Proxy Statement for Annual Meeting of

Shareholders to be Held on May 19, 2009

Our board of directors is soliciting proxies for the 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. This proxy statement contains important information for you to consider when deciding how to vote on the matters brought before the meeting. We encourage you to read it carefully.

Voting Information

The board set March 23, 2009 as the record date for the meeting. Shareholders owning our common stock at the close of business on that date are entitled to vote and to attend the meeting, with each share entitled to one vote. If you are a registered shareholder who wishes to vote at our annual meeting, you may do so by delivering your proxy card in person at the meeting. Street name shareholders who wish to vote at our annual meeting will need to obtain a proxy form from the institution that holds their shares. There were 3,044,683 shares of common stock outstanding on the record date. A majority of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote at the meeting will constitute a quorum. We will count abstentions and broker non-votes, which are described below, in determining whether a quorum exists.

Many of our shareholders hold their shares through a stockbroker, bank, or other nominee rather than directly in their own name. If you hold our shares in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in street name, and these materials are being forwarded to you by your broker or nominee, which is considered the shareholder of record with respect to those shares. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker or nominee how to vote and are also invited to attend the annual meeting. However, since you are not the shareholder of record, you may not vote these shares in person at the meeting unless you obtain a signed proxy from the shareholder of record giving you the right to vote the shares. Your broker or nominee has enclosed or provided a voting instruction card for you to use to direct your broker or nominee how to vote these shares.

When you sign the proxy card, you appoint James B. Orders, III and Fred Gilmer, Jr. as your representatives at the meeting. Mr. Orders and Mr. Gilmer will vote your proxy as you have instructed them on the proxy card. If you submit a proxy but do not specify how you would like it to be voted, Mr. Orders and Mr. Gilmer will vote your proxy for the election to the board of directors of all nominees listed below under Election of Directors and the resolution approving the compensation of the Company's named executive officers as determined by the compensation committee and the board of directors. We are not aware of any other matters to be considered at the meeting. However, if any other matters come before the meeting, Mr. Orders and Mr. Gilmer will vote your proxy on such matters in accordance with their judgment.

A majority or more of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote at the meeting will constitute a quorum. We will include abstentions and broker non-votes in determining whether a quorum exists. Assuming in each case that a quorum is present:

- With respect to Proposal No. 1, the directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors. This means that the individuals who receive the highest number of votes are selected as directors up to the maximum number of directors to be elected at the meeting.
- With respect to Proposal No. 2, the proposal will be considered approved if the number of shares of common stock voted in favor of the matter exceed the number of shares of common stock voted against the matter. This vote is advisory and will not be binding upon our board of directors. However, the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors will take into account the outcome of the vote when considering future executive compensation arrangements.

Edgar Filing: SOUTHERN FIRST BANCSHARES INC - Form DEF 14A

You may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before the polls close at the meeting. You may do this by signing and delivering another proxy with a later date or by voting in person at the meeting. Brokers who hold shares for the accounts of their clients may vote these shares either as directed by their clients or in their own discretion if permitted by the exchange or other organization of which they are members. Proxies that brokers do not vote on some proposals but that they do vote on others are referred to as "broker non-votes" with respect to the proposals not voted upon. A broker non-vote does not count as a vote in favor of or against a particular proposal for which the broker has no discretionary voting authority. In addition, if a shareholder abstains from voting on a particular proposal, the abstention does not count as a vote in favor of or against the proposal.

We are paying for the costs of preparing and mailing the proxy materials and of reimbursing brokers and others for their expenses of forwarding copies of the proxy materials to our shareholders. Upon written or oral request, we will promptly deliver a separate copy of our annual report, our annual report on Form 10-K, or this proxy statement to our shareholders at a shared address to which a single copy of the document was delivered. Our officers and employees may assist in soliciting proxies but will not receive additional compensation for doing so. We are distributing this proxy statement on or about April 6, 2009.

Important Notice of Internet Availability. The proxy statement, 2008 Annual Report on Form 10-K and the enclosed annual report overview are available to the public for viewing on the Internet at <http://www.cfpproxy.com/6431>. Directions to the Annual Meeting can be obtained by contacting Ms. Ellen Kish at 864.679.9000.

Upon written or oral request by any shareholder, we will deliver a copy of our Form 10-K, this proxy statement and the enclosed annual report overview to our shareholders at a shared address to which a single copy of the document was delivered.

The current terms of the Class I directors will expire at this Annual Shareholders Meeting. The terms of the Class II directors expire at the 2010 Annual Shareholders Meeting. The terms of the Class III directors will expire at the 2011 Annual Shareholders Meeting. Our current directors and their classes are:

Edgar Filing: SOUTHERN FIRST BANCSHARES INC - Form DEF 14A

David G. Ellison

Anne S. Ellefson

PROPOSAL NO. 2:

NON-BINDING RESOLUTION TO APPROVE THE COMPENSATION OF THE NAMED EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

This proposal, commonly known as a "say-on-pay" proposal, gives the Company's shareholders the opportunity to endorse or not endorse the Company's executive pay program and policies through the following resolution:

"Resolved, that the shareholders approve the compensation of the named executive officers, as disclosed in the Summary Compensation Table and in the other tables and related discussion included in this proxy statement."

We believe that our compensation policies and procedures are competitive and focused on performance and are strongly aligned with the long-term interest of our shareholders. We encourage you to review our discussion and the tables included in this proxy statement. Recent legislation and new regulations will impact our compensation practices because we sold preferred stock to the United States Treasury in the first quarter of 2009 under its Capital Purchase Program. Key details of these new laws will be determined only after the Treasury and the SEC issue new regulations. As a result, we cannot reliably predict what changes we will be required to make to our compensation programs, if any. We will fully comply with all applicable requirements as they become known to us and as long as the preferred stock, under the Capital Purchase Program, is outstanding.

Under the America Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009, your vote is advisory and will not be binding upon our board of directors. However, the compensation committee and the Board of Directors will take into account the outcome of the vote when considering future executive compensation arrangements.

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote FOR approval of the compensation of the named executive officers.

Employment Agreements

We entered into an employment agreement with Art Seaver on November 17, 2008, for an annually renewing three-year term, pursuant to which he serves as the chief executive officer, and a director of both our company and our subsidiary bank. As of March 13, 2009, Mr. Seaver receives a minimum annual salary of $247,500, plus his yearly medical insurance premium. He also receives an annual increase in his salary equal to the previous year's salary times the increase in the Consumer Price Index during the previous year. The board of directors may increase Mr. Seaver's salary above this level, but not below it. He is eligible to receive an annual bonus of up to 5% of the net pre-tax income of our bank, if the bank meets performance goals set by the board. Mr. Seaver's annual salary and bonus amounts are subject to the limitations imposed under the U.S. Treasury's Capital Purchase Program due to the Bank's participation in the program. He is also eligible to participate in any management incentive program of the bank or any long-term equity incentive program and is eligible for grants of stock options and other awards thereunder. Mr. Seaver was granted options to purchase a number of shares of common stock equal to 5% of the number of shares sold in our initial public offering, or 97,875 shares (adjusted for the 3 for 2 stock split and 10 percent stock dividend). These options were granted in 2000 in connection with the bank's opening, vested over a five-year period and have a term of ten years. Additionally, Mr. Seaver participates in the bank's retirement, welfare, and other benefit programs and is entitled to a life insurance policy and an accident liability policy and reimbursement for automobile expenses, club dues, and travel and business expenses.

Mr. Seaver's employment agreement also provides that following termination of his employment and for a period of 12 months thereafter, he may not (a) compete with the company, the bank, or any of its affiliates by, directly or indirectly, forming, serving as an organizer, director or officer of, or consultant to, or acquiring or maintaining more than 1% passive investment in, a depository financial institution or holding company thereof if such depository institution or holding company has one or more offices or branches within radius of thirty miles from the main office of the company or any branch office of the company, (b) solicit major customers of the bank for the purpose of providing financial services, or (c) solicit employees of the bank for employment. If Mr. Seaver terminates his employment for good cause as that term is defined in the employment agreement or if he is terminated following a change in control of Southern First Bancshares as defined in the agreement, he will be entitled to severance compensation of his then current monthly salary for a period of 12 months, plus accrued bonus, and all outstanding options and incentives shall vest immediately.

Edgar Filing: SOUTHERN FIRST BANCSHARES INC - Form DEF 14A

We also entered into employment agreements on November 17, 2008 with Justin Strickland to serve as President of our company, Jim Austin to serve as chief financial officer and an executive vice president of our company and the bank, Fred Gilmer, III to serve as an executive vice president of the bank, and Eddie Terrell to serve as an executive vice president of the bank. Each agreement has an annually renewing two-year term. As of March 13, 2009, Messrs. Strickland, Austin, Gilmer, and Terrell are paid a salary of $206,000, $171,000, 160,500, and $150,000, respectively, which may be increased annually by the board of directors. They are also eligible to participate in any of our pension, profit sharing, bonus, life insurance, hospitalization, major medical, and other employee benefit plans and programs. In addition, Messrs. Austin, Gilmer and Terrell are each entitled to receive either an automobile owned or leased by us or an automobile allowance of $700 per month while Mr. Strickland receives an automobile allowance of $750.

Each employment agreement also provides that during the term of employment and for a period of 12 months following termination, Messrs. Austin, Gilmer, Terrell, and Strickland may not (a) compete with us by, directly or indirectly, forming, serving as an organizer, director or officer of, employee or agent, or consultant to, or acquiring or maintaining more than a 1% passive investment in, a depository financial institution or holding company thereof if such depository institution or holding company has one or more offices or branches within 30 miles of our main office or any other offices, (b) solicit our clients with which they had contact in connection with products and services provided by us for the purpose of providing financial services, or (c) solicit our employees. If Messrs. Austin, Gilmer, Terrell, or Strickland terminate their employment for good reason or if they are terminated following a change in control of our company, they will be entitled to severance compensation of their then current monthly salary for a period of 12 months, plus accrued bonus, and all outstanding options and incentives will vest immediately.

On February 27, 2009, in connection with our participation in the Capital Purchase Program established by the U.S. Department of the Treasury (Treasury) under the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008 (as amended, EESA), each of Messrs. Seaver, Strickland and Gilmer, III, among others, entered into letter agreements with the Company amending the compensation, bonus, incentive and other benefit plans, arrangements and policies and agreements (including any so-called golden parachute provisions) as may be necessary, during the period that Treasury owns any debt or equity securities of the Company acquired pursuant to the Capital Purchase Program to comply with Section 111 of the EESA, including prohibitions on certain severance payments in connection with a termination of employment under certain circumstances and required to and a requirement to return to the Company any bonus or incentive compensation paid to the named executive officer by the Company during the covered period if such bonus or incentive compensation is paid based on materially inaccurate financial statements or any other materially inaccurate performance metric criteria. These letter amendments were identical except that the letter amendment for Mr. Seaver also states that he is prohibited from receiving from the Company any bonus, retention award, or incentive compensation until such time as Treasury ceases to own any debt or equity securities of the Company acquired pursuant to the Capital Purchase Program, except for certain long term restricted stock payments and certain previously granted bonus payments to the extent permitted by EESA.

(1) Includes shares for which the named person has sole voting and investment power, has shared voting and investment power with a spouse, or holds in an IRA or other retirement plan program, unless otherwise indicated in these footnotes.

(2) Includes shares that may be acquired within 60 days of the date of this prospectus by exercising vested stock options and warrants but does not include any unvested stock options or warrants. Each of the following directors served as an organizer of our bank: Andrew B. Cajka, Jr., Mark A. Cothran, Leighton M. Cubbage, Fred Gilmer, Jr., Tee Hooper, Jr., Trip Johnstone, III, James B. Orders, III, R. Arthur Seaver, Jr., and William B. Sturgis. Each of these directors received a warrant to purchase one share of common stock at a purchase price of $6.06 per share for every two shares purchased by that individual in our initial public offering as compensation for the risks taken in forming the bank, including their personal guarantees of the original line of credit. These warrants cover an aggregate of 123,111 and are exercisable until January 10, 2010. For Jim Austin, Gwen Bridges, Fred Gilmer, Jr., Fred Gilmer, III, Art Seaver, and Justin Strickland, the right to acquire column includes employee stock options to purchase 41,875 shares, 2,275 shares, 9,900 shares, 36,100 shares, 94,875 shares, and 8,750 shares, respectively.

(3) For each individual, this percentage is determined by assuming the named person exercises all options and warrants which he or she has the right to acquire within 60 days, but that no other persons exercise any options or warrants. For the directors and executive officers as a group, this percentage is determined by assuming that each director and executive officer exercises all options and warrants which he or she has the right to acquire within 60 days, but that no other persons exercise any options or warrants. The calculations are based on 3,044,863 shares of common stock outstanding on March 13, 2009.

Meetings and Committees of the Board of Directors

During the year ended December 31, 2008, the board of directors of the company held 12 meetings and the board of directors of the bank held 12 meetings. All of the directors of the company and the bank attended at least 75% of the aggregate of such board meetings and the meetings of each committee on which they served except for Mr. Cabbage who attended one of the three Personnel Committee meetings held during 2008.

Although we do not have a formal policy regarding attendance by members of the board of directors at our annual shareholders meetings, directors are encouraged to attend the annual meeting of Southern First Bancshares, Inc. Ten of the eleven directors were present at the 2008 annual meeting of shareholders.

Communications with Shareholders

Our board of directors has implemented a process for shareholders of the company to send communications to the board. Any shareholder desiring to communicate with the board, or with specific individual directors, may so do by writing to the secretary of the company, at Southern First Bancshares, Inc., 100 Verdae Boulevard, Suite 100, Greenville, South Carolina 29607. The secretary has been instructed by the board to promptly forward all such communications to the addressees indicated thereon.

Board Independence

Mr. Cajka, Mr. Cabbage, Ms. Ellefson, Mr. Ellison, Mr. Hooper, Mr. Orders and Mr. Sturgis are independent directors, based upon the independence criteria set forth in Rule 4350 of the corporate governance listing standards of The NASDAQ Stock Market.

Committees of the Board of Directors

The company's board of directors has appointed four committees, including an audit, personnel, nominating, and finance committee.

Audit Committee

The audit committee is composed of Mr. Cajka, Mr. Hooper, Ms. Ellefson, Mr. Sturgis, and Mr. Cabbage. Each of these members is considered independent under Rule 4350 of the corporate governance listing standards of The NASDAQ Stock Market. The audit committee met five times in 2008.

None of the current members of the audit committee nor any other member of our board qualifies as an audit committee financial expert as defined under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. As a relatively small public company, it is difficult to identify qualified candidates who meet all of the qualification of a audit committee financial expert and are willing to serve on our board. At the present, we do not know if or when we will appoint a new board member that qualifies as an audit committee financial expert.

Although none of the members of our audit committee qualify as "financial experts" as defined in the SEC rules, each of our audit committee members has made valuable contributions to the company and its shareholders as members of the audit committee. The board has determined that each member is fully qualified to monitor the performance of management, the public disclosures by the company of its financial condition and performance, our internal accounting operations, and our independent auditors.

The audit committee functions are set forth in its charter, which was adopted on September 19, 2000 and later amended on June 15, 2004. A copy of the audit committee charter is available on our website, www.southernfirst.com. The audit committee has the responsibility of reviewing financial statements, evaluating internal accounting controls, reviewing reports of regulatory authorities, and determining that all audits and examinations required by law are performed. The committee recommends to the board the appointment of the independent auditors for the next fiscal year, reviews and approves the auditor's audit plans, and reviews with the independent auditors the results of the audit and management's responses. The audit committee is responsible for overseeing the entire audit function and appraising the effectiveness of internal and external audit efforts. The audit committee reports its findings to the board of directors.

The report of the audit committee shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this proxy statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent that the company specifically incorporates the information contained in the report by reference, and shall not be deemed filed under such acts.

The audit committee reviewed and discussed with management the audited financial statements. The audit committee discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61. The audit committee received from the independent auditors the written disclosures and letters required by applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board regarding the independent accountant's communications with the audit committee concerning independence and has discussed with the independent auditors, the independent auditor's independence from the company and its management. In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the audit committee recommended to our board of directors that the audited financial statements be included in our Annual Report on SEC Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008 for filing with the SEC.

The report of the audit committee is included herein at the direction of its members Mr. Cajka, Mr. Hooper, Mrs. Ellefson, Mr. Sturgis, and Mr. Cabbage.

Personnel Committee

The personnel committee, which we also refer to as the compensation committee, was composed of voting members Mr. Sturgis, Mr. Cabbage, Mr. Ellison, and Mr. Orders. In addition, Mr. Cothran and Dr. Johnstone served on the committee as non-voting members. Mr. Sturgis, Mr. Cabbage, Mr. Ellison, and Mr. Orders are each considered independent under Rule 4350 of corporate governance listing standards of The NASDAQ Stock Market, and Mr. Cothran and Dr. Johnstone are not considered to be independent. Our entire board of directors, including a majority of independent directors, considers and approves all matters recommended by the personnel committee. The personnel committee met three times in 2008. The personnel committee has the responsibility of annually reviewing all benefit plans of the bank as well as the performance of the chief executive officer. The 2009 personnel committee is composed only of voting members Mr. Sturgis, Mr. Cabbage, Mr. Ellison, and Mr. Orders.

The personnel committee of the board of directors recommends all compensation and awards to executive and senior officers, which includes the chief executive officer, president, five executive vice presidents, and eight senior vice presidents, to the entire board of directors for approval. Generally, on its own initiative the Personnel Committee reviews the performance and compensation of the chief executive and president and, following discussions with those individuals and, where it deems appropriate, Benchmark or another appropriate compensation advisor, assist in determining their compensation levels. For the remaining executive and senior officers, the chief executive officer makes recommendations to the Personnel Committee that generally, with minor adjustments, have been approved. With respect to equity compensation awarded to others, the Personnel Committee, with the approval of the entire board of directors, grants restricted stock, generally based upon the recommendation of the chief executive officer, and has delegated option granting authority for non-executive officers to the chief executive officer. The Compensation Committee must also meet at least semiannually to discuss and evaluate employee compensation plans in light of an assessment of any risk posed to the Company from such plans. The Compensation Committee must also certify that it has reviewed the senior executive officers' compensation arrangements with a view toward ensuring that they do not create incentives to take unnecessary or excessive risks that threaten the value of the Company.

A copy of the personnel committee charter is available on our website, www.southernfirst.com.

Finance Committee

The finance committee is composed of Mr. Orders, Mr. Cajka, Mr. Cothran, Mrs. Ellefson, Mr. Ellison, Mr. Gilmer, Mr. Hooper, Dr. Johnstone and Mr. Seaver. The finance committee met 12 times in 2008. The finance committee has the responsibility of reviewing the loan policy, investment policy, and the bank's asset/liability structure.

Nominating Committee

During 2008, the nominating committee was composed of Mr. Cabbage, Mr. Ellison, Mr. Orders and Mr. Sturgis. Each of these directors is considered independent under Rule 4350 of the corporate governance listing standards of The NASDAQ Stock Market. The nominating committee met once in 2008. The nominating committee recommends nominees for election to the board. The board of directors, including a majority of the independent directors, selects the nominees for election to the board. On June 15, 2004, we adopted a formal nominating committee charter which is available on our website, www.southernfirst.com.

For directors previously elected by shareholders to serve on the board and whose terms of service are expiring, the nominating committee considers whether to recommend to the board the nomination of those directors for re-election for another term of service. The nominating committee also considers whether to recommend to the board the nomination of persons to serve as directors whose nominations have been recommended by shareholders.

Any shareholder may recommend the nomination of any person to serve on the board. Our policy is to require a shareholder to submit the name of the person to our corporate secretary in writing no later than (i) with respect to an election to be held at an annual meeting of shareholders, 90 days in advance of such meeting; and (ii) with respect to an election to be held at a special meeting of shareholders for the election of directors, no more than seven days after notice of the special meeting is given to shareholders. Each notice must set forth: (i) the name and address of the shareholder who intends to make the nomination and of the person or persons to be nominated; (ii) a representation that the shareholder is a holder of record of stock of the company entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice; (iii) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the shareholder and each nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the shareholder; (iv) such other information regarding each nominee proposed by such shareholder as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, had the nominee been nominated, or intended to be nominated, by the board of directors; and (v) the consent of each nominee to serve as a director of the company if so elected. The chairman of the meeting may refuse to acknowledge the nomination of any person not made in compliance with the foregoing procedure.

The nominating committee considers a number of factors in determining whether to recommend to the board the nomination of any person for election as a director. While no single factor is determinative, the following factors are considered by the nominating committee in evaluating any potential nominee:

educational background, work experience, business acumen, ability to grasp business and financial concepts, knowledge or experience related to banking or financial services,

previous service on boards (particularly of public companies), willingness and ability to devote time and energy to the duties of a director,

a desire and ability to help enhance shareholder value,

reputation in the community,

whether the nominee has any history of criminal convictions or violation of SEC rules, actual or potential conflicts of interest, and any other factor that the nominating committee considers relevant to a person's potential service on the board of directors.

The board of directors also considers the foregoing criteria in determining whether to nominate any person for election by the shareholders.

In determining whether to nominate any person for election by the shareholders, the board assesses the appropriate size of the board of directors, consistent with our bylaws, and whether any vacancies on the board are expected due to retirement or otherwise. If vacancies are anticipated, or otherwise arise, the board will consider various potential candidates for director recommended by the nominating committee. Candidates may come to the attention of the nominating committee or board through a variety of sources including, but not limited to, current members of the board, shareholders, or other persons. The nominating committee and board of directors consider properly submitted recommendations by shareholders who are not our directors, officers, or employees on the same basis as candidates recommended by any other person.

We do not pay a third party to assist in identifying and evaluating candidates.

Code of Ethics

We expect all of our employees to conduct themselves honestly and ethically, particularly in handling actual and apparent conflicts of interest and providing full, accurate, and timely disclosure to the public.

We have adopted a Code of Ethics that is specifically applicable to our senior management and financial officers, including our principal executive officer, our principal financial officer, and our principal accounting officer and controllers. A copy of this Code of Ethics is available without charge to shareholders upon request to the secretary of the company, at Southern First Bancshares, Inc., 100 Verdae Boulevard, Suite 100, Greenville, South Carolina 29607.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

We enter into banking and other transactions in the ordinary course of business with our directors and officers of the company and the bank and their affiliates. Our policies and procedures related to these transactions are not in writing, but are reflected by our course of conduct. It is our policy that these transactions be on substantially the same terms (including price, or interest rates and collateral) as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with unrelated parties. We do not expect these transactions to involve more than the normal risk of collectibility nor present other unfavorable features to us. Loans to individual directors and officers must also comply with our bank's lending policies and statutory lending limits, and directors with a personal interest in any loan application are excluded from the consideration of the loan application. We intend for all of our transactions with our affiliates to be on terms no less favorable to us than could be obtained from an unaffiliated third party and it is our policy that they be approved by a majority of disinterested directors.

Interests of Management and Others in Certain Transactions

The bank purchased various signage for its Woodruff Road and Lexington offices during 2008 from the same vendor used in the past for such signage. During 2008 and 2007, one of the bank's directors, Mr. Hooper, acted as chairman of the board for the respective company. The bank paid approximately $71,000 and $31,000 to the company for the years ended December 31, 2008 and 2007, respectively. The bank is of the opinion that the cost of signage represents market costs that could have been obtained in similar arms length transactions.

In January 2008, the bank entered into a commitment with a company partially owned indirectly by James B. Orders, III, one of the Bank's directors. John Orders and David Orders, who are siblings of James B. Orders, III, indirectly own the remaining interest in the company. James B. Orders, III and these siblings are involved in the management of the parent company. The bank has committed to pay the company a development fee up to $550,000 in three annual installments related to the development and construction of the Company's regional headquarters in Cayce, South Carolina. The bank paid the first and second installments of approximately $189,000 in January 2008 and 2009, respectively. The bank is of the opinion that the development fees represent market costs that could have been obtained in similar arms length transactions.

On July 28, 2006, the bank purchased $5.0 million of bank owned life insurance from Northwestern Mutual Insurance Company. The purchase was made through an agency that is owned by director, David Ellison. Mr. Ellison received a commission of $60,000. At approximately the same time, the bank purchased a $3.0 million bank owned life insurance policy from an independent third party. The terms and conditions of both the $5.0 million and $3.0 million insurance policies are substantially the same. Therefore, the bank is of the opinion that the $5.0 million policy was obtained at a cost that was consistent with the cost in a similar arms length transaction. This transaction was approved by our personnel committee, with Mr. Ellison abstaining from the decision, and then ratified by the board of directors.

On September 20, 2005, the bank entered into a ten year, five month lease with various renewal options on its new main office building. The company moved the corporate office and branch operation, to the new leased space in the first quarter of 2007. Mr. Cothran, a director of the bank and real estate developer by occupation, assisted the bank in the negotiation of the lease. The lessor paid Mr. Cothran a leasing agency fee of $164,414, of which $82,207 was paid in 2005 and the remainder in 2007 when the bank occupied the building.

The bank also has a land lease with Mr. Cothran on the property for a branch office, with monthly payments of $4,804. In addition, the bank had various consulting agreements with the director for development, administration and advisory services related to the purchase of property and construction of current and future branch office sites. Beginning in 2006, the bank has also contracted with Mr. Cothran on an annual basis to provide property management services for each of its branch offices. The bank paid Mr. Cothran approximately $20,000 for these services during 2008 and $41,000 during 2007.

The bank is of the opinion that the lease payments and consulting fees paid to Mr. Cothran represent market costs that could have been obtained in similar arms length transactions.

Our board of directors had a personnel committee composed of Messrs. Sturgis, Cabbage, Ellison, and Orders during 2008. In addition, Mr. Cothran and Dr. Johnstone served on the committee during 2008, as non-voting members. No member of the personnel committee was an officer or employee of the company or any of its subsidiaries during the year ended December 31, 2008 or was formerly an officer or employee of the company or any of its subsidiaries, or had any relationship otherwise requiring disclosure. Our Chief Executive Officer, however, did participate in deliberations regarding other executive officers. He was not involved in any decisions regarding his own compensation.

Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

As required by Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, our directors and executive officers and certain other individuals are required to report periodically their ownership of our common stock and any changes in ownership to the SEC. Based on a review of Forms 3, 4, and 5 and any representations made to us, it appears that all such reports for these persons were filed in a timely fashion during 2008, except that Form 3s for Mr. Gilmer, III, Ms. Bridges, and Mr. Mike Strickland and Form 4s related to stock options granted for Mr. Justin Strickland, Mr.

Austin, Mr. Gilmer, III and Ms. Bridges were filed after the required period due to management oversight. (2) Each of our organizers received, for no additional consideration, a warrant to purchase one share of common stock for $6.06 per share for every two shares purchased during our initial public offering. of the date of our initial public offering, and they are exercisable in whole or in part during the ten year period following that date. The warrants may not be assigned, pledged, or hypothecated in any way.
