ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS

On May 12, 2006 the registrant repurchased a portion of its outstanding 12% senior notes due in 2013 from Charlesbank, an affiliate of the registrant (Charlesbank being the majority shareholder of GSI Holdings, Inc., which is the parent corporation of the registrant) at 101% of the principal amount, in a total cash amount of $7,474,000, which notes will be promptly cancelled following the repurchase. The repurchase price for the notes was approved by all of the independent members (being all members other than the three board members who are managing directors of Charlesbank) of the board of directors of the registrant, and was determined after consulting with Lehman Brothers for the most recent trading price for the notes, although such trading market is extremely limited, and also taking into account that the record date for the semi-annual payment of interest on the notes was May 1, 2006 for payment on May 15, 2006. The cash price negotiated with Charlesbank by the registrant to repurchase the notes was believed by the independent members of the board of directors to be no less favorable to the registrant than would have been obtained in a comparable transaction with an unrelated person, and in their judgment was in the best interests of the registrant. In addition, the independent directors of the registrant, upon advice from the appropriate officers of the registrant, determined that there was "excess availability" as that term is defined in the registrant's Loan and Security Agreement with Wachovia Bank, as Agent, both immediately before and immediately following such repurchase. The independent directors further determined, upon advice of counsel, that such repurchase was permitted under both the registrant's Loan and security Agreement with Wachovia Bank, as Agent, and under its trust indenture with U.S. Bank National Association. The effect of the transaction is to reduce the direct financial obligations of the registrant with respect to its long-term indebtedness.
