Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On January 7, 2007, Forest Oil Corporation, a New York corporation (the Company), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), by and among the Company, MJCO Corporation, a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (Merger Sub), and The Houston Exploration Company (Houston Exploration), under which the Company has agreed to acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Houston Exploration (THX Common Stock). Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, which was unanimously approved by the Boards of Directors of both the Company and Houston Exploration, Merger Sub will merge with and into Houston Exploration with Houston Exploration continuing as the surviving corporation (Merger I), and immediately thereafter, Houston Exploration will merge with and into the Company, with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation (Merger II and, together with Merger I, the Merger).

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, the total consideration for the Merger is fixed. In the Merger, each issued and outstanding share of THX Common Stock will be converted into the right to receive (i) 0.84 shares of common stock of the Company, par value $0.10 per share (Company Common Stock), and (ii) $26.25 per share in cash, without interest. Stockholders of Houston Exploration will have the right to elect to receive Company Common Stock, cash or a combination of Company Common Stock and cash, subject to equalization so that each share of THX Common Stock receives consideration representing equal value and proration in the event either the Company Common Stock or cash component is oversubscribed. These adjustments, however, will not increase or decrease the total shares of Company Common Stock to be issued by the Company, estimated to total 23.6 million shares, or the total amount of cash to be paid by the Company, approximately $740 million. The Merger is structured to qualify as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, such that each Houston Exploration stockholder generally should be subject to U.S. federal income tax only on the cash, if any, it receives in the Merger (or, if less, the gain it realizes upon the exchange of its shares in the Merger).

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties and covenants by each of the parties. Among other things, during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the Merger, the parties agree (i) to conduct their respective businesses in the ordinary course and not to engage in certain types of activities and transactions, subject to certain exceptions, and (ii) not to solicit alternative transactions or enter into discussions concerning, or provide information in connection with, alternative transactions.

Completion of the Merger is conditioned upon: (1) approval by the shareholders of the Company of the issuance of additional shares of Company Common Stock and the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the stockholders of Houston Exploration, (2) applicable regulatory approvals, including the termination or expiration of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, (3) the effectiveness of a registration statement on Form S-4 relating to the Company Common Stock to be issued in the Merger and the approval of the listing of such shares on the New York Stock Exchange, (4) the absence of legal impediments prohibiting the transactions, and (5) other customary closing conditions. In addition, the Company's obligation to complete the Merger is subject to a limit on the number of shares of THX Common Stock for which demands for appraisal have not been withdrawn.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights, including, among others, if the Merger is not completed by September 30, 2007, for both the Company and Houston Exploration. In the event of a termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, the Company may be required to pay Houston Exploration a termination fee of $60 million, or Houston Exploration may be required to pay the Company a termination fee of $55 million. Further, if the Company's shareholders fail to approve the issuance of additional shares of Company Common Stock the Company must pay Houston Exploration $5 million to cover its expenses and Houston Exploration will be required to pay the Company $5 million to cover its expenses if the stockholders of Houston Exploration fail to adopt the Merger Agreement.

The foregoing descriptions of the Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached to this Current Report as Exhibit 2.1 and incorporated herein by reference. The Merger Agreement is filed herewith to provide investors with information regarding its terms and is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company or Houston Exploration. In particular, the assertions embodied in the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement are as of specified dates and were made only for purposes of such Merger Agreement, are solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed between the parties, including being qualified by information contained in disclosure letters exchanged by the parties in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement that may modify and create exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement were used for the purpose of allocating risk between the Company and Houston Exploration, rather than establishing matters as facts. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement as characterizations of the actual state of facts about the Company or Houston Exploration.

Voting Agreement

Concurrently with the execution of the Merger Agreement on January 7, 2007, the Company and Merger Sub entered into a voting agreement (Voting Agreement) with JANA Master Fund, Ltd. and JANA Piranha Master Fund, Ltd. (collectively, JANA). As of such date, JANA beneficially owned approximately 14.7% of the total issued and outstanding shares of THX Common Stock. During the term of the Voting Agreement, JANA has agreed to vote its shares of THX Common Stock in favor of the Merger and the adoption of the Merger Agreement and against any transaction that would impede or delay the Merger, and has granted the Company a proxy to vote its shares at any meeting of the stockholders of Houston Exploration convened to consider such matters. The Voting Agreement will terminate on the first to occur of certain dates, including the effective time of the Merger, the date Houston Exploration withdraws or adversely modifies or amends its approval of or recommendation to adopt the Merger Agreement or recommends another acquisition proposal as contemplated by the terms of the Merger Agreement, the date of any material amendment to the Merger Agreement that is adverse to Houston Exploration or its stockholders or waiver of a material condition to its obligation to close the Merger, or September 30, 2007.

In addition, JANA separately agreed with the Company not to propose any extraordinary transactions with the Company or to seek to influence the management or control of the Company for a period of one year following the Merger.

The foregoing description of the Voting Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Voting Agreement, which is attached to this Current Report as Exhibit 2.2 and incorporated by reference.
