Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On June 15, 2007, AXT, Inc., (AXT or the Company) entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement (the Agreement) with Mr. and Mrs. Allen and Janette Blazick (the Buyers) under which it agreed to sell its property and building at 4311 Solar Way in Fremont, California in return for a cash payment of $5,350,000, subject to certain contingencies. In connection with the execution of the Agreement, the Buyers deposited $100,000 with an escrow agent. This initial deposit is refundable if the Buyers do not approve title and the physical condition of the property, including the environmental condition of the property, which must be approved within thirty days of receipt of a closure report related to ongoing environmental remediation of the property (the Environmental Contingency Period). Separately, the Buyers have sole discretion to either lift any other due diligence contingencies or to terminate the Agreement, but must do so within forty-five days of the execution of the Agreement. In the event that the Buyers remove all other due diligence contingencies respecting the property, the Buyers must make an additional non-refundable deposit of $300,000. The closing of the sale of the property is to occur within thirty days of the lapse of the Environmental Contingency Period.

The Agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.23 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein in its entirety. Although the purchase is binding under the Agreement, it is conditioned upon various factors set forth more fully in the Agreement, including without limitation, the issuance of satisfactory title and environmental reports and the lifting of due diligence contingencies by the Buyers. In addition, the lifting of contingencies is based on variables which are beyond the control of the Company and which do not have set time deadlines. Accordingly, if the Company is unable to satisfy the Buyers' contingencies, the sale will not close, and the Company will be required to return to the Buyer the $100,000 deposited with the escrow agent.
