Form 424B1
November 01, 2005

Filed Pursuant to Rule 424(b)(1)
Reg. Statement No. 333-128795

Dear Creative Computer Applications, Inc. and StorCOMM, Inc. shareholders:

We are pleased to report that the boards of directors of Creative Computer Applications (CCA) and StorCOMM, Inc. (StorCOMM) have each unanimously approved the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization (referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as the merger agreement) providing for a merger involving our two companies. Before we can complete the merger, we must obtain the approval of each of our company's shareholders. We are sending you this joint proxy statement/prospectus to ask you to vote in favor of the merger agreement, and various related matters.

Pursuant to the merger, CCA will acquire StorCOMM. StorCOMM shareholders will be entitled to receive 2.4728 shares of CCA common stock for every 100 shares of StorCOMM common stock they own at the effective time of the merger (referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as the exchange rate). As a result of this exchange, StorCOMM shareholders will become CCA shareholders and StorCOMM will become a wholly owned subsidiary of CCA. StorCOMM shareholders will receive cash instead of fractional shares of CCA common stock. Each outstanding share of CCA common stock will remain unchanged in the merger.

Prior to the merger, StorCOMM option holders will be given the opportunity to cancel their existing StorCOMM options. Those StorCOMM option holders that elect to cancel their options will receive the same number of CCA options that they would have received had they exchanged their options in the merger, except that the CCA options they will receive will have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of CCA common stock on the date of grant and a two-year vesting schedule. At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding option that is not voluntarily cancelled prior to the merger (referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as assumed options) and all warrants to purchase shares of StorCOMM common stock will be assumed by CCA and converted into options or warrants to purchase shares of CCA common stock. The number of shares of CCA common stock subject to each assumed option and warrant will be determined on the same basis as the exchange rate applicable to all outstanding shares of StorCOMM common stock, and rounded to the nearest whole number (with no cash payable for any fractional share eliminated by such rounding). The exercise price of the assumed options or warrants will be equal to the exercise price per share under the original option or warrant divided by the exchange rate applicable to all outstanding shares of StorCOMM common stock, and rounded to the nearest whole cent. After adjusting the assumed options and warrants to reflect the application of the exchange rate and the assumptions by CCA, all other terms of the assumed options and warrants will remain unchanged.

Simultaneously with the closing of the merger, CCA will sell in a private placement up to 1,500,000 shares of its common stock and warrants to purchase up to 300,000 shares of its common stock. The shares of common stock and warrants will be sold in units, with each unit consisting of a single share of CCA common stock and 1/5 of a warrant to purchase one share of CCA common stock. The price per unit will be $2.00 for an aggregate purchase price of $3 million.

Assuming the merger had been completed as of September 15, 2005, CCA would have issued approximately 3,703,900 shares of common stock to the StorCOMM shareholders in the merger, on a fully diluted basis. Assuming further, the simultaneous sale of 1,500,000 units in the private placement immediately following the merger, StorCOMM shareholders would have owned approximately 40.4% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company and CCA shareholders would have owned approximately 40.4% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company, in both cases on a fully diluted basis, with the remainder owned by the investors in the private placement.

CCA common stock trades on the American Stock Exchange under the symbol CAP. Following the merger, CCA expects to change its trading symbol to APY following approval of the corporate name change to Aspyra, Inc., as described herein. On October 27, 2005, the closing price of CCA common stock, as reported by the American Stock Exchange, was $2.72. StorCOMM is a private company and there is currently no public market for its securities.

CCA is taking this opportunity to call and hold its 2005 annual meeting of shareholders. At the CCA annual meeting, CCA is submitting the merger-related proposals as well as several additional proposals for the consideration and approval of its shareholders. At the CCA annual meeting, shareholders will vote on the following issues: FIRST, the merger agreement and the issuance and reservation for issuance of shares of CCA common stock pursuant to the merger agreement, SECOND, the issuance and reservation for issuance of shares of CCA common stock and warrants to purchase shares of CCA common stock in a private placement pursuant to the Common Stock and Warrant Purchase Agreement, THIRD, the amendment to CCA's Articles of Incorporation to change the name of the company from Creative Computer Applications, Inc. to Aspyra, Inc., FOURTH, the adoption of the 2005 Equity Incentive Plan, FIFTH, the election of the director nominees named in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, SIXTH, the ratification of the appointment of BDO Seidman, LLP as CCA's Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2005, and SEVENTH, the adjournment of the annual meeting, if necessary, if a quorum is present, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposals.

StorCOMM has also scheduled a special meeting for its shareholders to vote on the merger-related proposals. At the StorCOMM special meeting, the shareholders will vote on the following issues: FIRST, the merger agreement and SECOND, the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, if a quorum is present, to solicit additional proxies in favor of Proposal No. 1.

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT. Whether or not you plan to attend your meeting, please take the time to vote by completing, signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card to us.

This document provides you with detailed information about the merger, the private placement, the non merger-related proposals of CCA and the meetings of CCA and StorCOMM. As described in the next few pages, you can also find more information about CCA from publicly available documents on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

We encourage you to read this entire joint proxy statement/prospectus carefully and we especially encourage you to read the section entitled Risk Factors beginning on page 15.

We enthusiastically support this combination, and we join with the members of our boards of directors in recommending that you vote FOR the merger agreement and the other proposals.
