Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(c) On March 8, 2011, Seagate Technology plc (the Company) announced a realignment of certain organizations, in particular a consolidation of its Research and Development function, and Operations and Manufacturing function, respectively, in order to position the Company to perform more competitively in the current and expected business environment for storage products and services.

As part of the realignment, Robert W. Whitmore, 49, was appointed Chief Technology Officer and Executive Vice President, Research and Development. Mr. Whitmore will be responsible for all research and development functions, including head, media, hard disk drive, and solid-state drive development. Before this appointment Mr. Whitmore was Executive Vice President and Chief Technology Officer, a position he held since 2007. Prior to that, he was Executive Vice President, Product and Process Development from 2006 to 2007 and Senior Vice President, Product and Process Development, from 2004 to 2006. Prior to 2004, Mr. Whitmore held other progressively senior management positions in the Engineering and Operations organizations of the Company.

In addition, William David Mosley, 44, was appointed Executive Vice President, Operations. He will be responsible for the Company's global heads, drive, and media manufacturing operations. Before this appointment, Mr. Mosley served as Executive Vice President, Sales and Marketing since September 2009. He previously held positions as Executive Vice President, Sales, Marketing and Product Line Management from February 2009 to September 2009, Senior Vice President, Global Disk Storage Operations from 2007 to 2009 and Vice President, Research and Development, Engineering from 2002 to 2007. Prior to 2002, Mr. Mosley held other progressively senior management positions in the Research and Development and Operations and Manufacturing organizations of the Company.

Also as part of the realignment, David Kurt Richarz, 50, was appointed interim Executive Vice President, Sales, Sales Operations, Product Line Management, Marketing and Retail. Mr. Richarz has served as Executive Vice President, Sales since 2009. Prior to that, he was Executive Vice President, Sales and Customer Service Operations from 2008 to 2009; Senior Vice President of Global OEM Sales from 2007 to 2008, and Vice President of Global OEM Sales from 2006 to 2007. Mr. Richarz joined the Company in 2006 when the Company acquired Maxtor Corporation, where Mr. Richarz had been Vice President, Global OEM Account Sales and Senior Vice President of Worldwide Sales since 2002.

No changes in compensation occurred in connection with these appointments.
