1) UNANIMOUS RECOMMENDATION BY E*TRADE INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS

A committee of independent directors of E*TRADE Australia⁽⁵⁾ unanimously recommend that you accept the Offer in the absence of a superior proposal and subject to an independent expert concluding that the offer is fair and reasonable.

Each of these independent directors has said that he intends to accept this Offer for his own holdings of E*TRADE Shares on that basis.⁽⁶⁾

On 19 February 2007, E*TRADE Australia's Chairman, Mr Kerry Roxburgh said:

*Given the offer's premium to E*TRADE Australia's share price and particularly relative to historic share prices, it is a compelling offer. The committee of independent directors have concluded it is in the best interests of all shareholders and are pleased for shareholders to consider it.*

(5) The committee of independent directors of E*TRADE Australia comprises Kerry Roxburgh, Jim Dominguez, Ian Hunter and Brett Spork. The committee excludes John Harries and Geoff Cohen who were nominated to the E*TRADE Australia board by ANZ and are executives of ANZ, and Jarrett Lilien who was nominated by E*TRADE Financial Corporation.

(6) E*TRADE Australia's announcement to ASX dated 19 February 2007.

*Based on the great success we have already realised from our alliance, the integration of E*TRADE Australia and ANZ is a logical next step. (7)*

2) YOU WILL RECEIVE A SIGNIFICANT PREMIUM FOR YOUR E*TRADE SHARES OVER THE PRE-ANNOUNCEMENT SHARE PRICE

The $4.05 Offer price is well above where E*TRADE Shares have traded over the three years prior to the announcement of ANZ's Offer.(8)

(10) E*TRADE boss's unexpected exit fuels takeover talk, Australian Financial Review, 16 January 2007, page 14.

The $4.05 Offer price also represents a significant premium to the prices at which E*TRADE Shares have traded over the six months prior to the Offer announcement, notwithstanding that E*TRADE Shares have appreciated 63.0% during this time:

- 43.2% premium to the six month VWAP prior to announcement(11) (54.6% premium to the six month VWAP prior to speculation(12));
- 25.5% premium to the three month VWAP prior to announcement (39.4% premium to the three month VWAP prior to speculation); and
- 17.0% premium to the one month VWAP prior to announcement (30.2% premium to the one month VWAP prior to speculation).

Significant Offer Premium (11), (12)

(11) Pre-announcement VWAP calculated up until 16 February 2007, the last trading day prior to announcement on 19 February 2007.

(12) Pre-speculation VWAP calculated up until 15 January 2007, the last trading day prior to press takeover speculation as reported in E*TRADE boss's unexpected exit fuels takeover talk, Australian Financial Review, 16 January 2007, page 14.

3) YOU WILL RECEIVE SUBSTANTIAL VALUE FOR YOUR E*TRADE SHARES

The $4.05 Offer represents a significant Price/Earnings (P/E) multiple of E*TRADE Australia's earnings:

- 17.0x E*TRADE Australia's Basic Earnings Per Share (EPS) for the 12 months ended 31 December 2006, excluding non-recurring items;(13) and
- 24.5x E*TRADE Australia's EPS for the 12 months ended 31 December 2006, excluding non-recurring items and normalised to allow for the corporate tax rate.(14)

The relative P/E multiples implied by ANZ's Offer of $4.05 per share illustrate that shareholders will receive full value for their investment in E*TRADE Australia.(15) This is further emphasised when an adjustment is made to take account of the full corporate tax rate to which E*TRADE Australia is likely to be subject once tax losses have been fully utilised.

Relative P/E Multiples (13)(14)(15)

(13) Non-recurring items comprises a $3.6 million income tax benefit and $2.2 million of non-recurring costs for the six months ended 31 December 2006.

(14) E*TRADE Australia did not record any income tax expense for the year ended June 2006 due to accumulated tax losses. At 31 December 2006, E*TRADE Australia held a recognised deferred tax asset (DTA) of $3.8 million in respect of carry forward tax losses and net temporary differences. To the extent DTA on tax losses are utilised in the second half of financial year 2007, that amount will be reduced in the full year ending 30 June 2007. The tax normalised 2006 P/E multiple is based on E*TRADE Australia's net profit before tax (pre associates, amortisation and non-recurring items) for the 12 months ended 31 December 2006 of $24.2 million, taxed at 30%, plus associates (post tax) of $1.0 million, resulting in a tax normalised EPS of $0.17.

(15) P/E multiples based on share prices as at 16 February 2007. E*TRADE Financial Corporation EPS from 2006 annual report. S&P/ASX 300 Index P/E multiple is based on the average of broker analyst aggregate index company earnings estimates that could be identified around the time of the announcement, and have been calendarised to 31 December 2006 year end. Two broker analyst estimates have been used in the sample (dated 16 February 2007 and 19 February 2007 respectively), both of which infer P/E multiples of 16.0x.

4) E*TRADE AUSTRALIA WOULD BENEFIT FROM ADDITIONAL MANAGEMENT AND OPERATIONAL SUPPORT FOR FUTURE GROWTH

ANZ believes E*TRADE Australia's business would benefit from additional management and operational expertise and support to consolidate and build on its recent growth. ANZ can provide this, particularly given its transaction processing expertise.

5) IN THE ABSENCE OF ANZ'S OFFER, THE E*TRADE SHARE PRICE IS LIKELY TO FALL

E*TRADE Australia's share price has increased materially in the period immediately prior to the announcement of ANZ's Offer:

- More than 60% in the preceding six months; and
- 10.8% from the date prior to speculation about a possible takeover of E*TRADE Australia reported in the press on 16 January 2007.(16)

Following the announcement of ANZ's Offer, E*TRADE Shares have traded above the $4.05 Offer price.

(17) Street Talk, Australian Financial Review, 2 November 2006, page 28.

If ANZ's Offer does not proceed, and no other offers are made for E*TRADE Shares, you will continue to own your E*TRADE Shares and, in ANZ's view, it is likely that the trading price of E*TRADE Shares will fall.

ANZ currently holds a 34.2% shareholding in E*TRADE Australia and has strong links with E*TRADE Australia through customer relationships and its existing support for E*TRADE Australia's margin lending and cash management operations. No other party can acquire 100% of E*TRADE Australia without ANZ's support.

6) YOU WILL NOT INCUR ANY BROKERAGE BY ACCEPTING THE OFFER

E*TRADE Shareholders will not pay any brokerage charges (or GST on such brokerage charges) on accepting the Offer.

PART 3 FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

This section answers some commonly asked questions about the Offer. It is not intended to address all relevant issues for E*TRADE Australia shareholders. This section should be read together with all other parts of this Bidder's Statement.

Question

Answer

What is the Bidder's Statement?

The Bidder's Statement was prepared by ANZ Online for distribution to E*TRADE Australia shareholders. It sets out the terms of ANZ's Offer and information relating to ANZ's Offer and the consideration you will receive.

The Bidder's Statement is an important document. If you are in any doubt as to how to deal with this document, you should consult your broker or your legal, financial or other professional adviser as soon as possible.

Who is the Bidder?

The Bidder is ANZ Online Holdings Pty Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of ANZ.

Who is ANZ?

ANZ is one of four major Australian-based banking groups, and is headquartered in Melbourne. ANZ conducts its operations primarily in Australia and New Zealand. ANZ also operates across the Asian and Pacific regions, and in a number of other countries including the United Kingdom and the United States.

ANZ is E*TRADE Australia's largest shareholder with a 34.2% shareholding accumulated as part of a strategic alliance formed between ANZ and E*TRADE Australia in 1999.

What is ANZ's Offer for my E*TRADE Shares?

ANZ Online is offering $4.05 cash per share for all of your E*TRADE Shares.

What choices do I have as an E*TRADE Australia shareholder?

You have the following choices in respect of your E*TRADE Shares:

- accept ANZ's Offer of $4.05 per share; or

- sell your shares on ASX (unless you have previously accepted ANZ's Offer for your shares); or

- do nothing.

Question

Answer

What are the committee of independent directors of E*TRADE Australia recommending?

The committee of independent directors of E*TRADE Australia recommends that you accept the Offer, in the absence of a superior proposal and subject to an independent expert concluding that ANZ's Offer is fair and reasonable. The committee of independent directors comprises Kerry Roxburgh, Jim Dominguez, Ian Hunter and Brett Spork.

Each of these directors has said that he intends to accept the Offer in respect of his E*TRADE Shares, in the absence of a superior proposal and subject to an independent expert concluding that ANZ's Offer is fair and reasonable.

Why is an independent expert's report required?

An independent expert's report is required where a bidder is entitled to not less than 30% of the target company's voting shares.

Due to ANZ's existing 34.2% holding in E*TRADE Australia, an independent expert's report must accompany E*TRADE Australia's target's statement.

When will E*TRADE Australia shareholders receive the independent expert's report?

The independent expert's report will accompany the target's statement and be mailed to all E*TRADE Australia shareholders. ANZ expects that you will receive the target's statement within approximately two weeks after you receive this Offer.

How do I accept the Offer?

Details of how to accept the Offer are set out in clause 3 of the Bidder's Statement.

Can I accept the Offer for part of my shareholding?

No. You cannot accept for part of your shareholding. You may only accept the Offer for all of your E*TRADE Shares.

When does the Offer close?

The Offer is scheduled to close at 7.00pm (Melbourne time) on [date], unless extended.

See clause 8 for details of the circumstances in which the Offer Period can be extended.

Will I pay brokerage if I accept the Offer?

No. However, you may incur brokerage costs and GST on those costs if you choose to sell your E*TRADE Shares on ASX.

Can I withdraw my acceptance?

Under the terms of the Offer, you cannot withdraw your acceptance unless a withdrawal right arises

Question

Answer

under the Corporations Act.

Such a withdrawal right will arise if, after you have accepted the Offer, ANZ Online varies the Offer in a way that postpones, for more than one month, the time when ANZ Online has to meet its obligations under the Offer, and the Offer is still conditional at that time.

When will I be paid if I accept the Offer?

If you accept the Offer, you will be paid your consideration on the earlier of:

- one month after the later of the date you accept the Offer or the date that the Offer becomes or is declared unconditional; or
- 21 days after the end of the Offer Period, provided that the Offer has become unconditional. However, there are certain exceptions to the above timetable for payment. See clause 6 of the Bidder's Statement for further information.

What are the conditions to the Offer?

A full list of conditions is set out in clause 5 of the Bidder's Statement.

What happens if the conditions of the Offer are not satisfied or waived?

If the conditions of the Offer are not satisfied or waived before the Offer closes, the Offer will lapse.

ANZ Online will make an announcement to ASX if the conditions of the Offer are satisfied or waived during the Offer Period.

Question

Answer

What happens if I do not accept the Offer?

Subject to what is stated below, you will remain the holder of your E*TRADE Shares if you do not accept the Offer.

If ANZ Online (and its associates) acquire 90% of E*TRADE Shares and the other conditions of the Offer are satisfied or waived, it intends to compulsorily acquire your E*TRADE Shares under the compulsory acquisition provisions of the Corporations Act.

Under compulsory acquisition, you will be provided the Offer consideration of $4.05 cash per E*TRADE Share at the conclusion of this process. You will receive the Offer consideration sooner if you accept the Offer during the Offer period.

Will E*TRADE Australia remain listed on ASX?

If ANZ Online (and its associates) acquire 90% or more of E*TRADE Shares before or at the end of the Offer Period and the other conditions of ANZ's Offer are satisfied or waived, it intends to proceed to compulsory acquisition of the remaining E*TRADE Shares under the Corporations Act. E*TRADE Shares will then be removed from quotation on ASX and E*TRADE Australia will cease to be listed on ASX.

What are the tax implications of accepting the Offer?

A general outline of the tax implications of accepting the Offer for Australian resident E*TRADE Australia shareholders is set out in Part 6 of this Bidder's Statement.

As the outline is a general guide only, shareholders are encouraged to seek their own specific professional advice as to the taxation implications applicable to their circumstances.

Is there a number that I can call if I have further queries in relation to the Offer?

You can call ANZ's Offer Information Line on 1300 301 126 (within Australia) or +61 2 9936 1977 (outside Australia) between 9:00am and 5:00pm (Melbourne time), Monday to Friday.

As required by the Corporations Act, all calls to ANZ's Offer Information Line will be recorded.

If, within the last seven days of the Offer Period:

- (a) ANZ Online varies the Offers to improve the consideration offered;

- (c) ANZ Online's voting power in E*TRADE Australia increases to more than 50%,

section 624(2) of the Corporations Act will apply to extend the Offer Period so that it ends 14 days after that event.

This will authorise ANZ Online to instruct your Controlling Participant (usually your broker) to initiate acceptance of this Offer on your behalf. For return of the Transfer and Acceptance Form to be an effective acceptance of the Offer, you must ensure it is received by ANZ Online in time for ANZ Online to give instructions to your Controlling Participant, and your Controlling Participant to carry out those instructions, before the end of the Offer Period.

If you are a Participant, you must initiate acceptance of this Offer under rule 14.14 of the ASTC Settlement Rules, so as to be effective before the end of the Offer Period.

It is your sole responsibility to satisfy yourself that you are permitted by any Foreign Law applicable to you to accept this Offer.

4. YOUR AGREEMENT RESULTING FROM ACCEPTANCE

4.1 Effect of Transfer and Acceptance Form

4.2 Your agreement

By signing and returning the Transfer and Acceptance Form or initiating or causing acceptance of this Offer under the ASTC Settlement Rules in accordance with clause 3:

- (a) you accept this Offer in respect of all of your E*TRADE Shares registered as held by you at the date your acceptance is processed (despite any difference between that number and the number of E*TRADE Shares specified in the Transfer and Acceptance Form);
- (b) you represent and warrant to ANZ Online that all your E*TRADE Shares will at the time of your acceptance of this Offer and of transfer to ANZ Online be fully paid up and that ANZ Online will acquire good title to and beneficial ownership of them free from Encumbrances;

 - (i) attend and vote in respect of your E*TRADE Shares at all general meetings of E*TRADE Australia; and
 - (ii) execute all forms, notices, documents (including a document appointing a director of ANZ Online as a proxy for any of your E*TRADE Shares) and resolutions relating to your E*TRADE Shares and generally to exercise all powers and rights which you have as the registered holder of your E*TRADE Shares;

- (g) if and when the contract resulting from your acceptance of this Offer becomes unconditional (even though ANZ Online has not yet paid or provided the consideration due to you), you authorise ANZ Online to transmit a message to ASTC in accordance with rule 14.17.1 of the ASTC Settlement Rules so as to enter those of your E*TRADE Shares which are in a CHES Holding into ANZ Online's Takeover Transferee Holding; and

(h) you agree to indemnify ANZ Online (and each of its directors, officers and agents) in respect of any claim or action against it or any loss, damage or liability whatsoever incurred by it as a result of you not producing your Holder Identification Number (or HIN) or Securityholder Reference Number (or SRN) or in consequence of the transfer of your E*TRADE Shares being registered by ANZ Online without production of your Holder Identification Number or Securityholder Reference Number.

4.3 Powers of attorney

If the Transfer and Acceptance Form is signed under power of attorney, the attorney declares that the attorney has no notice of revocation of the power and is empowered to delegate powers under the power of attorney under clause 4.1 and paragraphs (d) and (g) of clause 4.2.

4.4 Validation of otherwise ineffective acceptances

Except for E*TRADE Shares in a CHES Holding, ANZ Online may treat the receipt by it of a signed Transfer and Acceptance Form as a valid acceptance of this Offer even though it does not receive the other documents required by the instructions on the Transfer and Acceptance Form or there is not compliance with any one or more of the other requirements for acceptance. If ANZ Online does treat such a Transfer and Acceptance Form as valid, subject to clause 6, ANZ Online will not be obliged to give the consideration to you until ANZ Online receives all those documents and all of the requirements for acceptance referred to in clause 3.3 and in the Transfer and Acceptance Form have been met.

5. DEFEATING CONDITIONS

5.1 Defeating Conditions of this Offer

This Offer and the contract resulting from acceptance of this Offer are subject to the fulfilment of the following Defeating Conditions:

(a) Minimum acceptance condition

During, or at the end of, the Offer Period, the number of E*TRADE Shares in which ANZ Online and its associates together have relevant interests (disregarding any relevant interest that ANZ Online has merely because of the operation of section 608(3) of the Corporations Act) is at least 90% of all the E*TRADE Shares (even if that number later becomes less than 90% of all the E*TRADE Shares as a result of the issue of further E*TRADE Shares).

(b) No action by Public Authority adversely affecting ANZ's Offer

During the period from and including the Announcement Date to the end of the Offer Period:

(i) there is not in effect any preliminary or final decision, order or decree issued by a Public Authority;

15

- (ii) no action or investigation is instituted, or threatened by any Public Authority; and
- (iii) no application is made to any Public Authority (other than an application by ANZ Online or any company within the ANZ Group), in consequence of, or in connection with, the Offer, which restrains, prohibits or impedes, or threatens to restrain, prohibit or impede, or may otherwise materially adversely impact upon, the making of the Offer, the acquisition of E*TRADE Shares under the Offer or the rights of ANZ Online in respect of E*TRADE Australia and the E*TRADE Shares to be acquired under the Offer or otherwise, or seeks to require the divestiture by ANZ Online (or ANZ) of any E*TRADE Shares, or the divestiture of any assets by a member of the E*TRADE Australia Group or the ANZ Group.

(c) E*TRADE Licence

Before the end of the Offer Period, E*TRADE Financial Corporation (formerly, E*TRADE Group Inc.):

- (i) does not exercise or give notice that it intends to exercise its right to terminate the E*TRADE Licence without cause; and
- (ii) provides to each of ETRADE Australia Securities Limited and E*TRADE Australia an enforceable and irrevocable waiver of its right to terminate the E*TRADE Licence without cause which is conditional only on:
 - (A) each of ETRADE Australia Securities Limited and E*TRADE Australia providing a reciprocal waiver of their right to terminate the E*TRADE Licence without cause (including subject to the condition referred to in sub-subparagraph (B) below); and
 - (B) the Offer becoming unconditional.

(d) No material adverse change

During the period from and including the Announcement Date to the end of the Offer Period:

- (i) there is no occurrence or matter, including (without limitation):
 - (A) any change in the status or terms of arrangements entered into with E*TRADE Australia or any of its subsidiaries or the status or terms of any licences, authorities, consents, approvals, orders, waivers, relief, rulings and decisions which are applicable to E*TRADE Australia or any of its subsidiaries (whether or not wholly or partly attributable to the making of the Offer, and/or the acquisition of E*TRADE Shares under the Offer);
 - (B) any liability for duty or tax;

(C) any liability resulting from a change of control of E*TRADE Australia; and

(D) any change in the law (whether retrospective or not),

that is not apparent from information available to ANZ as at the Announcement Date and that (individually or together with others) has or could reasonably be expected to have a materially adverse effect on the assets, liabilities, financial or trading position, profitability or prospects of E*TRADE Australia and its subsidiaries taken as a whole; and

(ii) no occurrence or matter of the type referred to in clause 5.1(d)(i), which occurred before the Announcement Date but was not apparent from publicly available information before then, becomes public.

An occurrence or matter that has or could reasonably be expected to have the effect of reducing:

(1) the consolidated net profit after tax of the E*TRADE Australia Group on an on-going basis by more than $2.0 million; or

(2) the consolidated net assets of the E*TRADE Australia Group by $10 million or more, is deemed to be an occurrence or matter of the type referred to in clause 5.1(d)(i).

5.2 Separate Defeating Conditions for benefit of ANZ Online

Each of the Defeating Conditions set out in each paragraph, subparagraph and sub-subparagraph of clause 5.1:

- (a) is and must be construed as a separate Defeating Condition; and
- (b) subject to the Corporations Act, operates only for the benefit of ANZ Online and any breach or non-fulfilment of such condition may be relied upon only by ANZ Online which may waive (generally or in respect of a particular event) the breach or non-fulfilment of that condition.

5.3 Nature of Defeating Conditions

None of the Defeating Conditions prevents a contract to sell your E*TRADE Shares resulting from your acceptance of this Offer but:

- (a) breach of any of the Defeating Conditions entitles ANZ Online to rescind that contract by notice to you; and
- (b) non fulfilment of any of the Defeating Conditions at the end of the Offer Period will have the consequences set out in clause 5.6.

5.4 Notice declaring Offer free of Defeating Conditions

Subject to the Corporations Act, ANZ Online may declare this Offer and any contract resulting from acceptance of this Offer free from any of the Defeating Conditions by giving written notice to E*TRADE Australia:

- (a) in the case of the Defeating Conditions in clause 5.1(f)(i), not later than three business days after the end of the Offer Period; and
- (b) in the case of all other Defeating Conditions, not less than seven days before the last day of the Offer Period.

5.5 Notice publication date

The date for giving the notice on the status of the Defeating Conditions is [date leave blank when bidder's statement is lodged] (subject to extension in accordance with the Corporations Act if the Offer Period is extended under the Corporations Act).

5.6 Contract void if Defeating Conditions not fulfilled

Your acceptance or the contract resulting from your acceptance of this Offer is void if:

- (a) at the end of the Offer Period any of the Defeating Conditions in clause 5.1 is not fulfilled; and
- (b) ANZ Online has not declared this Offer and any contract resulting from the acceptance of it free of that Defeating Condition in accordance with clause 5.4.

6. PAYMENT OF CONSIDERATION

6.1 When you will receive payment

Subject to this clause 6, if you accept this Offer ANZ Online will pay you the consideration for your E*TRADE Shares on or before the earlier of:

- (a) the day one month after you accept this Offer or, if this Offer is subject to a Defeating Condition when accepted, one month after the contract resulting from your acceptance becomes unconditional; and
- (b) the day 21 days after the end of the Offer Period.

6.2 Transfer and Acceptance Form requires additional documents

Where documents are required to be given to ANZ Online with your acceptance to enable ANZ Online to become the holder of your E*TRADE Shares (such as a power of attorney):

- (a) if the documents are given with your acceptance, ANZ Online will pay you in accordance with clause 6.1;
- (b) if the documents are given after your acceptance and before the end of the Offer Period while the Offer is subject to a Defeating Condition, ANZ Online will pay you the consideration by the end of whichever of the following periods ends first:
 - (i) one month after the contract resulting from your acceptance becomes unconditional; and
 - (ii) 21 days after the end of the Offer Period;
- (c) if the documents are given after your acceptance and before the end of the Offer Period while the Offer is no longer subject to a Defeating Condition, ANZ Online will pay you the consideration by the end of whichever of the following periods ends first:
 - (i) one month after ANZ Online is given the documents; and
 - (ii) 21 days after the end of the Offer Period; or
- (d) if the documents are given after the end of the Offer Period, ANZ Online will pay you the consideration within 21 days after the documents are given. However, if at the time ANZ Online is given the documents the contract resulting from acceptance of the Offer is still subject to a Defeating Condition in clause 5.1(f)(i), ANZ Online will pay you the consideration within 21 days after the contract becomes unconditional.

6.3 ANZ Online may set off share scheme debts

If you owe a debt to E*TRADE Australia, or any other person, under the terms of an employee or director incentive scheme, ANZ Online may satisfy its obligations under this Offer by paying as much of the consideration as is required to discharge that debt to

E*TRADE Australia (or the other person to whom it is owed) and paying you any remaining consideration.

6.4 Delivery of consideration

Subject to the Corporations Act, ANZ Online will send cheques for the cash payment due to you at your risk by pre-paid ordinary mail, or in the case of an address outside Australia by airmail, to the address shown in the Transfer and Acceptance Form.

6.5 Return of documents

If this Offer does not become unconditional or any contract arising from this Offer is rescinded by ANZ Online on the grounds of a breach of a condition of that contract, ANZ Online will return by post to you at the address shown on the Transfer and Acceptance Form any Transfer and Acceptance Form and any other documents sent with it by you.

6.6 Rights

If ANZ Online becomes entitled to any Rights as a result of your acceptance of this Offer, it may require you to give to ANZ Online all documents necessary to vest title to those Rights in ANZ Online. If you do not give those documents to ANZ Online, or if you have received or are entitled to receive (or any previous holder of your E*TRADE Shares has received or is entitled to receive) the benefit of those Rights, ANZ Online may deduct the amount (or value as reasonably assessed by ANZ Online) of such Rights from any consideration otherwise payable to you. If ANZ Online does not, or cannot, make such a deduction, you must pay that amount to ANZ Online.

6.7 Clearances for offshore residents and others

(a) If at the time you accept the Offer or any consideration would otherwise become payable to you as a result of your acceptance of this Offer:

(i) any authority or clearance of the Reserve Bank of Australia or the Australian Tax Office is required for you to receive any consideration under this Offer; or

(ii) you are resident of a place to which, or you are a person to whom, any other law of Australia or elsewhere would make it unlawful for ANZ Online to provide consideration for your E*TRADE Shares,

then your acceptance of this Offer does not create or transfer to you any right to receive the consideration specified in this Offer unless and until you obtain all requisite authorities or clearances and your E*TRADE Shares are free from Encumbrances. (See clause 16.8 of this Bidder's Statement for information as to whether this restriction applies to you.)

(b) If at the time you accept the Offer or any consideration would otherwise become payable to you as a result of your acceptance of this Offer, your E*TRADE Shares are subject to a notice of the kind described in paragraph (b) of the definition of Encumbrance (defined in clause 18), then the consideration to which you would otherwise be entitled will be dealt with as required by law, and payment of it to a person (including a Government Agency) in accordance with the law shall satisfy ANZ Online's obligations under this Offer.

6.8 Costs

ANZ Online will pay all costs and expenses of the preparation and circulation of the Offer payable on the transfer of any E*TRADE Shares to ANZ Online.

7. OFFEREES

7.1 Registered holders

ANZ Online is making an offer in the form of this Offer to each holder of E*TRADE Shares registered in the register of members of E*TRADE Australia at the Register Date.

7.2 Transferees

This Offer extends to any person who is able during the Offer Period to give good title to a parcel of your E*TRADE Shares. That person may accept as if an Offer on terms identical to this Offer had been made to them for those E*TRADE Shares.

7.3 Trustees and nominees

If during the Offer Period and before you accept this Offer your E*TRADE Shares consist of two or more separate parcels within the meaning of section 653B of the Corporations Act (for example, because you are a trustee or nominee for several distinct beneficial owners), section 653B of the Corporations Act will apply so that:

- (a) ANZ Online is taken to have made a separate Offer to you for each separate parcel of E*TRADE Shares; and
- (b) acceptance by you of the Offer for any distinct parcel of E*TRADE Shares is ineffective unless:
 - (i) you give ANZ Online notice in accordance with clause 7.4 stating that your E*TRADE Shares consist of separate parcels; and
 - (ii) your acceptance specifies the number of E*TRADE Shares in each separate parcel to which the acceptance relates.

7.4 Notices by Trustees and Nominees

- (a) if it relates to E*TRADE Shares not in a CHES Holding, must be in writing; or
- (b) if it relates to E*TRADE Shares in a CHES Holding, must be in an electronic form approved under the ASTC Settlement Rules for the purposes of Part 6.8 of the Corporations Act.

10.2 ANZ

ANZ is one of four major Australian-based banking groups, and is headquartered in Melbourne. As at 30 September 2006, ANZ was ranked third among Australian banking groups in terms of total assets ($336 billion), shareholders' equity ($19.9 billion) and market capitalisation ($49 billion).

ANZ conducts its operations primarily in Australia and New Zealand (approximately 94% of ANZ's total assets at 30 September 2006 were related to these operations). The remainder of ANZ's operations are conducted across the Asian and Pacific regions, and in a number of other countries including the United Kingdom and the United States. At 30 September 2006, ANZ had 1,265 branches and other points of representation worldwide and employed in excess of 32,000 people.

10.3 Where to find further information about ANZ

Further information about ANZ can be found at www.anz.com.

In addition, information on ANZ can be found on ASX's website at www.asx.com.au.

These websites do not form part of this Bidder's Statement.

11. REASONS FOR THE ACQUISITION

ANZ is E*TRADE Australia's largest shareholder with a 34.2% shareholding accumulated as part of a strategic alliance formed between ANZ and E*TRADE Australia in 1999. ANZ believes that E*TRADE Australia would benefit from additional management and operational expertise and support to consolidate and build on its recent growth. ANZ can provide this. A closer relationship through an increased shareholding in E*TRADE Australia is the logical next step. The acquisition would further ANZ's strategy to be a leader in personal financial services in Australia including accelerating growth in convenient and simple wealth management and investment services.

12. ANZ'S INTENTIONS

12.1 Overview

This clause 12 sets out ANZ's current intentions in respect of the businesses, assets and employees of E*TRADE Australia. These intentions are based on the facts and information concerning E*TRADE Australia which are known to ANZ at the date of this Bidder's Statement. ANZ's intentions may change as new information becomes available to ANZ or circumstances change.

ANZ Online's intentions are identical to the intentions of ANZ as set out in this clause.

12.2 Compulsory acquisition

If ANZ Online becomes entitled to compulsorily acquire outstanding E*TRADE Shares under Part 6A of the Corporations Act, ANZ Online presently intends to proceed with compulsory acquisition of those E*TRADE Shares. ANZ Online then intends to procure that E*TRADE Australia is removed from the official list of the ASX.

12.3 Intentions for E*TRADE Australia as a wholly-owned subsidiary

The intentions of ANZ if E*TRADE Australia becomes a wholly-owned subsidiary of ANZ are set out in this clause 12.3.

ANZ intends to grow and enhance E*TRADE Australia's business as part of ANZ's broader personal wealth management and investments strategy. Accordingly, ANZ intends to operate E*TRADE Australia as a discrete business stream within ANZ's Personal Division. ANZ intends that E*TRADE Australia will be headquartered in Sydney, at least in the medium term.

At the end of the Offer Period, ANZ will conduct a review of E*TRADE Australia's assets, operations and strategy in light of the more detailed information then available to it, and will formulate more detailed plans at this time. ANZ expects its review will focus on the risks and returns of each of E*TRADE Australia's business streams and, in particular:

- (a) opportunities to offer an expanded product range to new and existing customers of E*TRADE Australia;
- (b) opportunities to enhance customer service levels, including through improving the infrastructure underlying E*TRADE Australia's information technology platform; and
- (c) the most appropriate means of providing ANZ support for some E*TRADE Australia central functions such as human resources, finance, compliance and risk.

With the benefit of its planned internal review of E*TRADE Australia, ANZ will consider the best allocation of E*TRADE Australia and ANZ employees to continuing and new roles. Given ANZ's intention to enhance the product and service offering to E*TRADE Australia clients, ANZ expects opportunities will be presented for both E*TRADE Australia and ANZ staff.

ANZ expects that there will be few, if any, redundancies of E*TRADE Australia's staff. To the extent that redundancies occur and alternative roles cannot be found within ANZ's wider operations, ANZ intends to ensure that the affected employees will receive benefits in accordance with their contractual and other legal entitlements.

12.4 Intentions for E*TRADE Australia if it is controlled by ANZ

This clause 12.4 sets out ANZ's intentions if, following the close of ANZ's Offer, E*TRADE Australia becomes a controlled entity, but not a wholly-owned subsidiary, of ANZ. In these circumstances, ANZ presently intends to:

27

- (a) replace members of the board of directors of E*TRADE Australia with nominees of ANZ, so that the number of ANZ's nominees is at least proportionate to ANZ Group's holding of E*TRADE Shares;
- (b) if appropriate and consistent with the ASX listing rules, consider seeking the delisting of E*TRADE Australia from the ASX;
- (c) through its nominees on the board of directors of E*TRADE Australia, consider an appropriate dividend policy for E*TRADE Australia; and
- (d) otherwise seek to implement, to the extent possible and appropriate, the intentions described in clause 12.3 above.

The extent to which ANZ will be able to implement these intentions will be subject to:

- the law and the ASX listing rules, in particular in relation to related party transactions and conflicts of interests;
- the legal obligations of the directors of E*TRADE Australia to act for proper purposes and in the best interests of E*TRADE Australia shareholders as a whole; and
- the outcome of the strategic review referred to in clause 12.3 above.

Any transactions between members of the ANZ Group and the E*TRADE Australia Group required to effect those steps will be entered into on arm's length terms. ANZ will seek any necessary approval of other E*TRADE Australia shareholders, as required by law or the ASX listing rules, to implement these steps.

If ANZ becomes entitled at some later time to exercise general compulsory acquisition rights under the Corporations Act, it may exercise those rights.

12.5 Other intentions

Subject to the above it is the present intention of ANZ, on the basis of the facts and information concerning E*TRADE Australia which are known to it and the existing circumstances affecting the business of E*TRADE Australia, that:

- (a) the business of E*TRADE Australia will otherwise be continued in substantially the same manner as it is presently being conducted;
- (b) no other major changes will be made to the business of E*TRADE Australia and there will not be any other redeployment of the fixed assets of E*TRADE Australia; and
- (c) the present employees of E*TRADE Australia will otherwise continue to be employed by E*TRADE Australia.

13. SOURCES OF CASH CONSIDERATION

The total amount that ANZ Online would be required to pay for E*TRADE Shares if ANZ Online acquires all of the E*TRADE Shares in which it (or its associates) do not already have a relevant interest is $268 million.

ANZ Online will fund the cash consideration payable to E*TRADE Australia shareholders using cash provided to it by a member or members of the ANZ Group. ANZ has unconditionally and irrevocably agreed with ANZ Online to ensure that sufficient funds are provided to ANZ Online to enable ANZ Online to meet its payment obligations under the Offer. These funds will be sourced by ANZ from immediately available cash resources of ANZ. ANZ's immediately available cash resources are in excess of the amount required to fully fund the maximum amount of cash consideration that ANZ Online could be required to pay for E*TRADE Shares under the Offer.

PART 6 AUSTRALIAN TAX CONSIDERATIONS

14. TAXATION CONSIDERATIONS

14.1 Australian tax implications for E*TRADE Australia shareholders

The following is a general description of the Australian income and capital gains tax consequences for E*TRADE Australia shareholders (other than temporary residents) on disposing of their E*TRADE Shares, in return for cash.

It is based upon taxation law and practice in effect at the date of this Bidder's Statement. It is not intended to be an authoritative or complete analysis of the taxation laws of Australia, as they apply to the specific circumstances of any particular shareholder.

You are advised to seek independent professional advice regarding the Australian tax consequences of disposing of your E*TRADE Shares according to your own particular circumstances.

14.2 Shareholders who are Australian residents

(a) Disposal of shares held as trading stock

If you hold your E*TRADE Shares as trading stock (e.g. as a share trader), you will be required to include the value of the consideration from the disposal of your E*TRADE Shares (i.e. the cash received) in your assessable income.

(b) Disposal of shares otherwise held on revenue account

If you hold your E*TRADE Shares in the ordinary course of a business, or as part of another profit-making arrangement, such that the shares are held on revenue account but not as trading stock (e.g. banks, insurance companies and some investment companies), you will be required to treat any gain or loss arising on the disposal of your E*TRADE Shares as either assessable income or an allowable deduction.

The gain or loss will be calculated as the difference between:

- (i) the value of the consideration (the cash received); and
- (ii) the cost of acquiring your E*TRADE Shares (or other appropriate value where the shares are trading stock).

A deductible loss may be used to offset other assessable income, including net capital gains, derived in the same or subsequent years of income (subject to satisfying certain conditions) but cannot be carried back to offset assessable income, including net capital gains, derived in earlier income years.

(c) Disposal of shares held as capital investments

The disposal of E*TRADE Shares which were acquired or deemed to have been acquired on or after 20 September 1985 and which are held as capital investments, will generally have Australian capital gains tax (CGT) implications. The disposal of such E*TRADE Shares pursuant to acceptance of the Offer will constitute a CGT event for CGT purposes.

The CGT implications of a disposal of your E*TRADE Shares will depend upon a number of factors, including:

- the date your E*TRADE Shares were acquired;
- your taxpayer status; and
- the length of time you have held your E*TRADE Shares.

(i) Shares acquired before 11:45am on 21 September 1999

If your E*TRADE Shares were acquired on or after 20 September 1985 a capital gain or loss will arise depending on the difference between:

- the value of the capital proceeds (the cash received); and
- the cost base of the E*TRADE Shares (which would generally include the amount paid to acquire the shares plus any incidental costs of acquisition, e.g. brokerage fees).

If your E*TRADE Shares were acquired before 11:45am by legal time in the Australian Capital Territory (ACT time) on 21 September 1999, for the purpose of calculating a capital gain (but not a capital loss), you may choose that the cost base of those shares be indexed for inflation to the September quarter of 1999 (which would only be of any practical effect if the shares were acquired before 1 July 1999).

Alternatively, provided you have held your E*TRADE Shares for at least one year, and do not choose to apply indexation, the discount capital gain provisions may apply. This means that:

- if you are an individual, only one-half of the capital gain (without any allowance for indexation for inflation in the cost base of the shares) will be taxable;
- if you are a complying superannuation entity, only two-thirds of the capital gain (without any allowance for indexation for inflation in the cost base of the shares) will be taxable; or
- if you are the trustee of a trust, the discount capital gains provisions may also apply to a distribution of the capital gain to beneficiaries in the trust (other than beneficiaries that are companies).

Note that the discount capital gain provisions do not apply to shareholders and trust beneficiaries that are companies.

The choice to apply indexation rather than the discount capital gain provisions must be made by you on or before the day you lodge your income tax return for the income year in which the disposal occurs.

A capital loss may be used to offset capital gains derived in the same or subsequent years of income (subject to satisfying certain conditions) but cannot be offset against ordinary income, nor carried back to offset net capital gains arising in earlier income years.

If you choose to use the discount capital gain method, any available capital loss will be applied to reduce the realised nominal gain before discounting the resulting net amount (to the extent that it does not exceed the discount capital gain) by either one-half or one-third (as applicable) to calculate the assessable capital gain. Alternatively, if you choose the indexation option, capital losses are applied after calculating the capital gain using the indexed cost base.

(ii) Shares acquired after 11:45am on 21 September 1999

If you acquired your E*TRADE Shares after 11:45 am (ACT time) on 21 September 1999 you will not be entitled to choose indexation of the cost base when calculating any capital gain on disposal.

If you are an individual, trust or complying superannuation entity that has held your E*TRADE Shares for 12 months or longer at the time the Offer is accepted, the discount capital gain provisions described above will automatically apply in calculating any capital gain on disposal.

As explained above, any available capital loss will be applied to reduce the realised nominal gain before discounting the resulting net amount (to the extent that it does not exceed the discount capital gain) by either one-half or one-third (as applicable) to calculate the assessable capital gain.

If your E*TRADE Shares have been held for less than 12 months or you are in another category of shareholder (for example, a company), the discount capital gain method is not available. A capital gain on the shares, being any excess of the value of the capital proceeds over the unindexed cost base of the shares, will be assessable in full.

(iii) Shares acquired before 20 September 1985

There should be no CGT implications arising on disposal of your E*TRADE Shares, where they were held as capital investments and acquired, or deemed to have been acquired, before 20 September 1985 and are not deemed to have been acquired on or after that date.

14.3 Shareholders who are not Australian residents

(a) Disposal of shares held as trading stock or otherwise on revenue account

Non residents who hold their E*TRADE Shares as trading stock, or otherwise on revenue account, should seek their own professional advice, as the Australian taxation treatment may depend on the source of any gain and whether a double tax agreement exists between their country of residence and Australia.

(b) Disposal of shares held as capital investments

If you are a non-resident of Australia and hold your E*TRADE Shares as capital investments you will only have a taxable capital gain or capital loss in Australia if you have used your E*TRADE Shares at any time in carrying on business through an Australian permanent establishment.

If you are a resident of a country with which Australia has a double tax agreement, you should seek your own professional advice as to the impact of the agreement on any Australian tax liability.

14.4 Shareholders who are participants in employee share or option plans

The Australian tax implications for participants in E*TRADE Australia's employee share plans may be different from those for other holders of E*TRADE Shares. Each participant in such a plan should seek specific tax advice in relation to the Offer.

14.5 GST

No GST should generally be payable in respect of the transfer of E*TRADE Shares.

There may be an indirect GST cost in relation to taxable supplies related to the Offer (for example legal and other adviser fees paid to obtain advice on whether to accept the Offer).

15.4 Acquisition by ANZ Online of E*TRADE Shares during previous 4 months

Neither ANZ Online nor any associate of ANZ Online has provided, or agreed to provide, consideration for an E*TRADE Australia Share under a purchase or agreement during the four months before the date of this Bidder's Statement or in the period commencing on the date of this Bidder's Statement and ending on the date of the Offer.

15.5 Inducing benefits given by ANZ Online during previous 4 months

Neither ANZ Online nor any associate of ANZ Online, gave, or offered to give or agreed to give, during four months before the date of this Bidder's Statement or in the period

commencing on the date of this Bidder's Statement and ending on the date of the Offer a benefit to another person that is not available under ANZ's Offer and was likely to induce the other person, or an associate of the other person, to:

- (a) accept an Offer; or
- (b) dispose of E*TRADE Shares.

16. OTHER MATERIAL INFORMATION

16.1 Defeating Conditions

The conditions of the Offer are set out in clause 5.1. Further information on some of these conditions is set out below.

(a) Minimum acceptance condition

The Offer is subject to a 90% minimum acceptance condition (see paragraph (a) of clause 5.1). ANZ Online will not waive this condition unless it considers that it is in ANZ's best interests to do so at the relevant time.

(b) No adverse regulatory action

The Offer is subject to certain regulatory action not being taken (see paragraph (b) of clause 5.1).

ANZ Online is not presently aware of any particular regulatory action which has triggered or may trigger the condition in clause 5.1(b).

(c) E*TRADE Licence

Under the E*TRADE Licence, both E*TRADE Australia and E*TRADE Financial Corporation have the right to terminate the E*TRADE Licence, without cause, on three months' notice and payment of a termination fee of US$5 million. Given ANZ's intention to continue E*TRADE Australia's business in Australia under that name, the Offer is subject to E*TRADE Financial Corporation not exercising, and waiving, its right to terminate the E*TRADE Licence without cause (see paragraph (c) of clause 5.1).

(d) No material acquisitions, disposals or changes

The Offer is subject to there being no material acquisitions, disposals or changes in the conduct of E*TRADE Australia's business (see paragraphs (d) and (e) of clause 5.1). Any such acquisitions, disposals or new commitments by E*TRADE Australia or any of its subsidiaries would potentially frustrate the Offer and deny E*TRADE Australia shareholders the opportunity to participate in the benefits accruing to them under the Offer.

E*TRADE Australia is in the best position to advise its shareholders whether or not this condition and other conditions regarding changes in the business of E*TRADE Australia (see paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) of clause 5.1) will be satisfied.

(e) Stock market decline

The Offer is subject to the S&P/ASX 200 Industrials (Sector) Index not closing below 5,855 on any three or more consecutive trading days during the period to the end of the Offer period (see paragraph (g) of clause 5.1). On the day before the date of this Bidder's Statement the S&P/ASX 200 Industrials (Sector) Index closed at 6,499. The lowest level at which that Index has closed in the 12 months preceding the date of this Bidder's Statement is 5,122 on 10 August 2006.

16.2 Due Diligence on E*TRADE Australia

For the purpose of confirming its assessment of whether or not to offer to acquire all of the E*TRADE Shares, ANZ was given access by E*TRADE Australia to certain information concerning the E*TRADE Australia Group which has not been disclosed generally to E*TRADE Australia shareholders. Except as disclosed in this Bidder's Statement, none of the information to which ANZ was given access is, in the opinion of ANZ Online:

(a) of such a nature and quality that, if the information was generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of E*TRADE Shares; or

(b) otherwise material to a decision by an E*TRADE Australia shareholder whether or not to accept the Offer.

16.3 Bid Facilitation Agreement

ANZ entered into a Bid Facilitation Agreement with E*TRADE Australia dated 19 February 2007.

(a) ANZ Bid

Under the Bid Facilitation Agreement, ANZ agreed to make, or procure that a wholly-owned subsidiary made, a takeover bid to E*TRADE Australia shareholders on certain agreed terms (the Bid).

The agreement sets out the conditions of the Bid, being those set out in clause 5 of this Bidder's Statement.

(b) Bid Conditions

Under the Bid Facilitation Agreement, E*TRADE Australia has agreed not to do (or omit to do) anything which will, or is likely to, result in any of the conditions of the Bid being breached. Nothing in this obligation prevents E*TRADE Australia or the E*TRADE Australia board of directors from taking, or failing to take, action where to do otherwise would, in the reasonable opinion of the E*TRADE Australia board, constitute a breach of duties of the directors of E*TRADE Australia.

(c) No solicitation

Under the Bid Facilitation Agreement, E*TRADE Australia has agreed that it must not and must ensure that its employees, officers and (to the extent it is reasonably able to influence them) its associates do not, and E*TRADE Australia must not require or request any adviser or agent, to directly or indirectly solicit or initiate any inquiries, proposals or discussions regarding any Competing Proposal (whether from a person with whom E*TRADE Australia has previously been in discussions or not).

A Competing Proposal is any proposal (including a scheme of arrangement) or offer that would if completed substantially in accordance with its terms, result in:

- (i) any person other than ANZ acquiring:
 - (A) control of E*TRADE Australia;
 - (B) an interest in all or a material part of the assets or business of E*TRADE Australia;
 - (C) a relevant interest in more than 10% of the voting shares in E*TRADE Australia; or
- (ii) E*TRADE Australia and another person forming a joint venture with respect to E*TRADE Australia's business (or a material part of it), or merging their businesses, or operating under a dual listed company, or similar structure.

Under the Bid Facilitation Agreement, E*TRADE Australia agreed to cease any existing discussions or negotiations with any third party relating to any Competing Proposal or any transaction that may reduce the likelihood of the success of the Bid.

E*TRADE Australia also agreed to immediately notify ANZ of any genuine and realistic approach or attempt to initiate discussions or negotiations regarding a Competing Proposal. The notice must include the identity of the relevant third party and details of the Competing Proposal.

To the extent it is entitled to do so, E*TRADE Australia has agreed to immediately require the return of all confidential information provided to third parties (other than ANZ) as part of any past solicitation of Competing Proposals.

These obligations cease where ANZ (or a subsidiary of ANZ) fails to make the Bid, ANZ (or a subsidiary of ANZ) withdraws the Bid after the Bid is made, or the Bid closes.

16.4 Announcement of ANZ's Offer

In accordance with the Bid Facilitation Agreement, by an announcement to the ASX on 19 February 2007, ANZ announced its intention to make a cash takeover offer for E*TRADE Australia of $4.05 per E*TRADE Share for the 65.8% of E*TRADE Australia's issued capital that ANZ does not own. On the same date, E*TRADE Australia also announced to ASX that it had reached an agreement with ANZ on a cash offer of $4.05 per share for the 65.8% of E*TRADE Australia's issued capital that ANZ does not own. The E*TRADE Australia announcement said that:

- a committee of independent directors comprising Kerry Roxburgh, Jim Dominguez, Ian Hunter and Brett Spork was established to consider ANZ's Offer and unanimously recommend that E*TRADE Australia shareholders accept the offer in the absence of a superior proposal and subject to an independent expert concluding that the offer is fair and reasonable; and
- the independent directors will accept the offer for their own E*TRADE Australia shareholdings subject to the above.

16.5 ASX/ACH Consents

Both the ANZ Group and the E*TRADE Australia Group include members who are ASX market participants and participants of the ACH clearing facility. Under ASX Market Rules, a company admitted as an ASX market participant must not become a related body corporate of another such participant without the consent of ASX. Likewise, under the ACH Clearing Rules, a company admitted as a participant of the ACH clearing facility must not become a related body corporate of another such participant without the consent of ACH.

ASX and ACH have given the necessary consents under ASX Market Rules and ACH Clearing Rules.

16.7 Employee share plans

E*TRADE Australia operates or has operated a number of employee share schemes involving the provision of E*TRADE Shares to its employees. ANZ Online understands that the rules of these schemes may restrict participants from accepting the Offer for E*TRADE Shares which were acquired under the scheme. E*TRADE Australia is in the best position to advise participants in its employee shares schemes whether they will be able to accept the Offer in respect of E*TRADE Shares which are subject to these schemes. ANZ Online expects that E*TRADE Australia will provide participants with additional information in relation to these matters in its target's statement in response to the Takeover Bid or other documentation. These participants should refer to these materials before deciding how to deal with their E*TRADE Shares.

16.8 Approvals for payment of consideration

ANZ Online is not aware of any E*TRADE Australia shareholder who requires any approval referred to in clause 6.7 in order to be entitled to receive any consideration under the Offer.

ANZ announces recommended cash takeover offer for E*TRADE Australia

ANZ today announced a recommended cash takeover offer for E*TRADE Australia Limited of $4.05 per share for the 65.8% of E*TRADE Australia's issued capital that ANZ does not currently own.

A committee of independent directors of E*TRADE Australia# have said they will unanimously recommend that E*TRADE Australia's shareholders accept ANZ's offer in the absence of a superior proposal and subject to an independent expert's report. The independent directors have indicated they intend to accept this offer for their own holdings of E*TRADE Australia shares on this basis.

ANZ Group Managing Director Personal, Mr Brian Hartzler said: "The acquisition of E*TRADE Australia would be a further step in ANZ's strategy to be a leader in personal financial services in Australia including accelerating growth in convenient and simple wealth management and investment services.

With ANZ customers representing about a third of E*TRADE Australia's customer-base, we are the natural owner of E*TRADE Australia. As part of our multi-brand strategy, we intend to retain and grow the E*TRADE brand, subject to agreement with E*TRADE Financial Corporation when the current licensing arrangements expire in 2009," Mr Hartzler said.

Commenting on the ANZ offer, E*TRADE Australia Chairman Mr Kerry Roxburgh said: "We believe this is a very positive development for E*TRADE Australia. Given the offer's premium to E*TRADE Australia's share price and particularly relative to historic share prices, it is a compelling offer. The committee of independent directors have concluded it is in the best interests of all shareholders and are pleased for shareholders to consider it.

The company has provided strong shareholder returns over the last few years and the resources and expertise that ANZ can provide to E*TRADE Australia will certainly accelerate the growth of the business. Based on the great success we have already realised from our alliance, the integration of E*TRADE Australia and ANZ is a logical next step.

Importantly for E*TRADE customers and wholesale partners, ANZ is committed to maintaining the same innovative product offerings, dedicated service and award-winning trading platforms that have made E*TRADE Australia a success," Mr Roxburgh said.

ANZ is E*TRADE Australia's largest shareholder with a 34.2% shareholding established as part of a strategic alliance formed between ANZ and E*TRADE Australia in 1999. ANZ's $268 million cash offer values E*TRADE Australia at $407 million and represents a premium of 17.0% to the Volume Weighted Average Price (VWAP) over the past month and 25.5% over the three months prior to the announcement.

Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited ABN 11 005 357 522

Mr Hartzler added: ANZ has the capabilities now to add further value to E*TRADE Australia's business by developing its technology platform, building and leveraging scale, and accelerating growth. This means ANZ is uniquely placed to improve and extend services for E*TRADE Australia's customers, its strategic business partners and its staff.

The acquisition would be funded by ANZ from internal resources and is anticipated to be earnings per share neutral in 2008.

ANZ's offer may be made through a subsidiary by way of an off-market takeover bid under the Australian Corporations Act 2001. The offer is subject to a number of conditions including ANZ acquiring at least 90% of the number of E*TRADE Australia's ordinary shares on issue. The conditions are outlined in full in the Appendix of this announcement.

E*TRADE Australia has entered into a Bid Facilitation Agreement with ANZ in relation to ANZ's offer which includes the customary no shop provisions. ANZ's Bidder's Statement is expected to be provided to E*TRADE Australia shareholders in early March 2007.

For the purpose of these conditions, Public Authority means any government or any governmental, semi-governmental, administrative, statutory or judicial entity, authority or agency, whether in Australia or elsewhere, including the ACCC (but excluding the Takeovers Panel, ASIC and any court in respect of proceedings under section 657G or proceedings commenced by a person specified in section 659B(1) of the Corporations Act in relation to ANZ's offer).

 - (ii) any liability for duty or tax;
 - (iii) any liability resulting from a change of control of E*TRADE Australia; and
 - (iv) any change in the law (whether retrospective or not),

ANZ lodges Bidder's Statement for recommended cash takeover offer for E*TRADE Australia

ANZ today lodged with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission its Bidder's Statement for its $4.05 a share cash takeover offer for all of the shares in E*TRADE Australia Limited that it does not already own.

E*TRADE Australia's committee of independent directors (comprising Kerry Roxburgh, Brett Spork, Jim Dominguez and Ian Hunter) has unanimously recommended that shareholders accept the offer in the absence of a superior proposal and subject to an independent expert concluding the offer is fair and reasonable. On that basis these directors intend to accept the offer for their own holdings.

The Bidder's Statement provides full details of ANZ's bid. ANZ intends to send the Bidder's Statement to E*TRADE Australia shareholders in mid-March.

The Bidder's Statement says:

- ANZ's $4.05 offer represents a 25.5% premium to the three month volume weighted average price of E*TRADE Australia shares prior to the announcement of the offer, and a 39.4% premium to the three month volume weighted average price before recent press speculation of a possible takeover.
- ANZ believes E*TRADE Australia's business would benefit from additional management and operational support to consolidate and build on its recent growth. ANZ can provide this.

ANZ owns 34.2% of E*TRADE Australia, accumulated as part of a strategic alliance formed between the two companies in 1999. In ANZ's view, in the absence of ANZ's offer, the E*TRADE Australia share price is likely to fall.

Further information is available on ANZ's website at www.anz.com. An Offer Information Line has also been established for E*TRADE Australia shareholders. The numbers are 1300-301126 (within Australia) or +61-2-99361977 (outside Australia) between the hours of 9:00am and 5:00pm Melbourne time (Monday to Friday).

I am pleased to present you with this Offer to acquire all your shares in E*TRADE Australia for $4.05 per share.

The independent directors of E*TRADE Australia (Kerry Roxburgh, Brett Spork, Jim Dominguez and Ian Hunter) have said they will unanimously recommend that E*TRADE Australia shareholders accept the Offer, and that they intend to accept this Offer for their own holdings of E*TRADE Australia, in the absence of a superior proposal and subject to an independent expert concluding that the Offer is fair and reasonable.(1)

Benefits of the Offer

ANZ's Offer provides very attractive value for your investment in E*TRADE Australia. The Offer represents:

- a 25.5% premium to the three month volume weighted average price of E*TRADE Australia shares prior to the announcement of the Offer on 19 February 2007; and
- a 39.4% premium to the three month volume weighted average price of E*TRADE Australia shares before recent press speculation of a possible takeover.(2)

ANZ is E*TRADE Australia's largest shareholder with a 34.2% shareholding accumulated as part of a strategic alliance formed between ANZ and E*TRADE Australia in 1999.

ANZ believes that E*TRADE Australia's business would benefit from additional management and operational expertise and support to consolidate and build on its recent growth. ANZ can provide this.

1) UNANIMOUS RECOMMENDATION BY E*TRADE INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS

A committee of independent directors of E*TRADE Australia⁽⁵⁾ unanimously recommend that you accept the Offer in the absence of a superior proposal and subject to an independent expert concluding that the offer is fair and reasonable.

Each of these independent directors has said that he intends to accept this Offer for his own holdings of E*TRADE Shares on that basis.⁽⁶⁾

On 19 February 2007, E*TRADE Australia's Chairman, Mr Kerry Roxburgh said:

*Given the offer's premium to E*TRADE Australia's share price and particularly relative to historic share prices, it is a compelling offer. The committee of independent directors have concluded it is in the best interests of all shareholders and are pleased for shareholders to consider it.*

(5) The committee of independent directors of E*TRADE Australia comprises Kerry Roxburgh, Jim Dominguez, Ian Hunter and Brett Spork. The committee excludes John Harries and Geoff Cohen who were nominated to the E*TRADE Australia board by ANZ and are executives of ANZ, and Jarrett Lilien who was nominated by E*TRADE Financial Corporation.

(6) E*TRADE Australia's announcement to ASX dated 19 February 2007.

*Based on the great success we have already realised from our alliance, the integration of E*TRADE Australia and ANZ is a logical next step. (7)*

2) YOU WILL RECEIVE A SIGNIFICANT PREMIUM FOR YOUR E*TRADE SHARES OVER THE PRE-ANNOUNCEMENT SHARE PRICE

The $4.05 Offer price is well above where E*TRADE Shares have traded over the three years prior to the announcement of ANZ's Offer.(8)

(7) E*TRADE Australia's announcement to ASX dated 19 February 2007.

(9) Street Talk, Australian Financial Review, 2 November 2006, page 28.

(10) E*TRADE boss's unexpected exit fuels takeover talk, Australian Financial Review, 16 January 2007, page 14.

The $4.05 Offer price also represents a significant premium to the prices at which E*TRADE Shares have traded over the six months prior to the Offer announcement, notwithstanding that E*TRADE Shares have appreciated 63.0% during this time:

- 43.2% premium to the six month VWAP prior to announcement(11) (54.6% premium to the six month VWAP prior to speculation(12));
- 25.5% premium to the three month VWAP prior to announcement (39.4% premium to the three month VWAP prior to speculation); and
- 17.0% premium to the one month VWAP prior to announcement (30.2% premium to the one month VWAP prior to speculation).

Significant Offer Premium (11), (12)

(11) Pre-announcement VWAP calculated up until 16 February 2007, the last trading day prior to announcement on 19 February 2007.

(12) Pre-speculation VWAP calculated up until 15 January 2007, the last trading day prior to press takeover speculation as reported in E*TRADE boss's unexpected exit fuels takeover talk, Australian Financial Review, 16 January 2007, page 14.

3) YOU WILL RECEIVE SUBSTANTIAL VALUE FOR YOUR E*TRADE SHARES

The $4.05 Offer represents a significant Price/Earnings (P/E) multiple of E*TRADE Australia's earnings:

- 17.0x E*TRADE Australia's Basic Earnings Per Share (EPS) for the 12 months ended 31 December 2006, excluding non-recurring items;(13) and
- 24.5x E*TRADE Australia's EPS for the 12 months ended 31 December 2006, excluding non-recurring items and normalised to allow for the corporate tax rate.(14)

The relative P/E multiples implied by ANZ's Offer of $4.05 per share illustrate that shareholders will receive full value for their investment in E*TRADE Australia.(15) This is further emphasised when an adjustment is made to take account of the full corporate tax rate to which E*TRADE Australia is likely to be subject once tax losses have been fully utilised.

Relative P/E Multiples (13)(14)(15)

(13) Non-recurring items comprises a $3.6 million income tax benefit and $2.2 million of non-recurring costs for the six months ended 31 December 2006.

(14) E*TRADE Australia did not record any income tax expense for the year ended June 2006 due to accumulated tax losses. At 31 December 2006, E*TRADE Australia held a recognised deferred tax asset (DTA) of $3.8 million in respect of carry forward tax losses and net temporary differences. To the extent DTA on tax losses are utilised in the second half of financial year 2007, that amount will be reduced in the full year ending 30 June 2007. The tax normalised 2006 P/E multiple is based on E*TRADE Australia's net profit before tax (pre associates, amortisation and non-recurring items) for the 12 months ended 31 December 2006 of $24.2 million, taxed at 30%, plus associates (post tax) of $1.0 million, resulting in a tax normalised EPS of $0.17.

(15) P/E multiples based on share prices as at 16 February 2007. E*TRADE Financial Corporation EPS from 2006 annual report. S&P/ASX 300 Index P/E multiple is based on the average of broker analyst aggregate index company earnings estimates that could be identified around the time of the announcement, and have been calendarised to 31 December 2006 year end. Two broker analyst estimates have been used in the sample (dated 16 February 2007 and 19 February 2007 respectively), both of which infer P/E multiples of 16.0x.

4) E*TRADE AUSTRALIA WOULD BENEFIT FROM ADDITIONAL MANAGEMENT AND OPERATIONAL SUPPORT FOR FUTURE GROWTH

ANZ believes E*TRADE Australia's business would benefit from additional management and operational expertise and support to consolidate and build on its recent growth. ANZ can provide this, particularly given its transaction processing expertise.

5) IN THE ABSENCE OF ANZ'S OFFER, THE E*TRADE SHARE PRICE IS LIKELY TO FALL

E*TRADE Australia's share price has increased materially in the period immediately prior to the announcement of ANZ's Offer:

- More than 60% in the preceding six months; and
- 10.8% from the date prior to speculation about a possible takeover of E*TRADE Australia reported in the press on 16 January 2007.(16)

Following the announcement of ANZ's Offer, E*TRADE Shares have traded above the $4.05 Offer price.

(16) E*TRADE boss's unexpected exit fuels takeover talk, Australian Financial Review, 16 January 2007, page 14.

(17) Street Talk, Australian Financial Review, 2 November 2006, page 28.

If ANZ's Offer does not proceed, and no other offers are made for E*TRADE Shares, you will continue to own your E*TRADE Shares and, in ANZ's view, it is likely that the trading price of E*TRADE Shares will fall.

ANZ currently holds a 34.2% shareholding in E*TRADE Australia and has strong links with E*TRADE Australia through customer relationships and its existing support for E*TRADE Australia's margin lending and cash management operations. No other party can acquire 100% of E*TRADE Australia without ANZ's support.

6) YOU WILL NOT INCUR ANY BROKERAGE BY ACCEPTING THE OFFER

E*TRADE Shareholders will not pay any brokerage charges (or GST on such brokerage charges) on accepting the Offer.

Question

Answer

What are the committee of independent directors of E*TRADE Australia recommending?

The committee of independent directors of E*TRADE Australia recommends that you accept the Offer, in the absence of a superior proposal and subject to an independent expert concluding that ANZ's Offer is fair and reasonable. The committee of independent directors comprises Kerry Roxburgh, Jim Dominguez, Ian Hunter and Brett Spork.

Each of these directors has said that he intends to accept the Offer in respect of his E*TRADE Shares, in the absence of a superior proposal and subject to an independent expert concluding that ANZ's Offer is fair and reasonable.

Why is an independent expert's report required?

An independent expert's report is required where a bidder is entitled to not less than 30% of the target company's voting shares.

Due to ANZ's existing 34.2% holding in E*TRADE Australia, an independent expert's report must accompany E*TRADE Australia's target's statement.

When will E*TRADE Australia shareholders receive the independent expert's report?

The independent expert's report will accompany the target's statement and be mailed to all E*TRADE Australia shareholders. ANZ expects that you will receive the target's statement within approximately two weeks after you receive this Offer.

How do I accept the Offer?

Details of how to accept the Offer are set out in clause 3 of the Bidder's Statement.

Can I accept the Offer for part of my shareholding?

No. You cannot accept for part of your shareholding. You may only accept the Offer for all of your E*TRADE Shares.

When does the Offer close?

The Offer is scheduled to close at 7.00pm (Melbourne time) on 18 April 2007, unless extended.

See clause 8 for details of the circumstances in which the Offer Period can be extended.

Will I pay brokerage if I accept the Offer?

No. However, you may incur brokerage costs and GST on those costs if you choose to sell your E*TRADE Shares on ASX.

Can I withdraw my acceptance?

Under the terms of the Offer, you cannot withdraw your acceptance unless a withdrawal right arises

Question

Answer

under the Corporations Act.

Such a withdrawal right will arise if, after you have accepted the Offer, ANZ Online varies the Offer in a way that postpones, for more than one month, the time when ANZ Online has to meet its obligations under the Offer, and the Offer is still conditional at that time.

When will I be paid if I accept the Offer?

If you accept the Offer, you will be paid your consideration on the earlier of:

- one month after the later of the date you accept the Offer or the date that the Offer becomes or is declared unconditional; or
- 21 days after the end of the Offer Period, provided that the Offer has become unconditional.

However, there are certain exceptions to the above timetable for payment. See clause 6 of the Bidder's Statement for further information.

What are the conditions to the Offer?

A full list of conditions is set out in clause 5 of the Bidder's Statement.

What happens if the conditions of the Offer are not satisfied or waived?

If the conditions of the Offer are not satisfied or waived before the Offer closes, the Offer will lapse.

ANZ Online will make an announcement to ASX if the conditions of the Offer are satisfied or waived during the Offer Period.

10

Question

Answer

What happens if I do not accept the Offer?

Subject to what is stated below, you will remain the holder of your E*TRADE Shares if you do not accept the Offer.

If ANZ Online (and its associates) acquire 90% of E*TRADE Shares and the other conditions of the Offer are satisfied or waived, it intends to compulsorily acquire your E*TRADE Shares under the compulsory acquisition provisions of the Corporations Act.

Under compulsory acquisition, you will be provided the Offer consideration of $4.05 cash per E*TRADE Share at the conclusion of this process. You will receive the Offer consideration sooner if you accept the Offer during the Offer period.

Will E*TRADE Australia remain listed on ASX?

If ANZ Online (and its associates) acquire 90% or more of E*TRADE Shares before or at the end of the Offer Period and the other conditions of ANZ's Offer are satisfied or waived, it intends to proceed to compulsory acquisition of the remaining E*TRADE Shares under the Corporations Act. E*TRADE Shares will then be removed from quotation on ASX and E*TRADE Australia will cease to be listed on ASX.

What are the tax implications of accepting the Offer?

A general outline of the tax implications of accepting the Offer for Australian resident E*TRADE Australia shareholders is set out in Part 6 of this Bidder's Statement.

As the outline is a general guide only, shareholders are encouraged to seek their own specific professional advice as to the taxation implications applicable to their circumstances.

Is there a number that I can call if I have further queries in relation to the Offer?

You can call ANZ's Offer Information Line on 1300 301 126 (within Australia) or +61 2 9936 1977 (outside Australia) between 9:00am and 5:00pm (Melbourne time), Monday to Friday.

As required by the Corporations Act, all calls to ANZ's Offer Information Line will be recorded.

PART 4 THE OFFER TERMS

1. THE OFFER

ANZ Online offers to acquire all of your E*TRADE Shares for $4.05 cash per share, on the terms set out in this Offer.

2. OFFER PERIOD

Unless withdrawn or extended under clause 8, this Offer is open during the period that begins on the date of this Offer and ends at 7:00pm Melbourne time on 18 April 2007.

If, within the last seven days of the Offer Period:

- (a) ANZ Online varies the Offers to improve the consideration offered;
- (b) the consideration is taken to be increased under section 651A(2) of the Corporations Act because ANZ Online purchases E*TRADE Shares outside the Takeover Bid for a cash price higher than the consideration offered; or
- (c) ANZ Online's voting power in E*TRADE Australia increases to more than 50%,

section 624(2) of the Corporations Act will apply to extend the Offer Period so that it ends 14 days after that event.

3. HOW TO ACCEPT THIS OFFER

3.1 Offer for all your E*TRADE Shares

You may only accept this Offer for all your E*TRADE Shares.

3.2 CHESS Holdings

If your E*TRADE Shares are in a CHESS Holding you must either:

- (b) complete and sign the Transfer and Acceptance Form in accordance with the instructions on it and return the Transfer and Acceptance Form together with all other documents required by the instructions on it to the address specified on the form. This will authorise ANZ Online to instruct your Controlling Participant (usually your broker) to initiate acceptance of this Offer on your behalf. For return of the Transfer and Acceptance Form to be an effective acceptance of the Offer, you must ensure it is received by ANZ Online in time for ANZ Online to give instructions to your Controlling Participant, and your Controlling Participant to carry out those instructions, before the end of the Offer Period.

If you are a Participant, you must initiate acceptance of this Offer under rule 14.14 of the ASTC Settlement Rules, so as to be effective before the end of the Offer Period.

3.3 Issuer Sponsored Holdings and other holdings

If your E*TRADE Shares are held on E*TRADE Australia's issuer sponsored subregister, or if at the time of your acceptance you are entitled to be registered as the holder, or are otherwise able to give good title, to accept this Offer you must:

- (a) complete and sign the Transfer and Acceptance Form in accordance with the instructions on it; and
- (b) return the Transfer and Acceptance Form together with all other documents required by the instructions on it to the address specified on the form so that they are received before the end of the Offer Period.

3.4 Foreign Laws

It is your sole responsibility to satisfy yourself that you are permitted by any Foreign Law applicable to you to accept this Offer.

4. YOUR AGREEMENT RESULTING FROM ACCEPTANCE

4.1 Effect of Transfer and Acceptance Form

By signing and returning the Transfer and Acceptance Form in accordance with clause 3, you:

- (a) authorise ANZ Online and each of its officers and agents to correct any errors in, or omissions from, the Transfer and Acceptance Form necessary to:

 - (ii) enable the transfer of your E*TRADE Shares to ANZ Online; and
- (b) if any of your E*TRADE Shares are in a CHESS Holding, authorise ANZ Online to:
 - (i) instruct your Controlling Participant to effect your acceptance of this Offer for those E*TRADE Shares under rule 14.14 of the ASTC Settlement Rules; and
 - (ii) give to your Controlling Participant on your behalf any other instructions in relation to those E*TRADE Shares which are contemplated by the sponsorship agreement between you and your Controlling Participant and are necessary or appropriate to facilitate your acceptance of this Offer.

4.2 Your agreement

By signing and returning the Transfer and Acceptance Form or initiating or causing acceptance of this Offer under the ASTC Settlement Rules in accordance with clause 3:

- (a) you accept this Offer in respect of all of your E*TRADE Shares registered as held by you at the date your acceptance is processed (despite any difference between that number and the number of E*TRADE Shares specified in the Transfer and Acceptance Form);
- (b) you represent and warrant to ANZ Online that all your E*TRADE Shares will at the time of your acceptance of this Offer and of transfer to ANZ Online be fully paid up and that ANZ Online will acquire good title to and beneficial ownership of them free from Encumbrances;

 - (i) attend and vote in respect of your E*TRADE Shares at all general meetings of E*TRADE Australia; and
 - (ii) execute all forms, notices, documents (including a document appointing a director of ANZ Online as a proxy for any of your E*TRADE Shares) and resolutions relating to your E*TRADE Shares and generally to exercise all powers and rights which you have as the registered holder of your E*TRADE Shares;

- (f) you agree not to attend or vote in person at any general meeting of E*TRADE Australia or to exercise, or to purport to exercise, (in person, by proxy or otherwise) any of the powers conferred on the directors of ANZ Online by clause 4.2(d);
- (g) if and when the contract resulting from your acceptance of this Offer becomes unconditional (even though ANZ Online has not yet paid or provided the consideration due to you), you authorise ANZ Online to transmit a message to ASTC in accordance with rule 14.17.1 of the ASTC Settlement Rules so as to enter those of your E*TRADE Shares which are in a CHES Holding into ANZ Online's Takeover Transferee Holding; and

(h) you agree to indemnify ANZ Online (and each of its directors, officers and agents) in respect of any claim or action against it or any loss, damage or liability whatsoever incurred by it as a result of you not producing your Holder Identification Number (or HIN) or Securityholder Reference Number (or SRN) or in consequence of the transfer of your E*TRADE Shares being registered by ANZ Online without production of your Holder Identification Number or Securityholder Reference Number.

4.3 Powers of attorney

If the Transfer and Acceptance Form is signed under power of attorney, the attorney declares that the attorney has no notice of revocation of the power and is empowered to delegate powers under the power of attorney under clause 4.1 and paragraphs (d) and (g) of clause 4.2.

4.4 Validation of otherwise ineffective acceptances

Except for E*TRADE Shares in a CHESS Holding, ANZ Online may treat the receipt by it of a signed Transfer and Acceptance Form as a valid acceptance of this Offer even though it does not receive the other documents required by the instructions on the Transfer and Acceptance Form or there is not compliance with any one or more of the other requirements for acceptance. If ANZ Online does treat such a Transfer and Acceptance Form as valid, subject to clause 6, ANZ Online will not be obliged to give the consideration to you until ANZ Online receives all those documents and all of the requirements for acceptance referred to in clause 3.3 and in the Transfer and Acceptance Form have been met.

5. DEFEATING CONDITIONS

5.1 Defeating Conditions of this Offer

This Offer and the contract resulting from acceptance of this Offer are subject to the fulfilment of the following Defeating Conditions:

(a) Minimum acceptance condition

During, or at the end of, the Offer Period, the number of E*TRADE Shares in which ANZ Online and its associates together have relevant interests (disregarding any relevant interest that ANZ Online has merely because of the operation of section 608(3) of the Corporations Act) is at least 90% of all the E*TRADE Shares (even if that number later becomes less than 90% of all the E*TRADE Shares as a result of the issue of further E*TRADE Shares).

(c) E*TRADE Licence

Before the end of the Offer Period, E*TRADE Financial Corporation (formerly, E*TRADE Group Inc.):

During the period from and including the Announcement Date to the end of the Offer Period:

(ii) no occurrence or matter of the type referred to in clause 5.1(d)(i), which occurred before the Announcement Date but was not apparent from publicly available information before then, becomes public.

5.2 Separate Defeating Conditions for benefit of ANZ Online

Each of the Defeating Conditions set out in each paragraph, subparagraph and sub-subparagraph of clause 5.1:

- (a) is and must be construed as a separate Defeating Condition; and
- (b) subject to the Corporations Act, operates only for the benefit of ANZ Online and any breach or non-fulfilment of such condition may be relied upon only by ANZ Online which may waive (generally or in respect of a particular event) the breach or non-fulfilment of that condition.

5.3 Nature of Defeating Conditions

None of the Defeating Conditions prevents a contract to sell your E*TRADE Shares resulting from your acceptance of this Offer but:

- (a) breach of any of the Defeating Conditions entitles ANZ Online to rescind that contract by notice to you; and
- (b) non fulfilment of any of the Defeating Conditions at the end of the Offer Period will have the consequences set out in clause 5.6.

5.4 Notice declaring Offer free of Defeating Conditions

Subject to the Corporations Act, ANZ Online may declare this Offer and any contract resulting from acceptance of this Offer free from any of the Defeating Conditions by giving written notice to E*TRADE Australia:

- (a) in the case of the Defeating Conditions in clause 5.1(f)(i), not later than three business days after the end of the Offer Period; and
- (b) in the case of all other Defeating Conditions, not less than seven days before the last day of the Offer Period.

5.5 Notice publication date

The date for giving the notice on the status of the Defeating Conditions is 10 April 2007 (subject to extension in accordance with the Corporations Act if the Offer Period is extended under the Corporations Act).

5.6 Contract void if Defeating Conditions not fulfilled

Your acceptance or the contract resulting from your acceptance of this Offer is void if:

- (a) at the end of the Offer Period any of the Defeating Conditions in clause 5.1 is not fulfilled; and
- (b) ANZ Online has not declared this Offer and any contract resulting from the acceptance of it free of that Defeating Condition in accordance with clause 5.4.

6. PAYMENT OF CONSIDERATION

6.1 When you will receive payment

Subject to this clause 6, if you accept this Offer ANZ Online will pay you the consideration for your E*TRADE Shares on or before the earlier of:

- (a) the day one month after you accept this Offer or, if this Offer is subject to a Defeating Condition when accepted, one month after the contract resulting from your acceptance becomes unconditional; and
- (b) the day 21 days after the end of the Offer Period.

6.2 Transfer and Acceptance Form requires additional documents

Where documents are required to be given to ANZ Online with your acceptance to enable ANZ Online to become the holder of your E*TRADE Shares (such as a power of attorney):

- (a) if the documents are given with your acceptance, ANZ Online will pay you in accordance with clause 6.1;
- (b) if the documents are given after your acceptance and before the end of the Offer Period while the Offer is subject to a Defeating Condition, ANZ Online will pay you the consideration by the end of whichever of the following periods ends first:
 - (i) one month after the contract resulting from your acceptance becomes unconditional; and
 - (ii) 21 days after the end of the Offer Period;

 - (i) one month after ANZ Online is given the documents; and
 - (ii) 21 days after the end of the Offer Period; or
- (d) if the documents are given after the end of the Offer Period, ANZ Online will pay you the consideration within 21 days after the documents are given. However, if at the time ANZ Online is given the documents the contract resulting from acceptance of the Offer is still subject to a Defeating Condition in clause 5.1(f)(i), ANZ Online will pay you the consideration within 21 days after the contract becomes unconditional.

6.3 ANZ Online may set off share scheme debts

If you owe a debt to E*TRADE Australia, or any other person, under the terms of an employee or director incentive scheme, ANZ Online may satisfy its obligations under this Offer by paying as much of the consideration as is required to discharge that debt to

E*TRADE Australia (or the other person to whom it is owed) and paying you any remaining consideration.

6.4 Delivery of consideration

Subject to the Corporations Act, ANZ Online will send cheques for the cash payment due to you at your risk by pre-paid ordinary mail, or in the case of an address outside Australia by airmail, to the address shown in the Transfer and Acceptance Form.

6.5 Return of documents

If this Offer does not become unconditional or any contract arising from this Offer is rescinded by ANZ Online on the grounds of a breach of a condition of that contract, ANZ Online will return by post to you at the address shown on the Transfer and Acceptance Form any Transfer and Acceptance Form and any other documents sent with it by you.

6.6 Rights

If ANZ Online becomes entitled to any Rights as a result of your acceptance of this Offer, it may require you to give to ANZ Online all documents necessary to vest title to those Rights in ANZ Online. If you do not give those documents to ANZ Online, or if you have received or are entitled to receive (or any previous holder of your E*TRADE Shares has received or is entitled to receive) the benefit of those Rights, ANZ Online may deduct the amount (or value as reasonably assessed by ANZ Online) of such Rights from any consideration otherwise payable to you. If ANZ Online does not, or cannot, make such a deduction, you must pay that amount to ANZ Online.

6.7 Clearances for offshore residents and others

(a) If at the time you accept the Offer or any consideration would otherwise become payable to you as a result of your acceptance of this Offer:

(i) any authority or clearance of the Reserve Bank of Australia or the Australian Tax Office is required for you to receive any consideration under this Offer; or

(ii) you are resident of a place to which, or you are a person to whom, any other law of Australia or elsewhere would make it unlawful for ANZ Online to provide consideration for your E*TRADE Shares,

then your acceptance of this Offer does not create or transfer to you any right to receive the consideration specified in this Offer unless and until you obtain all requisite authorities or clearances and your E*TRADE Shares are free from Encumbrances. (See clause 16.8 of this Bidder's Statement for information as to whether this restriction applies to you.)

(b) If at the time you accept the Offer or any consideration would otherwise become payable to you as a result of your acceptance of this Offer, your E*TRADE Shares are subject to a notice of the kind described in paragraph (b) of the definition of Encumbrance (defined in clause 18), then the consideration to which you would otherwise be entitled will be dealt with as required by law, and payment of it to a person (including a Government Agency) in accordance with the law shall satisfy ANZ Online's obligations under this Offer.

6.8 Costs

ANZ Online will pay all costs and expenses of the preparation and circulation of the Offer payable on the transfer of any E*TRADE Shares to ANZ Online.

7. OFFEREES

7.1 Registered holders

ANZ Online is making an offer in the form of this Offer to each holder of E*TRADE Shares registered in the register of members of E*TRADE Australia at the Register Date.

7.2 Transferees

This Offer extends to any person who is able during the Offer Period to give good title to a parcel of your E*TRADE Shares. That person may accept as if an Offer on terms identical to this Offer had been made to them for those E*TRADE Shares.

7.3 Trustees and nominees

If during the Offer Period and before you accept this Offer your E*TRADE Shares consist of two or more separate parcels within the meaning of section 653B of the Corporations Act (for example, because you are a trustee or nominee for several distinct beneficial owners), section 653B of the Corporations Act will apply so that:

- (a) ANZ Online is taken to have made a separate Offer to you for each separate parcel of E*TRADE Shares; and
- (b) acceptance by you of the Offer for any distinct parcel of E*TRADE Shares is ineffective unless:
 - (i) you give ANZ Online notice in accordance with clause 7.4 stating that your E*TRADE Shares consist of separate parcels; and
 - (ii) your acceptance specifies the number of E*TRADE Shares in each separate parcel to which the acceptance relates.

7.4 Notices by Trustees and Nominees

ANZ conducts its operations primarily in Australia and New Zealand (approximately 94% of ANZ's total assets at 30 September 2006 were related to these operations). The remainder of ANZ's operations are conducted across the Asian and Pacific regions, and in a number of other countries including the United Kingdom and the United States. At 30 September 2006, ANZ had 1,265 branches and other points of representation worldwide and employed in excess of 32,000 people.

10.3 Where to find further information about ANZ

Further information about ANZ can be found at www.anz.com.

In addition, information on ANZ can be found on ASX's website at www.asx.com.au.

These websites do not form part of this Bidder's Statement.

11. REASONS FOR THE ACQUISITION

ANZ is E*TRADE Australia's largest shareholder with a 34.2% shareholding accumulated as part of a strategic alliance formed between ANZ and E*TRADE Australia in 1999. ANZ believes that E*TRADE Australia would benefit from additional management and operational expertise and support to consolidate and build on its recent growth. ANZ can provide this. A closer relationship through an increased shareholding in E*TRADE Australia is the logical next step. The acquisition would further ANZ's strategy to be a leader in personal financial services in Australia including accelerating growth in convenient and simple wealth management and investment services.

12. ANZ'S INTENTIONS

12.1 Overview

This clause 12 sets out ANZ's current intentions in respect of the businesses, assets and employees of E*TRADE Australia. These intentions are based on the facts and information concerning E*TRADE Australia which are known to ANZ at the date of this Bidder's Statement. ANZ's intentions may change as new information becomes available to ANZ or circumstances change.

ANZ Online's intentions are identical to the intentions of ANZ as set out in this clause.

12.2 Compulsory acquisition

If ANZ Online becomes entitled to compulsorily acquire outstanding E*TRADE Shares under Part 6A of the Corporations Act, ANZ Online presently intends to proceed with compulsory acquisition of those E*TRADE Shares. ANZ Online then intends to procure that E*TRADE Australia is removed from the official list of the ASX.

12.3 Intentions for E*TRADE Australia as a wholly-owned subsidiary

The intentions of ANZ if E*TRADE Australia becomes a wholly-owned subsidiary of ANZ are set out in this clause 12.3.

ANZ intends to grow and enhance E*TRADE Australia's business as part of ANZ's broader personal wealth management and investments strategy. Accordingly, ANZ intends to operate E*TRADE Australia as a discrete business stream within ANZ's Personal Division. ANZ intends that E*TRADE Australia will be headquartered in Sydney, at least in the medium term.

At the end of the Offer Period, ANZ will conduct a review of E*TRADE Australia's assets, operations and strategy in light of the more detailed information then available to it, and will formulate more detailed plans at this time. ANZ expects its review will focus on the risks and returns of each of E*TRADE Australia's business streams and, in particular:

- (a) opportunities to offer an expanded product range to new and existing customers of E*TRADE Australia;
- (b) opportunities to enhance customer service levels, including through improving the infrastructure underlying E*TRADE Australia's information technology platform; and
- (c) the most appropriate means of providing ANZ support for some E*TRADE Australia central functions such as human resources, finance, compliance and risk.

With the benefit of its planned internal review of E*TRADE Australia, ANZ will consider the best allocation of E*TRADE Australia and ANZ employees to continuing and new roles. Given ANZ's intention to enhance the product and service offering to E*TRADE Australia clients, ANZ expects opportunities will be presented for both E*TRADE Australia and ANZ staff.

ANZ expects that there will be few, if any, redundancies of E*TRADE Australia's staff. To the extent that redundancies occur and alternative roles cannot be found within ANZ's wider operations, ANZ intends to ensure that the affected employees will receive benefits in accordance with their contractual and other legal entitlements.

12.4 Intentions for E*TRADE Australia if it is controlled by ANZ

This clause 12.4 sets out ANZ's intentions if, following the close of ANZ's Offer, E*TRADE Australia becomes a controlled entity, but not a wholly-owned subsidiary, of ANZ. In these circumstances, ANZ presently intends to:

- (a) replace members of the board of directors of E*TRADE Australia with nominees of ANZ, so that the number of ANZ's nominees is at least proportionate to ANZ Group's holding of E*TRADE Shares;
- (b) if appropriate and consistent with the ASX listing rules, consider seeking the delisting of E*TRADE Australia from the ASX;
- (c) through its nominees on the board of directors of E*TRADE Australia, consider an appropriate dividend policy for E*TRADE Australia; and
- (d) otherwise seek to implement, to the extent possible and appropriate, the intentions described in clause 12.3 above.

The extent to which ANZ will be able to implement these intentions will be subject to:

- the law and the ASX listing rules, in particular in relation to related party transactions and conflicts of interests;
- the legal obligations of the directors of E*TRADE Australia to act for proper purposes and in the best interests of E*TRADE Australia shareholders as a whole; and
- the outcome of the strategic review referred to in clause 12.3 above.

Any transactions between members of the ANZ Group and the E*TRADE Australia Group required to effect those steps will be entered into on arm's length terms. ANZ will seek any necessary approval of other E*TRADE Australia shareholders, as required by law or the ASX listing rules, to implement these steps.

If ANZ becomes entitled at some later time to exercise general compulsory acquisition rights under the Corporations Act, it may exercise those rights.

12.5 Other intentions

Subject to the above it is the present intention of ANZ, on the basis of the facts and information concerning E*TRADE Australia which are known to it and the existing circumstances affecting the business of E*TRADE Australia, that:

- (a) the business of E*TRADE Australia will otherwise be continued in substantially the same manner as it is presently being conducted;
- (b) no other major changes will be made to the business of E*TRADE Australia and there will not be any other redeployment of the fixed assets of E*TRADE Australia; and
- (c) the present employees of E*TRADE Australia will otherwise continue to be employed by E*TRADE Australia.

13. SOURCES OF CASH CONSIDERATION

The total amount that ANZ Online would be required to pay for E*TRADE Shares if ANZ Online acquires all of the E*TRADE Shares in which it (or its associates) do not already have a relevant interest is $268 million.

ANZ Online will fund the cash consideration payable to E*TRADE Australia shareholders using cash provided to it by a member or members of the ANZ Group. ANZ has unconditionally and irrevocably agreed with ANZ Online to ensure that sufficient funds are provided to ANZ Online to enable ANZ Online to meet its payment obligations under the Offer. These funds will be sourced by ANZ from immediately available cash resources of ANZ. ANZ's immediately available cash resources are in excess of the amount required to fully fund the maximum amount of cash consideration that ANZ Online could be required to pay for E*TRADE Shares under the Offer.

PART 6 AUSTRALIAN TAX CONSIDERATIONS

14. TAXATION CONSIDERATIONS

14.1 Australian tax implications for E*TRADE Australia shareholders

The following is a general description of the Australian income and capital gains tax consequences for E*TRADE Australia shareholders (other than temporary residents) on disposing of their E*TRADE Shares, in return for cash.

It is based upon taxation law and practice in effect at the date of this Bidder's Statement. It is not intended to be an authoritative or complete analysis of the taxation laws of Australia, as they apply to the specific circumstances of any particular shareholder.

You are advised to seek independent professional advice regarding the Australian tax consequences of disposing of your E*TRADE Shares according to your own particular circumstances.

14.2 Shareholders who are Australian residents

(a) Disposal of shares held as trading stock

If you hold your E*TRADE Shares as trading stock (e.g. as a share trader), you will be required to include the value of the consideration from the disposal of your E*TRADE Shares (i.e. the cash received) in your assessable income.

(b) Disposal of shares otherwise held on revenue account

If you hold your E*TRADE Shares in the ordinary course of a business, or as part of another profit-making arrangement, such that the shares are held on revenue account but not as trading stock (e.g. banks, insurance companies and some investment companies), you will be required to treat any gain or loss arising on the disposal of your E*TRADE Shares as either assessable income or an allowable deduction.

The gain or loss will be calculated as the difference between:

- (i) the value of the consideration (the cash received); and
- (ii) the cost of acquiring your E*TRADE Shares (or other appropriate value where the shares are trading stock).

A deductible loss may be used to offset other assessable income, including net capital gains, derived in the same or subsequent years of income (subject to satisfying certain conditions) but cannot be carried back to offset assessable income, including net capital gains, derived in earlier income years.

(c) Disposal of shares held as capital investments

The disposal of E*TRADE Shares which were acquired or deemed to have been acquired on or after 20 September 1985 and which are held as capital investments, will generally have Australian capital gains tax (CGT) implications. The disposal of such E*TRADE Shares pursuant to acceptance of the Offer will constitute a CGT event for CGT purposes.

The CGT implications of a disposal of your E*TRADE Shares will depend upon a number of factors, including:

- the date your E*TRADE Shares were acquired;
- your taxpayer status; and
- the length of time you have held your E*TRADE Shares.

(i) Shares acquired before 11:45am on 21 September 1999

If your E*TRADE Shares were acquired on or after 20 September 1985 a capital gain or loss will arise depending on the difference between:

- the value of the capital proceeds (the cash received); and
- the cost base of the E*TRADE Shares (which would generally include the amount paid to acquire the shares plus any incidental costs of acquisition, e.g. brokerage fees).

If your E*TRADE Shares were acquired before 11:45am by legal time in the Australian Capital Territory (ACT time) on 21 September 1999, for the purpose of calculating a capital gain (but not a capital loss), you may choose that the cost base of those shares be indexed for inflation to the September quarter of 1999 (which would only be of any practical effect if the shares were acquired before 1 July 1999).

Alternatively, provided you have held your E*TRADE Shares for at least one year, and do not choose to apply indexation, the discount capital gain provisions may apply. This means that:

- if you are an individual, only one-half of the capital gain (without any allowance for indexation for inflation in the cost base of the shares) will be taxable;
- if you are a complying superannuation entity, only two-thirds of the capital gain (without any allowance for indexation for inflation in the cost base of the shares) will be taxable; or
- if you are the trustee of a trust, the discount capital gains provisions may also apply to a distribution of the capital gain to beneficiaries in the trust (other than beneficiaries that are companies).

Note that the discount capital gain provisions do not apply to shareholders and trust beneficiaries that are companies.

The choice to apply indexation rather than the discount capital gain provisions must be made by you on or before the day you lodge your income tax return for the income year in which the disposal occurs.

A capital loss may be used to offset capital gains derived in the same or subsequent years of income (subject to satisfying certain conditions) but cannot be offset against ordinary income, nor carried back to offset net capital gains arising in earlier income years.

If you choose to use the discount capital gain method, any available capital loss will be applied to reduce the realised nominal gain before discounting the resulting net amount (to the extent that it does not exceed the discount capital gain) by either one-half or one-third (as applicable) to calculate the assessable capital gain. Alternatively, if you choose the indexation option, capital losses are applied after calculating the capital gain using the indexed cost base.

(ii) Shares acquired after 11:45am on 21 September 1999

If you acquired your E*TRADE Shares after 11:45 am (ACT time) on 21 September 1999 you will not be entitled to choose indexation of the cost base when calculating any capital gain on disposal.

If you are an individual, trust or complying superannuation entity that has held your E*TRADE Shares for 12 months or longer at the time the Offer is accepted, the discount capital gain provisions described above will automatically apply in calculating any capital gain on disposal.

As explained above, any available capital loss will be applied to reduce the realised nominal gain before discounting the resulting net amount (to the extent that it does not exceed the discount capital gain) by either one-half or one-third (as applicable) to calculate the assessable capital gain.

If your E*TRADE Shares have been held for less than 12 months or you are in another category of shareholder (for example, a company), the discount capital gain method is not available. A capital gain on the shares, being any excess of the value of the capital proceeds over the unindexed cost base of the shares, will be assessable in full.

(iii) Shares acquired before 20 September 1985

There should be no CGT implications arising on disposal of your E*TRADE Shares, where they were held as capital investments and acquired, or deemed to have been acquired, before 20 September 1985 and are not deemed to have been acquired on or after that date.

14.3 Shareholders who are not Australian residents

(a) Disposal of shares held as trading stock or otherwise on revenue account

Non residents who hold their E*TRADE Shares as trading stock, or otherwise on revenue account, should seek their own professional advice, as the Australian taxation treatment may depend on the source of any gain and whether a double tax agreement exists between their country of residence and Australia.

(b) Disposal of shares held as capital investments

If you are a non-resident of Australia and hold your E*TRADE Shares as capital investments you will only have a taxable capital gain or capital loss in Australia if you have used your E*TRADE Shares at any time in carrying on business through an Australian permanent establishment.

If you are a resident of a country with which Australia has a double tax agreement, you should seek your own professional advice as to the impact of the agreement on any Australian tax liability.

14.4 Shareholders who are participants in employee share or option plans

The Australian tax implications for participants in E*TRADE Australia's employee share plans may be different from those for other holders of E*TRADE Shares. Each participant in such a plan should seek specific tax advice in relation to the Offer.

14.5 GST

No GST should generally be payable in respect of the transfer of E*TRADE Shares.

There may be an indirect GST cost in relation to taxable supplies related to the Offer (for example legal and other adviser fees paid to obtain advice on whether to accept the Offer).

15.4 Acquisition by ANZ Online of E*TRADE Shares during previous 4 months

Neither ANZ Online nor any associate of ANZ Online has provided, or agreed to provide, consideration for an E*TRADE Australia Share under a purchase or agreement during the four months before the date of this Bidder's Statement or in the period commencing on the date of this Bidder's Statement and ending on the date of the Offer.

15.5 Inducing benefits given by ANZ Online during previous 4 months

Neither ANZ Online nor any associate of ANZ Online, gave, or offered to give or agreed to give, during four months before the date of this Bidder's Statement or in the period

commencing on the date of this Bidder's Statement and ending on the date of the Offer a benefit to another person that is not available under ANZ's Offer and was likely to induce the other person, or an associate of the other person, to:

- (a) accept an Offer; or
- (b) dispose of E*TRADE Shares.

16. OTHER MATERIAL INFORMATION

16.1 Defeating Conditions

The conditions of the Offer are set out in clause 5.1. Further information on some of these conditions is set out below.

(a) Minimum acceptance condition

The Offer is subject to a 90% minimum acceptance condition (see paragraph (a) of clause 5.1). ANZ Online will not waive this condition unless it considers that it is in ANZ's best interests to do so at the relevant time.

(b) No adverse regulatory action

The Offer is subject to certain regulatory action not being taken (see paragraph (b) of clause 5.1).

ANZ Online is not presently aware of any particular regulatory action which has triggered or may trigger the condition in clause 5.1(b).

(c) E*TRADE Licence

Under the E*TRADE Licence, both E*TRADE Australia and E*TRADE Financial Corporation have the right to terminate the E*TRADE Licence, without cause, on three months' notice and payment of a termination fee of US$5 million. Given ANZ's intention to continue E*TRADE Australia's business in Australia under that name, the Offer is subject to E*TRADE Financial Corporation not exercising, and waiving, its right to terminate the E*TRADE Licence without cause (see paragraph (c) of clause 5.1).

(d) No material acquisitions, disposals or changes

The Offer is subject to there being no material acquisitions, disposals or changes in the conduct of E*TRADE Australia's business (see paragraphs (d) and (e) of clause 5.1). Any such acquisitions, disposals or new commitments by E*TRADE Australia or any of its subsidiaries would potentially frustrate the Offer and deny E*TRADE Australia shareholders the opportunity to participate in the benefits accruing to them under the Offer.

E*TRADE Australia is in the best position to advise its shareholders whether or not this condition and other conditions regarding changes in the business of E*TRADE Australia (see paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) of clause 5.1) will be satisfied.

(e) Stock market decline

The Offer is subject to the S&P/ASX 200 Industrials (Sector) Index not closing below 5,855 on any three or more consecutive trading days during the period to the end of the Offer period (see paragraph (g) of clause 5.1). On the day before the date of this Bidder's Statement the S&P/ASX 200 Industrials (Sector) Index closed at 6,499. The lowest level at which that Index has closed in the 12 months preceding the date of this Bidder's Statement is 5,122 on 10 August 2006.

16.2 Due Diligence on E*TRADE Australia

For the purpose of confirming its assessment of whether or not to offer to acquire all of the E*TRADE Shares, ANZ was given access by E*TRADE Australia to certain information concerning the E*TRADE Australia Group which has not been disclosed generally to E*TRADE Australia shareholders. Except as disclosed in this Bidder's Statement, none of the information to which ANZ was given access is, in the opinion of ANZ Online:

(a) of such a nature and quality that, if the information was generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of E*TRADE Shares; or

(b) otherwise material to a decision by an E*TRADE Australia shareholder whether or not to accept the Offer.

16.3 Bid Facilitation Agreement

ANZ entered into a Bid Facilitation Agreement with E*TRADE Australia dated 19 February 2007.

(a) ANZ Bid

Under the Bid Facilitation Agreement, ANZ agreed to make, or procure that a wholly-owned subsidiary made, a takeover bid to E*TRADE Australia shareholders on certain agreed terms (the Bid).

The agreement sets out the conditions of the Bid, being those set out in clause 5 of this Bidder's Statement.

(b) Bid Conditions

Under the Bid Facilitation Agreement, E*TRADE Australia has agreed not to do (or omit to do) anything which will, or is likely to, result in any of the conditions of the Bid being breached. Nothing in this obligation prevents E*TRADE Australia or the E*TRADE Australia board of directors from taking, or failing to take, action where to do otherwise would, in the reasonable opinion of the E*TRADE Australia board, constitute a breach of duties of the directors of E*TRADE Australia.

(c) No solicitation

Under the Bid Facilitation Agreement, E*TRADE Australia has agreed that it must not and must ensure that its employees, officers and (to the extent it is reasonably able to influence them) its associates do not, and E*TRADE Australia must not require or request any adviser or agent, to directly or indirectly solicit or initiate any inquiries, proposals or discussions regarding any Competing Proposal (whether from a person with whom E*TRADE Australia has previously been in discussions or not).

A Competing Proposal is any proposal (including a scheme of arrangement) or offer that would if completed substantially in accordance with its terms, result in:

- (i) any person other than ANZ acquiring:
 - (A) control of E*TRADE Australia;
 - (B) an interest in all or a material part of the assets or business of E*TRADE Australia;
 - (C) a relevant interest in more than 10% of the voting shares in E*TRADE Australia; or
- (ii) E*TRADE Australia and another person forming a joint venture with respect to E*TRADE Australia's business (or a material part of it), or merging their businesses, or operating under a dual listed company, or similar structure.

Under the Bid Facilitation Agreement, E*TRADE Australia agreed to cease any existing discussions or negotiations with any third party relating to any Competing Proposal or any transaction that may reduce the likelihood of the success of the Bid.

E*TRADE Australia also agreed to immediately notify ANZ of any genuine and realistic approach or attempt to initiate discussions or negotiations regarding a Competing Proposal. The notice must include the identity of the relevant third party and details of the Competing Proposal.

To the extent it is entitled to do so, E*TRADE Australia has agreed to immediately require the return of all confidential information provided to third parties (other than ANZ) as part of any past solicitation of Competing Proposals.

These obligations cease where ANZ (or a subsidiary of ANZ) fails to make the Bid, ANZ (or a subsidiary of ANZ) withdraws the Bid after the Bid is made, or the Bid closes.

16.4 Announcement of ANZ's Offer

In accordance with the Bid Facilitation Agreement, by an announcement to the ASX on 19 February 2007, ANZ announced its intention to make a cash takeover offer for E*TRADE Australia of $4.05 per E*TRADE Share for the 65.8% of E*TRADE Australia's issued capital that ANZ does not own. On the same date, E*TRADE Australia also announced to ASX that it had reached an agreement with ANZ on a cash offer of $4.05 per share for the 65.8% of E*TRADE Australia's issued capital that ANZ does not own. The E*TRADE Australia announcement said that:

- a committee of independent directors comprising Kerry Roxburgh, Jim Dominguez, Ian Hunter and Brett Spork was established to consider ANZ's Offer and unanimously recommend that E*TRADE Australia shareholders accept the offer in the absence of a superior proposal and subject to an independent expert concluding that the offer is fair and reasonable; and
- the independent directors will accept the offer for their own E*TRADE Australia shareholdings subject to the above.

16.5 ASX/ACH Consents

Both the ANZ Group and the E*TRADE Australia Group include members who are ASX market participants and participants of the ACH clearing facility. Under ASX Market Rules, a company admitted as an ASX market participant must not become a related body corporate of another such participant without the consent of ASX. Likewise, under the ACH Clearing Rules, a company admitted as a participant of the ACH clearing facility must not become a related body corporate of another such participant without the consent of ACH.

ASX and ACH have given the necessary consents under ASX Market Rules and ACH Clearing Rules.

16.7 Employee share plans

E*TRADE Australia operates or has operated a number of employee share schemes involving the provision of E*TRADE Shares to its employees. ANZ Online understands that the rules of these schemes may restrict participants from accepting the Offer for E*TRADE Shares which were acquired under the scheme. E*TRADE Australia is in the best position to advise participants in its employee shares schemes whether they will be able to accept the Offer in respect of E*TRADE Shares which are subject to these schemes. ANZ Online expects that E*TRADE Australia will provide participants with additional information in relation to these matters in its target's statement in response to the Takeover Bid or other documentation. These participants should refer to these materials before deciding how to deal with their E*TRADE Shares.

16.8 Approvals for payment of consideration

Commenting on the changes, Mr Targett said: These changes provide new development opportunities for senior colleagues and continue movement between the corporate, personal and specialist functions with the Group.

The appointments are effective immediately.

Letter to shareholders (excluding USA/Canada)

Dear Shareholder

Changes to ANZ's Dividend Reinvestment Plan (DRP) and Bonus Option Plan (BOP)

As you are aware, ANZ provides eligible shareholders the opportunity to obtain additional ANZ shares by participating in ANZ's Dividend Reinvestment Plan (DRP) and ANZ's Bonus Option Plan (BOP). I am writing to notify you that a number of changes are being made to these Plans.

These changes will take effect following expiry of the required one month notice period in accordance with the current terms and conditions of the Plans, and therefore will apply to the upcoming 2007 interim dividend.

If you currently participate in the DRP or BOP, your existing participation election will continue to apply.

If you would like to commence participating in the DRP or BOP, or would like to vary your current participation election, please complete and return the enclosed Election Form to ANZ's Share Registrar in the postage paid envelope provided. If you wish this new instruction to be effective for the 2007 interim dividend, you must ensure the completed Election Form is returned by 5.00pm (Melbourne time) on 18 May 2007, the record date for the 2007 interim dividend.

Please note that if you have more than one registered holding you will receive a separate letter and Election Form in respect of each holding. If you wish to change your current participation election in respect of more than one holding, it will be necessary for you to complete a separate new Election Form in respect of each holding.

The major changes to the DRP and BOP are described below:

(a) Removal of the maximum participation cap

Previously, eligible shareholders could choose to participate in the DRP or BOP up to a maximum of 50,000 shares. References to this 50,000 share cap have been removed from the DRP and BOP terms and conditions.

Accordingly, shareholders may now elect to participate in the DRP or BOP for up to their total shareholding.

If you hold more than 50,000 shares and your current election is to participate in the DRP or BOP for all of your shareholding or for more than 50,000 shares, you will automatically be treated as participating for all the shares referred to in your current election following removal of the cap. You must complete and return the enclosed Election Form if you wish to participate for less than your current election.

The modified terms and conditions provide the Board with discretion to impose a limit on participation, from time to time. If the Board should decide in the future to re-introduce a limit, shareholders will be notified in accordance with the new terms and conditions.

(b) DRP Shares can be newly issued or transferred

Under the modified DRP terms and conditions, ANZ now has discretion to either issue new shares or to purchase existing shares when satisfying its obligations to provide shares under the DRP. This provides ANZ with flexibility in managing its issued capital.

Shares provided under the BOP will continue to be newly issued shares.

(c) Acquisition Price and discount on Acquisition Price

The share price used to calculate the number of shares a participant in the DRP or BOP receives (the Acquisition Price) has been amended. The terms and conditions now provide that the share price used will be the arithmetic average of the daily volume weighted average sale price of ANZ shares sold in the ordinary course of trading on ASX during the pricing period. The arithmetic average is rounded to the nearest whole cent. The pricing period is the period of 7 trading days commencing on the second trading day following the record date for the relevant dividend. The Board has discretion to shorten or lengthen this period.

Another new feature that has been introduced into the DRP and BOP is the ability for the Board to apply a discount to the Acquisition Price. This means that shareholders participating in the DRP or BOP may, if the Board decides, be provided with a number of shares which is calculated based on a price less than the prevailing market price determined during the pricing period. The Board has determined that no discount applies at this time.

(d) Notice of modification, suspension or termination

The DRP and BOP terms and conditions have been amended to permit a notice of modification, suspension or termination of the DRP or BOP to be made by giving a notice to ASX and on ANZ's website www.anz.com. Alternatively, ANZ may send a notice directly to shareholders. The effective date of the notice will be the date it is given or any other date provided for in the terms and conditions or referred to in the notice. Previously, at least one month's prior notice to all shareholders was required.

(e) Ineligible shareholders

The DRP and BOP terms and conditions continue to give the Board discretion to determine that a shareholder may be ineligible to participate in the DRP or BOP due to the place of residence of that shareholder and legal requirements applicable to dividend reinvestment or bonus option plans in certain countries.

The new terms and conditions expressly confirm that participation is not currently available directly or indirectly to any entity or person, including any legal or beneficial owner of shares, who is (or who is acting on behalf of or for the account or benefit of an entity or person who is) in or resident in the United States of America, its possessions or territories, or Canada.

No Election Forms to participate are being solicited from any entity, person or resident in the United States of America, its possessions or territories, or Canada, and none will be accepted if executed by any such entity, person or resident.

If shares are held in a broker's clearing account or by a trustee or nominee, the legal owner (i.e. the broker, trustee or nominee) is responsible for ensuring that they are not participating in the DRP or BOP on behalf of or for the account or benefit of an entity or person who is in or resident in the United States of America, its possessions or territories, or Canada. The enclosed Election Form should be completed if you are a broker, trustee or nominee and, after taking into account these requirements, it is necessary to vary the level or extent of your participation on behalf of beneficiaries.

For full details of all the changes being made to the DRP and BOP, please refer to the amended DRP terms and conditions and the amended BOP terms and conditions which are available under Dividend Information in the Shareholder Services section of our website at www.anz.com/shareholders. Details of your current participation level in either of the Plans can also be accessed from our website under View your ANZ Shares at www.anz.com/shareholders.

If you have any questions in relation to either of the Plans, or you would like a copy of the amended terms and conditions to be sent to you, please contact ANZ's Share Registrar on 1800 11 33 99 (Australia), 0800 174 007 (New Zealand) or (61 3) 9415 4010 (any other country).

Yours faithfully

Letter to shareholders in USA/Canada

Dear Shareholder

Changes to ANZ's Dividend Reinvestment Plan (DRP) and Bonus Option Plan (BOP)

I am writing to notify you that a number of changes are being made to ANZ's Dividend Reinvestment Plan (DRP) and ANZ's Bonus Option Plan (BOP).

These changes will take effect following expiry of the required one month notice period in accordance with the current terms and conditions of the Plans, and therefore will apply to the upcoming 2007 interim dividend.

Letters detailing the changes being made to the DRP and BOP are being distributed to all shareholders, including to shareholders in or resident in the United States of America, its possessions or territories, or Canada, in order to comply with the current terms and conditions of the DRP and BOP and relevant Australian legal requirements.

However, it is important to note that participation in the DRP and BOP is not available to any entity or person who is (or who is acting on behalf of or for the account or benefit of an entity or person who is) in or resident in the United States of America, its possessions or territories, or Canada. This letter is not an offer or solicitation of an offer to participate in either the DRP or BOP, and the DRP and BOP are not being offered and will not be offered, directly or indirectly in or into the United States of America, its possessions or territories, or Canada.

Accordingly, copies of the DRP and BOP documentation and any related materials are not being, and must not be, sent or otherwise distributed in or into or from the United States of America, its possessions or territories, or Canada. Any purported participation in the DRP and /or BOP resulting directly or indirectly from a violation of these restrictions will be invalid. No application forms to participate are being solicited from any entity or person or resident in the United States of America, its possessions or territories, or Canada and will not be accepted if executed by any such entity, person or resident.

The major changes to the DRP and BOP are described below, and full details of all the changes are located on our website www.anz.com:

(a) Removal of the maximum participation cap

Previously, eligible shareholders could choose to participate in the DRP or BOP up to a maximum of 50,000 shares. References to this 50,000 share cap have been removed from the DRP and BOP terms and conditions.

Accordingly, eligible shareholders may now elect to participate in the DRP or BOP for up to their total shareholding without any limitation.

The modified terms and conditions provide the Board with discretion to impose a limit on participation, from time to time. If the Board should decide in the future to re-introduce a limit, shareholders will be notified in accordance with the new terms and conditions.

Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited ABN 11 005 357 522

(b) DRP Shares can be newly issued or transferred

Under the modified DRP terms and conditions, ANZ now has discretion to either issue new shares or to purchase existing shares when satisfying its obligations to provide shares under the DRP. This provides ANZ with flexibility in managing its issued capital.

Shares provided under the BOP will continue to be newly issued shares.

(c) Acquisition Price and discount on Acquisition Price

The share price used to calculate the number of shares a participant in the DRP or BOP receives (the Acquisition Price) has been amended. The DRP and BOP terms and conditions now provide that the share price used will be the arithmetic average of the daily volume weighted average sale price of ANZ shares sold in the ordinary course of trading on ASX during the pricing period . The arithmetic average is rounded to the nearest whole cent. The pricing period is the period of 7 trading days commencing on the second trading day following the record date for the relevant dividend. The Board has discretion to shorten or lengthen this period.

Another new feature that has been introduced into the DRP and BOP is the ability for the Board to apply a discount to the Acquisition Price. This means that eligible shareholders participating in the DRP or BOP may, if the Board decides, be provided with a number of shares which is calculated based on a price less than the prevailing market price determined during the pricing period. The Board has determined that no discount applies at this time.

(d) Notice of modification, suspension or termination

The DRP and BOP terms and conditions have been amended to permit a notice of modification, suspension or termination of the DRP or BOP to be made by giving a notice to ASX and on ANZ's website www.anz.com. Alternatively, ANZ may send a notice directly to shareholders. The effective date of the notice will be the date it is given or any other date provided for in the terms and conditions or referred to in the notice. Previously, at least one month's prior notice to all shareholders was required.

(e) Ineligible shareholders

The DRP and BOP terms and conditions continue to give the Board discretion to determine that a shareholder may be ineligible to participate in the DRP or BOP due to the place of residence of that shareholder and legal requirements applicable to dividend reinvestment or bonus option plans in certain countries.

The new terms and conditions expressly confirm that participation is not currently available directly or indirectly to any entity or person, including any legal or beneficial owner of shares, who is (or who is acting on behalf of or for the account or benefit of an entity or person who is) in or resident in the United States of America, its possessions or territories, or Canada.

Dear Shareholder

Changes to ANZ's Shareholder Privilege Package

As you may be aware, ANZ has provided a Shareholder Privilege Package that includes discounts for eligible shareholders on a small number of ANZ's products and services.

During a recent review of the package, we found that a very low number of our shareholders are using these product offers. Given the small take up of the package, it has been decided to end the Shareholder Privilege Package in its current form, effective 30 March 2007.

For shareholders who are currently using the package, benefits on facilities in place as at 30 March 2007 will continue until further notice, with the exception of bank cheques, and travellers cheques.

Discounts on bank cheques and travellers cheques will now only be available to eligible shareholders who hold a transaction or savings account with ANZ as at 30 March 2007. To obtain these discounts, you will need to retain your 2006 Shareholder card and present it to branch staff. Please see the frequently asked questions leaflet accompanying this letter for further details.

These shareholder benefits will continue to apply while you hold more than 300 ANZ shares, until further notice from ANZ.

We believe that continuing to focus on providing superior financial returns through profit and dividend growth is the best way for us to reward you for your investment in ANZ. In the last year, ANZ's total shareholder return was 17.1% including a fully franked dividend of 125 cents.

Our network of banking and finance specialists are available to discuss with you our competitive and relevant banking solutions best suited to your needs.

If you have any questions, please call 1800 269 008 between the hours of 8.30am - 7.00pm AEST or, for more information, visit the shareholder section of our website at www.anz.com.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours faithfully

Information about the removal of the Shareholder Privilege Package

AUSTRALIA

Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited (ANZ) ABN 11 005 357 522. ANZ's colour blue is a trade mark of ANZ.

1. WHY IS THE SHAREHOLDER PRIVILEGE PACKAGE BEING DISCONTINUED?

The package is costly to maintain, with only a small number of eligible ANZ shareholders using the package. Our research demonstrated that most shareholders no longer consider the benefits offered to be relevant to their particular financial needs. Providing superior financial performance through profit and dividend growth is the best way for us to reward shareholders for their investment in ANZ.

2. WHO WILL BE IMPACTED BY THE CHANGE?

There is no change for shareholders who are not currently using the package.

For shareholders who are currently using the package, benefits on facilities in place as at 30 March 2007 will continue until further notice, with the exception of bank cheques and travellers cheques. Discounts on bank cheques and travellers cheques will now only be available to eligible shareholders who hold a transaction or savings account with ANZ as at 30 March 2007. To obtain the discounts on bank cheques and travellers cheques, you will need to retain your 2006 Shareholder card and present it to branch staff.

These shareholder benefits will continue to apply while you hold more than 300 ANZ shares, until further notice from ANZ.

3. WILL IT BE REPLACED WITH ANOTHER PACKAGE?

We are not planning to introduce another package, however, as opportunities arise, we may provide our shareholders with relevant and competitive product offers.

4. HOW LONG WILL EXISTING BENEFITS BE HONOURED?

Benefits on facilities in place as at 30 March 2007 will continue until further notice. Existing discounts cannot be transferred to any other facility, and ANZ reserves the right to change or withdraw any discounts currently in place on existing products at any time.

5. HOW DO ELIGIBLE SHAREHOLDERS CONTINUE USING THE SHAREHOLDER PRIVILEGE PACKAGE?

In the past, shareholders had to visit an ANZ branch each year to renew their benefits. From 30 March 2007, existing users will not need to take any action to continue receiving existing discounts, with the exception of bank cheques and travellers cheques.

Existing discounts will automatically apply as long as you hold more than 300 ANZ shares, until further notice from ANZ. For bank cheques and travellers cheques, you will need to hold a transaction or savings account with ANZ as at 30 March 2007, and present your 2006 Shareholder Card to obtain a discount, until further notice from ANZ.

6. WHY ARE SOME OFFERS TO THE PUBLIC BETTER THAN THE SHAREHOLDER PRIVILEGE PACKAGE?

ANZ customer offerings are generally based on convenience, not price, and special deals promoted to the public are offered for a short period of time for commercial reasons. The short term nature of these promotions may enable us to offer a better deal than under the ongoing Shareholder Privilege Package. In addition, offers to the public are often targeted to meet a specific need as compared to the offers under the Shareholder Privilege Package, which are not targeted and are generally available to all shareholders with greater than 300 shares.

We recognise that all shareholders have differing needs that cannot be met by one package and welcome the opportunity to provide a financial solution to meet each shareholder's personal needs.

7. WHY HAS ANZ DECIDED TO END THE SHAREHOLDER PRIVILEGE PACK WHEN SOME OTHER BANKS ARE CONTINUING TO OFFER A PACKAGE?

Most large companies in Australia choose not to offer an ongoing shareholder scheme as often only a small number of shareholders may benefit at the expense of the broader shareholder group. Our aim is to reward our shareholders with a strong return on investment through share price growth and improving dividends. Our banking and finance specialists are in a position to offer shareholders competitive banking solutions and welcome the opportunity to provide a full assessment of shareholders' banking needs. In many cases, the end solution may be more competitive than the discontinued Shareholder Privilege Package.

8. WHO CAN SHAREHOLDERS CALL WITH QUESTIONS?

Shareholders can phone 1800 269 008 between the hours of 8.30am-7.00pm AEST with any questions or refer to the shareholder section on our website www.anz.com.

Bonus Option Plan & Dividend Reinvestment Plan

Terms and Conditions Effective April 2007

Bonus Option Plan Terms and Conditions

1. Participation in the BOP

1.1 Participation by Shareholders

Participation by Shareholders in the BOP is optional, non transferable and subject to these Terms and Conditions.

The degree of a Shareholder's participation may, subject to the restrictions and procedures provided for in these Terms and Conditions, be varied or terminated by the Shareholder or the Company at any time.

1.2 Shareholders not eligible to participate

A Shareholder who is subject to the laws of a country or place other than Australia may not be eligible to participate in the BOP because of legal requirements that apply in that country or place or in Australia. Allotment of Shares to Shareholders who are not resident in Australia at the time of allotment will be subject to all necessary government approvals. It is the responsibility of each Shareholder to obtain any such approvals. Before electing to participate in the BOP, Shareholders who are not resident in Australia should seek professional advice to ascertain if any restrictions apply.

The Board may determine at any time that the right to participate in the BOP shall not be available to a Shareholder whose registered address in a country or place where, in the absence of a registration statement or other formality, the offer of a right to so participate would or might be unlawful.

Until the Board otherwise determines, participation in the BOP is not available directly or indirectly to any entity or person, including any legal or beneficial owner of Shares, who is (or who is acting on behalf of or for the account or benefit of an entity or person who is) in or resident in the United States of America, its possessions or territories, or Canada. Copies of BOP documents shall not be mailed or otherwise distributed or sent into the United States of America, its possessions or territories, or Canada.

2. Application to participate

Application to participate in the BOP is to be made on the Election Form. Upon receipt by the Share Registrar of the Election Form correctly completed, a Shareholder will, subject to rule 12.1, participate commencing on the next Record Date in respect of an Eligible Dividend.

If a Shareholder is shown on the Share Registry as holding more than one parcel of Shares and has been allocated a separate, unique holder identification number or security reference number for each of those parcels:

- (a) a separate Election Form is required for each of those parcels; and
- (b) these Terms and Conditions apply as if each of those parcels were registered in the name of a separate Shareholder.

3. Degree and limits of participation

3.1 Degree of participation

Participation in the BOP may be either full or partial for:

- (a) all of the Shares registered in the name of the Shareholder on a relevant Record Date, or
- (b) the number of Shares registered in the name of the Shareholder specified in an Election Form.

An Election Form which does not specify the degree of participation shall be deemed to be a request for full participation in the BOP of all Shares registered in the name of the Shareholder.

An Election Form which specifies a number of Shares which is greater than a Shareholder's total holding on a relevant Record Date, shall be deemed to be a request for full participation in the BOP of all Shares registered in the name of the Shareholder for the purposes of the Eligible Dividend relating to that Record Date.

Shares issued under the BOP will be added to those already participating in the BOP and these will automatically forego future dividends and generate further bonus shares until the Shareholder notifies the Share Registrar otherwise.

3.2 Limit on BOP participation

The Board may determine from time to time that not more than a specified number or percentage of Shares registered in a

Shareholder's name may participate in the BOP. If the Board does so, the Company must notify Shareholders accordingly. Once notified, each BOP Participant's participation will be subject to that maximum and, if any BOP Participant's participating Shares exceeds the maximum determined by the Board, the number of Shares participating will be that maximum number determined by the Board.

If:

(a) the Board determines to impose a limit on the number or percentage of a Shareholder's Shares that may participate in the BOP; and

(b) Shares are held in a broker's clearing account (as defined in the Listing Rules) or by a trustee or nominee, the broker, trustee or nominee will be permitted to participate up to such limit in respect of each person whose Shares are held that way, subject to the restrictions and procedures provided for in these Terms and Conditions.

4. Operation of the BOP

4.1 Application of dividend

The amount of each Eligible Dividend otherwise payable to a BOP Participant (but for participation in the BOP) on the BOP Participant's BOP Shares will be foregone by the BOP Participant. However, the Board shall issue and allot to the BOP Participant the number of Shares determined under rule 4.4.

4.2 Bound by Constitution

By applying to participate in the BOP a Shareholder agrees to be bound by the Constitution in respect of all Shares allotted to the Shareholder under the BOP.

4.3 BOP Account

The Company will establish and maintain a BOP Account for each BOP Participant. The Company will record in each BOP Participant's BOP Account number of BOP Shares held by the BOP Participant, from time to time, including any Shares allotted under rule 4.4.

4.4 Number of BOP Shares to be allotted

The number of Shares (N) which may be allotted to a BOP Participant in relation to an Eligible Dividend is the quotient (Q) determined in accordance with the following formula after rounding Q down to the nearest whole number:

$$Q = [(S \times D) + PB] \text{ divided by } AP$$

Where:

S is the number of BOP Shares held by the BOP Participant in the BOP Participant's BOP Account on the Record Date in relation to the Eligible Dividend;

D is the amount in cents per Share of the Eligible Dividend that the BOP Participant has foregone in respect of the BOP Participant's BOP Shares;

PB is the amount expressed in cents (if any) determined in accordance with rule 4.5; and

AP is the Acquisition Price (expressed in cents) in relation to the Eligible Dividend.

4.5 Previous BOP balances

For the purpose of determining under rule 4.4 the number of Shares which may be allotted to a BOP Participant in respect of an Eligible Dividend (the applicable Eligible Dividend), if N as determined in accordance with rule 4.4 for a BOP Participant for the previous Eligible Dividend is in any case less than the quotient (Q) determined in accordance with the formula in rule 4.4 for that previous Eligible Dividend, then, PB in respect of the applicable Eligible Dividend shall be the amount in cents calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$PB = (Q - N) \times AP$$

Where:

PB is the amount in cents;

Q is the quotient as determined by applying the formula in rule 4.4 in relation to the previous Eligible Dividend (which for the avoidance of doubt is before rounding to the nearest whole number);

N is the whole number determined pursuant to rule 4.4 in relation to the previous Eligible Dividend; and

AP is the amount determined as AP pursuant to rule 4.4 in relation to the previous Eligible Dividend.

5. Shares Allotted under the BOP

Shares allotted under the BOP will be issued as bonus Shares and no consideration is payable for the issue of those Shares. The issued Shares will, from the date of allotment, rank equally in all respects with all other Shares in the Company, and will be allotted on, or as soon as practicable after, the payment date of the relevant Eligible Dividend.

An allotment of bonus Shares which BOP Participants become entitled to under the BOP shall be effected by the allotment and issue of such bonus Shares without any amount being credited to the Company's share capital account.

Shares allotted under the BOP will be registered on the Share Registry on which the BOP Participant's holding of BOP Shares is currently registered.

6. Costs to Shareholders

No brokerage, commission or other transaction costs will be payable by a Shareholder on Shares provided under the BOP and no stamp or other transaction duties will, under present law, be payable by a BOP Participant.

7. Plan Statements

The Company will send to each BOP Participant a BOP statement on or after the payment date of each Eligible Dividend providing full details of the BOP Participant's transactions in the BOP and the BOP Account.

8. Variation or Termination of Participation

Subject to rule 12.1, a BOP Participant may at any time give notice to the Company:

- (a) increasing or decreasing the number of the BOP Participant's Shares participating in the BOP; or
- (b) terminating the BOP Participant's participation in the BOP.

If a BOP Participant dies or becomes bankrupt, the participation of that BOP Participant and any other Shareholder with whom the deceased or bankrupt BOP Participant was a joint Shareholder will be terminated upon receipt by the Company of notice of the death or bankruptcy, as the case may be.

Upon termination of participation in the BOP by a Shareholder for any reason (other than termination by the Company), the Shareholder will not be entitled to receive from the Company payment of any money in respect of a BOP Account at the time when participation by the Shareholder in the BOP is terminated or the Shareholder ceases to participate in the BOP.

9. Reduction or Termination of Participation where no notice is given

Where a BOP Participant with partial participation in the BOP disposes of part of the BOP Participant's holding of Shares then, unless the BOP Participant advises the Company otherwise, the Shares disposed of will be deemed to be Shares not participating in the BOP. If the number of Shares disposed of is greater than the number of the BOP Participant's Shares not participating in the BOP, the Shares disposed of will be deducted from the BOP Participant's holding of Shares in the following order:

- (a) Shares not participating in either the DRP or BOP;
- (b) Shares participating in the DRP; and
- (c) BOP Shares.

10. Modification, suspension and termination of the BOP

The BOP may be modified, suspended or terminated by the Company at any time upon the Company giving notice to Shareholders. In the case of a modification, it will be deemed that each existing BOP Participant will continue to participate under the modified BOP on the basis of the last Election Form received by the Company in accordance with these Terms and Conditions unless the Company is notified to the contrary by the BOP Participant in an Election Form.

If the BOP is suspended or terminated by the Company, a BOP Participant will not be entitled to receive from the Company payment of any money in respect of a BOP Account at the time when participation by the BOP Participant in the BOP is suspended or terminated. If the BOP is suspended and subsequently reinstated, subject to rule 8 and unless otherwise determined by the Board, each Shareholder who was a BOP Participant before the suspension is taken to continue to participate in the BOP when it recommences with, subject to these Terms and Conditions, the same degree of participation as immediately before the suspension.

11. Securities Exchange Listing

The Company will promptly make application for Shares allotted under the BOP to be listed on the official list of ASX and the New Zealand Stock Exchange (as applicable).

12. Applications and Notices

12.1 Applications and notices to the Company

Applications and notices to the Company shall be in writing and in accordance with the Election Form. Applications and notices will be effective upon receipt by the Share Registrar in accordance with any directions in the Election Form subject to:

- (a) these Terms and Conditions;
- (b) in the case of applications to participate in the BOP made on an Election Form, acceptance by the Company;
- (c) in relation to any Eligible Dividend, receipt by not later than 5.00pm (Melbourne time) on the relevant Record Date; and
- (d) any other restrictions that the Board may determine from time to time.

The Company will not accept an Election Form from any entity or person who does not represent that they are not (and that they are not acting on behalf or for the account or benefit of an entity or person who is) in or resident in the United States of America, its possessions or territories, or Canada, or any other jurisdiction which the Board may determine in its absolute discretion.

12.2 Notices from the Company

Any notice to Shareholders or announcement to be made by the Company or the Board in relation to the BOP (including in relation to any modification, suspension or termination, any discount or any other matter provided for in these Terms and Conditions) may be made:

- (a) by notice to ASX for release to the market and on the Company's website; or
- (b) by notice to Shareholders in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution which provide for notices to Shareholders.

Any such notice or announcement will be effective from the date given, or any other date provided for in these Terms and Conditions or referred to in the notice or announcement.

13. Taxation

Given the complex nature of taxation and of other legislation, the variety of jurisdictions involved, and the diverse taxation and financial circumstances applying to Shareholders, the Company cannot take any responsibility for any advice expressed or implied in this document.

Shareholders should obtain their own professional advice in relation to the financial and taxation implications of any of the dividend alternatives offered.

This document does not contain the information which would be contained in a prospectus. It is limited to information concerning the operation of the BOP.

Neither the Company nor any of its directors, officers, employees, representatives or agents accept any responsibility or assume any liability for any taxation liabilities incurred by or imposed upon any Shareholder as a consequence of the Shareholder participating in the BOP.

14. General

(a) The BOP and its operation and these Terms and Conditions shall be governed by the laws of the State of Victoria.

(b) The accidental omission to give any notice (including any notice of modification, suspension or termination) to, or the non-receipt of any notice by, any Shareholder shall not invalidate the notice, or the effect of the notice, including the modification, suspension or termination of the BOP as the case may be.

(c) Any determination, notification or calculation to be made or given by the Board or the Company may be made or given by the Board or the Company respectively in its absolute discretion and in the absence of manifest error is binding on each Shareholder who elects to participate in the BOP.

15. Interpretation

In these Terms and Conditions, the following definitions apply:

Acquisition Price in relation to an Eligible Dividend, means the arithmetic average of the daily volume weighted average sale price of all Shares sold on ASX in the ordinary course of trading on ASX during the Pricing Period less a discount (if any) determined by the Board from time to time and notified by the Company to Shareholders (with the arithmetic average, after deduction of any discount, rounded to the nearest whole cent but if the fraction is one half of a cent the amount is to be rounded down to the nearest whole cent). The Acquisition Price is to be calculated based on information obtained from ASX or its subsidiaries, and for this purpose the Company may determine at its discretion that a particular transaction is not to be included in the calculation because, in the Company's view, it is not within the ordinary course of trading on ASX.

- (f) if any of these Terms and Conditions are or become inconsistent with the Trading Rules, these Terms and Conditions are to be taken not to contain that provision to the extent of the inconsistency.

Dividend Reinvestment Plan

Terms and Conditions

1. Participation in the DRP

1.1 Participation by Shareholders

Participation by Shareholders in the DRP is optional, non transferable and subject to these Terms and Conditions.

The degree of a Shareholder's participation may, subject to the restrictions and procedures provided for in these Terms and Conditions, be varied or terminated by the Shareholder or the Company at any time.

1.2 Shareholders not eligible to participate

A Shareholder who is subject to the laws of a country or place other than Australia may not be eligible to participate in the DRP because of legal requirements that apply in that country or place or in Australia. Allotment or transfer of Shares to Shareholders who are not resident in Australia at the time of allotment or transfer will be subject to all necessary government approvals. It is the responsibility of each Shareholder to obtain any such approvals. Before electing to participate in the DRP, Shareholders who are not resident in Australia should seek professional advice to ascertain if any restrictions apply.

The Board may determine at any time that the right to participate in the DRP shall not be available to a Shareholder whose registered address is in a country or place where, in the absence of a registration statement or other formality, the offer of a right to so participate would or might be unlawful.

Until the Board otherwise determines, participation in the DRP is not available directly or indirectly to any entity or person, including any legal or beneficial owner of Shares, who is (or who is acting on behalf of or for the account or benefit of an entity or person who is) in or resident in the United States of America, its possessions or territories, or Canada. Copies of DRP documents shall not be mailed or otherwise distributed or sent into the United States of America, its possessions or territories, or Canada.

2. Application to participate

Application to participate in the DRP is to be made on the Election Form. Upon receipt by the Share Registrar of the Election Form correctly completed, a Shareholder will, subject to rule 12.1, participate commencing on the next Record Date in respect of an Eligible Dividend.

If a Shareholder is shown on the Share Registry as holding more than one parcel of Shares and has been allocated a separate unique holder identification number or security reference number for each of those parcels:

- (a) a separate Election Form is required for each of those parcels; and
- (b) these Terms and Conditions apply as if each of those parcels were registered in the name of a separate Shareholder.

3. Degree and limits on participation

3.1 Degree of Participation

Participation in the DRP may be either full or partial for:

- (a) all of the Shares registered in the name of the Shareholder on a relevant Record Date, or
- (b) the number of Shares registered in the name of the Shareholder specified in an Election Form.

An Election Form which does not specify the degree of participation shall be deemed to be a request for full participation in the DRP of all Shares registered in the name of the Shareholder.

An Election Form which specifies a number of Shares which is greater than the Shareholder's total holding on a relevant Record Date, shall be deemed to be a request for full participation in the DRP of all Shares registered in the name of the Shareholder for the purposes of the Eligible Dividend relating to that Record Date.

Shares issued or transferred under the DRP will be added to those already participating in the DRP and unless the Shareholder notifies the Share Registrar otherwise, dividends paid in respect of these Shares will be automatically reinvested under the DRP.

3.2 Limit on DRP participation

The Board may determine from time to time that not more than a specified number or percentage of Shares registered in a Shareholder's name may participate in the DRP. If the Board does so, the Company must notify Shareholders accordingly. Once notified, each DRP Participant's participation will be subject to that maximum and, if any DRP Participant's participating Shares exceeds the maximum determined by the Board, the number of Shares participating will be that maximum number determined by the Board.

If:

(a) the Board determines to impose a limit on the number or percentage of a Shareholder's Shares that may participate in the DRP; and

(b) Shares are held in a broker's clearing account (as defined in the Listing Rules) or by a trustee or nominee,

the broker, trustee or nominee will be permitted to participate up to such limit in respect of each person whose Shares are held that way, subject to the restrictions and procedures provided for in these Terms and Conditions.

4. Operation of the DRP

4.1 Application of dividend

The amount of each Eligible Dividend payable to a DRP Participant on DRP Shares (less Australian Withholding Tax if applicable) will be applied by the Company on the DRP Participant's behalf in subscription for, or to purchase, additional Shares. However, if an amount is payable on the DRP Shares and the Company is entitled to and does retain or otherwise deal with the amount in accordance with the Constitution or the requirements of any law, the amount shall not be available for the purposes of participating in the DRP.

4.2 Bound by Constitution

By applying to participate in the DRP a Shareholder agrees to be bound by the Constitution in respect of all Shares provided to the Shareholder under the DRP.

4.3 DRP Account

The Company will establish and maintain a DRP Account for each DRP Participant. For each Eligible Dividend payment on DRP Shares, the Company will for each DRP Participant:

14

- (a) determine any cash balance remaining from previous Eligible Dividend payments and held to the credit of the DRP Account of the DRP Participant;
- (b) determine the amount of the Eligible Dividend payable to the DRP Participant in respect of the DRP Participant's DRP Shares;
- (c) determine (where applicable) the Australian Withholding Tax in respect of the Eligible Dividend to be deducted therefrom;
- (d) credit the amount calculated under paragraph (b) and debit the applicable Australian Withholding Tax (if any) calculated under paragraph (c) to the DRP Account of the DRP Participant;
- (e) determine the maximum whole number of Shares to be issued or transferred to the DRP Participant in accordance with rule 4.5;
- (f) on behalf of and in the name of the DRP Participant, subscribe for, or purchase, that number of additional Shares determined under paragraph (e) and debit the DRP Participant's DRP Account with the total of the Acquisition Price for each of those Shares;
- (g) allot, transfer or cause the transfer of that number of additional Shares determined under paragraph (e) to the DRP Participant on, or as soon as practicable after, the payment date of the Eligible Dividend; and
- (h) retain in the DRP Participant's DRP Account, without interest, any cash balance remaining after the DRP Account has been debited in accordance with paragraph (f), which cash balance shall be used in the calculations for determining the maximum number of Shares to be issued under the DRP at the time of payment of the next Eligible Dividend.

4.4 Shares may be newly issued or purchased

The Board may in its discretion determine whether Shares are to be subscribed for or purchased (on ASX or otherwise) or some combination of both, for the purpose of the Company satisfying its obligations under the DRP.

The Company may create a trust (of which Shareholders who have elected to participate in the DRP are the beneficiaries) to acquire those Shares and then transfer or cause the transfer of those Shares to DRP Participants.

4.5 Number of DRP Shares to be issued or transferred

Subject to the discretion of the Board, the number of Shares to be issued or transferred to each DRP Participant in relation to an Eligible Dividend is the quotient (Q) determined in accordance with the following formula after rounding Q down to the nearest whole number:

$Q = D \text{ divided by } AP$

Where:

D is the amount standing to the credit of the DRP Participant's DRP Account after the steps in paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of rule 4.3 have been completed (inclusive of any cash balance standing to the credit of the DRP Participant's DRP Account before those steps were commenced (referred to in paragraph (a) of rule 4.3)); and

AP is the Acquisition Price in relation to the Eligible Dividend.

5. Shares allotted or transferred under the Plan

Shares allotted under the DRP will, from the date of allotment, rank equally in all respects with all other Shares in the Company.

Shares allotted or transferred under the DRP will be allotted or transferred on, or as soon as practicable after, the payment date of the relevant Eligible Dividend and will be registered on the Share Registry on which the DRP Participant's holding of DRP Shares is currently registered.

6. Cost to Shareholders

No brokerage, commission or other transaction costs will be payable by a Shareholder on Shares provided under the DRP and no stamp or other transaction duties will, under present law, be payable by a DRP Participant.

7. Plan Statements

The Company will send to each DRP Participant a DRP statement for each Eligible Dividend payment providing full details of the DRP Participant's transactions in the DRP and the DRP Account.

8. Variation or Termination of Participation

Subject to rule 12.1, a DRP Participant may at any time give notice to the Company:

- (a) increasing or decreasing the number of the DRP Participant's Shares participating in the DRP; or
- (b) terminating the DRP Participant's participation in the DRP.

If a DRP Participant dies or becomes bankrupt, the participation of that DRP Participant and any other Shareholder with whom the deceased or bankrupt DRP Participant was a joint Shareholder will be terminated upon receipt by the Company of notice of the death or bankruptcy, as the case may be.

Upon termination of participation in the DRP by a Shareholder for any reason (other than termination by the Company), the Shareholder will not be entitled to receive from the Company payment of any cash balance remaining in the Shareholder's DRP Account at the time when participation by the Shareholder in the DRP is terminated or the Shareholder ceases to participate in the DRP.

9. Reduction or Termination of Participation where no notice is given

Where a DRP Participant with partial participation in the DRP disposes of part of the DRP Participant's holding of Shares then, unless the DRP Participant advises the Company otherwise, the Shares disposed of will be deemed to be Shares not participating in either the DRP or the BOP. If the number of Shares disposed of is greater than the number of the DRP Participant's Shares not participating in either the DRP or the BOP, the Shares disposed of will be deducted from the DRP Participant's holding of Shares in the following order:

- (a) Shares not participating in either the DRP or BOP;
- (b) DRP Shares; and
- (c) Shares participating in the BOP.

10. Modification, suspension and termination of the DRP

The DRP may be modified, suspended or terminated by the Company at any time upon the Company giving notice to Shareholders. In the case of a modification, it will be deemed that each existing DRP Participant will continue to participate under the modified DRP on the basis of the last Election Form received by the Company in accordance with these Terms and Conditions unless the Company is notified to the contrary by the DRP Participant in an Election Form.

If the DRP is suspended by the Company, any cash balance in a DRP Participant's DRP Account will be held by the Company pending the reinstatement of the DRP. If the DRP is suspended and subsequently reinstated, subject to rule 8 and unless otherwise determined by the Board, each Shareholder who was a DRP Participant before the suspension is taken to continue to participate in the DRP when it recommences with, subject to these Terms and Conditions, the same degree of participation as immediately before the suspension.

If the DRP is terminated by the Company, any cash balance in a Shareholder's DRP Account will be returned to the Shareholder.

11. Securities Exchange Listing

The Company will promptly make application for Shares allotted under the DRP to be listed for quotation on ASX and the New Zealand Stock Exchange (as applicable).

12. Applications and Notices

12.1 Applications and notices to the Company

Applications and notices to the Company shall be in writing and in accordance with the Election Form. Applications and notices will be effective upon receipt by the Share Registrar in accordance with any directions in the Election Form, subject to:

- (a) these Terms and Conditions;
- (b) in the case of applications to participate in the DRP made on an Election Form, acceptance by the Company;
- (c) in relation to any Eligible Dividend, receipt by not later than 5.00pm (Melbourne time) on the relevant Record Date; and
- (d) any other restrictions that the Board may determine from time to time.

The Company will not accept an Election Form from any entity or person who does not represent that they are not (and that they are not acting on behalf or for the account or benefit of an entity or person who is) in or resident in the United States of America, its possessions or territories, or Canada, or any other jurisdiction which the Board may determine in its absolute discretion.

12.2 Notices from the Company

Any notice to Shareholders or announcement to be made by the Company or the Board in relation to the DRP (including in relation to any modification, suspension or termination, any discount or any other matter provided for in these Terms and Conditions) may be made:

- (a) by notice to ASX for release to the market and on the Company's website; or
- (b) by notice to Shareholders in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution which provide for notices to Shareholders.

Any such notice or announcement will be effective from the date given, or any other date provided for in these Terms and Conditions or referred to in the notice or announcement.

13. Taxation

Given the complex nature of taxation and of other legislation, the variety of jurisdictions involved, and the diverse taxation and financial circumstances applying to Shareholders, the Company cannot take any responsibility for any advice expressed or implied in this document.

Shareholders should obtain their own professional advice in relation to the financial and taxation implications of any of the dividend alternatives offered.

This document does not contain the information which would be contained in a prospectus. It is limited to information concerning the operation of the DRP.

However, existing provisions of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (Cth) (as amended) and the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth) (as amended) of the Commonwealth of Australia have the effect of subjecting dividends received in Shares under the DRP (and any related franking credits) to tax.

The cost for Australian tax purposes of each DRP Share provided to a DRP Participant under the DRP should include the Acquisition Price for that DRP Share.

Neither the Company nor any of its directors, officers, employees, representatives or agents accept any responsibility or assume any liability for any taxation liabilities incurred by or imposed upon any Shareholder as a consequence of the Shareholder participating in the DRP.

14. General

- (a) The DRP and its operation and these Terms and Conditions shall be governed by the laws of the State of Victoria.
- (b) The accidental omission to give any notice (including any notice of modification, suspension or termination) to, or the non-receipt of any notice by, any Shareholder shall not invalidate the notice or the effect of the notice, including the modification, suspension or termination of the DRP as the case may be.

For Release: 23 March 2007

ANZ maintains $4.05 bid for E*TRADE Australia

ANZ reiterated that its cash offer of $4.05 per share for E*TRADE Australia Limited remains compelling despite the independent expert's report which was released today.

As stated in the report, ANZ's offer provides cash certain value at a price well above E*TRADE Australia's pre-bid share price and that in the absence of ANZ's offer, E*TRADE Australia shares are likely to trade below the offer price. The report itself states that given ANZ's 34.2% shareholding in E*TRADE Australia, there appear to be limited prospects of a higher cash offer.

Commenting on the report, ANZ Group Managing Director, Personal Division, Mr Brian Hartzler said: "We remain attracted to the foundation that E*TRADE could bring us, but only at a realistic price. The independent expert's valuation of E*TRADE is unrealistic. The valuation implies a premium of more than 40% to the forecast earnings(1) multiples of the average of all US on-line brokers. It is also a premium of more than 60% to the earnings(2) multiple for the only other listed Australian on-line broking company and a similar premium to E*TRADE shares only 6 months ago.

The valuation is based on earnings forecasts for the year ending 30 June 2007 which have not been endorsed by E*TRADE Australia.

The independent expert's report is qualified in respect of the value of E*TRADE Australia, stating:

- Judgements regarding the value of E*TRADE are subject to considerable uncertainty.
- E*TRADE has experienced strong earnings growth in recent years, but its profitability is highly leveraged to the strength of the Australian and (indirectly) international equity markets. There is no guarantee that recent favourable equity market conditions will continue.

Mr Hartzler also noted that the valuation is predicated on unreasonable synergy assumptions. "ANZ is bidding for E*TRADE to grow and enhance the business, and not on the basis of cost synergies," Mr Hartzler said.

ANZ's cash offer for E*TRADE Australia closes at 7.00pm (Melbourne time) on 18 April 2007, unless extended. A copy of the ANZ's Bidder's Statement is available from ANZ's website www.anz.com.
