WHEREAS, Section 17(g) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "1940 Act"), and Rule 17g-1(a) thereunder, require a business development company ("BDC"), such as Main Street Capital Corporation, a Maryland corporation (the "Company"), to provide and maintain a bond which shall be issued by a reputable fidelity insurance company, authorized to do business in the place where the bond is issued, to protect the Company against larceny and embezzlement, covering each officer and employee of the BDC, who may singly, or jointly with others, have access to the securities or funds of the BDC, either directly or through authority to draw upon such funds of, or to direct generally, the disposition of such securities, unless the officer or employee has such access solely through his position as an officer or employee of a bank (each, a "covered person"); and

WHEREAS, Rule 17g-1 requires that a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") who are not "interested persons" of the BDC (the "Non-Interested Directors") approve periodically (but not less than once every 12 months) the reasonableness of the form and amount of the bond, with due consideration to the value of the aggregate assets of the Company to which any covered person may have access, the type and terms of the arrangements made for the custody and safekeeping of such assets, and the nature of securities and other investments to be held by the Company, and pursuant to factors contained in Rule 17g-1; and

Clauses

Dishonesty

A. Employee

Loss resulting directly from dishonest acts, other than stated in 1.B. below, of any Employee, committed alone or in collusion with others except with a director or trustee of the ASSURED who is not an Employee, which result in improper personal financial gain to either such Employee or other natural person acting in collusion with such Employee, or which acts were committed with the intent to cause the ASSURED to sustain such loss.

B. Trade or Loan

Loss resulting directly from dishonest acts of any Employee, committed alone or in collusion with others except with a director or trustee of the ASSURED who is not an Employee, which arises totally or partially from:

(1) any Trade, or provided, however, the ASSURED shall first establish that the loss was directly caused by dishonest acts of any Employee which result in improper personal financial gain to such Employee and which acts were committed with the intent to cause the ASSURED to sustain such loss.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, when a loss is covered under this INSURING CLAUSE and the Employee was acting in collusion with others and intended to receive improper personal financial gain, but said Employee failed to derive such improper personal financial gain, such loss will nevertheless be covered under this INSURING CLAUSE as if the Employee had obtained such improper personal financial gain provided that the ASSURED establishes that the Employee intended to receive such improper personal financial gain.
