Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 3, 2013, PennyMac Mortgage Investment Trust (the Company), through its wholly-owned subsidiary, PennyMac Corp. (PMC), entered into an amendment to its master repurchase agreement, dated November 7, 2011, by and among Bank of America, N.A. (BANA), PMC, the Company and PennyMac Operating Partnership, L.P. (the Operating Partnership) (the Repurchase Agreement).

Pursuant to the terms of the Repurchase Agreement, PMC may sell to, and later repurchase from, BANA newly originated residential mortgage loans that are purchased from correspondent lenders by PMC and held for sale and/or securitization. The principal amount paid by BANA for each eligible mortgage loan is based on a percentage of the lesser of the market value, unpaid principal balance, purchase price or takeout price of such mortgage loan. Upon PMC's repurchase of a mortgage loan, it is required to repay BANA the principal amount related to such mortgage loan plus accrued interest (at a rate reflective of the current market and based on LIBOR plus a margin) to the date of such repurchase. The maximum aggregate purchase price provided for in the Repurchase Agreement is $300 million, $100 million of which is committed. The Repurchase Agreement is committed for a period of 364 days, and the obligations of PMC are fully guaranteed by the Company and the Operating Partnership. The mortgage loans are serviced by PennyMac Loan Services, LLC. Other material terms of the Repurchase Agreement and related guaranty are described more fully in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on November 14, 2011.

Under the terms of the amendment, the maturity date of the Repurchase Agreement was extended to January 2, 2014. The amendment also increased the amount of liquidity the Company and its subsidiaries are required to maintain in the aggregate, as of the end of each calendar month, from $20 million to $30 million, $20 million of which must be in unrestricted cash and cash equivalents. For the purposes of the Repurchase Agreement, the liquidity of the Company and its subsidiaries includes unused capacity available under committed whole loan repurchase agreements to the extent of the unencumbered collateral eligible to be pledged thereunder. In addition, the amendment increased the tangible net worth required to be maintained by the Company and PMC to $860 million and $150 million, respectively.

The Company, through PMC, is required to pay BANA a fee for the structuring of the amendment, as well as certain other administrative costs and expenses. All other terms and conditions of the Repurchase Agreement and the related guaranty remain the same in all material respects.

The foregoing description of the amendment to the Repurchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the amendment, which has been filed with this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 1.1.
