Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

On October 7, 2005, Discovery Partners International, Inc. ( Discovery Partners ) entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement with IRORI Discovery, Inc., now known as Nexus Biosystems ( Nexus ), pursuant to which Discovery Partners agreed to sell certain assets and liabilities to Nexus, including the IRORI® chemical synthesis systems business, the Crystal Farm® automated protein crystallization business, and the Universal Store® compound storage systems business for a purchase price of $1,500,000 plus a purchase price adjustment. The sale of net assets pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement was completed on October 12, 2005. The sale price for the assets was effectively based on the total book value of the net assets and the cash cost of operations for the assets sold through the closing date. In the future, the historical operating results related to the net assets sold will be reported as discontinued operations. Nexus is a California company whose Chief Executive Officer, John Lillig, was previously the Chief Technology Officer, Vice President and General Manager, Discovery Systems for Discovery Partners.

A copy of Discovery Partner's press release announcing the asset sale, dated October 14, 2005, is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report and incorporated herein by reference.
