Item 8.01 Other Events

As previously announced by GMH Communities Trust (GMH or the Company), in connection with its proposed merger with American Campus Communities, Inc. (ACC), GMH expects to sell its home office (the Home Office) immediately prior to the closing of the merger, and has the right, but not the obligation, to sell, or dispose of, up to 10 additional student housing assets (the Disposition Assets). Under the terms of the merger agreement with ACC, a percentage of the amount received in connection with the sale of the Home Office and certain of the Disposition Assets may be paid to GMH shareholders and unitholders as a special distribution preceding the closing of the merger (the Special Distribution).

As a result of the transactions described below, including the anticipated sale of the Home Office, GMH expects that its board of trustees will authorize the Special Distribution, which will be payable immediately prior to the proposed merger, to GMH shareholders and unitholders as of the record date for the Special Distribution (Special Distribution Record Date). GMH currently estimates that the aggregate amount of the Special Distribution will be approximately $51.9 million. Based on the number of common shares and units outstanding on May 28, 2008, the Special Distribution is estimated to be approximately $0.728 per share/unit. The Special Distribution is in addition to the merger consideration and will be conditioned on the closing of the merger. The Special Distribution will be in addition to the remaining distribution to GMH shareholders and unitholders of approximately $0.98 per share/unit payable immediately prior to the closing of the proposed merger, which comprises the remaining net proceeds from the sale of GMH s former military housing division that is being held in reserve by GMH pending the closing of the merger.

Home Office Sale

As previously announced by GMH, if the Home Office was not sold to a third party unaffiliated with GMH prior to the closing of the merger, then Gary M. Holloway, Sr., GMH s chairman, chief executive officer and president was contractually obligated to purchase the Home Office pursuant to the put option to sell agreement, dated as of February 11, 2008 (the Put Agreement) for a total of $8.0 million. GMH s board of trustees established a committee of independent trustees to sell the Home Office and to decide, if applicable, whether to exercise GMH s rights under the Put Agreement. After the marketing of the Home Office by an independent broker to unaffiliated third parties, the special committee made the decision to exercise GMH s rights under the Put Agreement.

On May 8, 2008, a subsidiary of GMH, entered into an agreement of sale for the sale of the Home Office with an entity owned by Mr. Holloway. Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Holloway placed an initial deposit of $240,000 into escrow. The closing of the sale of the Home Office is expected to occur immediately prior to, and is contingent upon, the closing of the proposed merger. The agreement also provides that either the buyer or seller may terminate the agreement upon written notice in the event that the merger agreement with ACC is terminated in accordance with Article IX thereof. There can be no assurance that the sale of the Home Office will be completed even if the proposed merger is closed. In that case, based on the number of common shares and units outstanding on May 28, 2008, the estimated amount of the Special Distribution will be reduced by approximately $2.0 million or approximately $0.028 per share/unit.

Disposition Assets

Under the terms of the merger agreement, a percentage of the amount received, if any in connection with the sale of certain Disposition Assets is allowed to be distributed to GMH's shareholders and unitholders. In addition, under the terms of the merger agreement, GMH was permitted, if unable to sell certain Disposition Assets, to initiate discussions with the lenders holding mortgage debt on these properties in order to reach a work-out of the mortgage debt and/or surrender the properties to receivership. Currently, GMH has completed the following transactions with regard to certain of the Disposition Assets:

- on May 19, 2008, a subsidiary of GMH sold University Fields, a student housing property primarily serving the University of Illinois Urbana Champaign, which consists of approximately 192 units containing 588 beds;
- on May 29, 2008, a subsidiary of GMH sold GrandMarc at University Village, a student housing property primarily serving the University of California Riverside, which consists of approximately 212 units containing 760 beds; and
- GMH recently entered into settlement agreements with each of the respective lenders to work-out the debt and has surrendered the properties to receivership with regard to Lincoln View, Campus Connection, University Court, University Estates, and University Lodge.

GMH announced the disposition of the assets referenced above and the expected Special Distribution in a press release dated May 29, 2008, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference. GMH will issue a further press release announcing the Special Distribution Record Date and the payment date for the Special Distribution as and when authorized by GMH's board of trustees. Only shareholders and unitholders as of the Special Distribution Record Date will have the right to receive the Special Distribution.

GMH will file an additional Form 8-K and/or press release in the event GMH sells any of the remaining Disposition Assets prior to the closing of the merger if the proceeds from such sales, if any, are permitted under the merger agreement to be distributed to GMH shareholders and unitholders as an additional special distribution. There can be no assurance that there will be any further sales of the remaining Disposition Assets prior to the closing of the proposed merger.

Exhibit Number	Title
99.1	Press Release, dated May 29, 2008

Disposition of Assets Expected to Result in a Special Distribution to GMH Shareholders and Unitholders

NEWTOWN SQUARE, PA GMH Communities Trust (NYSE: GCT) today announced the completion of the sale of (i) University Fields, a student housing property primarily serving the University of Illinois Urbana Champaign, which consists of approximately 192 units containing 588 beds and (ii) GrandMarc at University Village, a student housing property primarily serving the University of California Riverside, which consists of approximately 212 units containing 760 beds. In addition, GMH announced that it had recently entered into settlement agreements with each of the respective lenders to work-out the debt and has surrendered the properties to receivership with regard to the following student housing properties: Lincoln View; Campus Connection; University Court; University Estates; and University Lodge.

As previously announced, in connection with its proposed merger with American Campus Communities, Inc. (ACC), under the terms of the merger agreement with ACC, a percentage of the amount received in connection with the sale or disposition of certain student housing properties, which includes the properties described above (the Disposition Assets), may be paid to GMH shareholders and unitholders as a special distribution preceding the closing of the merger (the Special Distribution). In addition, as previously announced, GMH expects to sell its home office (the Home Office) immediately prior to, and contingent upon, the closing of the merger to an entity owned by Gary M. Holloway, Sr., GMH's chairman, chief executive officer and president. Under the terms of the merger agreement, the proceeds from the sale of the Home Office may also be distributed as part of the Special Distribution.

As a result of the closing of the transactions described above, including the anticipated sale of the Home Office, GMH expects that its board of trustees will authorize the Special Distribution, which will be payable immediately prior to the proposed merger, to GMH shareholders and unitholders as of a record date to be determined by GMH's board of trustees (the Special Distribution Record Date). GMH currently estimates that the aggregate amount of the Special Distribution will be approximately $51.9 million. Based on the number of common shares and units outstanding on May 28, 2008, the Special Distribution is estimated to be approximately $0.728 per share/unit. The Special Distribution is in addition to the merger consideration and will be conditioned on the closing of the merger. The Special Distribution is also in addition to the remaining distribution to GMH shareholders and unitholders of approximately $0.98 per share/unit payable immediately prior to the closing of the proposed merger, which comprises the remaining net proceeds from the sale of GMH's former military housing division that is being held in reserve by GMH pending the closing of the merger. There can be no assurance that the sale of the Home Office will be completed even if the proposed merger is closed. In that case, based on the number of common shares and units outstanding on May 28, 2008, the estimated amount of the Special Distribution will be reduced by approximately $2.0 million or approximately $0.028 per share/unit.

GMH will issue a further press release announcing the Special Distribution Record Date and the payment date for the Special Distribution as and when authorized by GMH's board of trustees. Only shareholders and unitholders as of the Special Distribution Record Date will have the right to receive the Special Distribution.

GMH will file an additional Form 8-K and/or press release in the event GMH sells any of the remaining three Disposition Assets prior to the closing of the merger if the proceeds from such sales, if any, are permitted under the merger agreement to be distributed to GMH shareholders and unitholders as an additional special distribution. There can be no assurance that there will be any further sales of the remaining Disposition Assets prior to the closing of the proposed merger.

The Company has filed a definitive proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the proposed merger with ACC. The definitive proxy statement was mailed to GMH shareholders on or about April 29, 2008.
