SECTION 4 - MATTERS RELATED TO ACCOUNTANTS AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

ITEM 4.01 CHANGES IN REGISTRANT'S CERTIFYING ACCOUNTANT.

On October 15, 2004, Grant Thornton LLP (the "Former Accountant") resigned as the auditors for The Singing Machine Company, Inc. (the "Company"). On October 15, 2004, the Company engaged Berkovits, Largo & Company, LLP (the "New Accountant"), as its independent certified public accountant. The Company's decision to engage the New Accountant was approved by its Audit Committee on October 15, 2004.

The reports of the Former Accountant on the financial statements of the Company for each of the two most recent fiscal years and the interim period ending June 30, 2004, did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles for the two most recent fiscal years and all subsequent interim periods, except that the Former Accountant's opinion in its report on the Company's financial statements expressed substantial doubt with respect to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for the last two fiscal years.

During the Company's two most recent fiscal years and the subsequent interim period through the date of resignation, there were no reportable events as the term described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K, except for the following:

Management and the Former Accountant, have advised our Audit Committee that during the course of the audit, they noted deficiencies in internal controls relating to:

- weakness in our financial reporting process as a result of a lack of adequate staffing in the accounting department, and
- accounting for consigned inventory and inventory costing.

The Former Accountant has advised the Audit Committee that each of these internal control deficiencies constitute a material weakness as defined in Statement of Auditing Standards No. 60. Certain of these internal control weaknesses may also constitute material weaknesses in our disclosure controls.

During the Company's two most recent fiscal years and the subsequent interim period through the date of resignation, there were no disagreements with the Former Accountant on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of the Former Accountant would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its reports on these financial statements for those periods.

The Company did not consult with the New Accountant regarding the application of accounting principles to a specific transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, and no written or oral advice was provided by the New Accountant that was a factor considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to the accounting, auditing or financial reporting issues.

The Company has requested that the Former Accountant furnish it with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether it agrees with the above statements. The requested letter is attached as Exhibit 16.1 to this amended Form 8-K
