State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Global Power Equipment Group Inc. (the Company) will not be able to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2018 (the First Quarter 10-Q) within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort and expense. The Company requires additional time to complete, and its independent registered public accounting firm requires additional time to review, certain items with respect to the Company's financial statements, primarily relating to the implementation of ASC 606 Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The quarter ended March 31, 2018 is the first period under which the Company has reported under the requirements of ASC 606. The Company currently expects to file the First Quarter 10-Q within the five-day extension period provided under Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

☒ Yes ☐ No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The presentation of the Company's quarterly results for the quarter ended March 31, 2018 will differ from the results presented for the corresponding prior year period because two of the Company's three segments will be presented as discontinued operations for all periods presented, which the Company first began to do in the financial statements included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017. In addition, the Company's results for the quarter ended March 31, 2018 will reflect the adoption of ASC 606 Revenue from Contracts with Customers, including the expanded disclosure requirements regarding the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from contracts with customers.
