Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On May 26, 2016, Neos Therapeutics, Inc. (the Company) entered into an employment agreement with Juergen A. Martens (the Martens Agreement) appointing Dr. Martens as the Company's Chief Technology and Operations Officer, effective May 31, 2016.

Dr. Martens, 60, served as Chief Operating Officer of MannKind Corporation (NASDAQ: MNKD) from January 2015 to March 2016, and as their Corporate Vice President of Operations and Chief Technology Officer from September 2005 to January 2015. From 2000 to August 2005, he was employed by Nektar Therapeutics, serving as Vice President of Pharmaceutical Technology Development. Previously, he held technical management positions at Aerojet Fine Chemicals from 1998 to 2000 and at FMC Corporation from 1996 to 1998. From 1987 to 1996, Dr. Martens held a variety of management positions with increased managerial responsibility in R&D, plant management, and business process development at Lonza, in Switzerland and in the United States. Dr. Martens holds a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering from the Technical College Mannheim/Germany, a bachelor's and master's degree in Chemistry and a doctorate in Physical Chemistry from the University of Marburg/Germany. Dr. Martens obtained an executive master's degree in Management (EMTM) from the University of Pennsylvania, a joint program of the Wharton School of Business & the School of Engineering and Applied Science.

The Martens Agreement provides for the following, among other things: (i) base salary of $340,000; (ii) target annual incentive compensation of 35% of his base salary; (iii) reimbursement of all reasonable expenses incurred by Dr. Martens in performing services for the Company and certain relocation expenses and commuting expenses prior to relocation; (iv) a sign-on bonus of $30,000; and (v) severance and change in control benefits contingent upon Dr. Martens agreeing to a general release of claims in favor of the Company following termination of employment. In connection with his hiring, Dr. Martens will receive an option to purchase 150,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The shares underlying the option will vest over four equal annual installments commencing from the grant date, subject to Dr. Martens continued employment with the Company over such period.

The foregoing summary of the Martens Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Martens Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

There are no family relationships between Dr. Martens and any director or executive officer of the Company, and Dr. Martens has no direct or indirect material interest in any transaction required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On May 31, 2016, the Company issued a press release, a copy of which is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Report on Form 8-K.

The information in this Item 7.01 and Exhibit 99.1 attached hereto is intended to be furnished and shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Exchange Act, except as expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.
