Andrea Guerra, chief executive officer of Luxottica Group, commented: Fiscal year 2005 was an exceptional year for our Group, during which we enjoyed strong growth from both wholesale and retail operations, with sales for the year growing by 19.7% and 40.5%, respectively. In wholesale in particular, throughout the entire year we enjoyed significant additional growth in profitability thanks also to improved penetration in key markets. Cash flow generation(5) was another strong feature of our results for the year, at 440 million.

Edgar Filing: LUXOTTICA GROUP SPA - Form 6-K

In 2005, Luxottica Group successfully completed the operational integration of the former Cole National business, for which the cost synergies already realized in 2005 will contribute to additional improvements in profitability in the current year. As of the fourth quarter, we entered a new stage of the integration, during which we will focus on the future growth of the businesses, especially of the Pearle Vision retail brand.

In the fourth quarter, the Group continued to see particularly strong results from retail operations in North America, with overall performance and comparable store sales growth rates across the entire 5,300-store division above those of the premium retail sector in that market. Behind a robust quarter by LensCrafters thanks to a focus on sales of premium frames and products, Sunglass Hut posted the third quarter in a row of double-digit comparable sales growth, at nearly 12%, and a strong improvement in profitability.

For the fourth quarter, the Group's wholesale business experienced significant additional growth and improved profitability, with sales to third parties rising by 27.5 percent. Operating margin for the entire wholesale division for the quarter improved to 22.0 percent, while operating margin for the year rose by 190 bps to 23.2 percent. The performance of the wholesale business reflected the strength of Luxottica Group's brand portfolio, with yet again more growth from Ray-Ban. Our key luxury brands also posted a strong quarter, in particular Bvlgari, Chanel, Prada and Versace. Results from the October launch of the new Dolce & Gabbana collections were also extremely strong.

Results for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, reflected the impact of non-cash expenses for stock options(6) of 16.7 million.

Luxottica Group's net debt position on December 31, 2005, reflected significant improvement of 280.8 million to consolidated net outstanding debt of 1,435.2 million, compared with net outstanding debt of 1,716.0 million on December 31, 2004.

Forecast for fiscal year 2006

Edgar Filing: LUXOTTICA GROUP SPA - Form 6-K

Luxottica Group, based on a 1 = US$1.2444 average exchange rate for the full year, in line with the actual average exchange rate for fiscal year 2005, forecasts the following consolidated results for fiscal year 2006(7):

Sales of between 4.7 billion and 4.8 billion, or an increase of between 8 and 10 percent

Earnings per share of between 0.89 and 0.91 (earnings per ADS of between US$1.11 and US$1.13), or an increase of between 18 and 20 percent

Luxottica Group's consolidated results for the fourth quarter and fiscal year 2005 were approved today by its Board of Directors.

Notes :

- (1) Certain amounts of 2004 have been reclassified to conform to 2005 presentation
- (2) These consolidated adjusted amounts are a non-GAAP measurement. The company has included this measurement to give comparative information for the two periods discussed, aligning the consolidation periods of Cole National for both years 2004 and 2005. They reflect the consolidation of Cole National results for the whole year 2004 (as it is in 2005). This information does not purport to be indicative of the actual result that would have been achieved had the Cole National acquisition been completed as of January 1, 2004.

(3) EBITDA is the sum of Operating Income and Depreciation & Amortization

Note:

Luxottica Group uses certain measures of financial performance that exclude the impact of fluctuations in currency exchange rates in the translation of operating results into Euro. The Company believes that these adjusted financial measures provide useful information to both management and investors by allowing a comparison of operating performance on a consistent basis. In addition, since the Luxottica Group has historically reported such adjusted financial measures to the investment community, the Company believes that their inclusion provides consistency in its financial reporting. Further, these adjusted financial measures are one of the primary indicators management uses for planning and forecasting in future periods. Operating measures that assume constant exchange rates between the whole year 2005 and the whole year 2004 and the fourth quarter of 2005 and the fourth quarter of 2004 are calculated using for each currency the average exchange rate for the whole year and the three-month period ended December 31, 2004. Operating measures that exclude the impact of fluctuations in currency exchange rates are not measures of performance under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (U.S. GAAP). These non-GAAP measures are not meant to be considered in isolation or as a substitute for results prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP. In addition, Luxottica Group's method of calculating operating performance excluding the impact of changes in exchange rates may differ from methods used by other companies. See table above for a reconciliation of the operating measures excluding the impact of fluctuations in currency exchange rates to their most directly comparable U.S. GAAP financial measures. The adjusted financial measures should be used as a supplement to U.S. GAAP results to assist the reader in better understanding the operational performance of the Company.
