PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The registrant could not file its Form 10-K by March 16, 2009 due primarily to delays caused by the following : (1) the reclassification of three Industrial Segment facilities/operations back into continuing operations previously classified as discontinued operations in 2007; (2) the initial testing of internal control over financial reporting at our Perma-Fix Northwest Richland, Inc. ("PFNWR") subsidiary which we acquired in June 2007; and (3) ongoing analysis and review of our revenue relating to certain of our nuclear subsidiaries, including but not limited to a major subcontract which began in the fourth quarter of 2008 and revenue generated by PFNWR. The Company requires the extension to ensure that the reported financial statements are accurate. The registrant continues to dedicate significant resources to the preparation of its financial statements.

narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As disclosed in "Part III - Narrative" above, the registrant's analysis and review of its revenue relating to certain of its nuclear subsidiaries is ongoing. The registrant continues to dedicate significant time and efforts to finalize this review. As a result, the registrant will be unable to make a reliable quantitative estimate of the change in results of operations compared to the corresponding period of last fiscal year until the analysis is complete. The Company will file its Form 10-K as promptly as practicable and is presently unaware of any circumstances that would prevent it from filing its Form 10-K on or before the 15th calendar day following the due date.
