Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Overview

On June 14, 2012, Oxford Industries, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Third Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the Revolving Credit Agreement). The Revolving Credit Agreement provides for a revolving credit facility of up to $235,000,000, which may be used to refinance existing debt, to redeem the Company's 11.375% Senior Secured Notes due 2015 (the Senior Notes), to fund working capital, to fund future acquisitions and for general corporate purposes.

The Revolving Credit Agreement amends and restates the Company's Second Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the Prior Credit Agreement), which was entered into on August 15, 2008. The Company believes that the covenants in the Revolving Credit Agreement are generally less restrictive and provide the Company greater flexibility than those contained in the Prior Credit Agreement. In addition, the Revolving Credit Agreement allows the Company to include in its borrowing base certain amounts attributable to eligible trademarks, as further described below and in the Revolving Credit Agreement, which amounts would not have been available for inclusion in the borrowing base under the Prior Credit Agreement.

The material terms of the Revolving Credit Agreement are as follows:

- The parties to the Revolving Credit Agreement are the Company and its subsidiary, Tommy Bahama Group, Inc., as the borrowers (the Borrowers), certain subsidiaries of the Company as guarantors (the Guarantors), the financial institutions party thereto as lenders, the financial institutions party thereto as issuing banks, and SunTrust Bank, as administrative agent (the Administrative Agent).
- The Revolving Credit Agreement provides for a revolving credit facility of up to $235,000,000, which may be increased by up to $100,000,000 by the Borrowers subject to certain conditions.
- The total amount of availability under the Revolving Credit Agreement is limited to a borrowing base consisting of specified percentages of eligible categories of assets, including certain inventories and receivables, with the addition of a specified percentage of the net orderly liquidation value of the eligible trademarks. The Administrative Agent has certain discretion to establish reserves with respect to the calculation of borrowing base availability.
- The Borrowers may elect to receive base rate advances or LIBOR advances with applicable margins based upon a pricing grid depending on average unused availability. LIBOR advance interest rate margins (above LIBOR) range from 150 to 225 basis points.
- The Borrowers' obligations under the Revolving Credit Agreement are secured by a first priority security interest in the Borrowers' and the Guarantors' accounts receivable, inventory, investment property (including the equity interests of certain subsidiaries), certain general intangibles, deposit accounts, inter-company obligations, equipment, goods, documents, contracts, books and records, other personal property and any eligible trademarks.
- The Revolving Credit Facility contains a financial covenant that applies only if excess availability under the Revolving Credit Agreement is less than the greater of (i) $23,500,000 or (ii) 10% of the total revolving commitments for three consecutive business days. In such case, the Company's fixed charge coverage ratio for the preceding twelve fiscal month period may not be less than 1.0 to 1.0 for that period.

Edgar Filing: OXFORD INDUSTRIES INC - Form 8-K

- The Revolving Credit Agreement contains a number of customary affirmative covenants regarding, among other things, the delivery of financial and other information to the Administrative Agent and other lenders, maintenance of records, compliance with law, maintenance of property and insurance and conduct of business.
- The Revolving Credit Agreement also contains certain negative covenants, including covenants that limit the Borrowers and their subsidiaries' ability to (i) incur debt, (ii) guaranty certain obligations, (iii) incur liens, (iv) pay dividends to shareholders or repurchase shares of the Company's common stock, (v) make investments, (vi) sell assets or stock of subsidiaries, (vii) acquire assets or businesses, (viii) merge or consolidate with other companies, or (ix) prepay, retire, repurchase or redeem debt.

- The Revolving Credit Agreement generally is scheduled to mature on June 14, 2017.
- Upon redemption in full of the Senior Notes, certain liens previously granted pursuant to the Prior Credit Agreement and reaffirmed on June 14, 2012, shall be released.

The above description of the Revolving Credit Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by the actual terms of the Revolving Credit Agreement and the related Third Amended and Restated Pledge and Security Agreement, attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.

Cautionary Statements

The representations, warranties and covenants made by the parties in the agreement documenting the Revolving Credit Agreement and the related agreements are qualified by information in disclosure schedules that the parties exchanged in connection with the execution of the agreements. Representations and warranties may be used as a tool to allocate risks between the parties, including where the parties do not have complete knowledge of all facts. Accordingly, investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company or any of the Company's affiliates.

The press release announcing the Revolving Credit Agreement issued on June 15, 2012 is included as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
