Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 15, Dynatronics Corporation (the “Company”) entered into an agreement with Vici Capital Partners (Vici Capital) for the performance of consulting services. Vici Capital is owned and controlled by Mark Crockett. Prior to the finalization of the agreement between Vici Capital and the Company, and as a condition to its execution by the Company, Mr. Crockett resigned from his position as a member of the Board of Directors of the Company. The services of Mr. Crockett and his firm will be directed toward assisting management in identifying key objectives and methods for improving profitability of the Company.

During his term of service as a director of Dynatronics, Mr. Crockett was one of four independent members of the Board of Directors. The remaining three members of the Board of Directors were also executives of the Company. To maintain a majority of independent directors, the Company also accepted the resignation from the Board of Kelvyn Cullimore, Sr., the Company’s founder and Vice-Chairman of the Board. This resignation from the Board will not impact Mr. Cullimore Sr.’s responsibilities for management of the Synergie products division of the Company as well as the Company’s Tennessee operations.

The Board of Directors of the Company now has five members: Joseph Barton, Larry Beardall, Val J. Christensen, Kelvyn H. Cullimore, Jr., and Howard Edwards. Messrs. Barton, Christensen and Edwards are deemed by the Board to be “independent” directors under applicable rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market and under regulations promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
