Item 8.01 Other Events.

On September 27, 2006, Tenet Healthcare Corporation issued a press release announcing that it had accepted a commitment from a group of banks led by Citigroup and Bank of America for a five-year, $800 million senior secured revolving credit facility. The new facility is expected to include standard terms and conditions for a secured, asset-backed credit facility. Final terms, including the rate of interest, and closing of the new credit facility are subject to customary covenants and documentation requirements. Tenet expects to complete and finalize the new credit facility by late October 2006. A copy of the press release is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1.
