Peace Arch Entertainment Markets Record Slate of New Television and Film Content at MIPCOM Global Television Market

Company Continues to Exploit Revenue Generating Opportunities from Fast-Growing Library of Feature Films and Television Programming

Toronto October 9, 2007 Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc. (AMEX:PAE - News) (TSX:PAE.TO - News), an integrated global entertainment company creating and acquiring critically acclaimed film, television and DVD content for worldwide distribution, announced today that the Company is unveiling its largest and most diverse slate of new programming to be commercialized at this year's MIPCOM television market in Cannes, France. Peace Arch continues to follow through on its strategic plan to capitalize on its growing supply of newly produced and acquired film and television content while concurrently exploiting one of the largest independent film and television libraries in the world.

Edgar Filing: PEACE ARCH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP INC - Form 6-K

At MIPCOM, the Company will be licensing to international buyers one new mini-series, eight new feature films, nine lifestyle series and 35 additional titles from the Company's recently acquired Castle Hill/Dream feature film library.

MIPCOM, which began on October 8, 2007, is the leading global content event for co-producing, buying, selling, financing and distributing entertainment content across all platforms. It provides key decision-makers in the TV, film, digital and audiovisual content, production and distribution industry with the only market conference and networking forum to discover future trends, and to purchase and sell content rights on a global level.

We are very pleased to announce that in addition to our exciting array of new projects, Peace Arch is now actively commercializing select titles from the more than 500 feature films acquired from Castle Hill, said John Flock, President and Chief Operating Officer of Peace Arch Entertainment Group. The international television market is a key industry segment for Peace Arch. We have bolstered our sales team under the leadership of Kevin Byles and built our programming library through production and acquisitions in order to exploit this long term growth opportunity. We intend to continue addressing every opportunity that allows us to generate sustainable revenues to build long-term shareholder value.

Some of the highlights of the new Peace Arch package to be presented at MIPCOM includes a new four-part television mini-series Guns, starring Elisha Cuthbert (The Girl Next Door, 24). The sweeping crime drama, which is built around illegal international arms trafficking, is scheduled to air on the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation in the fall of 2008.

The Company will also be selling international rights to eight new films that include the thriller The Last Hit Man, starring Joe Mantegna (The Godfather, Part III), family drama Ace of Hearts starring Dean Cain (Out of Time), thriller Grindstone Rd. starring Fairuza Balk (Almost Famous), action movie Time Bomb starring Jake Busey (Starship Troopers), mystery Just Business, starring Gina Gershon (Bound), drama All The Good Ones Are Married, starring Daryl Hannah (Kill Bill), Iraq war drama The Four Horsemen, and the documentary Willard: The Hermit of Gully Lake.

The lifestyle series include these programs: Air Dogs for aircraft enthusiasts, fitness reality series Bulging Brides, Fantasy Lands for theme park devotees, The Last 10 Pounds Bootcamp for fitness/diet advocates, the makeover series Love It or Lose It, the home fire restoration program Project: Phoenix, the tech series The Lab With Leo LaPorte, home makeover series Makeover Wish, and the travel series Uberguide Television.

Among the titles Peace Arch is offering from its library for the first time are the award winning dramas The Official Story and Matewan, the science fiction classic A Boy and His Dog, the iconic Marx Brothers comedy A Night in Casablanca and the horror anthology The House That Dripped Blood.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

A.

Rule as to Use of Form 6-K,

This form shall be used by foreign private issuers which are required to furnish reports pursuant to Rule 13a-16 or 15d-16 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

B.

Information and Document required to be Furnished,

Subject to General Instruction D herein, an issuer furnishing a report on this form shall furnish whatever information, not required to be furnished on Form 40-F or previously furnished, such issuer (I) makes or is required to make public pursuant to the law of the jurisdiction of its domicile or in which it is incorporated or organized, or (ii) files or is required to file with a stock exchange on which its securities are traded and which was made public by that exchange, or (iii) distributes or is required to distribute to its security holders.

The information required to be furnished pursuant to (I), (ii) or (iii) above is that which is material with respect to the issuer and its subsidiaries concerning: changes in business; changes in management or control; acquisitions or dispositions of assets; bankruptcy or receivership; changes in registrant's certifying accountants; the financial condition and results of operations; material legal proceedings; changes in securities or in the security for registered securities; defaults upon senior securities; material increases or decreases in the amount outstanding of securities or indebtedness; the results of the submission of matters to a vote of security holders; transactions with directors, officers or principal security holders; the granting of options or payment of other compensation to directors or officers; and any other information which the registrant deems of material importance to security holders.

This report is required to be furnished promptly after the material contained in the report is made public as described above. The information and documents furnished in this report shall not be deemed to be "filed" for the purpose of Section 18 of the Act or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section.

If a report furnished on this form incorporates by reference any information not previously filed with the Commission, such information must be attached as an exhibit and furnished with the form.

C.

Preparation and Filing of Report

This report shall consist of a cover page, the document or report furnished by the issuer, and a signature page. Eight complete copies of each report on this form shall be deposited with the Commission. At least one complete copy shall be filed with each United States stock exchange on which any security of the registrant is listed and registered under Section 12(b) of the Act. At least one of the copies deposited with the Commission and one filed with each such exchange shall be manually signed. Unsigned copies shall be conformed.

D.

Translations of Papers and Documents into English

Reference is made to Rule 12b-12(d) [17 CFR 240.12b-12(d)]. Information required to be furnished pursuant to General Instruction B in the form of press releases and all communications or materials distributed directly to security holders of each class of securities to which any reporting obligation under Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Act relates shall be in the English language. English versions or adequate summaries in the English language of such materials may be furnished in lieu of original English translations.

Notwithstanding General Instruction B, no other documents or reports, including prospectuses or offering circulars relating to entirely foreign offerings, need be furnished unless the issuer otherwise has prepared or caused to be prepared English translations, English versions or summaries in English thereof. If no such English translations, versions or summary have been prepared, it will be sufficient to provide a brief description in English of any such documents or reports. In no event are copies of original language documents or reports required to be furnished.
