Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On July 5, 2011, Stephen P. Quin resigned from the board of directors (the Board) of Rare Element Resources Ltd. (the Registrant) to lead the development of a new gold project in the United States. Mr. Quin will remain as an advisor to the Registrant and has been appointed to the Registrant's advisory board.

On July 5, 2011, Paul Schlauch was appointed as a director to the Board of the Registrant. Mr. Schlauch recently retired as a partner with Holland & Hart LLP of Denver, Colorado, one of the leading law firms specializing in mining law in the United States. Mr. Schlauch has more than 35 years experience in legal issues relating to the mining industry. His practice has included counseling regarding operational and regulatory matters and representing clients in a wide array of transactions as well as litigation and arbitration. Mr. Schlauch has assisted in the structuring and negotiation of hundreds of transactions, including joint ventures, limited liability companies, leases, royalty transfers, mineral property purchases and sales, ore sales agreements, cooperative operating agreements, and corporate acquisitions and mergers. He has worked extensively on public land law issues including matters relating to the location, maintenance, and patenting of mining and mill site claims, land exchanges, the acquisition of various property use rights, and the resolution of claim conflicts.

Mr. Schlauch has been active in natural resource industry professional organizations. He is a past president of the Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation and a past President of the International Mining Professionals Society. He is a frequent speaker on topics relating to the mining industry and is the author of numerous articles on industry issues. Mr. Schlauch is an Adjunct Professor of Law at Denver University School of Law, where he has taught courses on international mineral law and policy. He also holds an appointment as an Honorary Lecturer and Course Director on the Faculty of the Center for Energy, Petroleum and Minerals Law and Policy at the University of Dundee, Scotland. Mr. Schlauch graduated cum laude with an A. B. in chemistry from Colgate University in 1963 and completed a law degree in 1966 at the University of Virginia.

Mr. Schlauch is not related by blood or marriage to any of the Registrant's directors or executive officers of any persons nominated by the Registrant to become directors or executive officers. The Registrant has not engaged in any transaction in which Mr. Schlauch or a person related to Mr. Schlauch had a direct or indirect material interest. To the Registrant's knowledge, there is no arrangement or understanding between any of our officers or other persons and Mr. Schlauch pursuant to which he was selected to serve as a director.

Mr. Schlauch has not been appointed to any committees of the Board of the Registrant.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

On July 13, 2011, the Registrant issued a press release announcing the resignation of Stephen P. Quin from the Board, the appointment of Paul Schlauch to the Board, the appointment of Norman Anderson as the Chairman of the Board, and the Registrant's grant of 50,000 stock options. A copy of the press release is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1. In accordance with General Instruction B.2 of Form 8-K, the information set forth herein and in the press release is deemed to be furnished and shall not be deemed to be filed for purposes of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The information set forth in Item 7.01 of this report shall not be deemed an admission as to the materiality of any information in this report on Form 8-K that is required to be disclosed solely to satisfy the requirements of Regulation FD.
