECIAL MEETING Proxies."

Q: May I change my vote after I have submitted my proxy?

A: Yes. You may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. If you are a shareholder of record, you can do this in one of four ways.

First, you can deliver to D.F. King & Co., Inc. ("D.F. King"), our proxy solicitor, a written notice bearing a date later than you previously submitted proxy stating that you would like to revoke your proxy.

Second, you can complete, execute and deliver to D.F. King, a new, later dated proxy card for the same shares.

Third, you can log onto the Internet website specified on your proxy card in the same manner you would do to submit your proxy electronically or by calling the telephone number specified on your proxy card (in each case if you are eligible to do so) and follow the instructions on the proxy card.

Fourth, you can attend the special meeting and vote in person. Your attendance alone will not revoke your proxy.

Any written notice of revocation or subsequent proxy should be delivered to D.F. King or hand delivered to D.F. King, Attention: Elton Bagley, at 48 Wall Street, 22nd Floor, New York, New York 10005, at or before the taking of the vote at the special meeting.

If you are the beneficial owner of shares held in "street name" by your broker, bank or other nominee and you have instructed such broker, bank or other nominee to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from such broker, bank or other nominee to change those instructions. See "THE SPECIAL MEETING Proxies."

Q: What should I do if I receive more than one set of voting materials?

A: You may receive more than one set of voting materials, including multiple copies of this proxy statement and multiple proxy cards or voting instruction cards. For example, if you are a shareholder of record and your shares are registered in more than one name, you will receive more than one proxy card. If you beneficially own shares held in more than one brokerage account, you will receive a separate voting instruction card for each brokerage account in which you hold shares. Please complete, sign, date and return (or vote via the Internet or telephone with respect to) each proxy card and voting instruction card that you receive to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares of Angelica common stock after the record date but before the special meeting?

A: The record date for the special meeting is earlier than the date of the special meeting and the date that the merger is expected to be completed. If you transfer your shares of Angelica common stock after the record date but before the special meeting, you will retain your right to vote at the special meeting, but will transfer the right to receive the merger consideration.

Q: Will the merger be taxable to me?

A: Generally, yes. The receipt of cash pursuant to the merger will generally be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and may also be a taxable transaction under applicable state, local or foreign income or other tax laws. Generally, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a shareholder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received by the shareholder in the merger and the shareholder's adjusted basis in the shares of Angelica common stock converted into cash in the merger. If the shares of Angelica common stock are held by a shareholder as capital assets, gain or loss recognized by such shareholder will be capital gain or loss, which will be long term capital gain or loss if the shareholder's holding period for the shares of Angelica common stock exceeds one year. Because individual circumstances may differ, you should consult your own tax advisor to determine the particular tax effects to you. See "THE MERGER Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences."

Q: Am I entitled to dissenters' rights?

A: Yes. If the merger is consummated, holders of Angelica's common stock entitled to vote on the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement who did not vote in favor thereof and who properly elected to dissent pursuant to Section 351.455 of the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri (the "MGBCL") will have the right to receive payment of the "fair value" of their shares pursuant to Section 351.455 of the MGBCL. The full text of Section 351.455 of the MGBCL is included as Appendix C to this proxy statement. See "THE MERGER Dissenters' Rights." Failure to comply strictly with the procedures set forth in Section 351.455 of the MGBCL will cause a shareholder to lose dissenters' rights.

Q: How will I receive the merger consideration and when should I send in my Angelica stock certificates?

A: Shortly after the merger is completed, shareholders of record will receive written instructions for exchanging shares of our common stock for the merger consideration. If you beneficially own shares held in "street name" by your broker, bank or other nominee, you will receive instructions from your broker, bank or other nominee as to how to effect the surrender of your "street name" shares and receive the merger consideration for those shares. DO NOT SEND ANY STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH YOUR PROXY.

Q: What will happen to unexpired and unexercised options to purchase shares of Angelica common stock?

A: Prior to the completion of the merger, we will initiate an issuer tender offer pursuant to which we will offer to purchase for cancellation all outstanding vested and unvested options to purchase shares of our common stock with an exercise price of less than $22.00 per share, which we refer to as "in-the-money" options, and (ii) outstanding vested and unvested options to purchase up to 91,463 shares of our common stock with an exercise price of greater than $22.00, which we refer to as "out-of-the-money" options. Each option validly tendered and not withdrawn will be cancelled and we will pay the holder of such tendered option the following amounts in cash, without interest and less any applicable tax withholdings:

the "spread value" for each "in-the-money" option, which is the product of (a) the excess of $22.00 over the per share exercise price multiplied by (b) the aggregate number of shares of our common stock issuable upon exercise of such option; or for each "out-of-the-money" option, $0.82 multiplied by the number of shares of our common stock issuable upon exercise of such option.

Mr. O'Hara and John S. Olbrych, our Chief Administrative Officer, have advised us that they do not intend to tender any of their respective options with an exercise price greater than $22.00 per share. However, we expect that the "out-of-the-money" options held by Mr. O'Hara and Mr. Olbrych will be cancelled in connection with their entry into new employment agreements with Merger Sub that will become effective upon consummation of the merger.

Q: Who can help answer my questions?

The Special Meeting

This proxy statement is furnished to our shareholders for use at the special meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon (1) the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement and (2) any proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in the event that there are not sufficient votes to approve the Merger Agreement. The special meeting will be held at 10:00 a.m. local time on July 29, 2008 at Doubletree Hotel & Conference Center, 16625 Swingley Ridge Road, Chesterfield, Missouri 63017.

Record Date and Quorum Requirement (see pages 2-3)

We have set the close of business on June 30, 2008 as the record date for determining those shareholders who are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. As of the record date, 9,555,680 shares of our common stock, held by 1,029 shareholders of record, were outstanding. Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote.

A majority of the shares of our common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting must be present in person or represented by proxy to constitute a quorum for transacting business at the special meeting.

The approval of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. If you do not return your proxy card, do not vote via the Internet or telephone, do not attend the special meeting and vote in person, or do not instruct your broker, bank or other nominee how to vote your shares (if your shares are held in "street name") it will have the same effect as if you voted against the Merger Agreement.

Because approval of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies requires the affirmative vote of holders representing a majority of the voting power present in person or by proxy at the special meeting, abstentions will have the same effect as voting against that proposal. A failure to attend the meeting in person together with a failure to submit a proxy will have no effect with respect to the adjournment proposal. Because brokers do not have discretionary authority to vote on proposals presented at the meeting, broker non-votes will not count as votes for or against the proposal to adjourn the meeting.

All of the directors and executive officers of Angelica, who, as of June 30, 2008, owned an aggregate of 645,491 shares of our common stock, or 6.49% of the outstanding shares, have indicated that they intend to vote for approval of the Merger Agreement.

The Voting Agreement (see page 55)

In connection with the Merger Agreement, Parent and Steel Partners II, L.P. ("Steel Partners") have entered into a voting agreement with Parent, dated as of May 22, 2008, which provides among other things that Steel Partners will vote in favor of the Merger Agreement and the merger at the special meeting for which this proxy statement relates. As of May 27, 2008, Steel Partners owned 18.76% of the outstanding shares of our common stock.

The Merger

The Merger Agreement provides for the acquisition by Parent of Angelica through the merger of its wholly-owned subsidiary, Merger Sub, with and into Angelica. After the merger, Angelica will be the surviving corporation and Parent will own all of our common stock.

What You Will Receive in the Merger (see page 43)

Unless you seek dissenters' rights, you will be entitled to receive $22.00 in cash, without interest and subject to applicable tax withholding, in exchange for each share of our common stock you own at the time of the merger.

Treatment of Outstanding Stock Options (see page 43)

Prior to the completion of the merger we will initiate an issuer tender offer pursuant to which we will offer to purchase for cancellation all outstanding vested and unvested options to purchase shares of our common stock with an exercise price of less than $22.00 per share, which we refer to as "in-the-money" options, and (ii) outstanding vested and unvested options to purchase up to 91,463 shares of our common stock with an exercise price of greater than $22.00, which we refer to as "out-of-the-money" options. Each option validly tendered and not withdrawn will be cancelled and we will pay the holder of such tendered option the following amounts in cash, without interest and less any applicable tax withholdings:

the "spread value" for each "in-the-money" option, which is the product of (a) the excess of $22.00 over the per share exercise price multiplied by (b) the aggregate number of shares of our common stock issuable upon exercise of such option; or

for each "out-of-the-money" option, $0.82 multiplied by the number of shares of our common stock issuable upon exercise of such option.

The consummation of the issuer tender offer is expected to occur immediately prior to the completion of the merger. Parent and Merger Sub's obligation to consummate the merger is conditioned upon the holders of at least 90% of the outstanding options consenting to the cancellation of their options. Mr. O'Hara and Mr. Olbrych have advised us that they do not intend to tender any of their respective options with an exercise price greater than $22.00 per share. However, we expect that the "out-of-the-money" options held by Mr. O'Hara and Mr. Olbrych will be cancelled in connection with their entry into new employment agreements with Merger Sub that will become effective upon consummation of the merger.

Expected Time for Completing the Merger (see page 42)

We are working to complete the merger as soon as practicable, but we must first satisfy the conditions to the completion of the merger set forth in the Merger Agreement. We presently expect to complete the merger in the third quarter of 2008. However, we cannot provide you absolute assurance of when or if the merger will occur.

Edgar Filing: ANGELICA CORP /NEW/ - Form DEFM14A

Reasons for the Merger (see page 15)

Our board of directors considered a number of factors in reaching its determination to approve the Merger Agreement. See "THE MERGER Recommendation of Angelica's Board and Reasons for the Merger."

Opinion of Financial Advisor (see page 18)

In connection with the merger, our board of directors received an opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, from Morgan Joseph & Co. Inc., its financial advisor (referred to hereinafter as Morgan Joseph), as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of such opinion, to the holders of our common stock (other than Parent and Merger Sub), of the consideration to be received by those holders of our common stock. The full text of Morgan Joseph's written opinion, dated May 22, 2008, is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix B and incorporated in this document by reference. You are encouraged to read this opinion carefully in its entirety for a description of the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the scope of review undertaken.

Morgan Joseph's opinion addressed only the fairness of the merger consideration to the holders of our common stock (other than Parent and Merger Sub) from a financial point of view as of the date of the opinion and did not address any other aspect of the merger, including the merits of the underlying decision by Angelica to enter into the Merger Agreement. The opinion was addressed only to our board of directors and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any shareholder should vote or act on the merger or any other matter relating to the proposed merger. See "THE MERGER Opinion of Angelica's Financial Advisor."

The Board of Directors Recommends That You Vote "FOR" the Merger Agreement (see page 15)

After careful consideration, our board of directors has approved the Merger Agreement and has determined that the Merger Agreement and merger are in the best interests of us and our shareholders. Except with respect to Mr. O'Hara, our President and Chief Executive Officer, our board of directors consists solely of independent directors. Our independent directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and declared the Merger Agreement and the merger to be in the best interests of Angelica and its shareholders. Citing the potential appearance of a conflict of interest arising out of his continued employment with Angelica following the merger, Mr. O'Hara abstained from voting on the Merger Agreement and the merger. Our directors recommend that you vote "FOR" the approval of the Merger Agreement and "FOR" the approval to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes for approval of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting.

Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (see page 26)

When considering the recommendation by our board of directors in favor of the merger, you should be aware that our directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, your interests, including the following:

Prior to the completion of the merger, we will initiate an issuer tender offer pursuant to which we will offer to purchase for cancellation all outstanding vested and unvested options to purchase shares of our common stock with an exercise price of less than $22.00 per share, which we refer to as "in-the-money" options, and (ii) outstanding vested and unvested options to purchase up to 91,463 shares of our common stock with an exercise price of greater than $22.00, which we refer to as "out-of-the-money" options. Our directors and executive officers who hold options will be among the recipients of the issuer tender offer. In addition, Mr. Olbrych, will have the opportunity to tender unvested options exercisable into 37,500 shares of our common stock notwithstanding the unvested status of such options (of which 12,500 relate to "in-the-money" options and 25,000 relate to "out-of-the-money" options).

Certain of our directors and executive officers were granted restricted stock awards under our benefit plans that will automatically vest upon the effective time of the merger and convert into the right to receive the $22.00 per share merger consideration in accordance with the Merger Agreement. Under the new employment agreements Mr. O'Hara and Mr. Olbrych expect to enter into with Merger Sub that will become effective upon consummation of the merger, they will agree to invest in common stock of the Parent a portion of the aggregate after-tax proceeds they receive as a result of the issuer tender offer for their stock options and their exchange of restricted stock received under Angelica's Long-Term Incentive Plan for merger consideration.

Certain of our directors and executive officers were granted restricted cash awards under our benefit plans that will vest as a result of the merger under certain circumstances. Under the new employment agreements Messrs. O'Hara and Olbrych expect to enter into with Merger Sub that will become effective upon consummation of the merger, they will agree to forego any cash payments resulting from the merger that relate to their maximum cash incentive awards under Angelica's Long Term Incentive Plan in exchange for restricted stock units with respect to the common stock of the Parent of equivalent value.

Our executive officers, other than Mr. Olbrych, have existing employment agreements which provide for "change in control" payments to be made under certain circumstances as a result of the merger.

In connection with the merger it is expected that Mr. O'Hara, Mr. Olbrych and Steven L. Frey, our Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, will enter new employment agreements with Merger Sub that will become effective upon the consummation of the merger and replace their current employment agreements.

Following the effective time of the merger, certain of our executive officers will receive grants of options to purchase common stock of Parent pursuant to the terms of a benefit plan established by Parent under which it is anticipated that Mr. O'Hara will receive options to purchase 3% of the fully diluted equity of Parent. Additional executive officers, including Mr. Olbrych and Mr. Frey will receive options to purchase up to an aggregate total of between 5% and 6% of the fully diluted equity of Parent, and options to purchase between 1% and 2% of the fully diluted equity of Parent will be reserved for future grants.

Indemnification and liability insurance arrangements for our current and former officers and directors will be continued for six years following the effective time of the merger.

Our board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in making its recommendation to our shareholders to approve the Merger Agreement.

Market Prices and Dividends (see page 56)

Our common stock trades on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "AGL."

The closing price of a share of our common stock on May 22, 2008, which was the trading day immediately preceding our announcement that we had entered into the Merger Agreement, was $16.45 per share. On June 30, 2008, the most recent practicable date before this proxy statement was printed, our common stock closed at $21.27 per share.

We paid dividends on our common stock during 2008, 2007 and 2006.

Edgar Filing: ANGELICA CORP /NEW/ - Form DEFM14A

Financing the Merger (page 38)

Parent estimates that the total amount of funds necessary to consummate the merger and the related transactions, including related fees and expenses, is approximately $310,000,000, consisting of:

approximately $211,000,000 to pay Angelica's shareholders and option holders the amounts due to them under the Merger Agreement (assuming that no Angelica shareholder validly exercises its dissenters' rights);

approximately $14,000,000 to pay related fees and expenses in connection with the merger; and approximately $85,000,000 to refinance certain existing indebtedness.

These payments are expected to be funded by a combination of equity and debt financing arranged by Parent and, to the extent available, cash of Angelica. Parent has obtained equity and debt financing commitments described in the section entitled "The Merger Financing the Merger" in connection with the transactions. The Merger Agreement permits changes to the contemplated debt financing under certain circumstances specified in the Merger Agreement. The total funded indebtedness of the Company and its subsidiaries following the transactions is expected to be approximately $175,000,000.

The consummation of the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in the debt financing commitments letter the Parent received. See "The Merger Financing the Merger."

Conditions to the Completion of the Merger (see page 52)

Parent's, Merger Sub's and our respective obligations to consummate the merger are subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions:

approval of the Merger Agreement by our shareholders in accordance with Missouri law and our Articles of Incorporation;

the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended ("HSR Act"), early termination of which was granted on June 20, 2008; and the absence of any law, rule, injunction, judgment, decree or order prohibiting the merger.

In addition, we are not obligated to effect the merger unless the following conditions have been satisfied or waived in writing:

accuracy of the representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub, subject to certain materiality exceptions which are not applicable to the financing commitment representation;

performance of the covenants and obligations of Parent and Merger Sub, subject to certain materiality exceptions; and receipt of a certificate signed on behalf of Parent certifying as to the above two matters.

In addition, Parent and Merger Sub are not obligated to complete the merger unless a number conditions are satisfied or waived in writing, including the following:

accuracy of our representations and warranties, disregarding all qualifications or limitations as to materiality in some cases, and subject to materiality exceptions in other cases;

performance of our covenants, subject to certain materiality exceptions;

receipt of a certificate signed by our Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer certifying as to the above two matters;

Edgar Filing: ANGELICA CORP /NEW/ - Form DEFM14A

the conditions in the debt financing commitments Parent has entered into to finance the merger have been satisfied or waived;

absence of a material adverse effect since the date of the Merger Agreement;

holders of not more than 10% of our common stock having given notice of their exercise of dissenters' rights under Missouri law; and the holders of at least 90% of the outstanding unexpired and unexercised options to purchase shares of our common stock have consented to the cancellation of such options, by accepting the issuer tender offer or otherwise.

We, Parent or Merger Sub cannot rely on the failure of a closing condition as an excuse not to close, if the party seeking to rely on the failure did not perform any of its obligations under the Merger Agreement in good faith.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (see page 53)

The Merger Agreement may be terminated under certain circumstances including:

by mutual written consent of Parent and us;

by either Parent or us

if a court or governmental authority issues takes any action restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger;

if we fail to obtain shareholder approval;

if the merger has not been completed by November 22, 2008;

by us

if Parent or Merger Sub breaches any representation, warranty or covenant that results in the failure of the conditions to our obligation to complete the merger;

if we enter a definitive agreement relating to a superior proposal;

by Parent

if we breach any representation, warranty or covenant that would result in the failure of the conditions to Parent's obligation to complete the merger;

if our board of directors changes its recommendation to our shareholders;

if we enter into a merger agreement, letter of intent or similar agreement relating to an acquisition proposal;

we enter into an agreement requiring us to fail to consummate the transaction or breach our obligations under the Merger Agreement; or we willfully and materially breach our obligations under the provision regarding solicitation and obtaining shareholder approval.

Termination Fees and Expenses (see page 53)

The Merger Agreement requires that we pay Parent a $9.0 million termination fee if:

(1) (a) the Merger Agreement is terminated and we enter into an acquisition proposal or consummate transactions contemplated by an acquisition proposal within 12 months of termination; and

Edgar Filing: ANGELICA CORP /NEW/ - Form DEFM14A

(b) (i) the merger has not been completed by November 22, 2008; (ii) we failed to obtain shareholder approval when there was an acquisition proposal pending; or (iii) we willfully breached a representation warranty or covenant;

(2) the Parent terminates the Merger Agreement because:

(a) we enter into a merger agreement, letter of intent or similar agreement relating to an acquisition proposal;

(b) we enter into an agreement requiring us to fail to consummate the transaction or breach our obligations under the Merger Agreement; or

(c) we willfully and materially breach our obligations under the no-solicitation provision;

(3) we terminate the Merger Agreement to enter into a definitive agreement relating to a superior proposal; or

(4) the Parent terminates the Merger Agreement because our board of directors changed its recommendation to the shareholders.

In addition, the merger agreement requires us to pay to Parent a $3.5 million termination fee plus reasonable expenses not to exceed $1 million, if there is no acquisition proposal pending or disclosed to our board of directors and the shareholders fail to approve the merger

The Merger Agreement further requires that Parent pay us:

(1) a $3.5 million reverse termination fee plus reasonable expenses up to $500,000 if the merger has not been consummated by November 22, 2008 solely as a result of Parent not receiving the necessary debt financing;

(2) a $9 million reverse termination fee if all the closing conditions are met and the Parent or Merger Sub willfully breaches a representation, warranty or covenant.

Regulatory Approvals (see page 33)

Completion of the merger is subject to expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act. The merger cannot proceed in the absence of expiration or early termination of the waiting period. Angelica and Parent filed notification and report forms under the HSR Act with the Federal Trade Commission, which we refer to as the FTC, and the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice on June 11, 2008. We received notice that early termination of the waiting period was granted on June 20, 2008. At any time before or after completion of the merger, notwithstanding the expiration or early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act, the Antitrust Division or the FTC could take such action under the antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest, including seeking to enjoin the completion of the merger or seeking divestiture of substantial assets of Angelica or Parent. The consummation of the merger is subject to the condition that there be no law, rule, injunction, judgment, decree or order prohibiting the merger.

Except as noted above with respect to the required filings under the HSR Act and the filing of articles of merger in Missouri at or before the effective date of the merger, we are unaware of any material, federal, state or foreign regulatory requirements or approvals required for the execution of the Merger Agreement or completion of the merger.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences (see page 34)

The receipt of cash by U.S. holders in exchange for shares of our common stock in the merger will generally be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes and may also be a taxable transaction under applicable state, local, foreign or other tax laws. Generally, this means you will recognize taxable gain or loss equal to the difference, if any, between (1) the cash you receive in the merger and (2) your adjusted tax basis in your shares. See "THE MERGER Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences" for a more detailed discussion of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters are very complicated and the tax consequences of the merger to you depend on the facts of your own situation. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the transaction to you.

Dissenters' Rights (see page 36)

If the merger is consummated, holders of Angelica's common stock entitled to vote on the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement who do not vote in favor thereof and who properly elected to dissent pursuant to Section 351.455 of the MGBCL will have the right to receive "fair value" of their shares pursuant to Section 351.455 of the MGBCL. The full text of Section 351.455 of the MGBCL is included as Appendix C to this proxy statement. Failure to comply strictly with the procedures set forth in Section 351.455 of the MGBCL will cause a shareholder to lose dissenters' rights.

Parent and Merger Sub

Parent, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Lehman Brothers Merchant Banking, was organized under the laws of Delaware solely for the purpose of entering into the Merger Agreement with us and completing the merger and has not conducted any business operations. Parent's principal executive offices are located at 399 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10022. Merger Sub, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent, was organized under the laws of Missouri solely for the purpose of entering into the Merger Agreement with us and completing the merger and has not conducted any business operations. Merger Sub's principal executive offices are located at 399 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10022. Parent and Merger Sub are affiliates of Lehman Brothers Merchant Banking Partners IV L.P. and Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc., a New York City-based global investment bank that entered the private equity business in 1984.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

Date, Time and Place of the Special Meeting

This proxy statement is being furnished to shareholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies by our board of directors for use at the special meeting of shareholders to be held on July 29, 2008 at Doubletree Hotel & Conference Center, 16625 Swingley Ridge Road, Chesterfield, Missouri 63017, at 10:00 a.m., local time, and at any adjournments or postponements thereof.

This proxy statement and the accompanying form of proxy are first being mailed by us to our shareholders on or about July 3, 2008.

Matters to Be Considered at the Special Meeting

At the special meeting, our shareholders will be asked to vote on the following proposals:

to approve the Merger Agreement, to approve any proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in the event that there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the Merger Agreement, and to conduct any other business that properly comes before the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

Record Date for the Special Meeting

Our board of directors has fixed the close of business on June 30, 2008 as the record date for determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. As of the record date, 9,555,680 shares of our common stock, held by 1,029 shareholders of record, were outstanding. At the special meeting, each holder of our common stock will have one vote for each share of our common stock held.

Quorum

If a majority of the shares of our common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting is represented either in person or by proxy at the special meeting, a quorum will be present at the special meeting. Shares represented in person or by proxy and for which the holder has abstained from voting will be counted as present at the special meeting for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum.

A broker, bank or other nominee who holds shares in "street name" for a customer who is the beneficial owner of those shares is prohibited from giving a proxy to vote those shares on the matters to be considered and voted upon at the special meeting without specific instructions from such customer with respect to such matters. These so-called "broker non-votes" will be counted as present at the special meeting only for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists.

Votes Required for Approval

Approval of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes against the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement.

Because approval of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies requires the affirmative vote of holders representing a majority of the voting power present in person or by proxy at the special meeting, abstentions will have the same effect as voting against that proposal. A failure to attend the meeting in person together with a failure to submit a proxy will have no effect with respect to the adjournment proposal. Because brokers do not have discretionary authority to vote on proposals presented at the meeting, broker non-votes will not count as votes for or against the proposal to adjourn the meeting.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

At a meeting held on May 22, 2008, Angelica's board of directors approved the Merger Agreement and declared the Merger Agreement and the merger to be in the best interests of Angelica and its shareholders. Except with respect to Mr. O'Hara, our President and Chief Executive Officer, our board of directors consists solely of independent directors. Our independent directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and declared the Merger Agreement and the merger to be in the best interests of Angelica and its shareholders. Citing the potential appearance of a conflict of interest arising out of his continued employment with Angelica following the merger, Mr. O'Hara abstained from voting on the Merger Agreement and the merger.

Our directors recommend that you vote "FOR" approval of the Merger Agreement.

Our directors recommend that you vote "FOR" approval of the grant of discretionary authority to the persons named as proxies to vote to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

Proxies

All shares of our common stock represented by properly dated and executed proxies received before or at the special meeting will, unless revoked, be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated on those proxies. If you properly date, execute and return your proxy but make no specification, your proxy will be voted "FOR" approval of the Merger Agreement and "FOR" approval of the grant of discretionary authority to the persons named as proxies to vote to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies. You are urged to complete, date and execute the proxy card enclosed with this proxy statement and mail it promptly in the enclosed postage prepaid envelope, or to vote via the Internet or telephone. If you do not return your proxy card, do not vote via the Internet or telephone, do not attend the special meeting and vote in person, or do not instruct your broker, bank or other nominee how to vote your shares (if your shares are held in "street name"), it will have the same effect as if you voted against the approval of the Merger Agreement.

We do not expect that any other matters will be brought before the special meeting. If, however, other matters are properly presented, the persons named as proxies will vote the shares represented by properly executed proxies in accordance with their judgment with respect to those matters.

If you are a shareholder of record, you may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the special meeting by:

delivering to D.F. King, our proxy solicitor, a written notice bearing a date later than the proxy stating that you would like to revoke your proxy; completing, executing and delivering to D.F. King a new, later dated proxy card for the same shares;

logging onto the Internet website specified on your proxy card in the same manner you would do to submit your proxy electronically or by calling the telephone number specified on your proxy card (in each case if you are eligible to do so) and following the instructions on the proxy card; or attending the special meeting and voting in person. Your attendance alone will not revoke your proxy.

In addition, we have agreed to indemnify D.F. King against any losses arising out of that firm's proxy soliciting services on our behalf.

Stock Certificates

THE MERGER

The discussion under the sections of this proxy statement entitled "THE MERGER" and "THE MERGER AGREEMENT" summarizes certain terms of the merger. This summary may not contain all the information that is important to you. We strongly encourage you to read carefully the Merger Agreement in its entirety, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement.

Background of the Merger

Beginning on December 14, 2005, we received a series of letters from Steel Partners, who owned approximately 19.9% of our common stock as of that date, and continues to be our largest shareholder, proposing the addition of two representatives of Steel Partners to our board of directors and a number of changes to our corporate governance. In response, on December 16, 2005, our board of directors established a Special Committee comprised exclusively of outside directors to evaluate the issues raised by the Steel Partners letters.

At a special board meeting held on February 1, 2006, the board of directors adopted the recommendation of the Special Committee that we retain Morgan Joseph & Co. Inc. ("Morgan Joseph") to evaluate our strategic plan. The board of directors authorized Morgan Joseph to provide an assessment of alternatives to build shareholder value, and to conduct on-going informal market checks to assess the possible interest of others in acquiring Angelica. On February 21, 2006, we formally engaged Morgan Joseph to render certain financial advisory and investment banking services, including the preparation of a report for our board of directors reviewing our projections and monitoring our performance and progress in implementing our strategic plan. On June 30, 2006, we amended Morgan Joseph's terms of engagement to specifically include (i) providing advisory services for a possible sale of Angelica and (ii) a fee agreement regarding compensation in the event we were sold. No decision was made to actively pursue a sale at that time, however.

We retained Stinson Morrison Hecker LLP ("Stinson") on February 8, 2006 to serve as special counsel in connection with the concerns raised by Steel Partners and related matters, including any threatened proxy contest and the exploration of strategic alternatives.

At its regular meeting held on May 23, 2006, our board of directors authorized Stephen O'Hara, our CEO, and Ronald Kruszewski, an independent director, to meet with representatives of Steel Partners to determine if we could reach a settlement with them to resolve their concerns. As the result of a settlement agreement with Steel Partners, we appointed James R. Henderson and John J. Quicke as members of our board on August 30, 2006. As part of the settlement agreement, Steel Partners agreed to restrict certain of its actions with respect to transactions involving us, our assets or stock. We also agreed to certain corporate governance changes, including a phased-in destaggering of our board, agreeing not to extend the term of our shareholder rights plan except under certain conditions and agreeing to consider the separation of the roles of the Chairman of the board of directors and the Chief Executive Officer.

At a regular board meeting held on September 19, 2006, Morgan Joseph presented an update of our performance relative to our strategic plan. Representatives of Morgan Joseph also presented various preliminary strategic alternatives, which included a listing of our potential strategic acquirers and a summary of previous contacts in connection with a potential sale of Angelica. After considering the presentation, our board of directors determined that we should continue to focus on implementing the strategic plan, and that the potential sale of Angelica should remain a possible long-term strategy, but that we should not actively solicit interest from any potential acquirers.

Throughout the remainder of 2006 and continuing into 2007, we concentrated on implementing our strategic plan, while our board of directors received regular updates from Morgan Joseph regarding the performance of Angelica and their assessment of potential strategic alternatives.

On July 2, 2007, Jolly Roger Fund LP, a hedge fund managed by Pirate Capital LLC (collectively, the "Pirate Group") and an owner of approximately 9.8% of our shares as of that date, notified us of its intent to make a proposal at the annual meeting of shareholders seeking a nonbinding resolution that "the board of directors immediately engage a nationally recognized investment banking firm to explore all strategic alternatives (outside of the ordinary course of business) to increase shareholder value, including, but not limited to, the sale of Angelica Corporation, sales of assets or another extraordinary transaction."

During June and July, 2007, our senior management held a number of discussions with a representative of the corporate finance department of an investment bank other than Morgan Joseph to discuss the possibility of being engaged to find a buyer for Angelica. The investment bank prepared an analysis that valued Angelica at as much as $30.00 per share. At the regularly scheduled July 17, 2007, meeting, the board reviewed the analysis provided by the investment bank and viewed it as an attempt to generate a fee-paying engagement rather than as a serious acquisition proposal. This view was borne out by the fact that this investment bank was later invited to participate in the sale process by providing financing or representing potential acquirers it had identified in its analysis, but indicated that it could not provide financing at the levels set out in their original analysis and that the buyers it had indicated would be interested in acquiring Angelica declined to submit any offer. Also, at the July 17, 2007 meeting, the directors approved the continued engagement of Morgan Joseph for one more year, and the independent directors decided to institute an active sale process for Angelica. As such, the board of directors authorized Morgan Joseph to confidentially approach parties who might have an interest in acquiring Angelica and to begin to prepare materials to send to potential acquirers.

On July 17, 2007 following the board of directors meeting, we delivered a letter to the Pirate Group and publicly disclosed that we had retained Morgan Joseph since February 21, 2006 "to assist Angelica's board of directors with a review and exploration of strategic alternatives." The range of alternatives being considered "included all of the alternatives referenced in the Pirate Group's shareholder proposal." We requested that the Pirate Group withdraw its shareholder proposal. Failing such a withdrawal, we indicated that we would submit to the SEC a request for a no-action letter allowing us to exclude the shareholder proposal from our proxy statement for the annual meeting.

On July 18, 2007, in a letter to the staff of the SEC, we sought concurrence of the SEC staff that it would take no action if we excluded the shareholder proposal from our proxy statement for the annual meeting. The basis of our request to exclude the shareholder proposal was Rule 14a-8(i)(10) of the Exchange Act, which permits a registrant to omit proposals that have been "substantially implemented," as that term has been interpreted by the SEC. The Staff concurred with us that the proposal of the Pirate Group could be excluded on that basis.

On August 30, 2007, the Pirate Group notified us of its intent to seek the sale of Angelica, to nominate Thomas R. Hudson Jr. and Christopher Kelly to the board of directors at the 2007 annual meeting and to solicit proxies on behalf of such nominations.

On September 18, 2007, at a meeting of our board of directors, Morgan Joseph presented on the general conditions of the mergers and acquisitions market and potential strategic and financial acquirers. During the meeting, the board of directors concluded that a publicly-announced sales process would be preferable to a private market canvass and directed Morgan Joseph to pursue this initiative. On September 19, 2007, we announced that the board of directors had authorized Morgan Joseph to pursue a possible sale of Angelica. After this announcement, the Pirate Group withdrew its bid to seek the sale of Angelica and to nominate its candidates for election to our board.

Also on September 19, 2007, we announced that the board of directors approved the separation of the roles of Chairman of the board of directors and Chief Executive Officer. This separation of roles followed the board of directors' review of the issue which was conducted pursuant to its settlement agreement with Steel Partners. Following the approval of the separation of the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer roles, the board of directors elected Mr. Kruszewski as non-executive Chairman of the board of directors and John Quicke as Vice Chairman. Mr. O'Hara continued as our President and Chief Executive Officer.

Throughout late-July, August and September of 2007, our management worked with Morgan Joseph to prepare a confidential information memorandum ("CIM") containing disclosure about our business, historical financial information and projections for distribution to potential acquirers and began contacting potential acquirers. We began distributing the CIM to potential acquirers on October 9, 2007.

In order to address the potential for differing interests between management and other shareholders, management was directed to have a representative of Morgan Joseph present when making management presentations to potential bidders or otherwise discussing a potential transaction concerning Angelica with potential bidders.

On October 15, 2007, Lehman Brothers Merchant Banking ("LBMB"), who had received a CIM on October 10, 2007, contacted Morgan Joseph and expressed a strong interest in exploring a possible acquisition of Angelica. LBMB asked Morgan Joseph if our board would consider entering into an agreement wherein LBMB would be granted early access to more detailed information and management so that it could submit a fully-financed offer by the time preliminary offers were expected to be submitted. LBMB indicated that the board would be under no obligation to accept its offer. However, LBMB requested that our board agree to reimburse LBMB's expenses if LBMB submitted an offer above a minimum price threshold and the board decided to not accept LBMB's offer. LBMB indicated that it was contemplating a bid of approximately $25.00 per share. LBMB requested a preliminary meeting with our management to confirm its interest.

After consulting with Mr. Kruszewski and Stinson, Mr. O'Hara and representatives of Morgan Joseph met with Jon Mattson and other representatives of LBMB on October 24, 2007 at LBMB's office in New York City and reviewed our business, historical performance and outlook. Later that evening, Mr. O'Hara and a representative of Morgan Joseph had a dinner meeting with representatives of LBMB at which they further discussed the business and outlook. The next day, LBMB orally confirmed its continued interest in pursuing an acquisition of Angelica and indicated it would submit a formal price range by October 29, 2007 to Morgan Joseph. On October 29, 2007, LBMB orally proposed a price range of $22.00 to $24.00 per share and an expense reimbursement of up to $1 million. LBMB indicated that although they remained very enthusiastic about acquiring Angelica, after completing further analysis, they could not support their previous indication of approximately $25.00 per share.

At the October 30, 2007 board meeting, Morgan Joseph reported to our board of directors on the status of the overall sale process as well as LBMB's proposal: (i) Morgan Joseph had contacted, was in the process of contacting, or had been contacted by, 126 potential acquirers from around the world. Of these, 18 were strategic acquirers and 108 were financial acquirers; (ii) of these potential acquirers, 42 had signed confidentiality agreements and were reviewing the CIM, 17 confidentiality agreements were still being negotiated, 45 participants had declined to participate (including five who had reviewed the CIM), and 22 firms were evaluating whether to execute a confidentiality agreement; and (iii) Morgan Joseph had also had discussions with 18 potential lending sources.

On the same date, our board of directors discussed the merits of LBMB's proposal to be granted early access to our management and detailed financial data, and in return for submitting a fully-financed offer at a minimum price by the preliminary bid date, receiving a reimbursement of expenses of up to $1 million. After negotiating to increase the minimum price to $23.00 per share from $22.00, our board of directors agreed to enter into an arrangement whereby LBMB would receive $250,000 in expense reimbursement if it submitted a proposal of at least $23.00 per share with a maximum reimbursement of $1 million if it submitted a proposal of $24.00 per share, as long as the proposal was submitted no later than November 28, 2007 (a "qualified offer"). The board viewed this as an effective means of potentially securing a firm offer at a potentially attractive price while not limiting its ability to pursue other offers that may develop as a result of the sale process. In addition, LBMB's investigation of Angelica would prepare us for the due diligence process that would occur with any other acquirers selected to move forward after preliminary offers were submitted.

At the same meeting, the board also set the date for all preliminary offers to be submitted as November 27, 2007.

On November 6, 2007, we granted LBMB access to our electronic data room and management of Angelica and representatives of Morgan Joseph conducted a due diligence call with representatives of LBMB.

On November 9, 2007, LBMB, its diligence partners and its financing sources met with our management and Morgan Joseph representatives in St. Louis, Missouri. At that meeting management made a full presentation regarding our business, historical performance and future outlook.

In the middle of November 2007, we updated our forecast, resulting in a reduction of approximately $1.1 million in our projected EBITDA for the 2007 fiscal year.

On November 19, 2007, Mr. O'Hara and representatives of Morgan Joseph met separately with members of two private equity firms which we refer to as "Bidder A" and "Bidder B" in New York City. Later in the day, Mr. O'Hara and a representative of Morgan Joseph had a dinner meeting in Boston, Massachusetts with representatives of LBMB to discuss our business and outlook. During the meeting, we informed LBMB that we had revised downward our estimate of financial performance for the 2007 fiscal year based on current trends in the business.

On November 20, 2007, Mr. O'Hara and a representative of Morgan Joseph met with representatives of LBMB and its financing sources to tour two of our laundry facilities. Later that day, at the request of a potential financial acquirer, which we refer to as "Bidder C," Mr. O'Hara and a representative of Morgan Joseph met with a representative of Bidder C to provide a brief overview of our business, historical performance and outlook.

On November 27, 2007, Morgan Joseph received the majority of preliminary bids from potential acquirers. Certain acquirers who had requested brief deadline extensions were granted such extensions on a case-by-case basis. All preliminary bids were received by the close of business on November 28, 2007.

On the morning of November 28, 2007, Mr. O'Hara and John S. (Jack) Olbrych, our Chief Administrative Officer, and Morgan Joseph representatives met with LBMB's investment committee in New York City. Later that day LBMB submitted a proposal of $22.00 per share, which was accompanied by a draft financing commitment. However, it did not meet the terms of being a qualified offer as it was below the minimum requirement of $23.00 per share and therefore Angelica was not obligated to reimburse any of LBMB's expenses. LBMB indicated to Morgan Joseph that after completing significant due diligence on Angelica and in light of the fact that we had lowered our estimate for our financial performance in 2007, it was only able to support a purchase price of $22.00 per share.

At our November 29, 2007 special meeting, our board of directors, in consultation with Morgan Joseph and Stinson, reviewed the results of the preliminary offers: (i) Morgan Joseph had held discussions with 132 potential acquirers, 18 of which were strategic acquirers and 114 were financial acquirers; (ii) of these potential acquirers, 60 had signed confidentiality agreements and received the CIM, (5 strategic acquirers and 55 financial acquirers), and 14 had submitted preliminary offers (two strategic acquirers and 12 financial acquirers, including LBMB); (iii) Morgan Joseph had engaged in discussions with 22 potential lending sources of which 12 had indicated an interest in possibly financing the transaction, although at differing levels of debt. The 14 preliminary offers received by Morgan Joseph on behalf of Angelica ranged in value from $15.00 per share to $27.85 per share. Many of the preliminary offers were expressed as a range of prices. Using the midpoints of all the ranges submitted, the lowest midpoint was $16.00 per share and the highest midpoint was $26.60 per share.

Morgan Joseph had received two offers higher than LBMB's: one with a range of $25.35 to $27.85 from a bidder which we refer to as "Bidder D" and the other with a range of $22.26 to $24.28 from Bidder A. Bidder D, a private equity firm, would not be able to fund the entire equity required to close the transaction from its existing funds; however, in a discussion with Morgan Joseph, Bidder D had indicated that it had recently closed a similarly-sized transaction where some of its limited partners had invested directly. Bidder D indicated it had already discussed this transaction with its limited partners, and it had indications from some of them that they would be prepared to invest directly to support Bidder D's acquisition of Angelica and they had encouraged Bidder D to submit a preliminary offer. Bidder A was a private equity firm that would have been able to fund the complete equity requirement.

There were then three other bidders, all private equity firms, who submitted preliminary offers wherein the upper end of their range was greater than the $22.00 per share submitted by LBMB; these were: i) a firm we refer to as "Bidder E" with a range of $20.50 $23.50 and a midpoint of $22.00; ii) a firm we refer to as "Bidder F" with a range of $20.80 $22.83 per share and a midpoint of $21.82; and iii) Bidder B with a range of $19.07 $23.13 and a midpoint of $21.10. Bidder C had also submitted a preliminary offer that had a range of $18.50 $21.00 with a midpoint of $19.75. The remaining seven bidders had submitted preliminary offers with a price at the upper end of their range below $20.00 per share.

During the November 29, 2007 meeting, Morgan Joseph noted that all of the preliminary bids (other than LBMB's), were premised on us achieving our previous, unrevised projections and therefore might be subject to downward revision once the bidders learned of our revised lower projections. Also during the November 29, 2007 meeting, our board of directors decided not to accept LBMB's proposal of $22.00 per share in light of the higher preliminary offers from Bidders A and D and the large number of other preliminary offers around $22.00 per share. The board authorized Morgan Joseph to invite immediately Bidder A and Bidder D to conduct detailed due diligence of Angelica, including meetings with Angelica's full management team and access to detailed financial data, including our revised financial projections. Our board of directors also authorized Morgan Joseph to set up meetings with the next four bidders (B, C, E and F) to allow Mr. O'Hara to review our business, performance and outlook and to determine if any of these firms would consider increasing their preliminary offers based upon learning more about our business and prospects in which case they would then be granted access to our full management team and included in the second stage of the process. Because the board at that time was seeking a sale price of $23.00 per share or more and was not willing to consider any offer below $22.00, the remaining seven bidders were informed that their preliminary offers were unacceptable.

On November 30, 2007 and the early part of the week of December 3, 2007 Morgan Joseph contacted each of the bidders to inform them of the board's decisions. The six bidders who were moving forward were granted immediate access to the electronic data room. In addition, Bidders A and D were invited to schedule meetings with their financing sources at Angelica's offices to meet with Angelica's full management team and review Angelica's business and revised projections. Bidders B, C, E and F were invited to propose dates when they could meet with Mr. O'Hara to review Angelica's business and projections. LBMB was informed that the board was unwilling to terminate its sale process at this time in light of the higher offers received. Morgan Joseph encouraged LBMB to remain involved and continue monitoring Angelica's performance in anticipation of submitting a revised final offer in the future with the other remaining participants. While giving no assurances of submitting a revised final offer, LBMB indicated they remained interested in acquiring Angelica and agreed to continue participating in the sale process.

Edgar Filing: ANGELICA CORP /NEW/ - Form DEFM14A

Throughout December 2007, January 2008 and February 2008, Mr. O'Hara and certain other members of our senior management made presentations and/or had discussions with all bidders, including LBMB. The bidders continued varying levels of due diligence process during this period, and we and certain of our financial, legal and other advisors held numerous and extensive meetings with the bidders by telephone or in person to exchange information.

On December 4, 2007 Morgan Joseph spoke with Bidder B and indicated Angelica would provide it with revised projections for 2007 and offered to arrange a second meeting with Mr. O'Hara to discuss Angelica's current outlook. Bidder B indicated it wanted to first review the revised projections and then would get back to Morgan Joseph if it would proceed further. Over the next several weeks Morgan Joseph contacted Bidder B multiple times to determine their level of interest. Eventually in mid-January Bidder B orally indicated to Morgan Joseph that it would not be able to improve its preliminary offer but instead would likely be at the low end of its previous range (which was $19.07 $23.13) and probably would not be any higher than its midpoint, or $21.10. Bidder B indicated that, unless Morgan Joseph could indicate to Bidder B that it would be competitive at its revised value and at a level the board might find acceptable, it would not be willing to continue due diligence. Morgan Joseph confirmed that the revised bid was not competitive with the other bids and was at a level below what the board was seeking. Bidder B indicated it would not be prepared to continue conducting due diligence.

On December 6, 2007, Bidder D and its financing sources met with our management and representatives of Morgan Joseph in St. Louis, Missouri to review our business and financial projections. This was followed by meetings on December 11 and 13, 2007 and January 17 and 18, 2008 with Bidder D, and in certain instances, its financing sources and limited partners, which involved discussion of various due diligence matters, the business and outlook. During this time Bidder D indicated they remained enthusiastic about acquiring Angelica and did not believe the revised projections would have a meaningful impact on their value of Angelica.

On December 12, 2007, Mr. O'Hara and representatives of Morgan Joseph met with Bidder F in New York City to review Angelica's business and projections. Subsequently on December 18, Bidder F indicated that it would be unable to increase its preliminary offer of $20.80 to $22.83 per share and further believed that it would be closer to $20.00 per share based on Angelica's revised outlook for 2007 and the deteriorating conditions for debt financing. Based on that valuation range Morgan Joseph indicated to Bidder F that they would not be competitive with existing preliminary offers nor be at a level that the board would support. Bidder F indicated it would not be prepared to continue conducting due diligence.

On December 20, 2007, Bidder E met with Mr. O'Hara and Mr. Olbrych and representatives of Morgan Joseph in St. Louis and reviewed Angelica's business and projections. Subsequently on December 27, 2007, Bidder E indicated that while they remained interested they would need to revise downward their preliminary offer. They indicated they might be able to place a value on Angelica in the lower end of their initial range (which was $20.50 $23.50) or $20.50 $22.00, but only if they completed more detailed due diligence. Bidder E indicated, however, that they would only be willing to complete such due diligence if Morgan Joseph assured them that at that price range they would be competitive with the other preliminary offers and at a level the board would support. Morgan Joseph indicated that it could not, at this time, give Bidder E such assurance. As a result, Bidder E declined to continue conducting any further due diligence.

On January 8, 2008, Bidder A and its financing sources met with our management and representatives of Morgan Joseph in St. Louis, Missouri to review our business, historical performance and projections. Subsequently on January 16, 2008, Bidder A indicated to Morgan Joseph that it was no longer interested in pursuing an acquisition of Angelica and withdrew from the sale process.

Edgar Filing: ANGELICA CORP /NEW/ - Form DEFM14A

On January 15, 2008, Bidder C submitted a revised preliminary offer of $22.50 to $26.00 based on information contained in our electronic data room, the projections and further discussions its representatives had had with our management and Morgan Joseph. On January 25, 2008, Bidder C and its financing sources met with our management and representatives of Morgan Joseph in St. Louis, Missouri to review our business and financial projections. On February 12, 2008, Bidder C met with Mr. O'Hara and Steve Frey, Angelica's General Counsel, in St. Louis, Missouri to further discuss our business and outlook.

On January 30, 2008, Morgan Joseph sent letters to each of Bidders C, D and LBMB asking that they submit final offers on February 13, 2008. Each bidder was asked to, among other things, indicate the single per share price it was prepared to pay for Angelica, indicate its sources of committed financing and provide a mark-up of a definitive merger agreement prepared by us.

On February 6, 2008, Mr. O'Hara and a representative of Morgan Joseph had a dinner meeting with representatives of LBMB. The next day, several members of our management team and a representative of Morgan Joseph had a meeting with members of LBMB at our Alpharetta, Georgia offices to review our business and outlook.

On the morning of February 13, 2008, Mr. O'Hara, Mr. Olbrych and a Morgan Joseph representative met with Bidder D at its offices and made a presentation regarding our business and outlook to Bidder D's investment committee and certain limited partners.

On the afternoon of February 13, 2008, we received three final bids: (i) LBMB submitted a written offer of $19.50 per share, a mark-up of a form definitive agreement prepared by us and commitment letters from financing sources; (ii) Bidder D submitted an oral offer of $19.00 per share, a mark-up of the same form definitive agreement, but no commitments or proposals from any financing sources; and (iii) Bidder C submitted a written offer of $22.50 per share, a mark-up of the same form definitive agreement and proposal letters from financing sources. Bidder C and LBMB indicated they would require exclusivity to move forward. Bidder D indicated that its financing had been pulled at the last minute and while they believed they could secure other financing, they could not provide any financing proposals on that date.

On February 14, 2008, representatives of Morgan Joseph held extensive negotiations with LBMB, Bidder C and Bidder D. As a result of the negotiations, LBMB raised its offer to $21.00 per share, Bidder D raised its offer to $20.50 per share and Bidder C maintained its offer at $22.50.

At a special meeting held on February 15, our board authorized the execution of an agreement with Bidder C providing for a 30-day exclusive negotiating period within which to negotiate a definitive merger agreement on the terms set out by the board.

During the week of February 18, 2008, Morgan Joseph, in consultation with Mr. Kruszewski and Stinson, negotiated terms of exclusivity with Bidder C while continuing to negotiate with LBMB to attempt to convince LBMB to improve its offer. However, LBMB would not increase its offer beyond $21.00 per share.

On February 21, 2008, our management provided to Morgan Joseph preliminary fiscal year 2007 financial results above the existing forecast due to some favorable expense adjustments that occurred at the end of the fiscal year and which they then believed to have restored approximately $800,000 of the $1.1 million reduction in EBITDA that had been made in November 2007. Morgan Joseph orally shared this improved outlook with the bidders during negotiations.

On February 25, 2008, we signed an exclusivity agreement with Bidder C which gave Bidder C exclusivity for at least 30 days during which time Bidder C would finalize its due diligence, secure committed financing and negotiate a definitive agreement. Bidder C was also required to reaffirm that its offer remained at $22.50 per share once every seven days if they were unable to reaffirm then we had the right to terminate our exclusivity agreement.

Edgar Filing: ANGELICA CORP /NEW/ - Form DEFM14A

During the period from February 25, 2008 through March 31, 2008, Stinson and Bidder C's outside counsel worked to negotiate the terms of a definitive merger agreement.

On February 25 and February 26, 2008, we held meetings with representatives of Bidder C and its financing sources, our management and representatives of Morgan Joseph to review our business, historical financial performance and outlook. Throughout the balance of February and March, numerous meetings and phone calls occurred with Bidder C, its advisors and financing sources concerning our business, historical performance and outlook.

On March 7, 2008, Bidder C orally requested to be allowed to partner with Bidder D. Even though Bidder C possessed adequate equity capital to consummate the transaction, they believed Bidder D's familiarity with our industry and business would assist Bidder C in securing financing and completing the acquisition. Bidder C reaffirmed that its offer remained at $22.50 per share and that Bidder D was prepared to also support an offer at that price even though Bidder D had previously indicated it would only be willing to pay $20.50 per share. This was subsequently confirmed by Morgan Joseph in a conversation with Bidder D. After consultation with the Chairman of the board of directors and Stinson, we decided to allow the two bidders to work together in order to increase the likelihood that the combined firms would be able to secure the financing for the proposed transaction. During the weeks of March 10, March 17 and March 24, 2008, Bidder C and Bidder D worked together to finalize due diligence of our company and to secure financing. During this period, Bidder C (with the concurrence of Bidder D) continued to reaffirm that its offer remained at $22.50 per share.

On March 17, 2008, Mr. O'Hara and a representative of Morgan Joseph had a meeting earlier in the day with representatives of Bidder C, which was followed by a meeting with representatives of both Bidder C and Bidder D. The discussions at each of those meetings focused on our business and outlook.

During a regular March 27, 2008, board meeting, Morgan Joseph presented an analysis of the principal strategic alternatives available to Angelica. In addition, John Granda of Stinson explained the fiduciary duties of the board of directors in evaluating and acting upon strategic alternatives. Morgan Joseph and Stinson reported on the status of Bidder C's and Bidder D's efforts to secure financing and negotiate a definitive merger agreement with Bidder C and Bidder D as well as Bidder C's and Bidder D's continued reaffirmation of their offer of $22.50 as recently as the day before the board meeting.

On March 31, 2008, Bidder C orally informed Morgan Joseph that it no longer could reaffirm a price of $22.50 per share, but it would only be interested in continuing to move forward if our board of directors was prepared to accept a price in the "high teens or low twenties." Morgan Joseph negotiated with Bidder C over the next two days in an attempt to raise its bid. After Bidder C would not reaffirm a price of $22.50 per share, we terminated the exclusivity agreement with Bidder C. Bidder C indicated that it was only speaking on behalf of itself and could not indicate Bidder D's level of interest.

On April 1, 2008, Morgan Joseph contacted Bidder D directly, who indicated that Bidder D remained interested in pursuing a transaction at $22.50 per share, but would need to secure an equity co-investor as well as debt financing. Morgan Joseph also contacted LBMB to assess LBMB's interest in moving forward. After extensive negotiations over the next several days, LBMB indicated that it was willing to improve its offer from $21.00 to $21.50 and pursue a transaction. LBMB also requested exclusivity and expense reimbursement agreements.

At a special meeting held on April 7, 2008, our board of directors debated the merits of moving forward with either LBMB or Bidder D. Management had also communicated to the board of directors that approximately half of the $800,000 expected improvement in EBITDA in the fiscal 2007 financial results reported at the February 21 meeting had not materialized due to actual revenues being lower than the earlier preliminary estimate. The directors discussed the feasibility of LBMB increasing its offer above $21.50 and discussed the merits of exclusivity and an expense reimbursement agreement.

After considering Bidder D's inability to secure an equity co-investor or debt financing over the preceding several months, the board concluded that LBMB had a much higher likelihood of raising the financing to consummate the merger at the price it was proposing. Our board of directors therefore authorized Morgan Joseph to distribute the updated fiscal 2007 financial results to LBMB, to continue negotiations with LBMB to improve its price offer and to enter into an exclusivity and expense reimbursement agreement.

During the weeks of April 14, April 21 and April 28, 2008, Morgan Joseph and Stinson, in consultation with Mr. Kruszewski, negotiated the terms of exclusivity, expense reimbursement and price with LBMB. On April 17, 2008, LBMB improved its offer to $22.00 per share and clarified that regular quarterly dividends would continue to be paid through closing, in exchange for a customary voting agreement with Steel Partners, as discussed under "THE VOTING AGREEMENT" below. There were numerous meetings with our management, Morgan Joseph representatives, LBMB's representatives and LBMB's financing sources regarding our business, recent financial performance and outlook, and the negotiation of break-up fees, financing conditions and termination rights.

During this time, Bidder D continued to attempt to secure equity co-investors and debt financing and periodically communicated with Morgan Joseph. Morgan Joseph indicated that it was working with another party and that Bidder D needed to secure an equity co-investor and debt financing proposals to regain credibility with our board of directors. As late as May 2, 2008 Bidder D indicated to Morgan Joseph that it had been unable to secure either an equity co-investor or any proposals or commitments for debt financing. While Bidder D had attempted to convince numerous parties to co-invest with it in this transaction, including many of its limited partners, Bidder D indicated to Morgan Joseph that all had declined. Similarly, Bidder D indicated that although it had approached numerous debt financing sources, it had been unable to convince any of them to provide written financing proposals that could be shared with Morgan Joseph.

On May 5, 2008, we executed an exclusivity and expense reimbursement agreement with LBMB. Under the terms of the agreement, we would reimburse LBMB up to $375,000 in diligence expenses if we determined for any reason not to enter into a definitive merger agreement with LBMB if LBMB had submitted an offer of at least $22.00 per share no later than May 20, 2008, with terms that were consistent with those set forth in the agreement, which we refer to as a "LBMB Qualified Offer." A LBMB Qualified Offer was defined in the agreement as the LBMB mark-up of the merger agreement proposed by us, subject to specified revisions involving extinguishing our stock options, various rights to terminate the merger agreement under specified circumstances, the respective amount of the termination fee if Angelica or LBMB terminated the merger agreement, including due to the failure to obtain the requisite vote of Angelica shareholders in favor of the merger or the failure of Parent to deliver the financing by a specified end date to consummate the merger. We retained the right to accept or reject any offer from LBMB and, in the event we rejected a LBMB Qualified Offer, the payment of diligence expenses was LBMB's sole and exclusive remedy.

On May 8, 2008, Morgan Joseph informed Bidder D that Angelica had signed an exclusivity agreement with another party and would not be able to communicate with Bidder D during the exclusivity period.

On May 9, 2008, Bidder D unilaterally submitted a written proposal, along with a mark-up of the draft merger agreement proposed by us indicating that it was prepared to pay $22.50 per share. The proposal, however, did not include credible assurances as to the availability of an equity co-investor or debt financing to enable Bidder D to consummate a transaction.

From May 5 to May 21, 2008, LBMB, its due diligence advisors and financing sources, our senior management, and representatives of Morgan Joseph and Stinson held numerous and extensive meetings with LBMB by telephone and in person to exchange information and assist in completing its due diligence. During this period, Stinson had several conversations with LBMB's outside legal counsel, White & Case LLP ("White & Case") to negotiate remaining issues in the draft merger agreement, including representations, warranties, covenants and remaining details of the provisions negotiated in connection with the definition of an LBMB Qualified Offer under the exclusivity agreement with LBMB.

On May 20, 2008, LBMB confirmed its offer of $22.00 per share and delivered definitive documentation regarding a proposed transaction, including a form equity commitment letter and guarantee, as well as executed debt financing commitment letters.

From May 20 to May 22, 2008, LBMB negotiated the terms of a voting agreement with Steel Partners pursuant to which Steel Partners would agree to vote in favor of the transaction proposed by LBMB.

On May 22, 2008, our board of directors held a regularly-scheduled meeting with representatives of Stinson and Morgan Joseph to discuss the proposed terms of the transaction. At this meeting, Morgan Joseph gave detailed presentations on the financial terms of the transaction, and rendered its opinion that, as of May 22, 2008, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations discussed in its opinion, the consideration to be received by the Angelica stockholders (other than Parent and Merger Sub) in the proposed transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to such stockholders. Stinson reviewed the proposed terms of the definitive merger agreement.

During the board meeting on May 22, 2008, the directors inquired as to the members of management that had been or would be invited by Parent to continue their employment with Angelica following the merger and, if so, the anticipated terms of their employment as well as their opportunity to participate in making an equity investment or receive equity-based incentive compensation in Angelica in connection with or after the merger. Mr. Granda of Stinson reminded the board that, in order to address the potential for conflict of interest, management had been instructed not to negotiate the terms of their employment, equity roll-over or equity-based incentive compensation until all of the material terms of the merger agreement had been negotiated. Mr. Granda noted that management had been advised at the end of the preceding week that such point had been reached and they could begin such negotiations. Mr. O'Hara stated, however, that negotiations on those matters had not yet been conducted and that he had only a general idea of the approach LBMB planned to take in this regard.

The board requested Mr. Granda of Stinson and Mr. LaFlèche of Morgan Joseph to call Jon Mattson of LBMB to get an understanding of these employment and compensation matters in order to assess the nature and possible effect of any potential differing interests between management and other shareholders. Mr. Mattson stated that Mr. O'Hara and most of the other members of management would be invited to continue as management. He noted that their base and bonus compensation would be similar in amount and structure to that currently in place, except that any increases would be discretionary, the bonus would be based primarily on performance targets like budgeted EBITDA and the remainder of the bonus would be tied to meeting other objectives in the strategic plan. As is common in these types of transactions, he indicated that a pool of options equal to 10% of the fully diluted shares would be created, of which approximately 80% of such options would be granted in connection with the merger closing and the remainder would be granted in the future, presumably to new hires. These options would be granted to between six and eight members of management that are driving value creation, of which Mr. O'Hara would receive options representing between 3% and 4% of the fully diluted shares. The exercise price for these options would be the same as the purchase price per share being paid by LBMB for its shares in Parent and they would vest on a performance basis (e.g., meeting budgeted EBITDA) for senior management and on a time basis for more junior members of the management team. He also indicated that Mr. O'Hara would be expected to invest all of the after-tax proceeds of his share and options sales in connection with the merger and issuer tender offer (except for a donation to his charitable trust) into stock of Parent while other members of management would be expected to invest a high percentage of such similar proceeds, in each case at the same purchase price per share being paid by LBMB for its shares in Parent. Finally, he planned to have Angelica enter into employment agreements with continuing members of management that currently have such agreements, but that would have terms consistent with the foregoing and be on LBMB's standard form.

The board also considered the proposal to enter into a merger at $22.50 per share that was unilaterally submitted by Bidder D on May 9, 2008, and determined that the relative likelihood of consummating a merger with LBMB was much higher than with Bidder D in view of the committed equity and debt financing provided by LBMB and the absence of any remaining due diligence required by LBMB's financing sources. The debt financing proposals from Bidder D, on the other hand, were unsigned, preliminary in nature, subject to due diligence and other conditions, and did not contemplate a fully-underwritten financing. Moreover, the equity co-investor proposed by Bidder D had not conducted any due diligence on Angelica and did not provide any documentation supporting its ability to provide the needed equity financing to consummate the proposed merger. The board also believed that it could not successfully negotiate to raise LBMB's price higher than $22.00 per share and that any effort to use Bidder D's proposal as a basis for seeking to negotiate a higher price would likely result in the withdrawal of LBMB's offer and termination of negotiations with LBMB. In view of these uncertainties and risks, the prior negotiating history with Bidder D, Bidder D's prior unsuccessful attempts to raise the financing needed for the transaction with Angelica, and the extensive and thorough sale process conducted by Morgan Joseph, the board determined that the combination of price and the greater certainty of consummating the merger with LBMB made it superior to Bidder D's proposal. After taking these considerations into account, as well as the other reasons described under "Recommendation of Angelica's Board and Reasons for the Merger," the board determined that the LBMB offer to merge at $22.00 per share in cash, with the terms presented in the merger agreement and committed financing, was the best transaction reasonably available to Angelica.

The independent members of our board of directors, by unanimous vote, approved the merger and the execution of the transaction documents. Mr. O'Hara abstained from that vote in order to avoid the appearance of a conflict of interest arising from the potential opportunity he was expected to have to remain an employee of Angelica after the merger and to potentially receive equity-based incentive compensation and make an equity investment. The board also considered and approved the amendment of our shareholder rights agreement to clarify that the merger and voting agreement with Steel Partners would not trigger exercise of rights granted by the rights agreement. Because our benefit plans do not permit our board to unilaterally terminate options granted under our benefit plans in exchange for a cash payment, and the Parent does not want those options to continue after the merger, the board also approved a tender offer by Angelica to purchase those options for cash to fulfill our obligations under the Merger Agreement to exercise commercially-reasonable efforts to eliminate those options.

Following the approval of the board of directors, the Merger Agreement was signed by the parties effective May 22, 2008, and on May 23, 2008, we issued a joint press release with LBMB announcing the execution of the Merger Agreement.

Recommendation of Angelica's Board and Reasons for the Merger

Our board of directors believes the terms of the Merger Agreement are in the best interests of us and our shareholders. Accordingly, at a meeting held on May 22, 2008, Angelica's board of directors approved the Merger Agreement. Except with respect to Mr. O'Hara, our President and Chief Executive Officer, our board of directors consists solely of independent directors. Our independent directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and declared the Merger Agreement and the merger to be in the best interests of Angelica and its shareholders. Citing the potential appearance of a conflict of interest arising out of his continued employment with Angelica following the merger, Mr. O'Hara abstained from voting on the Merger Agreement and the merger. The directors unanimously recommend that our shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the Merger Agreement.

Edgar Filing: ANGELICA CORP /NEW/ - Form DEFM14A

In the course of reaching its determination, our board of directors consulted with legal counsel with respect to its legal duties and the terms of the Merger Agreement. In addition, our board of directors consulted with its financial advisor with respect to the financial aspects and fairness of the transaction from a financial point of view, and with senior management regarding, among other things, financial aspects, operational matters and strategic alternatives. The terms of the Merger Agreement are the result of arm's length negotiations.

In reaching its determination that the merger is in the best interests of our shareholders, our board of directors considered a number of factors, including, without limitation, the following:

our financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, business and prospects;

the range of potential values if we remained independent and the execution and other risks inherent in remaining independent and achieving our strategic plan, including business, market and competitive risks;

the other strategic alternatives available to us and the advantages and disadvantages associated with each;

the premium of the merger consideration of $22.00 per share to the closing price per share on the trading day immediately preceding our announcement of the Merger Agreement, $16.45, the average closing price per share price of our common stock for the previous one month, $16.47, the previous three months, $17.13, the previous six months, $17.35, and the previous twelve months, $18.87;

the fact that the merger consideration to be paid is cash which provides certainty of value and immediate liquidity to our shareholders;

the views expressed by management with respect to the merger, including the risks of execution and other risks associated with remaining an independent publicly-traded company;

the financial presentation of Morgan Joseph, reviewed and discussed with our board of directors by representatives of Morgan Joseph, with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by the holders of our common stock (other than Parent and Merger Sub) in the merger;

Morgan Joseph's oral opinion issued to our board of directors on May 22, 2008 (which was subsequently confirmed in writing) that, based upon and subject to the considerations described in its written opinion and such other matters as Morgan Joseph considered relevant, the consideration to be received by the holders of our common stock (other than Parent and Merger Sub) in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders as described more fully below under "Opinion of Angelica's Financial Advisor" and attached hereto as Appendix B;

the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, including the parties' representations, warranties and covenants, the conditions to their respective obligations and the limited ability of the parties to terminate the Merger Agreement;

the likelihood that the merger would be consummated, in light of the experience and reputation of LBMB and the financial commitments to Parent, the absence of any financing condition to the obligation of Parent to complete the merger (together with the guarantee by Lehman Brothers Merchant Banking Partners IV L.P. of the reverse termination fee, the financing termination fee and the costs of collection), and the likelihood of obtaining required regulatory approvals;

the relative likelihood that a superior offer from another potential purchaser would be made and consummated was insufficient to justify risking not proceeding with the favorable transaction with Parent;

provisions in the Merger Agreement permitting our board of directors, in the exercise of its duties to us and our shareholders under applicable Missouri law, to furnish information and data, and enter into discussions and negotiations, in connection with a competing proposal that constitutes or may be reasonably expected to lead to a superior proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement), subject to conditions specified in the Merger Agreement;

provisions in the Merger Agreement permitting our board of directors, in the exercise of its duties to us and our shareholders under applicable Missouri law, to terminate the Merger Agreement in favor of a superior proposal or to provide the board of directors' recommendation in favor of a superior acquisition proposal, taking into account that following such termination or recommendation, we must pay Parent a fee of $9,000,000 which is within a range of termination fees that is customary for transactions of this type and size and is not expected to preclude a third party from making an acquisition proposal;

the fact that the Merger Agreement would be subject to approval by the holders of at least two-thirds of our outstanding shares of our common stock; and the ability of shareholders who may not support the merger to obtain "fair value" for their shares if they properly perfect and exercise their dissenters' rights under Section 351.455 of the MGBCL, which provides shareholders with the opportunity to exercise appraisal rights and to seek a judicial determination as to the fair value of their shares of common stock (see "THE MERGER Dissenters' Rights" for information on how to exercise your appraisal rights).

In the course of its deliberations, our board of directors also considered a variety of potentially countervailing factors in its deliberations concerning the merger, including the following:

the risks and contingencies related to the announcement and pendency of the merger, including the impact of the merger on our employees, customers and our relationships with third parties;

the conditions to Parent's obligation to complete the merger and the right of Parent to terminate the Merger Agreement in certain circumstances;

the fact that under the terms of the Merger Agreement, we cannot solicit other acquisition proposals and must pay to Parent a termination fee of $9,000,000, if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, which, in addition to being costly, might have the effect of discouraging other parties from proposing an alternative transaction that might be more advantageous to our shareholders than the merger;

the fact that the merger consideration consists solely of cash and will therefore be taxable to our shareholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

the interests that certain of our directors and executive officers may have with respect to the merger, in addition to their interests as our shareholders generally, as described in "THE MERGER Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger;"

the fact that, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, we must generally conduct our business in the ordinary course and we are subject to a variety of other restrictions on the conduct of our business prior to closing of the merger or termination of the Merger Agreement, which may delay or prevent us from pursuing business opportunities that may arise or preclude actions that would be advisable if we were to remain an independent company;

if the merger does not close, our officers and other employees will have expended extensive efforts attempting to complete the transaction and will have experienced significant distractions from their work during the pendency of the transaction; and we will have incurred substantial transaction costs in connection with the transaction and such costs will negatively impact our operating results.

Edgar Filing: ANGELICA CORP /NEW/ - Form DEFM14A

Our board of directors concluded that these potential countervailing factors did not outweigh the benefits of the merger to us and our shareholders and that such factors were satisfactorily addressed by the amount of the merger consideration and the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement.

The preceding discussion is not meant to be an exhaustive description of the information and factors considered by our board of directors, but is believed to address the material information and factors considered. In view of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, our board of directors did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise attempt to assign relative weights to the various factors considered in reaching its determination. In considering the factors described above, individual members of the board may have given different weight to different factors.

Opinion of Angelica's Financial Advisor

Angelica's board of directors retained Morgan Joseph as its financial advisor in connection with the proposed transaction and to render an opinion to the board of directors of Angelica as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by the holders of Angelica's common stock (other than Parent and Merger Sub) in the proposed merger. Morgan Joseph was selected by our board of directors based on Morgan Joseph's qualifications, reputation and substantial experience with transactions similar to the merger, as well as Morgan Joseph's familiarity with Angelica. Morgan Joseph rendered its oral opinion to the board of directors on May 22, 2008 (as subsequently confirmed in writing) (the "Morgan Joseph Opinion"), that, as of that date, the consideration to be received by the holders of common stock (other than Parent and Merger Sub) in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to those holders. The full text of the written opinion delivered by Morgan Joseph to our board of directors, dated May 22, 2008, which sets forth the assumptions made, general procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the scope of the review undertaken by Morgan Joseph in rendering its opinion, is attached as Appendix B to this document and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Morgan Joseph Opinion is addressed and was furnished solely to Angelica's board of directors and addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of common stock (other than Parent and Merger Sub) of the consideration to be received by those holders in the merger. It does not address the merits of the underlying business decision by Angelica or Angelica's board of directors to propose, consider, approve, recommend, declare advisable or consummate the merger, and does not constitute a recommendation to Angelica, Angelica's board of directors, Angelica's stockholders, or any other Angelica constituent, person or entity as to how such person should vote or as to any other specific action that should be taken in connection with the transaction.

This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Morgan Joseph Opinion.

In arriving at its opinion, Morgan Joseph:

reviewed a draft dated May 20, 2008 of the Merger Agreement;

reviewed the equity commitment, guaranty letter and debt commitments provided to Parent in support of its offer;

reviewed and analyzed certain internal information (including projections prepared by Angelica) and other data relating to, and provided by, Angelica concerning its operations, assets, present condition, future prospects and the industry in which it operates;

conducted a number of detailed discussions with Angelica's management regarding the past and current operations and financial condition and prospects of Angelica;

Edgar Filing: ANGELICA CORP /NEW/ - Form DEFM14A

reviewed and analyzed certain historical financial information and other data relating to Angelica in publicly filed documents and interim data provided by management;

reviewed the reported sales prices and trading activity of Angelica's common stock;

reviewed and analyzed certain publicly available information concerning other companies engaged in businesses which Morgan Joseph believed to be relevant and the trading markets for certain securities of such other companies; and reviewed and analyzed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations which Morgan Joseph believed to be relevant.

Morgan Joseph also met with and held conversations with certain officers of Angelica concerning its business and operations, assets, present condition and future prospects, and undertook such other studies, analyses and investigations as Morgan Joseph deemed necessary or appropriate to Morgan Joseph's inquiry.

In arriving at its opinion, Morgan Joseph, with our board of directors' permission, assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information used by Morgan Joseph and did not attempt independently to verify such information, nor did Morgan Joseph assume any responsibility to do so. Morgan Joseph assumed that Angelica's projections provided to or reviewed by Morgan Joseph were reasonably prepared based on the best current estimates and judgment of Angelica's management as to the future financial condition and results of operations of Angelica. Morgan Joseph made no independent investigation of any legal, accounting or tax matters affecting Angelica, and assumed the correctness of all legal, accounting and tax advice given to Angelica and its board of directors or any committee thereof. Morgan Joseph did not conduct a physical inspection of the properties and facilities of Angelica, nor did Morgan Joseph make or obtain any independent evaluation or appraisal of such properties and facilities. Morgan Joseph also took into account its assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and its experience in similar transactions, as well as its experience in securities valuation in general.

The Morgan Joseph Opinion necessarily is based upon economic, financial, political, regulatory and other conditions as they existed and could be evaluated on May 22, 2008, the date of the Morgan Joseph Opinion, and Morgan Joseph assumed no responsibility to update or revise the Morgan Joseph Opinion based upon events or circumstances occurring after such date. Morgan Joseph expressed no opinion about the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to holders of options to purchase Angelica's common stock. Morgan Joseph also expressed no opinion about the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to any of Angelica's officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the compensation to the public stockholders.

In connection with furnishing to our board of directors the Morgan Joseph Opinion, Morgan Joseph performed a variety of financial analyses, which are summarized below. These analyses were presented to the board of directors at a meeting held on May 22, 2008. The summary set forth below does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Morgan Joseph in this regard. Certain of the summaries of financial analyses include information set forth in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses used by Morgan Joseph, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The preparation of an opinion regarding financial fairness involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analyses and the application of these methods to the particular circumstances, and, therefore, such an opinion is not readily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Accordingly, notwithstanding the separate analyses summarized below, Morgan Joseph believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors considered by it, without considering all of its analyses and factors, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all of its analyses and factors, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying the Morgan Joseph Opinion.

Selected Comparable Transactions Analysis

Using publicly available information, Morgan Joseph reviewed the purchase prices and multiples paid in the following selected merger and acquisition transactions which it deemed relevant in reviewing the financial terms of the proposed merger (the "Selected Transactions"), which are presented in the table below in reverse chronological order based upon the date of announcement:

Date Announced	Target Company	Acquiror Company

March 31, 2003	AHL Services, Inc.	Cravey, Green & Wahlen Incorporated
March 22, 2002	Sophus Berendsen A/S	Davis Service Group PLC
June 12, 2002	Vestcom International, Inc.	Cornerstone Equity Investors, LLC
May 15, 2002	Boron, LePore & Associates, Inc.	Cardinal Health, Inc.

Morgan Joseph selected these transactions, among other reasons, because the targets involved in such transactions operate in similar industries and have similar lines of business to Angelica. However, none of the target companies or Selected Transactions is identical or directly comparable to Angelica or the proposed merger, respectively. For each precedent transaction, Morgan Joseph determined enterprise values (as defined below, with market capitalization for the Selected Transactions determined based on the offered price per share in the transaction) as a multiple of its operating earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization and, in the case of Angelica, excluding other operating income and losses related to Angelica's Edison, New Jersey facility, which was sold in January, 2008, which is referred to as EBITDA, for the latest twelve-month period preceding the acquisition ("LTM") and as a multiple of its EBITDA minus capital expenditures for the LTM period.

Enterprise Value was defined by Morgan Joseph as market capitalization (including in-the-money options) plus total debt, preferred stock (on an as-converted basis, if applicable) and minority interest less cash and cash equivalents.

The table below provides a summary of the multiples:

Multiples Observed from the Selected Transactions

	Median	25th Percentile	75th Percentile
Enterprise Value as a multiple of:
LTM EBITDA	8.8x	7.8x	11.0x
LTM EBITDA-Capital Expenditures	13.3x	11.9x	14.8x

Morgan Joseph applied multiple ranges based upon the Selected Transactions analysis to Angelica's corresponding financial data. The analysis of Selected Transactions indicated an implied range of per share values of Angelica's common stock of $17.82 to $23.38, based on LTM EBITDA, and of $11.92 to $15.35, based on LTM EBITDA-Capital Expenditures.

Selected Publicly Traded Companies Analysis

Using publicly available research analyst estimates and other publicly available information, Morgan Joseph analyzed, among other things, the implied value of Angelica based upon corresponding trading multiples of selected companies that Morgan Joseph believed were generally comparable to Angelica. These selected companies are set forth in the table below (the "Selected Companies").

ABM Industries Incorporated

Alliance Imaging, Inc.

Cintas Corporation

Compass Group Plc

The Davis Service Group Plc

G&K Services, Inc.

Healthcare Services Group, Inc.

K-Bro Linen Income Fund

Rentokil Initial Plc

Sodexo

SRI Surgical Express, Inc.

Stericycle, Inc.

UniFirst Corporation

In its analysis, Morgan Joseph derived and compared multiples for Angelica and a range of multiples for the Selected Companies, including, but not limited to, Enterprise Value (as defined above) as a multiple of LTM EBITDA and LTM EBITDA-Capital Expenditures.

Edgar Filing: ANGELICA CORP /NEW/ - Form DEFM14A

Although none of the Selected Companies is directly comparable to Angelica in all respects, they were chosen because they are publicly traded companies with operations, lines of business and/or product segments that for purposes of analysis may be considered similar to certain of Angelica's operations, lines of business and/or product segments.

The financial information reviewed by Morgan Joseph included market trading multiples exhibited by the Selected Companies with respect to their LTM financial performance. All multiples for the selected companies were based upon closing stock prices as of May 16, 2008. The table below provides a summary of these multiples:

Multiples Observed from the Selected Companies

	Median	25th Percentile	75th Percentile
Enterprise Value as a multiple of:
LTM EBITDA	7.2x	6.5x	8.8x
LTM EBITDA-Capital Expenditures	12.2x	10.2x	17.9x

Morgan Joseph applied the multiples derived for the Selected Companies to Angelica's corresponding financial data. The analysis of Selected Companies indicated an implied range of per share value of Angelica's common stock of $14.04 to $17.82, based on LTM EBITDA, and of $8.49 to $11.42, based on LTM EBITDA-Capital Expenditures.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Using Angelica's projected financial information for the years 2008 through 2010, and projected financial information for 2011 and 2012 calculated based on growth rates reviewed with and approved by Angelica's management and assuming constant margins, Morgan Joseph calculated the net present values of Angelica's unlevered free cash flows and the cash tax savings from Angelica's net operating losses ("NOLs") using discount rates ranging from 11.0% to 13.0%. Morgan Joseph's estimate of the appropriate range of discount rates was based on the estimated cost of capital for Angelica and the Selected Companies. Morgan Joseph also estimated a range of terminal values for Angelica based on EBITDA in 2012 applying multiples that ranged from 6.25x to 6.75x and discounted these terminal values using the assumed range of discount rates. Morgan Joseph's estimate of the appropriate range of terminal multiples was based upon the multiples of the Selected Companies and Angelica's financial performance relative to the Selected Companies. The present values of the implied terminal values of Angelica were then added to the present value of the after-tax free unlevered free cash flows to arrive at a range of enterprise values. The enterprise values were then converted to equity value by deducting Angelica's net debt of $72.3 million to $74.4 million as of April 26, 2008, after giving effect to the anticipated cash proceeds of option exercises based upon the resulting per share price. The resulting equity values were then calculated on a per share basis. The discounted cash flow analysis indicated an implied equity value per share of Angelica's common stock of $33.42 at the midpoint of Morgan Joseph's assumed ranges of discount rates and terminal value EBITDA multiples.

Implied Equity Value per Share

Assumed Terminal Value Multiple of 2012 EBITDA:
	6.25x	6.50x	6.75x
After-Tax Weighted Average Cost of Capital ("WACC"):
11.0%	$ 33.90	$ 35.02	$ 36.14

Morgan Joseph also conducted sensitivity analyses on the discounted cash flow valuation, analyzing scenarios in which Angelica realized a range of steady revenue growth rates and EBITDA margins similar to those the Company has achieved historically. Based on revenue growth rates of between 3% and 5% per year and EBITDA margins of 8% to 10%, which generally correspond to the financial performance of Angelica's current business over the last ten years, the discounted cash flow analysis indicated a range of implied equity values per share of Angelica's common stock of $14.01 to $21.79.

Morgan Joseph also noted that Angelica had in the past periodically fallen short of its projected financial performance, sometimes by a significant amount. As a result, Morgan Joseph also analyzed the impact on its discounted cash flow analysis of Angelica achieving less than 100% of its EBITDA projections. Based upon the midpoint of Morgan Joseph's assumed ranges of discount rates and terminal value EBITDA multiples, Morgan Joseph's analysis indicated an implied equity value per share of Angelica's common stock of $16.24, $20.62, $24.95 and $29.19, assuming Angelica achieved only 60%, 70%, 80% and 90%, respectively, of its projected EBITDA.

The financial projections used in Morgan Joseph's discounted cash flows analysis was based upon the management projections. While discounted cash flow analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, it necessarily relies on numerous assumptions, including assets and earnings growth rates, terminal values and discount rates. As a result, it is not necessarily indicative of Angelica's actual, present or future value or results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analysis.

Premiums Paid Analysis

Morgan Joseph reviewed the premiums paid for 73 selected publicly announced U.S. domestic transactions announced between May 22, 2006 and March 20, 2008 having transaction values of between $100.0 million and $350.0 million. Morgan Joseph then compared the average premiums of these transactions based on per share market prices of the target company at reference points of one day prior to transaction announcement, one week prior to transaction announcement and four weeks prior to transaction announcement, respectively, to the implied premium based on the merger consideration of $22.00 per share in cash to Angelica's stock price at the same reference points. The following table shows the average premiums of the above mentioned transactions and the implied premium based on the merger consideration.

Premiums Observed

	One Day Prior	One Week Prior	Four Weeks Prior
Median Premium	29.5%	31.0%	35.1%
25th Percentile	18.2%	21.4%	21.0%
75th Percentile	42.6%	44.2%	45.4%

By applying the range of observed premiums on the stock price of these companies four weeks prior to announcement of the transaction, Morgan Joseph arrived at an implied per share value for Angelica of $19.97 to $24.00 per share.

Miscellaneous

Angelica's initial engagement of Morgan Joseph related to a review of the strategic alternatives available to Angelica. Morgan Joseph's role was subsequently expanded to advise Angelica regarding a possible sale, among other things. Angelica agreed to pay Morgan Joseph customary fees for its services. A portion of Morgan Joseph's fee was payable at the time Morgan Joseph rendered its opinion. Such fee was not contingent upon either the conclusion of its opinion or the consummation of any transaction. Morgan Joseph will also receive a fee which is subject to the consummation of the Transaction. Angelica will pay Morgan Joseph an advisory fee of approximately $3,000,000, (i) $175,000 of which has been paid to Morgan Joseph pursuant to periodic retainer payments since signing the initial engagement letter, (ii) $250,000 of which was paid to Morgan Joseph following delivery of its written fairness opinion and (iii) the remainder of which is contingent upon, and payable upon, consummation of the merger. Angelica also agreed to reimburse Morgan Joseph for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with its engagement, including certain fees and disbursements of its legal counsel, and to indemnify Morgan Joseph against liabilities relating to or arising out of its engagement, including liabilities under the securities laws. The opinion was approved and issued by Morgan Joseph's opinion committee. In the ordinary course of its business, Morgan Joseph may acquire, hold or sell, long or short positions, or trade or otherwise effect transactions in equity and other securities and financial instruments (including loans and other obligations) of, or investments in, Angelica. Other than this engagement, Morgan Joseph has acted as a financial advisor to Angelica within the past three years and has received fees from Angelica for such services. Other than (i) Morgan Joseph in the past acting as financial advisor to other portfolio companies of the parent company of the Parent and (ii) an executive officer of the parent company of the Parent owning less than one-half of one percent of the equity of Morgan Joseph Holdings Inc. (the parent company of Morgan Joseph), there are no existing material relationships involving the payment or receipt of compensation between Morgan Joseph and any party to the Transaction during the last two years. Morgan Joseph may in the future seek to provide investment banking services to Angelica, Parent or any of their affiliates, and receive customary fees for such services.

Projections

Angelica's senior management does not as a matter of course make public projections as to future performance or earnings beyond the current fiscal year and is especially wary of making projections for extended earnings periods due to the unpredictability of the underlying assumptions and estimates. However, senior management did provide financial projections to LBMB and other potential acquirers and their advisors and potential financing sources in connection with their consideration of a possible transaction with Angelica. These projections were also provided to Angelica's board of directors and to Morgan Joseph. We have included in this proxy statement the projections that were deemed material by our board of directors for purposes of considering and evaluating the merger and which were provided to LBMB. The inclusion of these projections should not be regarded as an indication that management, our board of directors or Morgan Joseph or any other recipient of these or other financial projections considered, or now considers, these projections, or any other projections provided in connection with the transaction, to be a reliable prediction of future results, and they should not be relied on as such.

Angelica believes that the assumptions Angelica's management used as a basis for the projections were reasonable at the time the projections were prepared, given information Angelica's management had at the time. However, the projections do not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date they were prepared and you should not assume that the projections remain accurate as of the date of this proxy statement or that the projections will continue to be accurate or reflective of Angelica's management's view at the time you consider whether to vote for approval of the Merger Agreement. The internal financial forecasts upon which these projections were based are subjective in many respects and are thus susceptible to various interpretations. The projections reflect numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond Angelica's control. The projections are also subject to significant uncertainties in connection with changes to Angelica's business and its financial condition and results of operations, and include numerous estimates and assumptions related to Angelica's business that are inherently subject to significant economic, political and competitive uncertainties, including those factors described above under "CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS," all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond Angelica's control. As a result, although the projections set forth below were prepared in good faith based upon assumptions believed to be reasonable at the time the projections were prepared, there can be no assurance that the projected results will be realized or that actual results will not be significantly higher or lower than projected. Since the projections set forth below cover multiple years, such information by its nature becomes less reliable with each successive year.

The financial projections, including projections of EBITDA, set forth below were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure or toward complying with United States generally accepted accounting principles, or GAAP, the published guidelines of the SEC regarding projections or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information. Angelica's independent registered public accounting firm has not examined or compiled any of the financial projections, expressed any conclusions or provided any form of assurance with respect to the financial projections and, accordingly, assumes no responsibility for them.

Our use of the term EBITDA may vary from others in our industry. EBITDA should not be considered as an alternative to net income (loss), operating income or any other performance measures derived in accordance with GAAP as measures of operating performance or operating cash flows as measures of liquidity. EBITDA has important limitations as an analytical tool and you should not consider it in isolation or as a substitute for analysis of our actual results as reported under GAAP. For example, EBITDA:

excludes certain tax payments that may represent a reduction in cash available to us;

does not reflect any cash capital expenditure requirements for the assets being depreciated and amortized that may have to be replaced in the future; and does not reflect changes in, or cash requirements for, our working capital needs.

You should review Angelica's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 26, 2008 to obtain additional information. See "WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION." Readers of this proxy statement are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the specific portions of the financial projections set forth below. No one has made or makes any representation to you regarding the information included in these projections or the future financial results of Angelica.

For the foregoing reasons, as well as the bases and assumptions on which the financial projections presented below were compiled, the inclusion of these specific portions of the financial projections in this proxy statement should not be regarded as an indication that such projections will be an accurate prediction of future results or events, and they should not be relied on as such. Except as required by applicable securities laws, Angelica has not updated and does not intend to update or otherwise revise the financial projections or the specific portions presented below to reflect circumstances existing after the date when such projections were made or to reflect the occurrence of future events, even in the event that any or all of the assumptions underlying the projections are shown to be in error.

Notes:

As presented by the Company as its 2008 Budget and its 2009 and 2010 projections; shares outstanding adjusted to equal basic shares outstanding per 10-K filing for FY 2007

- (a) Fiscal year ends the last Saturday of the January of the following year (e.g., Fiscal Year 2009 refers to the 52 weeks ended January 30, 2010)
- (b) Results reflect 53 weeks of performance for the year; revised by the Company from its FY 2008 budget to reflect actual results through March

The projected financial information set forth in the table above was prepared by members of Angelica's senior management and was based on the latest operating results available to management at that time for the 2007 fiscal year and the detailed 2008 budget that management had developed at the time. In developing the projected financial information for the fiscal years 2008 through 2010, management made numerous assumptions about our business, our industry and general business and economic conditions.

From time to time in the ordinary course of business members of Angelica's senior management prepare, update and refine internal financial forecasts based on the latest operating results and plans available to management at the time.

We have not updated and do not intend to update or otherwise revise these projections to reflect circumstances existing since their preparation or to reflect the occurrence of subsequent events even in the event that any or all of the underlying assumptions are no longer appropriate.

Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of our board of directors regarding the merger, our shareholders should be aware that the directors and executive officers identified below have interests in the merger that differ from those of other shareholders, as described below. Our board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in making its recommendation to approve the Merger Agreement. Our shareholders should take these benefits into account in deciding whether to vote for approval of the Merger Agreement.

Equity-Based Awards

Upon consummation of the merger, all outstanding restricted stock granted to our executive officers and directors under our benefit plans will vest and convert into the right to receive the $22.00 per share merger consideration in accordance with the Merger Agreement. We will also initiate an issuer tender offer prior to the consummation of the merger pursuant to which we will offer to purchase for cancellation all outstanding vested and unvested options to purchase shares of our common stock with an exercise price of less than $22.00 per share, which we refer to as "in-the-money" options, and (ii) outstanding vested and unvested options to purchase up to 91,463 shares of our common stock with an exercise price of greater than $22.00, which we refer to as "out-of-the-money" options. Each option validly tendered and not withdrawn will be cancelled and we will pay the holder of such tendered option the following amounts in cash, without interest and less any applicable tax withholdings:

the "spread value" for each "in-the-money" option, which is the product of (a) the excess of $22.00 over the per share exercise price multiplied by (b) the aggregate number of shares of our common stock issuable upon exercise of such option; or

for each "out-of-the-money" option, $0.82 multiplied by the number of shares of our common stock issuable upon exercise of such option.

Our directors and executive officers who hold stock options will be among the recipients of the issuer tender offer, although with respect to their "out-of-the-money" options, Mr. O'Hara and Mr. Olbrych have advised us that they do not intend to participate in the tender offer. However, we expect that the "out-of-the-money" options held by Mr. O'Hara and Mr. Olbrych will be cancelled in connection with their entry into new employment agreements with Merger Sub that will become effective upon consummation of the merger. All the stock options held by our executive officers and directors are fully vested without regard to the merger, except for options to purchase 37,500 shares held by Mr. Olbrych which are currently unvested (of which 12,500 shares relate to "in-the-money" options and 25,000 shares relate to "out-of-the-money" options). Mr. Olbrych will have the opportunity to tender these unvested options in the issuer tender offer notwithstanding their unvested status. In connection with the new employment agreements that Mr. O'Hara and Mr. Olbrych are expected to enter into with Merger Sub upon consummation of the merger, they will agree to invest in common stock of the Parent a portion of the aggregate after-tax cash proceeds they receive as a result of the issuer tender offer and their exchange of restricted stock received under Angelica's Long Term Incentive Plan for merger consideration. The consummation of the issuer tender offer is expected to occur immediately prior to the completion of the merger. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT Stock Options."

The following table sets forth, as of June 30, 2008, for each of our executive officers and directors, (a) the number of options held by such person, (b) the maximum potential cash payments with respect to such options in the issuer tender offer (assuming that each such person tenders all of his options and we accept all "out-of-the-money" options held by each such person up to the 91,463 share limit of the tender offer), (c) the number of shares of restricted stock held by such person, (d) the maximum potential cash payments with respect to such restricted shares (based on the aggregate merger consideration payable with respect thereto) and (e) the total maximum potential cash payments with respect to such to outstanding options and shares of restricted stock held by our directors and executive officers.

- (1) Cash payment represents the total amount to be received for all "in-the-money" options based on the "spread value" of each such option, which is the product of (a) the excess of $22.00 over the per share exercise price of each option multiplied by (b) the aggregate number of shares of Angelica common stock issuable upon exercise of each such option.
- (2) Amounts assume each executive officer and director tenders all of his "out-of-the-money" options and, that with respect to such individual, we accept his tender up to the 91,463 share limit of the tender offer.
- (3) Cash payment represents the total amount to be received for all "out-of-the-money" options accepted for payment, which is $0.82 multiplied by the number of shares of Angelica common stock issuable upon exercise of each such option.
- (4) This table assumes that Mr. O'Hara and Mr. Olbrych will tender their "out-of-the-money" options and reflects the related maximum potential cash payment, notwithstanding that they have each advised us that they do not intend to tender any of their respective "out-of-the-money" options in the issuer tender offer. We expect that the "out-of-the-money" options held by Mr. O'Hara and Mr. Olbrych will be cancelled in connection with their entry into new employment agreements with Merger Sub that will become effective upon consummation of the merger.
- (5) Under new employment agreements that Mr. O'Hara and Mr. Olbrych are expected to enter into with Merger Sub upon consummation of the merger, they will agree to invest in the common stock of the Parent a portion of the aggregate after tax proceeds they receive as a result of the issuer tender offer for their stock options and their exchange of restricted stock under Angelica's Long-Term Incentive Plan for merger consideration.
- (6) The total payments amount assumes we accept tenders for "out-of-the-money" options to purchase 167,463 shares of our common stock. In order to disclose the maximum potential cash payment to each officer and director, we assumed for purposes of this table that each such individual tenders all of his "out-of-the-money" options and, that with respect to such individual, we accept his tender up to the 91,463 share limit of the tender offer. However, because in aggregate we will only accept tenders for "out-of-the-money" options to purchase 91,463 shares of our common stock, the actual maximum total amount of cash payments we could pay is $4,297,523.

Compensation Due to Change in Control Executive Officers

The benefit plans that our executive officers participate in have change in control provisions that automatically entitle them to a cash payment as a result of the consummation of the merger, except that the potential cash payments under our Long-Term Incentive Plan require additional service to be performed after the merger as a condition to receipt of those payments. In addition, we have existing employment agreements with each executive officer that, with the exception of the agreement with Mr. Olbrych, contain change in control provisions that would entitle them to cash payments and other benefits as a result of the consummation of the merger in the event their employment is terminated under certain circumstances. The change in control provisions in our benefit plans and in our employment agreements with executive officers were approved with the understanding that the executive officers may be critical to successfully completing certain transactions and with the intent to dissuade these individuals from considering alternative employment during any change in control process.

Mr. O'Hara, Mr. Olbrych and Mr. Frey are expected to enter into new employment agreements with Merger Sub that will become effective upon consummation of the merger. These new employment agreements will supersede their current employment agreements, including provisions in their current agreements relating to termination following a change in control. Any benefits that Mr. O'Hara and Mr. Olbrych would receive under Angelica's benefit plans, including those received as a result of the merger, will still be paid in accordance with those plans and are not affected by the new employment agreements, except that under their new employment agreements, Mr. O'Hara and Mr. Olbrych will agree to forego any cash payments resulting from the merger that relate to their maximum cash incentive awards under Angelica's Long-Term Incentive Plan in exchange for restricted stock units of equivalent value with respect to the common stock of Parent.

Employment Agreements. The existing employment agreements that we have with each executive officer generally provide for certain amounts and benefits to be paid by us if the executive officer's employment is terminated by us without "cause" or by the executive for "good reason," within a specified period of time following or preceding the consummation of the merger. Our agreement with Mr. Olbrych does not include any such provision. In each case, these change in control provisions will be operative if the executive officer's employment is terminated within two years following, or within six months preceding, the consummation of the merger. In the event of such a termination, these executive officers are entitled to the following:

A lump-sum cash payment based upon the executive's then current base salary and short-term incentive compensation. Mr. O'Hara is entitled to a payment equal to two times his annual base salary, plus his target bonus for the year in which he is terminated. Each of Messrs. Frey and Shaffer is entitled to a payment equal to one and one-half times his annual base salary. Messrs. Oliva, Watson and Davis are entitled to a payment equal to his annual base salary.

To the extent not otherwise provided for under the terms of the benefit plan under which they were issued, immediate vesting of all outstanding equity-based awards, including stock options and restricted shares.

For Messrs. O'Hara, Frey and Shaffer, a cash payment to enable the executive to purchase medical and health benefits for a specified period of time. In the case of Mr. O'Hara, this cash payment will enable him to purchase continued medical and health benefits for a period of two years for each year he had been employed by us, up to ten years. As to Mr. Frey and Mr. Shaffer, this cash payment will enable the executive to purchase two years of continued medical and health benefits. Messrs. Oliva, Davis and Watson are not entitled to such cash payments for medical benefits. If the executive officer subsequently becomes employed, our medical benefit continuation becomes secondary to the benefits provided by the other employer. The medical benefit continuation will be paid by the Company directly to the medical benefit provider and to the extent such continuation results in taxable income to the executive, the Company will make a gross-up payment for taxes due on the benefit directly to the executive officer.

Mr. Frey and Mr. Shaffer are each credited with an additional five years of service credit, to be aggregated with their actual years of service, under the Supplemental Plan discussed below.

In the case of Mr. O'Hara, if it is determined that the payments and benefits paid by us to him would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Internal Revenue Code Section 4999 (or successor provision), then we are obligated to also pay him a gross-up amount that, after the payment of taxes on that additional amount, allows him to retain an amount equal to the excise tax.

The existing employment agreements that we have entered into with each executive officer defines a termination for "cause" to mean the termination of the executive's employment by us based upon: (a) the executive's willful and continued failure to substantially perform his duties; (b) the executive's commission of an act constituting a criminal offense involving moral turpitude, dishonesty or breach of trust; or (c) the executive's material breach of any provision of the agreement.

Mr. O'Hara's existing employment agreement defines "good reason" to mean: (a) the assignment to him of duties inconsistent with his position or any other action by us which results in a material diminution in his position; (b) the failure on our part to continue any benefit or compensation plan to which he is entitled; (c) the relocation of him to a location other than that specified in his agreement; (d) a material breach of the agreement by us; (e) any purported termination of his employment, other than as permitted by the agreement; and (f) if, within a specified period following a change in control, the successor has failed to expressly assume our obligations under the agreement. The agreements we have with each other executive officer define "good reason" in substantially the same way so as generally to mean: (a) a material reduction in the executive officer's compensation; (b) a material reduction in the executive officer's authority, duties or responsibilities; (c) a material reduction in the budget over which the executive officer has authority; (d) the relocation of the executive to a location other than that specified in his agreement; and (e) a material breach of the agreement by us.

Supplemental Plan for Selected Management Employees. Under the terms of the Supplemental Plan for Selected Management Employees, Messrs. O'Hara, Frey and Shaffer are entitled to an additional lump sum cash payment within ten days of termination if their employment is terminated by us without "cause," or by the executive with "good reason," within two years following the consummation of the merger. Under these circumstances, each executive is entitled to immediate payment of a lump-sum cash amount equal to 100% of the present value of his then-vested benefit. For Mr. Frey and Mr. Shaffer, this vested benefit includes the additional five years of service credit provided under their employment agreements.

The Supplemental Plan defines "cause" generally to mean the willful and continued failure by the participant substantially to perform his duties with the Company, or the willful engagement by the participant in gross misconduct which is materially and demonstrably injurious to the Company.

The Supplemental Plan defines "good reason" generally to mean (a) assigning the participant to duties which are inconsistent with his or her position, duties, responsibilities or status with the Company immediately before the change in control; (b) changing the participant's reporting responsibilities, titles or offices as in effect immediately before the change in control; (c) reducing the participant's base salary as in effect immediately before the change in control, or failing to increase the participant's base salary each year after the change in control; (d) relocating the Company's principal executive offices to a location outside the area of metropolitan St. Louis, Missouri; (e) requiring the participant to be based anywhere other than the Company's principal executive offices; (f) failing to pay or reimburse the participant for reasonable moving expenses incurred by the participant relating to a change of his or her principal residence in connection with relocation, provided that the participant agreed to relocate, including failing to reimburse for any loss realized on the sale of his principal residence; (g) discontinuing any benefit or compensation plan in which the participant was participating immediately before the change in control; (h) taking action which adversely affects the participant's participation in or materially reduces his or her benefits under any plan specified in (g), above, or which deprives the participant of any material fringe benefit enjoyed by him or her immediately before the change in control; or (i) failing to provide the participant with at least the number of paid vacation days to which he or she then was entitled on the basis of years of service with the Company in accordance with the Company's normal vacation policy in effect immediately before the change in control.

Long-Term Incentive Plan. In 2008, we awarded certain executive officers and other employees awards for potential cash payments under our Long-Term Incentive Plan, which would generally vest at the end of a three-year performance period, 2008 through 2010, provided that incentive targets specified under the plan were met. If the merger is consummated while an executive officer is employed during the 2008-2010 performance period, the performance condition will cease to be applicable and the executive officer will earn his maximum cash incentive award based solely on lapse of time, as of the earlier of: (a) the date that is one year following the effective date of the merger; (b) the date upon which the executive officer's employment is terminated by the Company for any reason other than cause; or (c) the date upon which the executive officer's employment with the Company terminates by reason of the executive officer's death or disability. If during the one year period following the merger, (y) the executive officer voluntarily terminates his employment with the Company; or (z) the Company terminates the executive officer's employment with the Company for cause, none of the cash incentive award will be earned by the executive officer and the Company will have no obligation to pay any portion of the award.

Award agreements with 2008 Long-Term Incentive Plan participants each define a termination for "cause" similarly to mean (a) an employee's willful and continued failure to substantially perform his duties and responsibilities with the Company; (b) an employee's commission of an act constituting a criminal offense involving moral turpitude, dishonesty or breach of trust; or (c) an employees' material breach of the terms of any employment agreement between the employee and the Company.

The following table sets forth information regarding the estimated value of the cash payments and other benefits that would be payable as described above in the event the executive officer becomes entitled to such amount pursuant to the applicable agreement or plan following the merger (assuming, for illustrative purposes, that the executive officer's employment is terminated immediately following the merger on August 1, 2008, the base salaries remain at current levels, and in the case of each executive officer, Angelica is on track to achieve its performance goals for fiscal year 2008). The value of outstanding stock options and restricted stock is described above under the section entitled "Equity-Based Awards."

(1) A determination has not been made as to the amount, if any, of gross-up payments payable to Mr. O'Hara under his employment agreement.

(2) Under new employment agreements that Messrs. O'Hara and Olbrych are expected to enter into with Merger Sub upon consummation of the merger, they will agree to forego any cash payments resulting from the merger that relate to maximum cash incentive awards under Angelica's Long-Term Incentive Plan in exchange for an amount of restricted units of equivalent value with respect to the common stock of the Parent. Vesting of these restricted units will generally be subject to the same conditions that would have applied to their maximum cash incentive awards granted under our Long-Term Incentive Plan.

Mr. Olbrych does not have any change in control provisions in his employment agreement.

(4)

Mr. Shaffer is eligible to participate in our medical benefits plan, but has elected not to participate.

Short-Term Incentive Plan. Upon consummation of the merger, each executive officer, with the exception of Mr. O'Hara and Mr. Olbrych, is entitled, pursuant to his existing employment agreement, to a pro-rated portion of his maximum incentive bonus for 2008 awarded under our Short-Term Incentive Plan, based upon the number of months of the fiscal year the executive officer worked for us during 2008 prior to the merger. Assuming, for illustrative purposes, that the merger occurs on August 1, 2008 and the base salaries remain at current levels, the following executive officers will be entitled to pro-rata bonus payments relating to the Short-Term Incentive Plan with approximate amounts as follows: Mr. Davis, in the amount of $107,917; Mr. Frey, in the amount of $128,333; Mr. Oliva, in the amount of $116,667; Mr. Shaffer, in the amount of $119,583; and Mr. Watson, in the amount of $61,667. Mr. Watson left employment with the Company on May 31, 2008, and, pursuant to his separation agreement, would receive a lump sum payment equal to 4/12ths the maximum annual incentive bonus for 2008 awarded under our Short-Term Incentive Plan. In each case, these amounts are payable upon consummation of the merger, even if the executive continues his employment.

Compensation Due to Change in Control Non-Employee Directors

Our non-employee directors, except for Mr. Henderson and Mr. Quicke, have received shares of restricted stock or stock options to purchase shares of our common stock under our director benefit plans. Payments related to these shares of restricted stock and stock options are discussed above, under the heading entitled "Equity-Based Awards." Mr. Henderson and Mr. Quicke have received all of their director compensation in the form of cash payments. Instead of receiving equity awards issued to non-employee directors under our director benefit plans, they are paid a cash award amount based upon the value of such awards, subject to the same vesting restrictions applicable to such awards. All of these cash awards will vest or become immediately payable upon consummation of the merger. Mr. Henderson and Mr. Quicke will be entitled to cash awards in the amounts of $39,538 and $44,538, respectively, if the merger is consummated.

Future Executive Employment Arrangements.

General. In connection with consummation of the merger, it is expected that Mr. O'Hara, Mr. Olbrych and Mr. Frey will each enter into an employment agreement with Merger Sub that will become effective upon the merger closing date and will replace their current employment agreements. Each employment agreement provides for a term of one year, commencing on the merger closing date, which is automatically extended for successive one-year additional terms, unless either party elects to terminate the term upon at least thirty days' notice to the other party. We expect that additional members of our senior management will enter into employment agreements with Merger Sub, including Mr. Davis and Mr. Oliva. We do not presently know the details of these employment agreements due to the preliminary nature of the negotiations among Parent, Merger Sub and our senior management.

Annual Salary, Bonuses and Stock-Based Compensation. The employment agreements will provide for the payment of annual base salaries of $425,000 to Mr. O'Hara, $275,000 to Mr. Olbrych and $220,000 to Mr. Frey, subject to increase based on our achievement of specified twelve-month revenue thresholds. Each of Messrs. O'Hara, Olbrych and Frey will also be eligible for an annual performance-based bonus. Each of Messrs. O'Hara's, Olbrych's and Frey's target bonus is 50% of his annual base salary, with a maximum bonus of 100% of his annual base salary. After fiscal year 2008, Mr. Frey's target bonus will be 25% of his annual base salary, with a maximum bonus of 50% of his annual base salary. Potential payments that each of Messrs. O'Hara and Olbrych would have been entitled to as a result of the merger under the maximum cash incentive award grants they received for the 2008-2010 performance period under our Long-Term Incentive Plan will be converted into restricted stock units of equivalent initial value with respect to common stock of Parent. These restricted stock units will be subject to vesting and payment terms that are substantially the same as those that would have applied under our Long-Term Incentive Plan as a result of the merger. The potential payments that Mr. Frey would have been entitled to as a result of the merger under the maximum cash incentive award grants he received for the 2008-2010 performance period will be paid one year following the consummation of the merger. Each of Messrs. O'Hara and Olbrych has also agreed to immediately invest in common stock of Parent a portion of the aggregate after tax proceeds they receive as a result of the issuer tender offer for their stock options and their exchange of restricted stock they received under our Long-Term Incentive Plan for merger consideration. With respect to Mr. O'Hara, this investment is expected to be $700,000. For purposes of this maximum cash incentive award conversion and investment, Parent's common stock will be valued at the same price paid by Lehman Brothers Merchant Banking Partners IV L.P. in capitalizing Parent. At the closing of the merger, each of Messrs. O'Hara, Olbrych and Frey will also be eligible to receive grants of options to purchase common stock of Parent pursuant to the terms of a benefit plan established by Parent. It is anticipated that at the closing of the merger Mr. O'Hara shall be granted options to purchase 3% of the fully diluted equity of Parent. Additional employees, including Mr. Olbrych and Mr. Frey, are expected to receive options to purchase up to an aggregate total of between 5% and 6% of the fully diluted equity of Parent. Additional options to purchase between 1% and 2% of the fully diluted equity of Parent will be reserved for grants following the merger.

Termination. If the employment of Mr. O'Hara, Mr. Olbrych or Mr. Frey is terminated by Merger Sub without "cause" (as defined in the employment agreements), other than due to his disability, or if he resigns for "good reason," he is eligible to receive severance pay and benefits, as described below. Mr. O'Hara's severance pay is equal to two times the sum of his then-current annual base salary and target annual bonus. Mr. Olbrych's severance pay is equal to his then-current annual base salary. Mr. Frey's severance pay is one and one-half times his then-current base salary. Also, Merger Sub will continue to pay its portion of the cost to continue Mr. O'Hara's, Mr. Olbrych's and Mr. Frey's coverage under Merger Sub's group health insurance plan for ten years, in the case of Mr. O'Hara, one year, in the case of Mr. Olbrych and two years, in the case of Mr. Frey, following such a termination of employment (and Mr. O'Hara will be grossed up for any taxes imposed on these payments). Receipt of this severance pay and benefits is contingent upon each executive's execution of a general release of claims against us and our affiliates and compliance with the restrictive covenants prescribed by his employment agreement. These restrictive covenants to which each executive is subject include non-competition and non-solicitation covenants for the three-year period following termination of employment, as well as confidentiality, intellectual property and nondisparagement covenants. In the event Mr. O'Hara's employment terminates due to his death or disability, he or his estate will be entitled to receive a pro-rata portion of his then-current annual bonus.

Benefits. Under the employment agreements, Mr. O'Hara, Mr. Olbrych and Mr. Frey are each eligible to participate in employee benefit, fringe and perquisite plans and arrangements that Merger Sub generally makes available to its executive employees, which are commensurate with the executive's position, including medical and dental plans and long-term disability and life insurance benefits.

Indemnification and Insurance.

Under the Merger Agreement, Parent agrees that (a) the existing rights to indemnification of all of our directors and officers under our articles of incorporation or bylaws shall survive the merger and continue for a period of six years, (b) indemnification agreements between us and our directors and executive officers shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms following the merger, (c) subject to certain conditions, Parent will maintain in effect for six years from the effective time of the merger directors' and officers' liability insurance with respect to matters existing or occurring prior to the effective time of the merger and (d) subject to certain conditions, Parent will provide indemnification for a period of six years to persons who, at or prior to the effective time, were officers or directors of us or any of our subsidiaries or served at our request as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT Indemnification of Directors and Officers; Insurance."

Regulatory Approvals

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, which we refer to as the HSR Act, and the rules promulgated thereunder by the Federal Trade Commission, which we refer to as the FTC, the merger cannot be completed until we file and Parent causes to be filed a notification and report form under the HSR Act and the applicable waiting period has expired or been terminated. We filed and Parent caused to be filed notification and report forms under the HSR Act with the FTC and the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice on June 11, 2008. We received notice that early termination of the waiting period was granted on June 20, 2008. At any time before or after completion of the merger, notwithstanding the expiration or early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act, the Antitrust Division or the FTC could take such action under the antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest, including seeking to enjoin the completion of the merger or seeking divestiture of substantial assets of Angelica or Parent. At any time before or after the completion of the merger, and notwithstanding the expiration or early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act, any state could take such action under the antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest. Such action could include seeking to enjoin the completion of the merger or seeking divestiture of substantial assets of Angelica or Parent. Private parties may also seek to take legal action under the antitrust laws under certain circumstances.

While there can be no assurance that the merger will not be challenged by a governmental authority or private party on antitrust grounds, we and Parent believe that the merger can be effected in compliance with federal and state antitrust laws. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, each party has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to take or to cause to be taken all other actions necessary, proper or advisable consistent with the Merger Agreement to cause the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period, or receipt of required authorizations, as applicable, under the HSR.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a discussion of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of shares of our common stock. This discussion is based on current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (which we refer to as the "Code"), existing, proposed and temporary regulations promulgated thereunder, rulings, administrative pronouncements and judicial decisions, changes to which could materially affect the tax consequences described herein and could be made on a retroactive basis.

For purposes of this discussion, we use the term "U.S. holder" to mean a U.S. citizen or resident alien individual as defined in the Code, a corporation or entity taxable as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the U.S. or any state thereof or the District of Columbia, an estate the income from which is includable in its gross income for U.S. federal income tax purposes without regard to its source, or a trust if either (A) both (1) a U.S. court is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and (2) one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all of the substantial decisions of the trust or (B) it has in effect a valid election to be treated as a domestic trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes. A non-U.S. holder is any holder that is not a U.S. holder.

This discussion assumes that you hold the shares of our common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code. This discussion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to you in light of your particular circumstances, or that may apply to you if you are subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws (including, for example, regulated investment companies, persons who mark-to-market our common stock, S corporations, partnerships or other pass-through entities, dealers and certain traders in securities and currencies, financial institutions, insurance companies, tax-exempt entities, U.S. expatriates, holders that are not U.S. holders, investors who received our common stock upon conversion of securities or exercise of warrants or other rights to acquire common stock, persons who hold our common stock as part of a synthetic security, straddle, hedge, constructive sale, or a conversion or other integrated transaction, persons that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar, persons who are subject to the alternative minimum tax, investors in a pass-through or similar entity, persons who receive our common stock through the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation, or if you do not hold our common stock as a capital asset).

THIS U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX DISCUSSION IS INCLUDED FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY AND MAY NOT ADDRESS ALL TAX CONSIDERATIONS THAT MAY BE SIGNIFICANT TO YOU. YOU ARE URGED TO CONSULT YOUR TAX ADVISOR WITH RESPECT TO THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES TO YOU OF THE MERGER, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF ANY STATE, LOCAL, FOREIGN OR OTHER TAX LAWS.

U.S. Holders

The receipt of cash in the merger by U.S. holders of shares of our common stock generally will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes (and may also be a taxable transaction under applicable state, local and foreign tax laws). In general, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. holder of shares of our common stock will recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes equal to the difference, if any, between (1) the merger consideration received in exchange for such shares and (2) the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in such shares. If the holding period in our shares surrendered is greater than one year as of the date of the merger, the gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss. The deductibility of a capital loss recognized on the exchange is subject to limitations. If you acquired different blocks of our stock at different times or different prices, you must determine your tax basis and holding period separately with respect to each block of our stock.

There are limitations on the deductibility of capital losses. Capital losses not offset by capital gains may be deducted against a non-corporate shareholder's ordinary income only up to a maximum annual amount of $3,000, and non-corporate shareholders may carry forward unused capital losses. A corporate shareholder can deduct capital losses only to the extent of capital gains; unused capital losses may be carried back three years and forward five years.

Receipt of the merger consideration may also be a taxable transaction under applicable state, local and foreign tax laws.

Backup withholding at a rate of 28% will apply to all cash received by a shareholder under the merger, unless the shareholder provides a taxpayer identification number (social security number, in the case of individuals, or employer identification number, in the case of other shareholders), certifies that such a number is correct, and otherwise complies with the backup withholding tax rules. Each of our shareholders should complete and sign the Substitute Form W-9 included as part of the letter of transmittal and return it to the paying agent in order to provide the information and certification necessary to avoid backup withholding tax, unless an exemption applies and is established in a manner satisfactory to the paying agent. Backup withholding is not an additional tax and any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be refunded or credited against your U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, provided that you furnish the required information to the Internal Revenue Service in a timely manner. In addition, certain foreign persons such as certain nonresident aliens may establish an exemption from, or a reduced rate of, backup withholding by delivering the proper version of Form W-8.

Non-U.S. Holders

A "non-U.S. holder" of our Common Stock is a holder that is neither a U.S. holder nor a partnership (or other entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes).

Special rules may apply to certain non-U.S. holders, such as former citizens or long-term residents of the United States, controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, persons who actually or constructively own, or have owned, more than 5% of our equity at any time during the five-year period ending at the effective time, persons who actually or constructively own our Common Stock, and corporations that accumulate earnings to avoid U.S. federal income tax. Such non-U.S. holders are urged to consult their own advisors to determine the U.S. federal, state, local and other tax consequences that may be relevant to them.

As a result of the merger, a non-U.S. holder generally will recognize gain to the same extent that a U.S. holder will recognize gain as described above under the headings " U.S. Holders." Any gain a non-U.S. holder recognizes generally will constitute capital gain and generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax unless:

such non-U.S. holder is an individual, who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the exchange, and certain other requirements are met; or such gain is effectively connected with such non-U.S. holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States, or, if certain tax treaties apply, is attributable to such non-U.S. holder's U.S. permanent establishment.

If you are described in the first bullet above, you generally will be subject to a flat 30% tax on any gain recognized, which may be offset by U.S. source capital losses. If you are described in the second bullet above, you generally will be subject to tax on your gain at applicable U.S. federal income tax rates and, in addition, may be subject to a branch profits tax (if you are a corporation) equal to 30% (or lesser rate under an applicable income tax treaty) on your effectively connected earnings and profits for the taxable year, which would include such gain.

U.S. backup withholding tax and information reporting requirements generally apply to any cash payments received in connection with the merger or the exercise of appraisal rights made within the United States, or by a U.S. payor or U.S. middleman, to a holder of our Common Stock, unless such holder is an exempt recipient (including a corporation, a payee that is not a U.S. person that provides an appropriate certification and certain other persons) or otherwise establishes an applicable exemption from such backup withholding tax and information reporting requirements. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or credit against your U.S. federal income tax liability, provided you furnish the required information to the Internal Revenue Service. The backup withholding tax rate is currently 28%.

Because individual circumstances may differ, you are encouraged to consult your own tax advisor as to the particular tax consequences of the merger to you, including the application and effect of state, local, foreign and other tax laws.

Dissenters' Rights

Under Missouri law, holders of shares of our common stock are entitled to dissenters' rights in connection with the merger. Any holder of shares of our common stock at the time of the merger who does not vote in favor of the merger may elect to receive payment of the fair value of the shares in cash in accordance with Section 351.455 of the General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri (the "MGBCL") if the merger is consummated. However, Parent may elect not to consummate the merger if a demand for fair value of dissenting shares of our common stock has been perfected, asserted or demanded with respect to more than 10% of the aggregate number of our outstanding shares of common stock.

Any shareholder contemplating the exercise of the right to dissent should review carefully the provisions of Section 351.455 of the MGBCL set forth in Appendix C to this proxy statement. A summary of the principal steps to be taken if the right to dissent is to be exercised is set forth below. This summary should be read in conjunction with, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, the full text of Section 351.455 of the MGBCL.

EACH STEP MUST BE TAKEN IN STRICT COMPLIANCE WITH THE APPLICABLE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 351.455 OF THE MGBCL IN ORDER FOR HOLDERS OF SHARES OF OUR COMMON STOCK TO PERFECT DISSENTERS' RIGHTS.

Under Missouri statutory law, a shareholder who dissents from the merger may, in certain circumstances and subject to certain limitations (as described below), demand the fair value of his or her shares. A shareholder will be deemed a dissenting shareholder and therefore be entitled to appraisal and payment of fair value under 351.455 of the MGBCL if such shareholder:

owns our stock as of the record date for the special meeting of shareholders at which the approval of the merger is submitted to a vote;

files with us, prior to or at the special meeting of shareholders, a written objection to the merger;

does not vote in favor of the merger; and within 20 days after the merger is effected, makes a written demand on the surviving corporation for payment of the fair value of his or her shares as of the day prior to the special meeting.

The surviving corporation shall pay to each such dissenting shareholder, upon surrender of his or her certificate or certificates representing said shares in the case of certificated shares, the fair value thereof and such demand shall state the number and class of the shares owned by such dissenting shareholder. A shareholder will be conclusively presumed to have consented to the merger and will be bound by the terms thereof and shall not be a dissenting shareholder if he or she:

fails to file a written objection prior to or at the special meeting of the shareholders; fails to make demand within the 20 day period; or in the case of a shareholder owning voting stock as of the record date, votes in favor of the merger.

If, within 30 days after the effective date of the merger, the fair value of the dissenting shareholder's shares is agreed upon between the dissenting shareholder and the surviving corporation, payment for such shares must be made by the surviving corporation within 90 days after the effective date of the merger, upon the surrender of the dissenting shareholder's stock certificates representing his or her shares. Upon payment of the agreed value, the dissenting shareholder ceases to have any interest in the shares or in the surviving corporation.

If, within 30 days after the effective date of the merger, there is no such agreement as to the fair value of the dissenting shareholder's shares between the dissenting shareholder and the surviving corporation, then the dissenting shareholder may, within 60 days after the expiration of the 30 day period, file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction specified in Section 351.455 of the MGBCL asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of his or her shares as of the day prior to the special meeting of shareholders. The dissenting shareholder will be entitled to judgment against the surviving corporation for an amount equal to the fair value of his or her shares measured as of the day prior to the special meeting, together with interest thereon to the date of the judgment.

The judgment will only be payable upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the surviving corporation of the stock certificates representing the shares owned by the dissenting shareholder. Upon payment of the judgment, the shareholder will cease to have any interest in the shares or in the surviving corporation. Further, unless the dissenting shareholder files the petition with the court within the 60-day time limit described above, that shareholder and all persons claiming under that shareholder shall be conclusively presumed to have approved or ratified the merger and shall be bound by the terms thereof. The right of a dissenting shareholder to be paid the fair value of his or her shares as provided above ceases if and when we abandon the merger.

Financing the Merger

Parent estimates that the total amount of funds necessary to complete the merger is anticipated to be approximately $310,000,000, consisting of:

approximately $211,000,000 to pay Angelica's shareholders and option holders the amounts due to them under the Merger Agreement (assuming that no Angelica shareholder validly exercises and perfects its appraisal rights), approximately $14,000,000 to pay related fees and expenses in connection with the merger, and

approximately $85,000,000 to refinance certain existing indebtedness.

These payments are expected to be funded at the closing of the merger by a combination of equity and debt financing arranged by Parent and to the extent available, cash of Angelica. Parent and Merger Sub have obtained equity and debt financing commitments described below in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. The contemplated financing may change after the date hereof. The Merger Agreement permits changes to the contemplated debt financing under specified circumstances. The total funded indebtedness of Angelica and its subsidiaries following the transactions is expected to be approximately $175,000,000.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Parent is required to use commercially reasonable efforts to arrange, as soon as practicable, and to consummate, concurrently with the closing of the merger, Parent's equity and debt financing, on the terms and conditions described in Parent's equity and debt financing commitments. These actions include using commercially reasonable efforts to (i) maintain in effect the equity and debt financing commitments, (ii) satisfy on a timely basis all conditions applicable to Parent and Merger Sub to obtaining the equity and debt financing set forth in the equity and debt financing commitments that are within their control (including by consummating the equity financing pursuant to the terms of the equity financing commitment), and (iii) enter into definitive agreements with respect thereto on the terms and conditions contemplated by the debt financing commitments.

If any portion of the debt financing becomes unavailable on the terms and conditions contemplated in the debt financing commitments, Parent must promptly notify Angelica and use commercially reasonable efforts to arrange to obtain alternative financing from alternative sources on financial terms no less favorable to Parent than the debt financing commitments, and in an amount sufficient to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

If the conditions to the obligations of all the parties to the Merger Agreement, and to the obligations of Parent and Merger Sub, to consummate the merger are satisfied or waived, Parent and Merger Sub will be obligated to consummate the transactions on the terms contemplated by the Merger Agreement regardless of whether Parent's equity financing has been or can be obtained. The obligations of the Parent and Merger Sub to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are conditioned upon the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in the debt financing commitment letters. Angelica agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate, and cause its subsidiaries to cooperate, in connection with the arrangement of the financing as may be reasonably requested by Parent. The failure of Parent or Merger Sub to obtain sufficient financing is likely to result in the failure of the merger to be completed.

Set forth below are the material terms and conditions of the equity and debt financing commitments. The documentation setting forth the terms and conditions of the equity and debt financing commitments has not been finalized, and as a result, the actual terms and conditions of the equity and debt financing may differ from those described below.

Equity Financing

Parent has received an equity commitment letter, dated May 22, 2008, from Lehman Brothers Merchant Banking Partners IV L.P., an affiliate of Parent. This equity sponsor has committed to contribute, or cause one or more of its affiliated funds to contribute, an equity contribution to Parent in an aggregate amount of $135,200,000 to fund the merger consideration and pay related fees and expenses. The equity sponsor also concurrently executed a letter agreement with Angelica pursuant to which it agreed to guarantee the amounts payable by Parent under the Merger Agreement, with respect to any termination fee to be paid by Parent (as described in "THE MERGER AGREEMENT Expenses and Termination Fees") together with such related costs of collection and interest thereon, up to an aggregate of $10,000,000.

The obligation to fund the commitment under the equity commitment letter is subject to the substantially concurrent consummation of the merger in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement and without waiver of any condition or amendment of the Merger Agreement that, in either case, is not consented to in writing by the equity sponsor.

The terms of the equity commitment letter will expire automatically upon the earliest to occur of: (i) the effective time of the merger; (ii) termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms; (iii) the commencement by Angelica or any of its affiliates of a lawsuit or other proceeding asserting a claim under the guarantee; (iv) any person, other than Parent, seeking to enforce (or cause Parent to enforce) the equity commitment; or (v) payment in full by the equity sponsor of the Parent Termination Fee under the guarantee.

All or a portion of the commitment of the equity sponsor may be assigned to one or more of its affiliated funds, provided that any such assignment will not relieve the equity sponsor from its obligations as the primary obligor under the equity commitment letter.

Additionally, after the date of this proxy statement, the equity sponsor may, but is not obligated to, permit certain members of Angelica's management to reinvest the after-tax proceeds received in respect of certain of their options or shares of restricted stock, in exchange for equity interests in Parent. In this event, the aggregate equity commitment and investment of the equity sponsor will be reduced proportionally.

Debt Financing

Parent and Merger Sub received the following debt commitments:

a debt commitment financing letter, dated May 20, 2008, from Regions Bank ("Regions") and Regions Business Capital Corporation ("RBCC") providing first lien senior secured credit facilities in an aggregate principal amount of up to $133,000,000 (the "Senior Secured Credit Facilities"), of which $85,000,000 is expected to be drawn on the closing date of the merger; and a debt commitment financing letter, dated May 20, 2008, from Apollo Investment Corporation ("AIC"), pursuant to which AIC committed to purchase $90,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of senior subordinated notes (the "Senior Subordinated Notes").

Edgar Filing: ANGELICA CORP /NEW/ - Form DEFM14A

It is expected that the net proceeds from the Senior Secured Credit Facilities and Senior Subordinated Notes will be used to fund a portion of the aggregate merger consideration, to pay fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger, to refinance certain indebtedness of the borrowers, and to provide for the working capital and general corporate requirements of the borrowers and their subsidiaries.

The debt commitments expire on the earlier of (i) the closing of the merger, (ii) the abandonment or the termination of the Merger Agreement or (iii) September 30, 2008 at 5:00 pm (New York time). The availability of financing under the debt commitments is subject to customary closing conditions, including:

there not having occurred, since January 26, 2008, any change, effect, or circumstance that would constitute a "Material Adverse Effect" (as defined in the Merger Agreement as described below under "THE MERGER AGREEMENT Representations and Warranties"); substantially concurrent consummation of the merger in accordance with the Merger Agreement (and no provision thereof being waived or amended in a manner materially adverse to Regions, RBCC or AIC, without their consent);

the receipt by Parent of cash equity contributions from the Sponsor which, together with rollover equity and stock issued to current Company management, constitute at least 40% of the consolidated capitalization of Parent;

the negotiation, execution, and delivery of definitive documentation consistent with the terms contained in the debt financing commitments;

the receipt of specified financial statements of Angelica; and the receipt of customary closing documents and deliverables.

The borrowers under the Senior Secured Credit Facilities will be Parent and Merger Sub, initially, and Angelica, upon consummation of the merger, each as a direct borrower, and one or more of their domestic subsidiaries. The Senior Secured Credit Facilities will be comprised of a revolving loan facility for an aggregate principal amount of up to $100,000,000 and a term loan for an aggregate principal amount of up to $33,000,000, each with a term of five years.

Loans under the Senior Secured Credit Facilities are expected to bear interest, at the borrowers option, at (i) a rate equal to LIBOR (London Interbank Offered Rate) plus an applicable margin expected to initially be 2.25% for the revolving facility and 2.50% for the term loan, or (ii) a rate equal to the higher of (a) Region's prime commercial lending rate and (b) the Federal funds effective rate plus 0.50%, plus an applicable margin (less 100 basis points). The applicable margins are expected to be subject to adjustment 90 days after the closing of the Merger based upon a pricing grid with performance criteria. In addition, the borrowers will pay customary commitment fees and letter of credit fees under the Senior Secured Credit Facilities. Upon the initial funding of the Senior Secured Credit Facilities, Parent and Merger Sub have also agreed to pay an underwriting fee to Regions.

The borrowers will be permitted to make voluntary prepayments at any time, without premium or penalty, and required to make mandatory prepayments of term loans with: (i) net insurance proceeds not applied toward the permitted repair or replacement of damaged properties (subject to reinvestment rights and other exceptions); (ii) net cash proceeds from permitted non-ordinary course asset sales (subject to reinvestment rights and other exceptions) and (iii) net cash proceeds from issuances of debt (other than permitted debt). The term loan will also have required interim amortization payments, payable quarterly, with the balance payable at the final maturity date of the term loan.

All obligations under the Senior Secured Credit Facilities will be guaranteed by each existing and future direct and indirect domestic subsidiaries of Parent, Merger Sub and Angelica that are not borrowers (and foreign subsidiaries that are not "controlled foreign corporations" under the Internal Revenue Code). The obligations of the borrowers and the guarantors under the Senior Secured Credit Facilities will be secured, by all the capital stock of each of their respective existing and subsequently acquired or organized direct or indirect subsidiaries and substantially all present and future assets of the borrowers and guarantors. The Senior Secured Credit Facilities are expected to contain representations and warranties, covenants, and events of defaults, that are customary for credit facilities of this type.

No alternative financing arrangements or alternative financing plans have been made in the event that the Senior Secured Credit Facilities are not available as anticipated.

Parent, Merger Sub, Angelica, and any subsidiary of any of the foregoing, is expected to issue and sell up to $90,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of the Senior Subordinated Notes. These notes will be unsecured, and subordinated to the Senior Secured Facilities, and will bear interest at 15 percent per annum, of which up to three percent may be paid in kind with similar notes. The notes mature in a single installment on the earlier of (i) the seventh anniversary of the merger closing, and (ii) six months after the maturity of the Senior Secured Facilities. Pursuant to the terms of the debt financing commitment letter from AIC, AIC has committed to purchase, or cause co-investors mutually satisfactory to the parties to purchase, the total aggregate amount of notes. AIC has commenced syndication efforts with respect to the notes, although successful syndication of the Senior Subordinated Notes is not a condition to AIC's commitment to purchase the notes.

The borrowers expect that the Senior Subordinated Notes will have representations and warranties, covenants, and events of default that are customary for Senior Subordinated Notes of this type. No alternative financing arrangements or alternative financing plans have been made in the event that the sale of the Senior Subordinated Notes is not available as anticipated.

Delisting and Deregistration of Our Common Stock

If the merger is completed, our common stock will cease to be quoted on the New York Stock Exchange, will not be publicly traded and will be deregistered under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act").

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following summary of the agreement and plan of merger, (the "Merger Agreement"), is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement. The rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the express terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and not by this summary or any other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to read the Merger Agreement carefully and in its entirety, as well as this proxy statement, before making any decisions regarding the merger.

The Merger Agreement has been included with this proxy statement to provide you additional information regarding its terms. The Merger Agreement sets forth the contractual rights of the Company and Parent, but is not intended to be a source of factual, business or operational information about the Company. That kind of information can be found elsewhere in this proxy statement and in the other filings that the Company has made with the SEC, which are available as described in "WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION."

As a shareholder, you are not a third party beneficiary of the Merger Agreement and therefore you may not directly enforce any of its terms or conditions. The parties' representations, warranties and covenants were made as of specific dates and only for purposes of the Merger Agreement and are subject to important exceptions and limitations, including a contractual standard of materiality different from that generally relevant to investors. In addition, the representations and warranties may have been included in the Merger Agreement for the purpose of allocating risk between us, Parent and Merger Sub, rather than to establish matters as facts. Certain of the representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement are often qualified by materiality, knowledge, or information that we have filed with the SEC prior to the date of the Merger Agreement, as well as by a disclosure letter delivered by us before the signing of the Merger Agreement. The disclosure letter has not been made public because, among other reasons, it includes confidential or proprietary information. The parties believe, however, that all information material to a shareholder's decision to approve the merger is included or incorporated by reference in this document.

You should also be aware that none of the representations or warranties has any legal effect among the parties to the Merger Agreement after the effective time of the merger, nor will the parties to the Merger Agreement be able to assert the inaccuracy of the representations and warranties as a basis for refusing to close the transaction unless all such inaccuracies as a whole have had or would have a material adverse effect on the party that made the representations and warranties.

Furthermore, you should not rely on the covenants in the Merger Agreement as actual limitations on our business, because either party may take certain actions that are either expressly permitted in the disclosure letter to the Merger Agreement or as otherwise consented to by the appropriate party, which may be given without prior notice to the public.

Form and Effective Times of the Merger

The Merger Agreement contemplates that, in connection with the closing under the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub, a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of Parent, will merge with and into Angelica, with Angelica surviving as a direct wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. Upon consummation of the merger, our shares of common stock will be delisted from the New York Stock Exchange and deregistered under the Exchange Act, and Angelica will no longer file periodic reports with the SEC.

The closing of the merger will take place in St. Louis, Missouri, on the date specified by Angelica and Parent, which shall be as promptly as practicable but in no event later than the third business day after the date all of the conditions to the merger described below in "Conditions to the Merger" are fulfilled or waived (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be fulfilled at the closing, but subject to the fulfillment or waiver of those conditions) or at such other time, date or location agreed to by Angelica and Parent. The merger will be effective at the time designated by Angelica in the articles of merger filed with the office of the Secretary of State of Missouri.

Consideration to be Received in the Merger

In the merger, each share of our common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive $22.00 in cash without interest, per share.

Holders of shares of our common stock are entitled to assert dissenters' rights instead of receiving the merger consideration. For a description of these dissenters' rights, please refer to "THE MERGER Dissenters' Rights."

No Further Ownership Rights

After the effective time of the merger, each of our outstanding stock certificates or book-entry share held by you will represent only the right to receive the merger consideration. The merger consideration paid upon surrender of each certificate will be paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the shares of our common stock represented by that certificate.

Cancellation of Certain Shares of Our Common Stock in the Merger

At the effective time of the merger, each share of our common stock issued and held in our treasury or owned by Parent (or any of their respective wholly-owned subsidiaries) will be canceled without payment of any consideration.

Rule 16b-3 Approval

Before the completion of the merger, we and our board of directors or committees thereof, are permitted to take such steps as may be reasonably necessary or advisable to cause dispositions of our common stock (including any derivative securities) in the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement by each individual who is subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act to be exempt from Section 16(b) under Rule 16b-3 under that act.

Stock Options

In connection with the merger, we have agreed with Merger Sub and Parent to use commercially reasonable efforts to take all actions that are necessary and appropriate to cause, immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each of the outstanding options to purchase shares of our common stock, whether or not then exercisable or vested, to be cancelled, and the holders of such options will be entitled to receive consideration described below. To satisfy our obligation under the Merger Agreement, we will initiate an issuer tender offer pursuant to which we will offer to purchase for cancellation all outstanding vested and unvested options to purchase shares of our common stock with an exercise price of less than $22.00 per share, which we refer to as "in-the-money" options, and (ii) outstanding vested and unvested options to purchase up to 91,463 shares of our common stock with an exercise price of greater than $22.00, which we refer to as "out-of-the-money" options. Each option validly tendered and not withdrawn will be cancelled and we will pay the holder of such tendered option the following amounts in cash, without interest and less any applicable tax withholdings:

the "spread value" for each "in-the-money" option, which is the product of (a) the excess of $22.00 over the per share exercise price multiplied by (b) the aggregate number of shares of our common stock issuable upon exercise of such option; or

for each "out-of-the-money" option, $0.82 multiplied by the number of shares of our common stock issuable upon exercise of such option.

Edgar Filing: ANGELICA CORP /NEW/ - Form DEFM14A

Mr. O'Hara and Mr. Olbrych have advised us that they do not intend to tender any of their respective options with an exercise price greater than $22.00 per share. However, we expect that the "out-of-the-money" options held by Messrs. O'Hara and Olbrych will be canceled in connection with their entry into new employment agreements with Merger Sub that will become effective upon consummation of the merger. The consummation of the issuer tender offer is expected to occur immediately prior to the completion of the merger.

Procedures for Exchange of Share Certificates

Prior to the closing of the merger, Parent will choose a bank or trust company reasonably acceptable to us to act as paying agent. Parent will deposit with the paying agent cash in an amount sufficient to pay the aggregate merger consideration. Promptly after the effective time of the merger, but in any event within five business days, the surviving corporation will cause the paying agent to mail to each holder of record of one or more certificates that, immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, represented our shares of common stock:

a letter of transmittal (which will specify that delivery will be effected, and risk of loss and title to the certificates will pass, only upon delivery of the certificates to the paying agent); and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the certificates in exchange for the merger consideration.

The paying agent will mail to each holder of non-certificated shares held in book-entry form instructions for effecting the surrender of book-entry shares in exchange for the merger consideration.

Upon surrender of a certificate representing our common stock for cancellation to the paying agent, together with the letter of transmittal described above, duly executed and completed in accordance with the instructions that accompany the letter of transmittal, the holder of that certificate or the book entry shares will be paid, after giving effect to any required withholding tax, cash in an amount equal to the product of the number of shares represented by such certificate or book-entry shares multiplied by the merger consideration. Any surrendered certificates will then be canceled.

No interest will be paid or accrued on the cash payable upon the surrender of the certificates or book-entry shares.

In the event of a transfer of ownership of shares of common stock which is not registered in our transfer records, payment may be made with respect to such shares to the transferee if the stock certificate representing such shares is presented to the paying agent, accompanied by all documents reasonably required by the paying agent to evidence such transfer and to evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes relating to such transfer have been paid.

If your stock certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the paying agent will deliver to you the applicable merger consideration for the shares represented by that certificate if:

you make an affidavit claiming such certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed; and if required by the surviving corporation, you post a bond in form and substance and with surety reasonably satisfactory to the surviving corporation or paying agent.

Shareholders should not send their certificates now and should send them only pursuant to the instructions set forth in the letters of transmittal to be mailed to shareholders promptly after the effective time of the merger. In all cases, the merger consideration will be provided only in accordance with the procedures set forth in this proxy statement and such letters of transmittal.

At the effective time of the merger, our company transfer books will be closed, and there will be no further registration of transfers of outstanding shares of our common stock. If, after the effective time of the merger, certificates are presented to the surviving corporation or the paying agent for transfer or any other reason, they will be cancelled and exchanged for the merger consideration.

Edgar Filing: ANGELICA CORP /NEW/ - Form DEFM14A

Any of our former shareholders who have not surrendered their certificates representing our common stock within nine months after the effective time of the merger should only look to Parent (subject to abandoned property, escheat or other similar laws) but only as general creditors thereof for payment of their claim for the merger consideration, without any interest thereon.

Representations and Warranties

We, on the one hand, and Parent and Merger Sub, on the other hand, have made various representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement. Those representations and warranties are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement. Many of the Company's representations and warranties are qualified by the absence of a Material Adverse Effect on the Company, which is defined for purposes of the Merger Agreement, to mean any change, effect, event, occurrence or state of facts that, individually or together, are materially adverse to the business, assets, liabilities, properties, condition (financial or otherwise) operations, or results of operations of the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, excluding any change, effect, event or occurrence resulting from:

unless, in each case above, the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, are disproportionately affected thereby as compared to other companies in the healthcare linen management industry generally. None of these representations and warranties will survive after the effective time of the merger. Some of the more significant of these representations and warranties by us pertain to:

Other Covenants

The Merger Agreement contains a number of other covenants, including covenants:

prohibiting us and our subsidiaries from soliciting or encouraging the submission of a proposal by a third party relating to any Acquisition Proposal (as defined in the section titled " No Solicitation");

prohibiting us from providing non-public information concerning us to any person making an Acquisition Proposal that is reasonably likely to result in a superior proposal, without first entering into a confidentially agreement, and requiring us to provide Parent any non-public information concerning us that was provided to such person and which was not previously provided to Parent;

requiring us to promptly notify Parent if we receive an acquisition proposal, or indication by any person that it is considering an Acquisition Proposal, a request for non-public information concerning us, or a request to negotiate an Acquisition Proposal;

prohibiting us from terminating or modifying any confidentiality or standstill agreement and requiring us to enforce, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, such agreements;

requiring us, if we pursues a Superior Proposal (as defined in the section titled " No Solicitation"), to provide Parent with five days notice of our intent to pursue the Superior Proposal and allow Parent to amend the terms of the Merger Agreement so that the Superior Proposal ceases to be a Superior Proposal;

prohibiting any person from taking any action to exempt any person (other than Parent, Merger Sub or their affiliates) from the restrictions of Section 351.407 or Section 351.459 of the General Business and Corporation Law of Missouri or otherwise cause such restrictions not to apply unless such actions are taken simultaneously with a termination of the Merger Agreement;

requiring Parent and Merger Sub to purchase, and the surviving company to maintain, tail insurance policies covering our current directors and officers for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger;

requiring Parent to indemnify all of our current officers and directors for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger for any claim, suit or proceeding relating to an event, act or omission that occurred prior to the effective time of the merger by reason of the fact that such person was our officer or director;

requiring that all indemnification agreements to which we are a party will survive past the effective time of the merger;

requiring Parent to pay all expenses that an indemnified person may incur in enforcing Parent's indemnification obligations contained in the Merger Agreement;

requiring us, prior to the effective time of the Merger, and Parent, after the effective time of the merger, to honor all of our existing employment and severance agreements listed in the disclosure letter;

requiring Parent and the surviving corporation to maintain substantially similar compensation and benefits for our non-unionized employees for a period of one year after the effective time of the merger;

requiring Parent and the surviving corporation to take into account our non-unionized employees' services rendered prior to the effective time of the merger for vesting and eligibility purposes under employee benefit plans of Parent, the surviving corporation or its subsidiaries, as long as such credit does not cause the benefit plan to be extended to other employees in order to comply with laws or obtain favorable tax treatment;

if requested by Parent, we will be required to amend our benefit plans to provide that no employees can commence participation after the effective time and may also be required to terminate any tax-qualified employee benefit plans;

requiring Parent to take all action necessary to cause Merger Sub to perform its obligations under the Merger Agreement and to consummate the Merger on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement; and requiring us to cooperate in connection with any financing arrangement that Parent seeks in connection with the closing of the merger as may be reasonably requested by Parent.

Continuation of Employee Benefits

Under the Merger Agreement, Parent will, and will cause the surviving entity, to honor all existing employment and severance agreements between us or any of our subsidiaries and our and their respective officers, directors and employees. Any written communications made by us relating to the compensation or benefit plans affected by this transaction must be approved by the Parent. If requested by Parent, we will be required to amend our benefit plans to provide that no employees can commence participation after the effective time and we may also be required to terminate any tax-qualified employee benefit plans.

Parent has also agreed, for a period of one year after the effective time, to maintain for our employees, other than those covered by a collective bargaining agreement, compensation and benefits that are substantially similar to, in the aggregate, the compensation and benefits provided by us immediately prior to the effective time. Parent must also take into account services rendered by our employees prior to the effective time, for vesting, eligibility and benefit accrual purposes, under employee benefit plans of the surviving corporation to the same extent as such service was taken into account under our corresponding employee benefit plans for those purposes.

However, as is typical, employees are not third party beneficiaries of the Merger Agreement, and do not have standing to enforce these provisions.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers; Insurance

Under the Merger Agreement, Parent agrees to provide or maintain the following benefits to our or our subsidiaries' current and former directors, officers or employees, as the case may be:

all rights to exculpation, indemnification and advancement of expenses now existing as provided in our or our subsidiaries' respective organizational documents, to survive the merger for a period of six years;

current indemnification agreements, to remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms following the merger; and comparable directors' and officers' liability insurance policies with respect to matters existing or occurring prior to the effective time, for six years after the effective time with annual premiums not in excess of 250% of the current directors' and officers' liability insurance premiums.

In addition, under the Merger Agreement, Parent is required for six years from and after the effective time, to indemnify and hold harmless (and release from any liability to the surviving corporation or any of their respective subsidiaries) the persons who, at or prior to the effective time, were our officers or directors or any of our subsidiaries, against all expenses (including reimbursement for reasonable fees and expenses incurred in advance of the final disposition of any action, suit or proceeding), losses, claims, damages, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement to the fullest extent under applicable law.

Financing Commitments

Parent has received certain commitment letters with respect to financing Parent's obligations under the Merger Agreement. We and our subsidiaries agree to cooperate in connection with any financing arrangement Parent seeks, as may be reasonably requested by Parent or its lenders. Parent's obligation to effect the merger is subject to satisfaction of the conditions contained in such commitment letters. However, if such conditions are not fulfilled, and the sole reason for the failure to consummate the merger was the failure by Parent and Merger Sub to receive the amounts under such financing commitments, Parent must pay us a reverse break-up fee of $3.5 million plus reasonable expenses up to $500,000 which would be supported by a limited guaranty furnished by LBMB.

No Solicitation

We have agreed that we will not, nor will we permit any of our subsidiaries or any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, advisors or representatives to, directly or indirectly through another person:

solicit, initiate or encourage (including by way of furnishing nonpublic information or access to properties, assets, employees or representatives), or take any other action to facilitate, any negotiations, inquiries, or the making of any proposal or offer (including any proposal or offer to our shareholders) that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any acquisition proposal, as defined below; or approve, endorse, authorize or recommend any acquisition proposal or enter into any letter of intent or other contract, agreement or commitment contemplating or otherwise relating to any acquisition proposal or that requires us not to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

An "acquisition proposal" is defined in the Merger Agreement as any offer or proposal, or any indication of interest in making an offer or proposal, made by a person or group at any time relating to:

any direct or indirect acquisition in a single transaction or a series of transactions by any person of 20% or more of the consolidated assets (including capital stock of our subsidiaries) of us and our subsidiaries;

20% or more of any equity security of us or any of our subsidiaries whose net income, net revenue or assets, individually or in the aggregate constitute 20% or more of the consolidated net revenue, net income or assets (such subsidiaries, the "Included Subsidiaries");

any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any person owning, directly or indirectly, 20% or more of us or the Included Subsidiaries' Shares; or any merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution, share exchange or similar transaction involving us or the Included Subsidiaries (as defined by the Merger Agreement).

Notwithstanding the above restriction, we may provide information to, and negotiate with, a third party if we receive an Alternative Proposal that our board of directors determines is or is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal, as defined below.

A "Superior Proposal" is defined in the Merger Agreement as an Acquisition Proposal (but changing the references to "20% or more" in the definition to "50% or more"), which the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial and legal advisers, is more favorable to the Company's shareholders from a financial point of view.

In addition, we have agreed to notify Parent within 24 hours, if we, our subsidiaries, or any of our representatives receives (i) an Acquisition Proposal or any indication that a person is considering making an acquisition proposal; (ii) any request for non-public information relating to us or any of our subsidiaries other than requests for information in the ordinary course of business; or (iii) any inquiry or request for discussion or negotiations regarding any Acquisition Proposal. We have also agreed to:

keep Parent fully informed of the status and material terms and conditions (including any change therein) of any Acquisition Proposal or inquiry as to such party; and provide Parent with the identity of such person and provide a copy of such Acquisition Proposal, indication, inquiry or request.

Change of Board Recommendation

Upon receiving an Acquisition Proposal that our board of directors, after consultation with outside counsel and our financial advisor, determines to be a Superior Proposal, our board of directors may change its recommendation for the shareholders to vote for the Merger if (a) we pay a termination fee as set forth in the section titled "-Expenses and Termination Fees," (b) we notify Parent in writing at least five days before prior to such change of recommendation and (c) we cause our financial and legal advisors to negotiate with Parent in good faith to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement so that such Acquisition Proposal ceases to constitute a Superior Proposal, and (d) Parent does not make an offer within five days of receipt of written notification, an offer that our board determines in good faith (after having received the advice of its financial advisor and outside legal counsel) is at least as favorable from a financial point of view to the Angelica shareholders as such Superior Proposal.

Conditions to the Merger

Parent's, Merger Sub's and our respective obligations to consummate the merger are subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions:

receipt of approval from shareholders owning two-thirds of Angelica's outstanding common shares;

the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act, which was granted June 20, 2008; and the absence of any law, rule, injunction, judgment, decree or order prohibiting the merger.

In addition, we are not obligated to effect the merger unless the following conditions have been satisfied or waived in writing:

accuracy of the representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub, subject to certain materiality exceptions which are not applicable to the financing commitment representation;

performance of the covenants and obligations of Parent and Merger Sub, subject to certain materiality exceptions; and receipt of a certificate signed on behalf of Parent certifying as to the above two matters.

In addition, Parent and Merger Sub are not obligated to complete the Merger unless the following conditions are satisfied or waived in writing:

accuracy of our representations and warranties, disregarding all qualifications or limitations as to materiality in some cases, and subject to materiality exceptions in other cases;

performance of our covenants, subject to certain materiality exceptions;

receipt of a certificate signed by our Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer certifying as to the above two matters;

the conditions in the debt financing commitments have been satisfied or waived;

absence of a material adverse effect since the date of the Merger Agreement;

holders of not more than 10% of our common stock having not given notice of their exercise of appraisal rights under Missouri law; and the holders of at least 90% of the outstanding, unexpired and unexercised options to purchase shares of our common stock have consented to the cancellation of such options, by accepting the issuer tender offer or otherwise.

We, Parent or Merger Sub cannot rely on the failure of a closing condition as an excuse not to close, if such failure was caused by such party's failure to perform any of its obligations under the Merger Agreement, to act in good faith, or to use commercially reasonable efforts to consummate the merger and other transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

We or Parent (with any termination of Parent being an effective termination of Merger Sub) may terminate the Merger Agreement at any time prior to the consummation of the merger by mutual written consent or if:

the parties have not consummated the merger by November 22, 2008, and the party desiring to terminate the Merger Agreement has not failed to perform or observe in any material respect any of its obligations under the Merger Agreement in any manner that caused or resulted in the failure of the merger to occur on or before that date;

our shareholders hold a meeting to consider the Merger Agreement but do not vote to adopt the Merger Agreement;

any court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental authority has issued a final and non-appealable order, injunction, decree or ruling, enacted a law, or taken any other such action, restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger; provided that the party seeking to terminate has used commercially reasonable efforts to contest, appeal and remove such order, decree, ruling or action; or the other party has breached any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties, which either individually or in the aggregate, would result in, if occurring or continuing as of the effective time of the merger, that would cause any condition to Parent's, Merger Sub's or our obligation to complete the merger to not be satisfied and the breach is not curable or, if curable, is not cured within 30 days after the party desiring to terminate the Merger Agreement gives written notice of the breach to the other party, and the party desiring to terminate the Merger Agreement is not, at the time of the termination, in breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement in the Merger Agreement that would give rise to the right of the other party to terminate the Merger Agreement.

In addition, we can terminate the Merger Agreement if we have entered into a definitive agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal in accordance with the Merger Agreement and paid the termination fee (as described below). Parent will be able to terminate the Merger Agreement if a change of board recommendation has occurred, (ii) we have entered into a Merger Agreement, letter of intent or similar agreement relating to an acquisition proposal or requiring us to fail to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (iii) we have willfully and materially breached our obligations under the no solicitation or duty to obtain shareholder approval provisions.

Expenses and Termination Fees

Except as described below, whether or not the merger is consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement will be paid by the party incurring those expenses.

Relating to Acquisition Proposals or Other Agreements

The Merger Agreement requires that we pay Parent a $9,000,000 termination fee if:

(1) (a) the Merger Agreement is terminated and we enter into an agreement with respect to the acquisition of Angelica (other than the Merger Agreement) or consummate such an acquisition within 12 months of the termination of the Merger Agreement; and

(b) (i) the merger has not been completed by November 22, 2008; (ii) we failed to obtain shareholder approval when there was an Acquisition Proposal pending; or (iii) we willfully breached a representation warranty or covenant;

(2) the Parent terminates the Merger Agreement because:

(a) we enter into a merger agreement, letter of intent or similar agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal;

Edgar Filing: ANGELICA CORP /NEW/ - Form DEFM14A

(b) we enter into an agreement requiring us to fail to consummate the transaction or breach our obligations under the Merger Agreement; or

(c) we willfully and materially breach our obligations under the no solicitation provision; or

(3) we terminate the Merger Agreement to enter into a definitive agreement relating to a Superior Proposal.

Failure to Obtain Shareholder Approval

If there is no Acquisition Proposal pending or disclosed to our Board of Directors and the shareholders fail to approve the merger, we will pay Parent $3,500,000 plus reasonable expenses not to exceed $1,000,000.

Change in Board Recommendation

If Parent terminates the Merger Agreement because our board of directors changed its recommendation to the shareholders, we will pay Parent $9,000,000.

Breach by Parent or Merger Sub

If all the closing conditions are met and the Parent or Merger Sub willfully breaches a representation, warranty or covenant, the Parent will pay us a reverse termination fee of $9,000,000.

Financing Condition

If the merger has not been consummated by November 22, 2008 solely as a result of Parent not receiving the necessary debt financing, Parent must pay us a reverse termination fee of $3,500,000 plus reasonable expenses up to $500,000.

Amendment; Extension and Waivers

The parties may amend the Merger Agreement, by action taken or authorized by Parent or our Board of Directors, at any time before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the merger by our shareholders. After the shareholders adopt the Merger Agreement, however, no amendment to the Merger Agreement may be made which decreases the merger consideration or which adversely affects the rights of our shareholders without approval of our shareholders.

At any time prior to the effective time of the merger, each party may, by action taken by its board of directors, to the extent legally allowed:

extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties to the Merger Agreement;

waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties made to such party contained in the Merger Agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to the Merger Agreement; and waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions for the benefit of such party contained in the Merger Agreement.

At this time, our Board of Directors does not contemplate or intend to waive any condition to the consummation of the merger. If our Board of Directors were to choose to grant a waiver, a shareholder would not have an opportunity to vote on that waiver, and we and our shareholders would not have the benefit of the waived condition. Our Board of Directors expects that it would waive a condition to the consummation of the merger only after determining that the waiver would have no material effect on the rights and benefits that we and our shareholders expect to receive from the merger.

Governing Law

The Merger Agreement is governed by and will be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Missouri without regard to the conflicts of law provisions of Missouri law that would cause the laws of other jurisdictions to apply.

THE VOTING AGREEMENT

This section of the proxy statement describes the material provisions of the voting agreement entered into by Parent and Steel Partners, a shareholder of Angelica, but it does not purport to describe all the provisions of the voting agreement. We urge you to read the full text of the voting agreement, which is attached as Appendix D and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement.

General

Concurrently with the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement, Steel Partners, entered into a voting agreement with Parent. Steel Partners is a shareholder who, as of May 27, 2008, owned 1,792,770 shares or 18.76% of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote on the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Voting Covenants

Steel Partners has agreed, among other things, to vote its shares of our common stock in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the terms thereof, the merger and each of the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and any other action reasonably requested by Parent in furtherance thereof, at any meeting or written consent of our stockholders at which such matter is considered, and at every adjournment or postponement thereof. Such parties have also agreed not to enter into any agreement, arrangement or understanding with any person, or to give instructions to any person, inconsistent with such obligation to vote.

Steel Partners has further agreed to vote against the approval of any Acquisition Proposal or the authorization of any agreement relating to any Acquisition Proposal or any amendment of Angelica's articles of incorporation or bylaws or any other action, agreement, proposal or transaction involving Angelica or its subsidiaries which amendment or other action, agreement, proposal or transaction would or would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of Angelica's obligations under the Merger Agreement or cause such obligations not to be fulfilled or which would reasonably be expected to interfere with the merger, the Merger Agreement or any of the other transactions contemplated thereby.

Steel Partners has waived its dissenters' rights with regards to the merger.

Restrictions on Transfer and Other Voting Arrangements

Steel Partners has agreed not to, sell, transfer, exchange, pledge, hypothecate, encumber, tender or otherwise dispose of, or enforce or permit the execution of the provisions of any redemption, share purchase or sale, recapitalization or other agreement with Angelica or any other person, with respect to shares of our common stock subject to the voting agreement. It also agreed not to enter into any contract, option or other arrangement with respect to the direct or indirect transfer of any of our shares of the common stock held by Steel Partners or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for shares of Angelica common stock which are subject to the voting agreement, or any interest in such shares, with any person, or join in any registration statement with respect to such shares. Steel Partners further agreed not to enter into any swap or other transaction that directly or indirectly transfers, partially or fully, the economic consequence of ownership of our shares of common stock held by Steel Partners which are subject to the voting agreement and agreed not to permit creation of any liens on such shares.

Notwithstanding the forgoing Steel Partners reserved the right to engage in open market sales (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall not include sales effected over an exchange to an identifiable buyer who has publicly disclosed, or who Steel Partners knows plans or intends to make, an Acquisition Proposal) of any shares of Angelica common stock with broker dealers in the ordinary course of business after the record date for the shareholder vote to approve the merger. Steel Partners may also sell its Angelica common stock in a private transaction to a person who agrees to be bound by the voting agreement.

Non-solicitation or Negotiation

Steel Partners has agreed not to, and not to authorize or permit any of their employees, agents and representatives to, directly or indirectly, (a) initiate, solicit, encourage or facilitate, or furnish or disclose non-public information in furtherance of, any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer with respect to any acquisition proposal, or (b) negotiate, explore or otherwise engage in discussions with any person with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, or approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal, or enter into any agreement, arrangement or understanding with respect to any Acquisition Proposal. Steel Partners has also agreed to notify Parent within 2 days if any such inquiries or proposals are received by, any information or documents is requested from, or any negotiations or discussions are sought to be initiated or continued with, such party or any of its Affiliates.

Termination

The voting agreement will terminate on the earliest to occur of (a) the effective time of the merger, or (b) the date of termination of the Merger Agreement.

FUTURE SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

We will not hold an annual meeting of shareholders in 2008 (the "2008 Annual Meeting") if the merger is completed. However, if the merger is not completed by then, we will hold our 2008 Annual Meeting.

Any shareholder who intends to present a proposal at the 2008 Annual Meeting must send the proposal via standard mail, overnight delivery or other courier service, to Steven L. Frey, our Corporate Secretary, at 424 South Woods Mill Road, Chesterfield, Missouri 63017-3406, by the following times:

Proposals submitted pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act for inclusion in our proxy materials for the 2008 Annual Meeting were due on or before June 6, 2008. No stockholder proposals were received. However, if the Company changes the date of the 2008 Annual Meeting by more than 30 days from the anniversary date of the annual meeting of its shareholders related to its 2007 fiscal year, then the shareholders will have a reasonable time before the Company begins to print and send its proxy materials for the 2008 Annual Meeting to submit proposals.

Proposals submitted pursuant to Angelica's bylaws, which we are not required to include in our proxy materials, may be considered at the 2008 Annual Meeting if the shareholder gives timely notice of the proposal or nomination in writing to our Corporate Secretary. To be timely, a shareholder's notice must be received by the Corporate Secretary not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the date of the meeting. However, if a notice of the meeting was not mailed, or the date of the meeting not publicly disclosed, at least 70 days before the date of the meeting, then shareholders may submit director nominations or other proposals to be presented at the meeting if proper notice is delivered to and received by our Corporate Secretary within 10 days after any such mailing or public disclosure.

In addition, the shareholder's notice delivered pursuant to our bylaws must include:

a brief description of each item of business desired to be brought before the meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting;

the name and address, as they appear on Angelica's books, of the shareholder proposing such business;

the class and number of shares of common stock which are beneficially owned by the shareholder; and any material interest of the shareholder in such business.

Any shareholder nomination concerning a director candidate must be accompanied by:

all information relating to the director nominee that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act, including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected; and the name and address, as they appear on Angelica's books, of the shareholder and the class and number of shares of common stock owned by the shareholder.

HOUSEHOLDING OF SPECIAL MEETING MATERIALS

In some instances, only one copy of this proxy statement is being delivered to multiple shareholders sharing a common address, unless we have received instructions from one or more of the shareholders to continue to deliver multiple copies. This practice, known as "householding," is designed to reduce our printing and postage costs and to reduce waste. However, upon oral or written request, we will deliver promptly a separate copy of the proxy statement to any stockholder at your address. WHEREAS, Parent, Merger Sub and the Company desire to make certain representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in connection with this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

THE MERGER

SECTION 1.01 The Merger. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, and in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Corporation Law, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub shall be merged with and into the Company (the "Merger"). The Company shall be the surviving corporation in the Merger (the "Surviving Corporation") under the name "Angelica Corporation" and shall continue its existence under the Laws of the State of Missouri. In connection with the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall cease.

SECTION 1.02 Consummation of the Merger. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the closing of the transactions contemplated hereby (the "Closing") will take place at 10:00 a.m., local time, as promptly as practicable but in no event later than the third Business Day after the satisfaction or waiver (by the party entitled to grant such waiver) of the conditions set forth in Article VI (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the fulfillment or waiver of those conditions at the Closing) at the offices of Stinson Morrison Hecker LLP, 100 South Fourth Street, St. Louis, Missouri 63102 or such other time, date or location as agreed to in writing by Parent and the Company. The date of the Closing is referred to as the "Closing Date." As promptly as practicable on the Closing Date and subject to the terms and conditions hereof, Merger Sub and the Company shall cause the Merger to be consummated by duly filing with the Secretary of State of the State of Missouri (the "Missouri Secretary") executed articles of merger (the "Articles of Merger"), as required by the Corporation Law. The time the Merger becomes effective in accordance with applicable Law is referred to as the "Effective Time."

SECTION 1.03 Effects of the Merger. The Merger shall have the effects set forth herein and in the applicable provisions of the Corporation Law.

SECTION 1.04 Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. At the Effective Time and subject to Section 5.07(a), the Articles of Incorporation of Merger Sub shall be the Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended as permitted by Law and such Articles of Incorporation. At the Effective Time and subject to Section 5.07(a), the Bylaws of Merger Sub shall be the Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended as permitted by Law, the Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation and such Bylaws.

SECTION 1.05 Directors and Officers. The directors of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time and the officers of the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the directors and officers, respectively, of the Surviving Corporation, and such directors and officers shall hold office until their respective successors shall have been duly elected, designated or qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal in accordance with and subject to the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

SECTION 1.06 Conversion of Shares. Each share of common stock of the Company, par value $1.00 per share, including each share of Company Restricted Stock (each, a "Share" and, collectively, the "Shares"), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Shares owned by Parent, Merger Sub or any wholly owned Subsidiary of Parent or the Company or held in the treasury of the Company, all of which shall be cancelled at the Effective Time without any consideration being exchanged therefor, and other than Dissenting Shares) shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, be converted at the Effective Time into the right to receive in cash an amount per Share (subject to any applicable withholding Tax specified in Section 1.08) equal to $22.00, without interest (the "Merger Consideration"), upon the surrender of the certificate representing such Shares or the Book-Entry Shares as provided in Section 2.02. At the Effective Time, all such Shares shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist, and each holder of such Shares shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Merger Consideration as provided herein.

SECTION 1.07 Conversion of Common Stock of Merger Sub. Each share of common stock, $0.01 par value per share, of Merger Sub issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, be converted into and become one share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

SECTION 1.08 Withholding Taxes. Parent, the Surviving Corporation and the Paying Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable to a holder of Shares or Options pursuant to the Merger or this Agreement such amounts as are required to be deducted and withheld from such payment under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), or any applicable provision of state, local or foreign Tax Law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld and paid over to the appropriate Governmental Entity by Parent, the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the Shares or Options in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

SECTION 1.09 Subsequent Actions. If at any time after the Effective Time the Surviving Corporation shall consider or be advised that any deeds, bills of sale, assignments, assurances or any other actions or things are necessary or desirable to continue, vest, perfect or confirm of record or otherwise the Surviving Corporation's right, title or interest in, to or under any of the rights, properties, privileges, franchises or assets of the Company or Merger Sub as a result of, or in connection with, the Merger, or otherwise to carry out the intent of this Agreement, the officers and directors of the Surviving Corporation shall be authorized to execute and deliver, in the name and on behalf of the Company or Merger Sub, all such deeds, bills of sale, assignments and assurances and to take and do, in the name and on behalf of the Company, Merger Sub or otherwise, all such other actions and things as may be necessary or desirable to vest, perfect or confirm of record or otherwise any and all right, title and interest in, to and under such rights, properties, privileges, franchises or assets in the Surviving Corporation or otherwise to carry out the intent of this Agreement.

ARTICLE II

DISSENTING SHARES; PAYMENT FOR SHARES; OPTIONS

SECTION 2.01 Dissenting Shares. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, to the extent permitted by the Corporation Law, Shares that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and which are held by any shareholder who is entitled to demand and properly demands payment of the fair value of such Shares pursuant to, and who complies in all respects with, Section 351.455 of the Corporation Law (the "Dissenting Shares") shall not be converted into or be exchangeable for the right to receive the Merger Consideration, unless and until such holder shall have failed to perfect or effectively shall have withdrawn or lost such right to be paid fair value under Section 351.455 of the Corporation Law. Dissenting Shares shall be treated in accordance with Section 351.455 of the Corporation Law. If any such holder shall have failed to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost such right to be paid fair value, such holder's Shares shall thereupon be converted into and become exchangeable only for the right to receive, as of the later of the Effective Time and the time that such right to appraisal shall have been irrevocably lost, withdrawn or expired, the Merger Consideration without any interest thereon. The Company shall give Parent and Merger Sub (a) prompt written notice of any demands for appraisal of any Shares, attempted withdrawals of such demands and any other instruments served pursuant to the Corporation Law and received by the Company relating to rights to be paid the "fair value" of Dissenting Shares, as provided in Section 351.455 of the Corporation Law, and (b) the opportunity to participate in and direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to demands for appraisal under the Corporation Law. The Company shall not, except with the prior written consent of Parent, voluntarily make or agree to make any payment with respect to any demands for appraisal of capital stock of the Company or offer to settle or settle any such demands.

SECTION 2.02 Payment for Shares. (a) Prior to the Closing Date, Parent shall appoint a bank or trust company reasonably acceptable to the Company to act as paying agent (the "Paying Agent") for the payment of the Merger Consideration and, in connection therewith, shall enter into an agreement with the Paying Agent in a form reasonably acceptable to the Company. At or prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to deposit, with the Paying Agent, cash in an amount sufficient to pay the aggregate Merger Consideration required to be paid pursuant to this Agreement (such cash being hereinafter referred to as the "Payment Fund"). The Payment Fund shall not be used for any purpose other than to fund payments due pursuant to Section 1.06, except as provided in this Agreement.

(b) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, but in any event within five Business Days thereafter, the Surviving Corporation shall cause the Paying Agent to mail (i) to each record holder of an outstanding certificate or certificates (the "Certificates") as of the Effective Time which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented Shares (other than Shares owned by Parent, Merger Sub or any wholly owned Subsidiary of Parent or the Company, Shares held in the treasury of the Company and Dissenting Shares) a form of letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Paying Agent) and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates and receiving the Merger Consideration and (ii) to each holder of non-certificated Shares held in book-entry form ("Book-Entry Shares") instructions for use in effecting the surrender of Book-Entry Shares in exchange for the Merger Consideration. Promptly following surrender to the Paying Agent of a Certificate, together with such letter of transmittal duly executed, or Book-Entry Shares, the holder of such Certificate or Book-Entry Shares shall be paid in exchange therefor cash in an amount (subject to any applicable withholding Tax as specified in Section 1.08) equal to the product of the number of Shares represented by such Certificate or Book-Entry Shares multiplied by the Merger Consideration, and such Certificate or Book-Entry Shares shall forthwith be canceled. No interest will be paid or accrued on the cash payable upon the surrender of the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares. If payment is to be made to a Person other than the Person in whose name the Certificate surrendered is registered, it shall be a condition of payment that the Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed or otherwise in proper form for transfer and that the Person requesting such payment pay any transfer or other Taxes required by reason of the payment to a Person other than the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered or establish to the reasonable satisfaction of the Surviving Corporation that such Tax has been paid or is not applicable. From and after the Effective Time and until surrendered in accordance with the provisions of this Section 2.02, each such Certificate and Book-Entry Share shall represent for all purposes solely the right to receive, in accordance with the terms hereof, the Merger Consideration in cash multiplied by the number of Shares evidenced by such Certificate or Book-Entry Shares, without any interest thereon.

(c) The Paying Agent shall invest the cash in the Payment Fund as directed by Parent; provided, however, that such investments shall be in obligations of or guaranteed by the United States of America or any agency or instrumentality thereof and backed by the full faith and credit of the United States of America, in commercial paper obligations rated A-1 or P-1 or better by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. or Standard & Poor's Corporation, respectively, or in certificates of deposit, bank repurchase agreements or banker's acceptances of commercial banks with capital exceeding $1.0 billion (based on the most recent financial statements of such bank that are then publicly available). Any interest and other income resulting from such investments shall be paid solely to Parent. No investment losses resulting from investment of the Payment Fund shall diminish the rights of any holder of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares to receive the Merger Consideration.

(d) If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent, the posting by such Person of a bond in such reasonable amount as the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Paying Agent will deliver in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate (together with such letter of transmittal duly executed) the Merger Consideration with respect to the Shares formerly represented thereby, without any interest thereon.

(e) Any portion of the Payment Fund (including the proceeds of any investments thereof) that remains unclaimed by the former shareholders of the Company for nine months after the Effective Time shall be repaid to Parent. Any former shareholders of the Company who have not complied with this Section 2.02 prior to the end of such nine month period shall thereafter look only to Parent and the Surviving Corporation (subject to abandoned property, escheat or other similar Laws) but only as general creditors thereof for payment of their claim for the Merger Consideration, without any interest thereon. Neither Parent nor the Surviving Corporation shall be liable to any holder of Shares for any monies delivered from the Payment Fund or otherwise to a public official in compliance with any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law. If any Shares shall not have been surrendered prior to such date as shall be immediately prior to the date that such unclaimed funds would otherwise become subject to any abandoned property, escheat or similar Law, any unclaimed funds payable with respect to such Shares shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, become the property of the Surviving Corporation, free and clear of all claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto.

SECTION 2.03 Closing of the Company's Transfer Books. At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed and no transfer of Shares shall thereafter be made. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to the Surviving Corporation for transfer, they shall be canceled and exchanged for the Merger Consideration without any interest thereon as provided in this Article II, subject to applicable Law in the case of Dissenting Shares.

SECTION 2.04 Treatment of Outstanding Stock Options. (a) Prior to the Effective Time, the Board of Directors of the Company (or, if appropriate, any committee thereof) shall use commercially reasonable efforts to take all actions that are necessary and appropriate to cause that, immediately prior to the Effective Time, each unexpired and unexercised option to purchase Shares (an "Option"), under any stock option plan of the Company, including, without limitation, the 2004 Equity Incentive Plan for Non-Employee Directors, the 1999 Performance Plan, the 1994 Performance Plan, the 1994 Non-Employee Directors Stock Plan or any other plan, agreement or arrangement (the "Equity Plans"), whether or not then exercisable or vested, to be cancelled and, in exchange therefor, to have each former holder of any such cancelled Option to be entitled to receive, in consideration of the cancellation of such Option and in settlement therefor, a payment in cash (subject to any applicable withholding Tax as specified in Section 1.08) of an amount equal to the "In-the-Money Option Consideration" or the "Out-of-the-Money Consideration", as the case may be, as such terms are defined below (such amounts payable hereunder being referred to as the "Option Payment"). The "In-the Money Option Consideration" shall be the product of (i) the total number of Shares previously subject to an Option that has an exercise price less than the Merger Consideration and (ii) the excess of the Merger Consideration over the exercise price per Share previously subject to such Option. The "Out-of-the Money Consideration" shall be the product of (i) the total number of Shares previously subject to an Option that has an exercise price equal to or greater than the Merger Consideration and (ii) an amount to be determined by the Company, which shall not exceed $75,000 in the aggregate for all such out-of-the-money stock options. Such commercially reasonable efforts shall include the Company making a cash tender offer to purchase all outstanding Options on the Closing Date. From and after the Effective Time, any such cancelled Option shall no longer be exercisable by the former holder thereof, but shall only entitle such holder to the payment of the applicable Option Payment, and the Company will use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all necessary consents to ensure that former holders of such Options will have no rights other than the right to receive the Option Payment. At the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit with the Surviving Corporation cash in an amount sufficient to pay the aggregate amount of Option Payments required to be paid pursuant to this Agreement. All amounts payable pursuant to this Section 2.04(a) shall be paid as promptly as practicable following the Effective Time, without interest.

(b) Prior to the Effective Time, the Board of Directors of the Company (or, if appropriate, any committee thereof) shall use commercially reasonable efforts to take all actions and to obtain all necessary consents and releases from all of the holders of all the Options heretofore granted under the Equity Plans to (i) terminate, as of the Effective Time, the Equity Plans and any other plan, program or arrangement providing for the issuance or grant of any other interest in respect of the capital stock of the Company or any Affiliate thereof and (ii) amend, as of the Effective Time, the provisions of any other Plan providing for the issuance, transfer or grant of any capital stock of the Company or any such Affiliate, or any interest in respect of any capital stock of the Company or any such Affiliate, to provide no continuing rights to acquire, hold, transfer or grant any capital stock of the Company or any such Affiliate or any interest in the capital stock of the Company or any such Affiliate.

(c) The Company shall make all commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that after the Effective Time neither it nor any of its Affiliates is or will be bound by any Options, other options, warrants, rights or agreements which would entitle any Person, other than Parent or its Affiliates, to own any capital stock of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or to receive any payment in respect thereof. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 2.04 to the contrary, payment of the Option Payment may be withheld with respect to any Option until necessary consents and releases are obtained.

SECTION 2.05 Further Actions. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, if, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, there shall have been declared, made or paid any dividend or distribution on the Shares (other than regular quarterly cash dividends) or the issued and outstanding Shares shall have been changed into a different number of Shares or a different class by reason of any stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, reclassification, redenomination, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or other similar transaction, the Merger Consideration and any other dependent items shall be appropriately adjusted to provide to the holders of the Shares and Options the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such action and as so adjusted shall, from and after the date of such event, be the Merger Consideration or other dependent item, subject to further adjustment in accordance with this Section 2.05; provided that nothing herein shall be construed to permit the Company to take any action with respect to its securities that is prohibited or not expressly permitted by the terms of this Agreement.

ARTICLE III

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

Except as disclosed in any report, schedule, form, statement or other document filed with, or furnished to, the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") by the Company and publicly available prior to the date of this Agreement or as disclosed in the section of the disclosure letter dated the date of this Agreement and delivered by the Company to Parent with respect to this Agreement prior to the execution hereof (the "Disclosure Letter") that specifically relates to, or is reasonably apparent on its face to relate to, such Section of Article III below, the Company represents and warrants to each of the other parties hereto as follows:

SECTION 3.01 Organization and Qualification. The Company and each of its Subsidiaries is a duly organized and validly existing entity in good standing under the Laws of its jurisdiction of organization, with all corporate power and authority to own its properties and conduct its business as currently conducted, and is duly qualified and in good standing as a foreign entity authorized to do business in each of the jurisdictions in which the character of the properties owned or held under lease by it or the nature of the business transacted by it makes such qualification necessary, except where the failure to be duly qualified or in good standing has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect. The Company has heretofore made available to Parent true, correct and complete copies of the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws (or other similar governing documents) of the Company and each of its Subsidiaries. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries, directly or indirectly, owns any equity interest in any Person other than the Company's Subsidiaries.

SECTION 3.02 Capitalization.

(a) The authorized capital stock of the Company consists of (i) 20,000,000 Shares, par value $1.00 per share, and (ii) 2,600,000 shares of preferred stock, no par value per share (the "Preferred Shares"). As of May 22, 2008, 9,545,680 Shares (which number includes 252,628 Shares subject to vesting or other forfeiture conditions or repurchase by the Company (such Shares, the "Company Restricted Stock")) and no Preferred Shares were issued and outstanding, 241,365 Shares and no Preferred Shares were held in the Company's treasury, 346,562 Shares and no Preferred Shares were reserved for issuance under the Equity Plans and 200,000 Preferred Shares were reserved for issuance upon exercise of rights ("Rights") outstanding pursuant to the Rights Agreement between the Company and UMB Bank, N.A. dated August 25, 1998, as amended by Amendment No. 1 to the Rights Agreement, dated as of August 29, 2006, and Amendment No. 2 to the Rights Agreement, dated as of September 19, 2006 (as so amended, and as further amended from time to time, the "Rights Agreement"). In addition, as of such date, there were outstanding Options to purchase an aggregate of 503,900 Shares and no outstanding options to purchase Preferred Shares. Since such date through the date hereof, the Company has not issued any Shares or Preferred Shares other than the issuance of Shares upon the exercise of Options outstanding on such date, has not granted any options, restricted stock, warrants or rights (other than Rights attached to issued Shares pursuant to the Rights Agreement) or entered into any other agreements or commitments to issue any Shares or Preferred Shares, and has not split, combined or reclassified any of its shares of capital stock. All of the outstanding Shares have been duly authorized and validly issued and are fully paid (except for shares of Company Restricted Stock, which shall be fully paid upon their vesting) and nonassessable and are free of preemptive rights. Section 3.02(a) of the Disclosure Letter contains a true, correct and complete list, as of the date of this Agreement, of each Option and other equity-based award outstanding, the number of Shares issuable thereunder or to which such award pertains, the employee, director, consultant or other Person who has received such award, the expiration date and exercise or conversion price, if applicable, related thereto and, if applicable, the Plan pursuant to which each such Option or other equity-based award was granted. Except as set forth in Section 3.02(a) of the Disclosure Letter, and the Rights, there are no outstanding (i) securities of the Company convertible into or exchangeable for shares of capital stock or voting securities or ownership interests in the Company, (ii) options, warrants, rights, subscriptions, claims of any character, or other agreements or commitments to acquire from the Company, or obligations of the Company to issue, deliver or sell or cause to be issued, delivered or sold any capital stock, voting securities or other ownership interests in (or securities convertible into or exchangeable for capital stock or voting securities or other ownership interests in) the Company, (iii) obligations of the Company to grant, extend or enter into any subscription, warrant, right, claims of any character, agreements, obligations, convertible or exchangeable security or other similar agreement or commitment relating to any capital stock, voting securities or other ownership interests in the Company (the items in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii), together with the capital stock, voting securities and other ownership interests of the Company, being referred to collectively as "Company Securities") or (iv) obligations of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to make any payments directly or indirectly based (in whole or in part) on the price or value of the Shares or Preferred Shares. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has any outstanding stock appreciation rights, phantom stock, performance based rights, profit participation or similar rights or obligations. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has any authorized or outstanding bonds, debentures, notes or other indebtedness the holders of which have the right to vote (or convertible into, exchangeable for, or evidencing the right to subscribe for or acquire securities having the right to vote) with the shareholders of the Company on any matter. There are no outstanding obligations, commitments or arrangements, contingent or otherwise, of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to (1) purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any Company Securities or shares of capital stock of, or other equity or voting interest in, any other Person or (2) vote or dispose of any shares of capital stock of, or other equity or voting interest in, the Company, other than (A) the acquisition by the Company of Shares in connection with the surrender of Shares by holders of Options in order to pay the exercise price of the Options, (B) the withholding of Shares to satisfy tax obligations with respect to awards granted pursuant to the Plans, and (C) the acquisition by the Company of awards under Plans in connection with the forfeiture of such awards. There are no voting trusts or other agreements or understandings to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or, to the knowledge of the Company, any other Person is a party with respect to the voting of capital stock of the Company.

(b) The Company or one or more of its Subsidiaries is the record and beneficial owner of all the equity interests of each Subsidiary of the Company, free and clear of any Lien, including any limitation or restriction on the right to vote, pledge or sell or otherwise dispose of such equity interests. There are no outstanding (i) securities of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries convertible into or exchangeable for shares of capital stock or other voting securities or ownership interests in any Subsidiary of the Company, (ii) options, restricted stock, warrants, rights, subscriptions, claims of any character or other agreements or commitments to acquire from the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or obligations of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to issue, deliver or sell or cause to be issued, delivered or sold any capital stock, voting securities or other ownership interests in (or securities convertible into or exchangeable for capital stock or voting securities or other ownership interests in) any Subsidiary of the Company, (iii) obligations of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to grant, extend or enter into any subscription, warrant, right, claims of any character, agreements, obligations, convertible or exchangeable security or other similar agreement or commitment relating to any capital stock, voting securities or other ownership interests in any Subsidiary of the Company (the items in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii), together with the capital stock, voting securities and other ownership interests of such Subsidiaries, being referred to collectively as "Subsidiary Securities") or (iv) obligations of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to make any payment directly or indirectly based (in whole or in part) on the value of any shares of capital stock of any Subsidiary of the Company. There are no outstanding obligations, commitments or arrangements, contingent or otherwise, of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any outstanding Subsidiary Securities. There are no voting trusts or other agreements or understandings with respect to the voting of capital stock of any Subsidiary of the Company.

SECTION 3.03 Authority for this Agreement; Board Action.

(j) except as required pursuant to the terms of any Plan or other written agreement in effect on the date of this Agreement and except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, (i) enter into any new, or amend, terminate or renew any existing, employment, severance, consulting or salary continuation agreements with or for the benefit of any officers, directors or employees, or grant any increases in the compensation, perquisites or benefits to officers, directors, employees and consultants (other than new hire employees who are not officers or directors, and normal increases in annual salary to Persons who are not officers or directors in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice and that, in the aggregate, do not result in a material increase in benefits or compensation expense of the Company); (ii) accelerate the vesting or payment of the compensation payable or the benefits provided or to become payable or provided to any of its current or former directors, officers, employees, consultants or service providers, or otherwise pay any amounts not due such individual, including, without limitation, with respect to severance; or (iii) adopt, amend or terminate any Plan (including any employment, severance, consulting or other individual agreement) or adopt or enter into any other employee benefit plan or arrangement that would be considered a Plan if it were in existence on the date of this Agreement;

(k) (i) make or agree to make any capital expenditure or expenditures, or enter into any agreements or arrangements providing for capital expenditures, in each case other than those set forth on Section 5.01(k) of the Disclosure Letter or in connection with the repair or replacement of facilities destroyed or damaged due to casualty or accident (whether or not covered by insurance) or (ii) enter into any new line of business outside of its existing business segments;

(l) enter into or agree to any material amendment to any collective bargaining or other labor agreement;

(m) renew or enter into any non-compete, exclusivity, non-solicitation or similar agreement that would restrict or limit, in any material respect, the operations of the Company and its Subsidiaries (or Parent or any of its Affiliates after the consummation of the Merger);

(n) license, sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of, in whole or in part, any Company Intellectual Property, other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice;

(o) compromise, settle or agree to settle any suit, action, claim, proceeding or investigation (including any suit, action, claim, proceeding or investigation relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby) other than compromises, settlements or agreements in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice that involve only the payment of monetary damages not in excess of $100,000 individually, in any case without the imposition of equitable relief on, or the admission of wrongdoing by, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries;

(s) authorize, commit or agree to take any of the foregoing actions.

SECTION 5.02 Solicitation.

(a) From the date hereof until the Effective Time or, if earlier, the termination of this Agreement in accordance with Article VII, the Company shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and its and their Representatives not to, directly or indirectly: (i) initiate, solicit or encourage (including by way of providing non-public information or access to properties, assets, employees or Representatives) the submission of any inquiries, proposals or offers or any other efforts or attempts that constitute, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal or engage in any discussions or negotiations with respect thereto or otherwise cooperate with or assist or participate in or facilitate any such inquiries, proposals, offers, discussions or negotiations or (ii) make a Change of Board Recommendation (as defined below) or approve, endorse, authorize or recommend, or publicly propose to approve, endorse, authorize or recommend, an Acquisition Proposal or enter into any merger agreement, letter of intent, agreement in principle, share purchase agreement, asset purchase agreement, share exchange agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement, arrangement or understanding relating to an Acquisition Proposal or requiring the Company to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby or breach its obligations hereunder. The Company shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated any solicitation, encouragement, discussion or negotiation with any Persons conducted heretofore by the Company, its Subsidiaries or any of its or their Representatives with respect to any Acquisition Proposal and shall, within two days of the date of this Agreement, request to be returned or destroyed in accordance with the terms of the agreements pursuant to which such information was provided all confidential information provided by or on behalf of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to such Person.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 5.02(a), if at any time following the date of this Agreement and prior to obtaining the Requisite Shareholder Vote, (i) the Company has received a written Acquisition Proposal from a third party that the Board of Directors of the Company believes in good faith to be bona fide, (ii) the Company has not breached this Section 5.02 or Section 5.04, and (iii) the Board of Directors of the Company determines in good faith, after consultation with the Company Financial Advisor, or another nationally recognized financial advisor ("Financial Advisor") and outside counsel (who may be the Company's regularly engaged independent legal counsel), that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal, then the Company may (A) furnish information with respect to the Company and its Subsidiaries to the Person making such Acquisition Proposal and (B) participate in discussions or negotiations with the Person making such Acquisition Proposal regarding such Acquisition Proposal; provided that the Company (x) will not, and will not allow its Subsidiaries and its and their Representatives to, disclose any non-public information to such Person without first entering into an Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement and (y) will promptly provide to Parent any non-public information concerning the Company or its Subsidiaries provided to such other Person which was not previously provided to Parent.

(c) The Company shall promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) notify Parent in the event that the Company, its Subsidiaries or its or their Representatives receives (i) any Acquisition Proposal or indication by any Person that it is considering making an Acquisition Proposal, (ii) any request for non-public information relating to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries other than requests for information in the ordinary course of business and unrelated to an Acquisition Proposal or (iii) any inquiry or request for discussions or negotiations regarding any Acquisition Proposal. The Company shall notify Parent promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) with the identity of such person and provide a copy of such Acquisition Proposal, indication, inquiry or request (or, where no such copy is available, a description of such Acquisition Proposal, indication, inquiry or request), including any modifications thereto. The Company shall keep Parent reasonably informed on a prompt basis of any material developments with respect to any such Acquisition Proposal and the discussions and negotiations related thereto (including any material changes thereto).

(d) The Company will not terminate, amend, modify or waive any provision of any confidentiality or standstill agreement to which it is a party and shall enforce, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law, the provisions of any such agreement, including, but not limited to, by obtaining injunctions to prevent any breaches of such agreements and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions thereof in any court having jurisdiction.

(e) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, subject to compliance with this Section 5.02, if the Company receives an Acquisition Proposal which the Board of Directors of the Company concludes in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel and its Financial Advisor, constitutes a Superior Proposal, the Board of Directors of the Company may at any time prior to obtaining the Requisite Shareholder Vote, (i) withdraw, modify or qualify, or propose publicly to withdraw, modify or qualify, in a manner adverse to Parent or Merger Sub, the Company Board Recommendation (a "Change of Board Recommendation") and/or (ii) terminate this Agreement solely to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to such Superior Proposal; provided, however, that the Company may take the actions pursuant to the foregoing clauses (i) or (ii) only if (A) in advance of or concurrently with such Change of Board Recommendation or termination the Company pays the Termination Fee and otherwise complies with the provisions Section 7.01(h) and Section 7.03 (b)(ii); (B) the Company notifies Parent, in writing and at least five Business Days prior to such Change of Board Recommendation or termination (the "Notice Period"), promptly of its intention to effect a Change of Board Recommendation or terminate this Agreement and to enter into a binding written agreement concerning a Superior Proposal, attaching the most current version of all relevant proposed transaction agreements and other material documents (and a description of all material terms and conditions thereof (including the identity of the party making such Superior Proposal)); (C) the Company causes its financial and legal advisors to, during the Notice Period, negotiate with Parent in good faith (to the extent Parent desires to negotiate) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that such Acquisition Proposal ceases to constitute a Superior Proposal; and (D) Parent does not make, within five business days of receipt of such written notification, an offer that the Company Board determines in good faith (after having received the advice of its financial advisor and outside legal counsel) is at least as favorable from a financial point of view to the shareholders of the Company as such Superior Proposal.

(f) Nothing contained in this Section 5.02 shall prohibit the Board of Directors of the Company from disclosing to the shareholders of the Company a position contemplated by Rule 14e-2(a) and Rule 14d-9 promulgated under the Exchange Act; provided, however, that any disclosure other than a "stop, look and listen" or similar communication of the type contemplated by Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act or an express reaffirmation of its recommendation to its shareholders in favor of the Merger shall be deemed to be a Change in Board Recommendation (including for purposes of Section 7.01(g)(i)).

(g) The Company shall not take any action to exempt any Person (other than Parent, Merger Sub and their respective Affiliates) from the restrictions of Section 351.407 or Section 351.459 of the Corporation Law (or any similar provisions of any other Law) or otherwise cause such restrictions not to apply unless such actions are taken simultaneously with a termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.01(h).

(h) For purposes of this Agreement, (i) "Acquisition Proposal" means any offer or proposal, or any indication of interest in making an offer or proposal, made by a Person or group at any time relating to (A) any direct or indirect acquisition or purchase, in a single transaction or a series of transactions, of (1) 20% or more of the consolidated assets (including capital stock of the Subsidiaries of the Company) of the Company and its Subsidiaries or (2) 20% or more of any equity securities of the Company or of any Subsidiaries whose net revenue, net income or assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute 20% or more of the consolidated net revenue, net income or assets as applicable, of the Company, (B) any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any Person or group owning, directly or indirectly, 20% or more of any equity securities of the Company or of any Subsidiaries whose net revenue, net income or assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute 20% or more of the consolidated net revenue, net income or assets as applicable, of the Company or (C) any merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution, share exchange or similar transaction involving the Company or of any Subsidiaries whose net revenue, net income or assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute 20% or more of the consolidated net revenue, net income or assets as applicable, of the Company, other than, in each case, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (ii) "Superior Proposal" means any bona fide Acquisition Proposal (except the references therein to "20%" shall be replaced by "50%") made in writing, which was not obtained in violation of this Section 5.02, that the Board of Directors of the Company has determined in its good faith judgment (after receiving the advice of its Financial Advisor and outside counsel and after taking into account all the terms and conditions of the contemplated transaction and the likelihood of consummating the transactions contemplated thereby) and all other relevant factors is more favorable to the Company's shareholders (in their capacity as shareholders) from a financial point of view than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (taking into account any alterations to this Agreement agreed to in writing by Merger Sub in response thereto in accordance with this Section 5.02).

SECTION 5.03 Access to Information.

(a) Except as prohibited by applicable Law and subject to any work product or attorney client privilege, from and after the date of this Agreement, the Company will (i) give Parent and Merger Sub and their respective Representatives access (during regular business hours upon reasonable notice) to all employees, plants, offices, warehouses and other facilities and to all books, contracts, commitments and records (including Tax Returns) of the Company and its Subsidiaries, and (ii) cause its officers and those of its Subsidiaries to furnish Parent and Merger Sub with such financial and operating data and other information with respect to the business, properties and personnel of the Company and its Subsidiaries as Parent or Merger Sub may reasonably request; provided that such investigation shall not unreasonably interfere with the business or operations of the Company or any Subsidiary.

(b) Information obtained by Parent or Merger Sub pursuant to Section 5.03(a) shall be subject to the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement.

(c) No investigation by Parent, Merger Sub or their respective Representatives pursuant to this Section 5.03 shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the Company set forth herein.

SECTION 5.04 Shareholder Approval. Except in the event of a Change of Board Recommendation specifically permitted by Section 5.02(e), (i) as promptly as reasonably practicable following the date of this Agreement, the Company shall call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its shareholders (the "Special Meeting") for the purpose of obtaining the Requisite Shareholder Vote in connection with this Agreement and the Merger, (ii) the Proxy Statement shall include the Company Board Recommendation and (iii) the Board of Directors of the Company (and all applicable committees thereof) shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain from its shareholders the Requisite Shareholder Vote in favor of the approval of the plan of merger (as such term is used in Section 351.425 of the Corporation Law) contained in this Agreement required to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

SECTION 5.05 Proxy Statement. As promptly as reasonably practicable after the date of this Agreement, the Company shall prepare and file with the SEC, subject to the prior review and approval of Parent (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld), a Proxy Statement relating to the Merger. The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause such Proxy Statement to be filed as soon as reasonably practicable after the date of this Agreement. Each of the Company and Parent shall obtain and furnish the information concerning itself and its Affiliates required to be included in the Proxy Statement. Each of the Company and Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to respond as promptly as reasonably practicable to any comments received from the SEC with respect to the Proxy Statement, and the Company shall cause the Proxy Statement to be mailed to the Company's shareholders at the earliest reasonably practicable date. Each party shall promptly notify the other party upon the receipt of any comments from the SEC or its staff or any request from the SEC or its staff for amendments or supplements to the Proxy Statement and shall provide the other party with copies of all correspondence between it, on the one hand, and the SEC and its staff, on the other hand, relating to the Proxy Statement. If, at any time prior to the Special Meeting, any information relating to the Company, Parent, Merger Sub or any of their respective Affiliates, directors or officers should be discovered by the Company or Parent, which should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to the Proxy Statement so that the Proxy Statement shall not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, the party that discovers such information shall promptly notify the other party, and an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be filed with the SEC and, to the extent required by applicable Law, disseminated to the shareholders of the Company. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated above, prior to filing or mailing the Proxy Statement

(or, in each case, any amendment or supplement thereto) or responding to any comments of the SEC or its staff with respect thereto, the party responsible for filing or mailing such document shall provide the other party a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on such document or response and shall include in such document or response comments reasonably proposed by the other party.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each of the parties hereto agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all appropriate action, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable Laws and regulations to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, each of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to (i) obtain all necessary waivers, consents and approvals from other parties to contracts to which the Company is a party, provided, however, that in no event shall the Company or any of its Subsidiaries be required to pay prior to the Effective Time any fee, penalty or other consideration to any Person to obtain any such consent, approval or waiver other than de minimis amounts or amounts that are advanced by Parent, (ii) obtain all consents, approvals and authorizations that are required to be obtained under any applicable Law as promptly as practicable after the date hereof, (iii) prevent the entry, enactment or promulgation of any threatened or pending injunction or order that could materially adversely affect the ability of the parties hereto to consummate the transactions under this Agreement, (iv) lift or rescind any injunction or order that could materially adversely affect the ability of the parties hereto to consummate the transactions under this Agreement, (v) in the event that any action, suit, proceeding or investigation relating hereto or to the transactions contemplated hereby is commenced, whether before or after the date of this Agreement, cooperate to defend vigorously against it and respond thereto and (vi) effect all necessary registrations and filings and submissions of information requested by any Governmental Entities.

(b) In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, each party hereto agrees to make an appropriate filing of a Notification and Report Form pursuant to the HSR Act with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as promptly as reasonably practicable after the date hereof and to supply as promptly as reasonably practicable any additional information and documentary material that may be requested pursuant to the HSR Act and use commercially reasonable efforts to take or cause to be taken all other actions necessary, proper or advisable consistent with this Section 5.06 to cause the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period, or receipt of required authorizations, as applicable, under the HSR Act. Without limiting the foregoing, the parties shall request and shall use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to obtain early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act.

SECTION 5.07 Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation shall contain provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification and advancement of expenses than those set forth in the Company's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, which provisions shall not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified in any material respect for a period of six years from the Effective Time in any manner that would affect adversely the rights thereunder of individuals who, at or prior to the Effective Time, were directors, officers, employees, fiduciaries or agents of the Company, were serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, unless such modification shall be required by Law.

(b) Parent and Merger Sub shall purchase by the Effective Time, and the Surviving Corporation shall maintain, tail policies to the current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies maintained on the date of this Agreement by the Company and its Subsidiaries, which tail policies (i) shall not be required to have aggregate annual premiums in excess of 250% of the aggregate annual amount currently paid by the Company to maintain the existing policies (which amount has been disclosed to Parent), (ii) shall be effective for a period from the Effective Time through and including the date six years after the Closing Date with respect to claims arising from facts or events that existed or occurred prior to or at the Effective Time, (iii) shall contain coverage that is at least as protective as such existing policies (complete and accurate copies of which have been made available to Parent) to the Persons covered thereby and (iv) shall be issued by reputable and financially sound insurers; provided, however, that, if equivalent coverage cannot be obtained or can be obtained only by paying aggregate annual premiums in excess of 250% of such amount, Parent and Merge Sub shall only be required to obtain (and the Surviving Corporation shall only be required to maintain) as much coverage as can be obtained by paying aggregate annual premiums equal to 250% of such amount.

(c) In addition to the other rights provided for in this Section 5.07 and not in limitation thereof (but without in any way limiting or modifying the obligations of any insurance carrier contemplated by Section 5.07(b) of this Agreement), for six years from and after the Effective Time, Parent shall, to the fullest extent permitted by the Corporation Law as of the date hereof (assuming the Corporation Law were applicable), indemnify and hold harmless (and release from any liability to the Surviving Corporation or any of their respective subsidiaries) the persons who, at or prior to the Effective Time, were officers or directors of the Company or any Subsidiary or served at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise (the "Indemnitees") against all expenses (including reimbursement for reasonable fees and expenses incurred in advance of the final disposition of any action, suit or proceeding), losses, claims, damages, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement that are actually and reasonably incurred by the Indemnitee in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether criminal, civil, administrative or investigative, that related to an event, act or omission which occurred prior to the Effective Time by reason of the fact that such person was at or prior to the Effective Time a director or officer of the Company or any of its current or former Subsidiaries or served at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise (collectively, an "Indemnifiable Claim"). In the event any Indemnifiable Claim is asserted or made within such six-year period, all rights to indemnification, exculpation and advancement of expenses shall continue until such claim is disposed of or all judgments, orders, decrees or other rulings in connection with such claim are fully satisfied.

(d) In addition to the other rights provided for in this Section 5.07, and not in limitation thereof, the Surviving Corporation, Parent and the Company agree that all individual indemnity agreements between the Company and any Indemnitees, as in effect on the date hereof, copies of which have been made available to Parent prior to the date hereof, shall survive the Effective Time and continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

(e) This Section 5.07 shall survive the consummation of the Merger and is intended to benefit, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnitee and his or her respective heirs and legal representatives. The rights to indemnification, exculpation and advancement of expenses provided for herein shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which an Indemnitee is entitled, whether pursuant to Law, contract or otherwise. Parent will pay or cause to be paid all expenses, including reasonable fees and expenses of legal counsel, that an Indemnitee may incur in enforcing the indemnity, exculpation, advancement of expenses and other obligations provided for in this Section 5.07 (subject to reimbursement if the Indemnitee is subsequently determined not to be entitled to indemnification, exculpation or advancement of expenses under Section 5.07).

(f) In the event that the Surviving Corporation or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors, assigns and transferees of the Surviving Corporation shall succeed to the obligations set forth in this Section 5.07.

(g) If a claim is made against any Indemnitee, and if such Indemnitee intends to seek indemnity with respect thereto under this Section 5.07, such Indemnitee shall promptly notify the Surviving Corporation of such claim; provided that the failure to so notify shall not relieve the Surviving Corporation of its obligations hereunder, except to the extent that the Surviving Corporation is actually and materially prejudiced thereby. The Surviving Corporation shall have thirty days after receipt of such notice to assume the conduct and control, through counsel reasonably acceptable to the Indemnitee at the expense of the Surviving Corporation, of the settlement or defense thereof and the Indemnitee shall cooperate with it in connection therewith. Any Indemnitee shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such action or claim and to participate in the defense thereof, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall not be at the expense of the Surviving Corporation unless (x) the Surviving Corporation shall have failed, within a reasonable time after having been notified by the Indemnitee of the existence of such claim as provided in the preceding sentence, to assume the defense of such claim, (y) the employment of such counsel has been specifically authorized in writing by the Surviving Corporation or (z) the named parties to any such action (including any impleaded parties) include both such Indemnitee and the Surviving Corporation and such Indemnitee shall have been advised in writing by such counsel that there may be one or more legal defenses available to the Indemnitee which are not available to the Surviving Corporation, or available to the Surviving Corporation the assertion of which would be adverse to the interests of the Indemnitee. So long as the Surviving Corporation is reasonably contesting any such claim in good faith, the Indemnitee shall not pay or settle any such claim. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Indemnitee shall have the right to pay or settle any such claim, provided that in such event it shall waive any right to indemnity therefor by the Surviving Corporation for such claim unless the Surviving Corporation shall have consented to such payment or settlement. If the Surviving Corporation does not notify the Indemnitee within thirty days after the receipt of the Indemnitee's notice of a claim of indemnity hereunder that it elects to undertake the defense thereof, the Indemnitee shall have the right to contest, settle or compromise the claim but shall not thereby waive any right to indemnity therefor pursuant to this Agreement. The Surviving Corporation shall not, except with the consent of the Indemnitee, enter into any settlement that is not entirely indemnifiable by the Surviving Corporation pursuant to this Section 5.07 and does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by the Person or Persons asserting such claim to all Indemnitees of an unconditional release from all liability with respect to such claim or consent to entry of any judgment. The Surviving Corporation and the Indemnitee shall cooperate with each other in all reasonable respects in connection with the defense of any claim.

SECTION 5.08 Employee Matters.

(a) Prior to the Effective Time, except as set forth below, the Company will, and will cause its Subsidiaries to, and from and after the Effective Time, Parent will, and will cause the Surviving Corporation to, honor, in accordance with their terms, all existing employment and severance agreements specified in Section 5.08(a) of the Disclosure Letter between the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and any officer, director or employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries.

(b) Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation and each of its Subsidiaries, for the period commencing at the Effective Time and ending on the first anniversary thereof, to maintain for the individuals employed by the Company at the Effective Time other than those individuals covered by a collective bargaining agreement (the "Current Employees") (other than Current Employees who have entered into or will enter into an individual employment agreement with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries) compensation and benefits provided under Plans that are substantially similar in the aggregate to the compensation and benefits maintained for and provided per capita to Current Employees as a group immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding, for this purpose, equity-based compensation); provided, however, subject to the foregoing, that nothing herein shall interfere with the Surviving Corporation's right to amend or terminate any employee benefit or compensation plan, program or arrangement.

(c) Parent will, and will cause the Surviving Corporation to, cause service rendered by Current Employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time to be taken into account (without duplication) for vesting and eligibility and benefit accrual purposes (but not the extent such service would result in duplicative benefits or with respect to any defined benefit pension plans) under employee benefit plans of Parent, the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries, to the same extent as such service was taken into account under the corresponding Plans of the Company and its Subsidiaries for those purposes; provided that such credit does not require any credit or benefit to any other employee in order to cause any plan to comply with Law or to be eligible for any intended favorable tax treatment. Current Employees will not be subject to any pre-existing condition limitation under any health plan of Parent, the Surviving Corporation or its Subsidiaries (other than to the extent such pre-existing condition limitation limited their participation in the Company's or its Subsidiaries' health plan prior to the Effective Time.) In the year in which the Effective Time occurs, Parent will, and will cause the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries, to give such Current Employees credit under such plans for co-payments made and deductibles satisfied for such year prior to the Effective Time.

(d) Any written communications or material oral communications to the directors, officers or employees of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, pertaining to compensation or benefit matters that are affected by the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, shall be subject to the prior written approval of Parent (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

(e) Prior to the Effective Time, if requested by Parent in writing not fewer than five calendar days prior to the Effective Time, Company shall (i) cause to be amended the employee benefit plans and arrangements of it and its Subsidiaries to the extent necessary to provide that no employees of Company and its Subsidiaries shall commence participation therein following the Effective Time and/or (ii) cause to be terminated any or all tax-qualified employee benefit plan(s) effective immediately prior to the Effective Time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, shall: (i) confer upon any employee of Company or any Subsidiary, or any representative of any such employee, any rights or remedies, including any right to employment or continued employment for any period or terms of employment, for any nature whatsoever, or (ii) be interpreted to prevent or restrict Parent or its Affiliates from modifying or terminating the employment or terms of employment of any employee of Company or any Subsidiary, including the amendment or termination of any employee benefit or compensation plan, program or arrangement, after the Effective Time.

SECTION 5.09 Notification of Certain Matters. The Company shall give prompt notice to Parent, and Parent shall give prompt notice to the Company, of the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event which is likely (a) to cause any representation or warranty of such party contained in this Agreement to be untrue or inaccurate in any material respect if made as of any time at or prior to the Effective Time or (b) to result in any material failure of such party to comply with or satisfy any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied hereunder; provided, however, that the delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 5.09 shall not limit or otherwise affect the remedies available hereunder to any of the parties receiving such notice; provided, further, however, that a failure to comply with this Section 5.09 will not constitute the failure of any condition set forth in Article VI to be satisfied unless the underlying event would independently result in the failure of a condition set forth in Article VI to be satisfied.

SECTION 5.10 Press Releases. Each of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub agrees that no public release or announcement concerning the transactions contemplated hereby shall be issued by any party without the prior written consent of the Company and Parent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) except as such release or announcement may be required by Law or the rules or regulations of any applicable United States securities exchange or regulatory or governmental body to which the relevant party is subject or submits, wherever situated, in which case the party required to make the release or announcement shall use commercially reasonable efforts to allow each other party reasonable time to comment on such release or announcement in advance of such issuance. The Company, Parent and Merger Sub agree that the press release announcing the execution and delivery of this Agreement shall be a joint release of, and shall not be issued prior to the approval of each of, the Company and Parent.

SECTION 5.11 Rule 16b-3. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall be permitted to take such steps as may be reasonably necessary or advisable hereto to cause dispositions of Company equity securities (including derivative securities) pursuant to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by each individual who is a director or officer of the Company to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

SECTION 5.12 No Other Representations or Warranties.

(a) Each of Parent and Merger Sub acknowledges and agrees that, except for the representations and warranties contained in Article III and any certificate delivered at Closing regarding the representations and warranties contained in Article III, neither the Company nor any Person on behalf of the Company makes any express or implied representation or warranty with respect to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or with respect to any other information provided to Parent or Merger Sub in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(a) Whether or not the Merger is consummated, except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all costs and Expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be paid by the party incurring such Expenses.

(ii) If Parent terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.01(g) or the Company terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.01(h), then the Company shall pay to Parent either simultaneously with (in the case of termination by the Company) or as promptly as reasonably practicable (and, in any event, within two Business Days) after (in the case of termination by Parent) such termination, the Termination Fee.

(iii) If either Parent or the Company terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.01(d), and, at any time after the date of this Agreement and prior to the Special Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof at which the vote under Section 7.01(d) is taken, an Acquisition Proposal shall not have been publicly disclosed or otherwise communicated to senior management or the Board of Directors of the Company, or shall not have otherwise become publicly known or otherwise communicated to senior management or the Board of Directors of the Company, then the Company shall pay to Parent within two Business Days following termination of this Agreement, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account specified by the Company, a fee (the "Company No Vote Termination Fee") equal to $3,500,000 plus documented, reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Parent after May 5, 2008 not to exceed $1,000,000.

(iv) If the Company terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.01(e) as a result of a willful breach of a representation, warranty or covenant by Parent or Merger Sub, then Parent shall pay to the Company within two Business Days following termination of this Agreement, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account specified by the Company, a fee (the "Parent Termination Fee") equal to the Termination Fee; provided, that payment under this Section 7.03(b)(iv) shall only be required if at the time of such termination there is no state of facts or circumstances that would reasonably be expected to cause the conditions in Section 6.01 and Section 6.02 not to be satisfied.

(v) If this Agreement is terminated by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 7.01(c) and the sole reason for the failure to consummate the Merger was the failure by Parent and Merger Sub to receive the amounts under the Financing Commitments, then Parent shall pay to the Company within two Business Days following termination of this Agreement, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account specified by the Company, a fee (the "Parent Financing Termination Fee") equal to $3,500,000 plus documented, reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Company after May 5, 2008 not to exceed $500,000.

(c) "Termination Fee" means an amount in cash equal to $9,000,000, which Termination Fee shall be paid (when one is due and owing) by the Company to Parent by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account designated by Parent.

(d) Each of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 7.03 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In the event that the Company shall fail to pay the Termination Fee or Company No Vote Termination Fee when due and, in order to obtain such payment, Parent commences a suit which results in a judgment against the Company for such Termination Fee or Company No Vote Termination Fee, the Company shall reimburse Parent and Merger Sub for all reasonable costs and expenses actually incurred by Parent and Merger Sub (including reasonable expenses of counsel) in connection with such suit, together with interest on the unpaid amount from the date such amount was required to be paid at the prime rate as reported in the Wall Street Journal on the date such amount was required to be paid. In the event that Parent shall fail to pay the Parent Termination Fee or Parent Financing Termination Fee when due and, in order to obtain such payment, Company commences a suit which results in a judgment against the Parent for such Parent Termination Fee or Parent Financing Termination Fee, the Parent shall reimburse the Company for all reasonable costs and expenses actually incurred by the Company (including reasonable expenses of counsel) in connection with such suit, together with interest on the unpaid amount from the date such amount was required to be paid at the prime rate as reported in the Wall Street Journal on the date such amount was required to be paid.

SECTION 7.04 Non-Recourse. Any claim or cause of action based upon, arising out of, or related to this Agreement may only be brought against Persons that are expressly named as parties hereto, and then only with respect to the specific obligations set forth herein. No former, current or future direct or indirect equity holders, controlling persons, shareholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, Affiliates, members, managers, general or limited partners of the Company, Parent or Merger Sub or any of their respective Affiliates shall have any liability or obligation for any of the representations, warranties, covenants, agreements, obligations or liabilities of the Company, Parent or Merger Sub under this Agreement or of or for any action, suit, arbitration, claim, litigation, investigation, or proceeding based on, in respect of, or by reason of the transactions contemplated hereby (including the breach, termination or failure to consummate such transactions), in each case whether based on contract, tort, strict liability, other Laws or otherwise and whether by piercing the corporate veil, by a claim by or on behalf of a party hereto or another Person or otherwise.

SECTION 7.05 Amendment. To the extent permitted by applicable Law, this Agreement may be amended by the Company, Parent and Merger Sub, at any time before or after approval of this Agreement by the shareholders of the Company but, after any such shareholder approval, no amendment shall be made which decreases the Merger Consideration or which adversely affects the rights of the Company's shareholders hereunder without the approval of the shareholders of the Company. This Agreement may not be amended, changed, supplemented or otherwise modified except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of all of the parties.

SECTION 7.06 Extension; Waiver; Remedies.

(a) At any time prior to the Effective Time, each party hereto may (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties hereto, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein by any other applicable party or in any document, certificate or writing delivered pursuant hereto by any other applicable party or (iii) waive compliance by any party with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein. (c) Except as set forth in Section 7.03(b)(vi), all rights, powers and remedies provided under this Agreement or otherwise available in respect hereof at Law or in equity shall be cumulative and not alternative, and the exercise of any such right, power or remedy by any party hereto shall not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise of any other such right, power or remedy by such party.

ARTICLE VIII
MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 8.01 Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties made in Article III and Article IV or any instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement shall not survive beyond the Effective Time. Each covenant or agreement of the parties in this Agreement shall not survive beyond the Effective Time, other than any covenant or agreement that by its terms contemplates performance after the Effective Time, which shall survive until fully performed.

SECTION 8.02 Entire Agreement; Assignment. This Agreement, together with the Disclosure Letter and the Confidentiality Agreement, constitutes the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all other prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to subject matter hereof. The Agreement shall not be assigned by any party by operation of Law or otherwise without the prior written consent of the other parties.

SECTION 8.03 Jurisdiction; Venue; Waiver of Trial by Jury. Each of the parties hereto (a) consents to submit itself to the exclusive jurisdiction of any Missouri state or federal court located in the City of St. Louis in the event any dispute arises out of this Agreement or any transaction contemplated by this Agreement, (b) agrees that it will not attempt to deny or defeat such personal jurisdiction by motion or other request for leave from any such court, and (c) WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY ACTION RELATED TO OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY TRANSACTION CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. SECTION 8.04 Validity; Specific Performance. (a) Whenever possible, each provision or portion of any provision of this Agreement will be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable Law; but if any provision or portion of any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any applicable Law in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability will not affect any other provision or portion of any provision in such jurisdiction. The parties agree to negotiate in good faith to replace such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision of this Agreement with a valid, legal and enforceable provision that will achieve, to the greatest extent possible, the economic, business and other purposes of such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision.

(b) The parties hereby acknowledge and agree that the failure of the Company to perform its agreements and covenants hereunder, including its failure to take all actions pursuant thereto as are necessary on its part to the consummation of the Merger and including assisting Parent with regard to arranging and consummating the Debt Financing will cause irreparable injury to Parent and Merger Sub. Unless and until this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms, Parent and Merger Sub shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement, including the requirements that the Company take all actions pursuant hereto as are necessary on its part to the consummation of the Merger and including assisting Parent with respect to arranging and consummating the Debt Financing, this being in addition to any other remedy to which such party is entitled at law or in equity. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, all expenses of Parent or Merger Sub incurred in connection with any action brought by Parent or Merger Sub relating to any injunctions or the right to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement provided for in the

Angelica Corporation
424 South Woods Mill Road
Chesterfield, Missouri 63017

Gentlemen:

We understand that Angelica Corporation (the "Company") proposes to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Agreement") to be dated May 22, 2008 with Clothesline Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Parent"), and Clothesline Acquisition Corporation, a Missouri corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent ("Merger Sub"), pursuant to which Merger Sub would be merged with and into the Company and each outstanding share of the Company's Common Stock, subject to the terms of the Agreement, would be converted into a right to receive $22.00 in cash (the "Proposed Transaction"). The terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction are set forth in more detail in the Agreement.

You have requested our opinion, as investment bankers, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders (other than Parent and Merger Sub) of the Common Stock of the Company, of the consideration to be received in the Proposed Transaction.

In conducting our analysis and arriving at our opinion as expressed herein, we have reviewed and analyzed, among other things, the following:

- i. the draft dated May 20, 2008 of the Agreement;
- ii. the Company's Form 10-K for the period ended January 26, 2008;
- iii. the reported sales prices and trading activity for the Company's Common Stock;
- iv. certain internal information and other data relating to the Company, its business and prospects, including forecasts and projections, provided to us by management of the Company;
- v. certain publicly available information concerning other companies engaged in businesses which we believe to be relevant and the trading markets for certain securities of such other companies;
- vi. the financial terms of certain recent business combinations which we believe to be relevant; and
- vii. certain other proposals and indications of interest received by the Company relating to the acquisition of the Company.

We have also met with certain officers and employees of the Company concerning its business, operations, assets, present condition and prospects and undertook such other studies, analyses and investigations as we deemed appropriate.

Edgar Filing: ANGELICA CORP /NEW/ - Form DEFM14A

In arriving at our opinion, we have, with your permission, assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information used by us and have not attempted independently to verify such information, nor do we assume any responsibility to do so. We have assumed that the Company's forecasts and projections provided to or reviewed by us have been reasonably prepared based on the best current estimates and judgement of the Company's management as to the future financial condition and results of operations of the Company. We have made no independent investigation of any legal, accounting or tax matters affecting the Company, and have assumed the correctness of all legal, accounting and tax advice given the Company and its Board of Directors or any committee thereof. We have not conducted a physical inspection of the properties and facilities of the Company, nor have we made or obtained any independent evaluation or appraisal of such properties and facilities. We have also taken into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in similar transactions, as well as our experience in securities valuation in general. Our opinion necessarily is based upon economic, financial, political, regulatory and other conditions as they exist and can be evaluated on the date hereof and we assume no responsibility to update or revise our opinion based upon events or circumstances occurring after the date hereof. We express no opinion about the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to holders of options to purchase the Company's Common Stock. We also express no opinion about the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to any of the Company's officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the compensation to the public stockholders.

This letter and the opinion expressed herein are for the use of the Board of Directors of the Company. This opinion does not address the Company's underlying business decision to approve the Proposed Transaction, and it does not constitute a recommendation to the Company, its Board of Directors or any committee thereof, its shareholders, or any person as to any specific action that should be taken in connection with the Proposed Transaction. This opinion may not be reproduced, summarized, excerpted from or otherwise publicly referred to or disclosed in any manner without our prior written consent except the Company may include this opinion in its entirety in any proxy statement or information statement relating to the transaction sent to the Company's shareholders; provided that any description or reference to Morgan Joseph & Co. Inc. or this opinion included in such proxy statement or information statement shall be in form and substance reasonably acceptable to us.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with the Proposed Transaction and will receive a fee for our services, a portion of which is contingent upon the successful completion of the Proposed Transaction. In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. Morgan Joseph & Co. Inc., as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses in connection with mergers, acquisitions, underwritings, private placements of listed and unlisted securities, financial restructurings and other financial services. We have acted as financial advisor to the Company in connection with various matters during the past three years, and have received fees from the Company for such services. As you are aware, (i) we have in the past acted, and may in the future act, as financial advisor to other portfolio companies of the parent company of the Parent and (ii) an executive officer of the parent company of the Parent is the owner of less than one-half of one percent of the equity of Morgan Joseph Holdings Inc. The issuance of this opinion was approved by our fairness opinion committee.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing and such other factors as we deem relevant, it is our opinion as investment bankers that, as of the date hereof, the consideration to be received by the holders (other than Parent and Merger Sub) of the Common Stock of the Company in the Proposed Transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

Very truly yours,

MORGAN JOSEPH & CO. INC.

SECTION 351.455 OF THE GENERAL AND BUSINESS CORPORATION LAW OF MISSOURI

§ 351.455. Shareholder entitled to appraisal and payment of fair value, when remedy exclusive, when

1. Any shareholder shall be deemed a dissenting shareholder and entitled to appraisal under this section if such shareholder:

(1) Owns stock of a corporation which is a party to a merger or consolidation as of the record date for the meeting of shareholders at which the plan of merger or consolidation is submitted to a vote;

(2) Files with the corporation before or at such meeting a written objection to such plan of merger or consolidation;

(3) Does not vote in favor thereof if the shareholder owns voting stock as of such record date; and

(4) Makes written demand on the surviving or new corporation within twenty days after the merger or consolidation is effected for payment of the fair value of such shareholder's shares as of the day before the date on which the vote was taken approving the merger or consolidation.

2. The surviving or new corporation shall pay to each such dissenting shareholder, upon surrender of his or her certificate or certificates representing said shares in the case of certificated shares, the fair value thereof. Such demand shall state the number and class of the shares owned by such dissenting shareholder. Any shareholder who:

(1) Fails to file a written objection prior to or at such meeting;

(2) Fails to make demand within the twenty-day period; or

(3) In the case of a shareholder owning voting stock as of such record date, votes in favor of the merger or consolidation; shall be conclusively presumed to have consented to the merger or consolidation and shall be bound by the terms thereof and shall not be deemed to be a dissenting shareholder.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of section 351.230, notice under the provisions of subsection 1 of section 351.230 stating the purpose for which the meeting is called shall be given to each shareholder owning stock as of the record date for the meeting of shareholders at which the plan of merger or consolidation is submitted to a vote, whether or not such shareholder is entitled to vote.

4. If within thirty days after the date on which such merger or consolidation was effected the value of such shares is agreed upon between the dissenting shareholder and the surviving or new corporation, payment therefor shall be made within ninety days after the date on which such merger or consolidation was effected, upon the surrender of his or her certificate or certificates representing said shares in the case of certificated shares. Upon payment of the agreed value the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares or in the corporation.

5. If within such period of thirty days the shareholder and the surviving or new corporation do not so agree, then the dissenting shareholder may, within sixty days after the expiration of the thirty-day period, file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction within the county in which the registered office of the surviving or new corporation is situated, asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of such shares, and shall be entitled to judgment against the surviving or new corporation for the amount of such fair value as of the day prior to the date on which such vote was taken approving such merger or consolidation, together with interest thereon to the date of such judgment. The judgment shall be payable only upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the surviving or new corporation of the certificate or certificates representing said shares in the case of certificated shares. Upon the payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares, or in the surviving or new corporation. Such shares may be held and disposed of by the surviving or new corporation as it may see fit. Unless the dissenting shareholder shall file such petition within the time herein limited, such shareholder and all persons claiming under such shareholder shall be conclusively presumed to have approved and ratified the merger or consolidation, and shall be bound by the terms thereof.

6. The right of a dissenting shareholder to be paid the fair value of such shareholder's shares as herein provided shall cease if and when the corporation shall abandon the merger or consolidation.

7. When the remedy provided for in this section is available with respect to a transaction, such remedy shall be the exclusive remedy of the shareholder as to that transaction, except in the case of fraud or lack of authorization for the transaction.

VOTING AGREEMENT

VOTING AGREEMENT, dated as of May 22, 2008 (this "Agreement"), by and between Clothesline Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Parent"), and Steel Partners II, L.P. (the "Stockholder"), a shareholder of Angelica Corporation, a Missouri corporation (the "Company"). Unless otherwise indicated, capitalized terms not defined herein have the meanings given to them in the Merger Agreement.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, Parent, Clothesline Acquisition Corporation, a Missouri corporation ("Merger Sub"), and the Company are entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement"), pursuant to which Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company and the Company will be the surviving corporation in the merger and will be a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent, all upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement (the "Merger");

WHEREAS, as of the date hereof, the Stockholder is a shareholder of the Company and, with respect to the Merger, has the power to vote or direct the voting of 1,792,770 shares of the common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of the Company beneficially owned (as defined under Rule 13d-3 of the Exchange Act) by the Stockholder, which represent all of the shares of common stock of the Company owned by the Stockholder as of the date hereof (collectively, the "Shares" and, together with any additional securities of the Company described in Section 1.2, being referred to herein as the "Subject Shares");

WHEREAS, prior to the date hereof, the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Company Board") has approved this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby; and

WHEREAS, as a material inducement to enter into the Merger Agreement and to consummate the Merger, Parent desires the Stockholder to agree, and the Stockholder is willing to agree (i) subject to the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, Section 6 of this Agreement, to Vote (as defined in Section 1.1(b) below) or cause to be Voted the Subject Shares in favor of the Merger and so as to facilitate the consummation of the Merger and (ii) to comply in all respects with all of the terms of this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt, sufficiency and adequacy of which is hereby acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound, the parties agree as follows:

Voting of Subject Shares.

Section 1.1 Voting Agreement.

(a) At every meeting of the shareholders of the Company called with respect to any of the following, and at every adjournment or postponement thereof, and on every action or approval by written consent of the shareholders of the Company with respect to any of the following, the Stockholder shall Vote or cause to be Voted the Subject Shares in favor of the authorization and approval of the Merger Agreement, the Merger and each of the other transactions contemplated thereby and any other action necessary for the consummation thereof. Furthermore, the Stockholder shall not enter into any agreement, arrangement or understanding with any Person to Vote or give instructions inconsistent with this Section 1.1(a), and shall not take any other action that would, or would reasonably be expected to, in any manner compete with, interfere with, impede, frustrate, prevent, burden, delay or nullify the Merger, the Merger Agreement or any of the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not prevent the Stockholder from engaging in Permitted Open Market Transactions and Permitted Private Transactions (each as defined below).

(b) In addition to the foregoing, at any meeting of the Company shareholders or at any adjournment or postponement thereof or in any other circumstances upon which their Vote, consent or other approval is sought, the Stockholder shall Vote (or cause to be Voted) all of the Subject Shares against (i) the approval of any Acquisition Proposal or the authorization of any agreement relating to any Acquisition Proposal or (ii) any amendment of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws or any other action, agreement, proposal or transaction involving the Company or any of its Subsidiaries which amendment or other action, agreement, proposal or transaction would, or would reasonably be expected to, result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of (x) the Company contained in the Merger Agreement that is reasonably likely to result in any of the conditions to Parent's or the Merger Sub's obligations under the Merger Agreement not to be fulfilled or (y) the Stockholder contained in this Agreement or would, or would reasonably be expected to, in any material manner compete with, interfere with, impede, frustrate, prevent, burden, delay or nullify the Merger, the Merger Agreement or any of the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Vote" shall mean voting in person or by proxy in favor of or against any action, otherwise consenting or withholding consent in respect of any action or taking other action in favor of or against any action; "Voting" and "Voted" shall have correlative meanings. Any such Vote shall be cast or consent shall be given for purposes of this Section 1 in accordance with such procedures relating thereto as shall ensure that it is duly counted for purposes of determining that a quorum is present and for purposes of recording in accordance herewith the results of such Vote or consent.

Section 1.2 Adjustments; Additional Shares. In the event (a) of any stock dividend, stock split, recapitalization, reclassification, subdivision, combination or exchange of shares on, of or affecting the Shares (or any Subject Shares acquired by the Stockholder after the date hereof), or (b) that the Stockholder shall have become the beneficial owner of any additional shares of common stock or other securities of the Company, then all shares of common stock or other securities of the Company held by the Stockholder immediately following the effectiveness of the events described in clause (a) or the Stockholder becoming the beneficial owner of the shares or other securities as described in clause (b), shall in each case become Subject Shares hereunder.

Section 1.3 Waiver of Appraisal Rights. The Stockholder hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives any rights of appraisal, dissenters' rights or similar rights that the Stockholder may have in connection with the Merger.

Transfer Restrictions and Obligations.

Section 2.1 Lock-Up. After the execution of this Agreement until the Expiration Date, the Stockholder will not:

- (a) sell, transfer, exchange, pledge, assign, hypothecate, encumber, tender or otherwise dispose of (collectively, a "Transfer"), or enforce or permit the execution of the provisions of any redemption, share purchase or sale, recapitalization or other agreement with the Company or any other Person or enter into any contract, option or other agreement, arrangement or understanding with respect to the Transfer of, directly or indirectly, any of the Subject Shares or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Subject Shares, any other capital stock of the Company or any interest in any of the foregoing with any Person, or join in any registration statement under the Securities Act with respect to any of the foregoing;
- (b) enter into any swap or other agreement or any transaction that transfers, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, the economic consequence of ownership of Subject Shares; or create or permit to exist any liens, claims, options, charges or other encumbrances on or otherwise affecting any of the Subject Shares that will be in effect as of Effective Time;

provided, however, that nothing in this Section 2.1 shall restrict the Stockholder from (i) engaging in open market sales (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall not include sales effected over an exchange to an identifiable buyer who has publicly disclosed, or who the Stockholder knows plans or intends to make, an Acquisition Proposal (an "Acquiring Person")) of any shares of common stock (including any Shares) of the Company with broker dealers in the ordinary course of business after the record date for the shareholder vote to approve the Merger (a "Permitted Open Market Transaction") or (ii) selling any shares of common stock (including any Shares) of the Company in a private transaction to a Person (other than an Acquiring Person) who agrees to be bound by this Agreement (a "Permitted Private Transaction")

Section 2.2 Other Obligations. After the execution of this Agreement until the Expiration Date, the Stockholder agrees (a) not to, and not to authorize or permit any investment banker, attorney or other advisor or representative of the Stockholder to, directly or indirectly, solicit, initiate, encourage or facilitate, or furnish or disclose non-public information in furtherance of, any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, or negotiate, explore or otherwise engage in discussions with any Person with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, or approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal, or enter into any agreement, arrangement or understanding with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, and (b) not to take any action which would make any representation or warranty of the Stockholder herein untrue or incorrect in any material respect. The Stockholder shall notify Parent promptly (but in any event within two (2) Business Days) of any such inquiries, proposals or offers received by, or any such discussions or negotiations sought to be initiated or continued with, the Stockholder or any of its Representatives, indicating the name of such Person and providing to Parent a summary of the material terms of such proposal or offer for an Acquisition Proposal.

Representations and Warranties of the Stockholder.

Section 3.1 Ownership of Shares. As of the date hereof, the Stockholder represents and warrants that the Stockholder (a) is the beneficial owner of and has the sole right to Vote or direct the Voting of the Shares owned by the Stockholder with respect to the authorization and approval of the Merger Agreement and the terms thereof, and (b) does not beneficially own any shares of capital stock of the Company other than such Shares.

Section 3.2 No Conflict. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Stockholder does not, and the performance of this Agreement by the Stockholder will not: (a) result in or constitute a violation of, or constitute a default (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) under, or give rise to a right of termination, amendment, cancellation or acceleration of any obligation or the loss of a material benefit under, or the creation of a Lien on any assets of the Stockholder (any such conflict, violation, default, right of termination, amendment, cancellation or acceleration, loss or creation, a "Violation") pursuant to any obligation, instrument, permit, concession, franchise, license, judgment, order, decree, statute, law, ordinance, rule or regulation applicable to the Stockholder or by which the Stockholder or any of the Stockholder's properties are bound or affected; or (b) result in or constitute a Violation of, or result in the creation of a Lien on or otherwise affecting any of the Subject Shares owned by the Stockholder pursuant to, any contract to which the Stockholder is a party or by which the Stockholder or any of the Stockholder's properties are bound or affected. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Stockholder does not, and the performance of its obligations under this Agreement by the Stockholder will not, require any consent of any Person or any Governmental Entity.

Section 3.3 Enforceability. The Stockholder has all requisite partnership power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution, delivery and performance by the Stockholder of this Agreement and the consummation by it of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly and validly authorized and no other actions or proceedings by the Stockholder are necessary to authorize the executions and delivery by the Stockholder of this Agreement and the consummation by the Stockholder of the transactions contemplated hereby. No consent, approval, order or authorization of, or registration, declaration or filing with, any Governmental Entity or expiry of any related waiting period is required by or with respect to the Stockholder in connection with (i) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Stockholder, (ii) the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement by the Company or (iii) the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, except for filings by the Stockholder on Schedule 13D under the Exchange Act.

Section 3.5 Absence of Litigation. There is no suit, action, investigation or proceeding pending or, to the knowledge of the Stockholder, threatened against the Stockholder before or by any Governmental Entity that could reasonably be expected to impair the ability of the Stockholder to perform its obligations hereunder or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby on a timely basis.

Section 3.6 No Prior Agreements. The Stockholder represents and warrants that no agreement, arrangement or understanding by and between the Stockholder and Parent with respect to the subject matter contained herein existed prior to the approval of this Agreement by the Company Board.

Representations and Warranties of Parent. Parent has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution, delivery and performance by Parent of this Agreement and the consummation by it of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly and validly authorized and no other actions or proceedings by Parent are necessary to authorize the execution and delivery by Parent of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Parent and, assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Stockholder, constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligations of Parent, enforceable against Parent in accordance with its terms, subject to (i) laws of general application relating to bankruptcy, insolvency and the relief of debtors and (ii) rules of law governing specific performance, injunctive relief and other equitable remedies.

5.

Covenants of the Stockholder. 6.

Any agreement on the part of a party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party. The failure of any party to this Agreement to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of those rights.

Section 7.10 Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned by any of the parties to this Agreement (whether by operation of law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other party to this Agreement.
