Item 5.05 Amendments to the Registrant's Code of Ethics, or Waiver of a Provision of the Code of Ethics.

Amendment to Code of Ethics to Add Anti-Hedging Policy

On April 26, 2007, the OfficeMax Incorporated (OfficeMax) board of directors approved an anti-hedging policy which will be incorporated by amendment into OfficeMax's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. The text of the policy follows:

The Company considers it inappropriate for any director, officer, or other employee to enter into speculative transactions in OfficeMax securities. Therefore, this insider trading policy also prohibits the purchase or sale of puts, calls, options, or other derivative securities based on the Company's securities. This prohibition also includes hedging or monetization transactions, such as forward sale contracts, in which the stockholder continues to own the underlying security without all the risks or rewards of ownership. Finally, directors, officers, and other employees may not purchase OfficeMax securities on margin, or borrow against any account in which Company securities are held (except for employee loans from OfficeMax Savings Plan accounts). The prohibitions in this paragraph do not apply to the exercise of stock options granted as part of a Company incentive plan.

Director Stock Ownership Guidelines

On April 26, 2007, the OfficeMax board of directors revised the stock ownership guidelines for directors. The new director stock ownership guidelines will be included in OfficeMax's Governance Guidelines. These guidelines are intended to increase the directors' stake in the company and more closely align their interests with those of the OfficeMax shareholders. These guidelines provide that over a four-year period directors should acquire and maintain stock ownership equal to three times the annual retainer amount. The amount of stock required to be held will adjust whenever the retainer for directors is adjusted. All shares owned outright by a director, unvested restricted stock, and stock options with an exercise price of $2.50 per share issued under former director stock plans are taken into consideration in determining whether a director has met these guidelines. In April each year, the governance and nominating committee of the board of directors will review the progress of each director towards achievement of the guidelines. The committee will apply OfficeMax's stock price on March 31 to each director's securities on that date to determine each director's level of compliance with the guidelines. Stock options will be valued at the excess of the market price of the underlying stock over the exercise price. Once a director has met these guidelines, he or she shall be deemed to continue to meet the guidelines and shall be exempt from review in future periods until such director reduces the number of securities he or she holds. Once a director reduces his or her holdings, such director will again be subject to review the following April for compliance with the guidelines.
