PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

This prospectus summary highlights selected information contained elsewhere in this prospectus. You should read the following summary together with the more detailed information regarding our company and the shares being sold in this offering, which information appears elsewhere in this prospectus and in other documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission that we have incorporated by reference into this prospectus.

The Company

We are an Israeli-based company engaged, directly and through our subsidiaries, in the development, import, export, manufacturing, marketing and distribution of a wide variety of over 1,000 food products world-wide. Most of our sales are made in Israel with widespread demand in the Israeli marketplace, as well as products which cater to more select groups.

We purchase food products from over 250 suppliers located in Israel and throughout the world, including from the Far East (China, India, the Philippines and Thailand), Eastern Europe (Hungary, Poland, Latvia and Bulgaria), South America (Argentina, Ecuador and Costa Rica), the United States, Western and Northern Europe (The Netherlands, Belgium, Germany, Sweden, Denmark and France) and Southern Europe (Spain, Portugal, Italy, Turkey, Greece and Cyprus). However, our subsidiary Shamir Salads (2006) Ltd. (Shamir Salads), is manufacturing its Chilled Salads in its logistics center.

In addition, we actively maintain contact with approximately 150 suppliers worldwide through which we assess, on an on-going basis, world market trends, fluctuations in prices, international trends, and other issues relevant to its business. Our management and personnel visit food trade fairs worldwide on a regular basis and endeavor to create new business relationships with potential suppliers. In addition, we distribute some of our products on an exclusive basis.

We are not dependent on any given supplier for the supply of a majority of our products. We purchase most of our products from several suppliers. We are dependent on one source of supply Arla from Denmark with respect to a large part of our dairy and dairy substitute products a part of the import segment.

Our products are marketed and sold to over 1,500 customers in Israel and around the world, including supermarket chains, wholesalers and institutional consumers. We market most of the products under the brand name Willi-Food, our chilled salads under the name Shamir Salads and some of our chilled and frozen products under the brand name Gold Frost. Certain products are marketed under brand names of the manufacturers or under other brand names.

We have acquired controlling interests in several businesses and have formed joint ventures with other businesses during the last three years. In certain cases, we were not successful in our acquisitions, and subsequently sold them at prices similar to our original acquisition prices. We continue to re-evaluate our strategic position and consider other business opportunities. As part of this re-evaluation, we are also considering forming strategic alliances with or entering into different lines of business. We have no current plans, arrangements or agreements with respect to any mergers, acquisitions, or additional financing.

As of December 23, 2009, our principal shareholder, Willi-Food Investments Ltd (Willi-Food), holds approximately 69.85% of our outstanding share capital. Willi Food s securities are traded on the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange.

Our business strategy is to promote the Willi-Food and Shamir Salads brand names and to increase market penetration of products that are currently sold by us through, among other things, marketing efforts and advertising campaigns. In addition, we aim to expand our current food product lines and diversify into additional product lines, as well as to respond to market demand. We also intend to expand our activity in the international food markets, mainly in the U.S. and Europe.

The mailing address and telephone number of our principal executive offices is 4 Nahal Harif St., Northern Industrial Zone, Yavne 81106 Israel, +972-8-932-1000.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the risks and uncertainties described below before making an investment decision. If any of the following risks actually occur, our business, financial condition or operating results could be materially harmed. This could cause the trading price of our ordinary shares to decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment.

Risks Related to Our Business and Industry

Our results of operations may be impacted by monetary risk. Our portfolio of marketable securities is subject to various market risks.

We are exposed to fluctuations in the rate of the United States Dollar and Euro versus the NIS. Most of our income is in NIS, whereas most of our purchases are in United States Dollars and in Euros. In addition, a significant portion of our short term bank borrowings, when needed, are in United States Dollars and/or in Euros. A significant depreciation in the NIS vis-à-vis the United States Dollar and/or Euro could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

We strive to minimize market risks arising from exchange rate fluctuations and the cost of imported goods, especially by opening wide documentary credits for suppliers abroad, holding foreign currency reserves and initiating forward transactions and foreign currency options.

As a method of investing cash reserves, we hold from time to time a portfolio of marketable securities traded on the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange as well as other stock exchanges and certain bonds traded abroad. This portfolio of marketable securities is subject to various market risks resulting from fluctuations in interest rates and foreign currency, exchange rates, price fluctuations and other market risks in Israel and abroad. We do not utilize derivative securities for trading purposes, enter into swap arrangements or otherwise hedge our currency in a manner that we believe could expose us to significant market risk.

Our financial instruments consist mainly of cash and cash equivalents, current accounts receivable, short-term borrowings, current accounts payable and accruals. In view of their nature, the fair value of the financial instruments, included in working capital, is usually identical or close to their book value.

Our business may be materially affected if any of our major clients defaults on its payment to us.

Financial instruments that potentially subject us to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of trade receivables. Despite our large number of clients (over 1,500 in Israel and abroad), a major and significant part of our sales is made to a limited number of customers (mainly the organized market). Our two largest customers, Shufersal Ltd., and Blue Square Israel Ltd., accounted for 20% of our sales in 2008. We generally do not require and do not receive collateral from those customers, although we do require and receive collateral from most of the remainder of our clients in Israel to ensure security of collecting payments. We maintain an allowance for doubtful debts based upon factors surrounding the credit risk of specific customers, historical trends and other information which our management believes adequately covers all anticipated losses in respect of trade receivables. There can be no assurance that this allowance will be adequate. In the event that a major client defaults on its payment obligations to us, we will not possess sufficient security to collect the entire debt.

We depend on a small number of principal clients who have in the past bought our products in large volumes. We cannot assure that these clients or any other client will continue to buy our products in the same volumes, on the same terms or at all.

Despite our wide dispersion of clients, we have two major clients, including Shufersal Ltd. and Blue Square Israel Ltd., supermarket chains, who accounted for approximately 20% of our revenue during 2008. We do not have long term purchase contracts with our clients, and our sales arrangements with our clients do not have minimum purchase requirements. We cannot assure that our major clients will continue to buy our products at all or in the same volumes or on the same terms as they have in the past. Their failure to do so may significantly reduce our sales. Losing one or more of them may adversely affect our business results. In addition, we cannot assure that we will be able to attract new customers.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

We are dependent on our key personnel. The loss of any of our key personnel could have a material effect on our business.

We depend on a small number of technical staff, managers and directors, including management services provided to us by Zwi Williger and Joseph Williger, through management companies that they control, each of whom holds senior management positions with us. We do not have any key-man life insurance policy on either man. The loss of one or more of them could have a material adverse effect on our business and operations.

We are dependent on Arla Foods ambra, or Arla , and we also work with a limited number of other key suppliers. If these suppliers raise prices or terminate their engagement with us, our operating results could be adversely affected.

We are dependent on Arla, which supplies a high percentage (9.7% in 2008) of our dairy and dairy substitute products, although we are not dependent on any single supplier in respect of a majority of our products. Terminating the engagement with any supplier, in particular Arla, or a material change in the engagement terms for purchasing products from those suppliers may have an adverse effect on our results of operations. We have a distribution agreement with Arla pursuant to which we serve as Arla's sole agent and distributor in Israel of certain products for a five-year period beginning in March 2005. In July 2007, the agreement was amended and the exclusivity period was extended to ten years from March 2005. If this supplier raises its prices, our operating results may be adversely affected. We believe that there are alternative suppliers for purchasing our products; however, we cannot be assured that the products of the alternative suppliers will become immediately available and that the terms of purchase will be similar to the current ones.

We may not be able to successfully compete with larger competitors who have greater operations, or greater financial, marketing, labor and other resources than we have.

The food distribution business in Israel is highly competitive. We face competition from existing competitors in respect of imported as well as locally manufactured food products. Local producers are not subject to the financial risks of importing food products or to governmental policies regarding taxation of imported food products to which we are subject. We may also face competition from potential newcomers to the food business as well as from existing importers and/or manufacturers not currently involved in the same lines of products as us. In addition, in the event we further expand our activity in the international food markets, we will face also competition from manufacturers and/or distributors from the locations in which we expand our activity. Certain of our current and potential competitors are substantially more established, benefit from substantially greater market recognition and have greater financial, marketing, labor and other resources than we have. If any of our competitors materially reduces prices, we may be required to reduce our prices in order to remain competitive. Such reductions, if effected, could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

Increases or decreases in global product prices have in the past, and in the future may continue to, have a material adverse effect on our profitability.

In 2007, a number of our suppliers increased their product prices to us due to increases in milk, wheat, corn and rice prices. This reduced our profitability during 2007. The cost of food commodities and other food products is subject to cyclical and other market factors and may fluctuate significantly. As a result, our cost in securing these products is subject to substantial increases and decreases over which we have no control. In addition, fuel costs, which represent the most significant factor affecting utility costs at our production facilities and our transportation costs are subject to wide fluctuations. We cannot assure that we will be able to pass on to customers the increased costs associated with the procurement of these products. Moreover, there has in the past been, and there may in the future be, a time lag between the incurrence of such increased costs and the transfer of such increases to customers. To the extent that increases in the prices of our products cannot be passed on to customers or there is a delay in passing on the increased costs to customers, we are likely to experience an increase in our costs which may materially reduce our margin of profitability.

We depend on a small number of principal clients who have in the past bought our products in large volumes. We ca

TABLE OF CONTENTS

In 2008, the global purchase prices of a number of our key products decreased sharply due to the global recession. This reduced our profitability during 2008 because of the sharp decrease in the selling prices of our products that we had previously purchased or committed to purchase at higher prices. Because we purchase many of our products from outside Israel, there is a lag of time from when we purchase inventory from our suppliers (or commit to purchase inventory from our suppliers) until the time we sell this inventory to our customers in Israel. To the extent that the sales price of products that we purchase decreases from the time that we purchase our inventory (or commit to purchase our inventory) until the time we sell the inventory to our customers, our margin of profitability may be materially reduced if we are not able to sell our products at prices exceeding the market price.

Our results of operations may be adversely affected if we do not accurately predict the rate of consumption of our products.

We hold inventory of basic foodstuffs (such as preserved food, oils and rice) and other food products, and we accumulate inventories of these products based on our prediction of the consumption of these products. If actual consumption does not meet the prediction, and the shelf life of such products expire or we cannot otherwise sell such products, this may materially and adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations. On the other hand, to the extent we do not have adequate inventory of these critical products (due, for example, to an emergency situation), we will not be able to meet the needs of our customers and our potential revenues may be adversely affected.

We may not successfully integrate our recent acquisitions.

In light of our recent acquisition of Shamir Salads (2006) Ltd., our success will depend in part on our ability to manage the combined operations of this company, to integrate the operations and personnel of this company together with our other subsidiaries into a single organizational structure, and to replace those subsidiary managers who have departed or may in the future leave our employ. There can be no assurance that we will be able to effectively integrate the operations of our subsidiaries and our acquired businesses into a single organizational structure. Integration of this operation could also place additional pressures on our management as well as on our key personnel. The failure to successfully manage this integration could have an adverse material effect on our results of operations.

We may be unable to anticipate changes in consumer preferences, which may result in decreased demand for our products.

Our success depends in part on our ability to anticipate the tastes and eating habits of consumers and to offer products that appeal to their preferences. Consumer preferences change from time to time and our failure to anticipate, identify or react to these changes could result in reduced demand for our products, which would adversely affect our operating results and profitability.

We may be subject to product liability claims for misbranded, adulterated, contaminated or spoiled food products.

We sell food products for human consumption, which involve risks such as product contamination or spoilage, misbranding, product tampering, and other adulteration of food products. Consumption of a misbranded, adulterated, contaminated or spoiled product may result in personal illness or injury. We could be subject to claims or lawsuits relating to an actual or alleged illness or injury, and we could incur liabilities that are not insured or that exceed our insurance coverage. Even if product liability claims against us are not successful or fully pursued, these claims could be costly and time consuming and may require management to spend time defending the claims rather than operating our business. A product that has been actually or allegedly misbranded or becomes adulterated could result in: product withdrawals, product recalls, destruction of product inventory, negative publicity, temporary plant closings, and substantial costs of compliance or remediation. Any of these events, including a significant product liability judgment against us, could result in a loss of confidence in our food products, which could have an adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

We may be adversely affected by any interruption to our storage facilities.

We store most of our products in two main locations – a logistics center warehouse situated in Yavne, Israel and a factory and logistics center situated in Barkan, Israel, used for products being distributed to customers. Any interruption to these storage facilities, whether by power failure, flooding or other event, would have a material impact on our ability to trade in the ordinary course.

Our insurance coverage may not be sufficient to cover our losses in the event our products are subject to product liability claims or our products are subject to recall. In such event, it would have a material adverse effect on us.

Our products may become the subject of product liability claims, and there can be no assurance that our property insurance coverage limits will be adequate or that all such claims will be covered by insurance. A product recall or a product liability claim, even one without merit or for which we have substantial coverage, could result in significant expenses, including legal defense costs, thereby increasing our expenses, lowering our earnings and, depending on revenues, potentially resulting in additional losses. A successful product liability claim or other judgment against us in excess of our insurance coverage could have a material adverse effect on us and our reputation.

Our operating results may be subject to variations from quarter to quarter.

Our operating results may be subject to variations from quarter to quarter depending on, among other things, the timing of sales campaigns and special events initiated by both us and our customers, the major Jewish holidays (such as the Jewish New Year and Passover), our ability to manage future inventory levels in line with business opportunities and anticipated customers' demand, competitive developments in the market, changes in the rates of inflation in Israel and fluctuations in NIS/Dollar exchange rates. There can be no assurance that our sales or net income (if any) in any particular quarter will not be lower than the preceding and/or comparable quarter or that its sales or net income (if any) in a particular quarter will be indicative of our results of operations for the entire year. The trading prices of our ordinary shares may fluctuate significantly in response to variations in our operating results.

Our branded products may not be able to compete successfully with nationally branded products.

For sales of our branded products to retailers, the principal competitive factors are price, product quality and quality of service. For sales of branded products to consumers, the principal competitive factors are price and product quality. In many cases, competitors with nationally branded products may have a competitive advantage over our products primarily due to name recognition.

Competition to obtain shelf space for our branded products with retailers is primarily based on the expected or historical performance of our product sales relative to our competitors. The principal competitive factors for sales of our branded products to consumers are brand recognition and loyalty, product quality and price. Most of our branded competitors have significantly greater resources and brand recognition than we do.

Competitive pressures or other factors could cause us to lose market share, which may require us to lower prices, increase marketing expenditures, or increase the use of discounting or promotional programs, each of which would adversely affect our margins and could result in a decrease in our operating results and profitability.

If we are unable to protect our intellectual property rights, our competitive position could be compromised.

We market certain products under the trademarks Willi-Food , Shamir Salads , Pizza Top , Gold Food , Donna Rosa , Manchow , Bloose , Krisponim , Bubles and Gold Frost . Although we have registered trademarks for these brands, we cannot assure that the degree of protection these and other trademarks offer will be sufficient to protect our rights in these marks.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

If our ordinary shares are delisted from NASDAQ, the liquidity and price of our ordinary shares and our ability to issue additional securities may be significantly reduced.

We may in the future fail to comply with the Nasdaq Capital Market regulations and listing requirements as to minimum net income, minimum number of shareholders and public float and other requirements, and as a result Nasdaq may initiate procedures to delist our ordinary shares from the Nasdaq Capital Market.

Since the beginning of 2009, our stock price has been trading in a range from $0.86 to $7.38 per share. Under Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5450(a)(2), (Rule) any company whose share has a closing bid price less than $1.00 for 30 consecutive business days may be subject to a delisting proceeding instigated by the Nasdaq. Due to the current extraordinary market conditions, on October 16, 2008, NASDAQ filed an immediately effective rule change with the SEC providing that companies will be deemed to be in compliance with the continuing listing standards related to bid price or market value of publicly held shares. We have now satisfied this requirement as our stock price is well above $1.00 per share. If we fail to meet the continued listing criteria defined under the Rule following the expiration of the relief, our ordinary shares may be delisted from trading on the Nasdaq Global Market.

Delisting from the Nasdaq Global Market could have an adverse effect on our business and on the trading of our ordinary shares. If a delisting of our ordinary shares were to occur, our shares would trade on the OTC Bulletin Board or on the pink sheets . The OTC Bulletin Board and pink sheets are generally considered to be less efficient markets, and this could diminish investors' interest in our ordinary shares as well as significantly impact our share price and the liquidity of our ordinary shares. Any such delisting may also severely complicate trading of our shares by our shareholders, or prevent them from re-selling their shares at/or above the price they paid. Furthermore, our relatively low trading volumes may make it difficult for shareholders to trade shares or initiate any other transactions. Delisting may also make it more difficult for us to issue additional securities or secure additional financing.

In July 2003 and in November 2004, we received letters from the Nasdaq Stock Market informing us that we had failed to meet a continued listing requirement, that we have 500,000 publicly held shares, and that our ordinary shares were therefore subject to delisting from the Nasdaq Capital Market, unless a proper plan for complying with the requirement was presented. Following the receipt of the November 2004 letter, Willi Food Investments Ltd. and Mr. Joseph Williger sold 75,000 of our shares to the public and at the same time we distributed a one to one stock dividend to our shareholders. As a result of these actions, we then complied with the abovementioned listing requirements and the threat of delisting was removed.

One shareholder owns a large percentage of our shares.

As of the date of this Registration Statement, Willi-Food owned approximately 69.85% of our ordinary shares. Mr. Joseph Williger, who serves as Chief Executive Officer and director of our company, and serves as Chairman of the Board of Willi-Food, holds approximately 20.99% of the outstanding shares of Willi-Food (approximately 20.85% on a fully-diluted basis). Mr. Zwi Williger, who serves as Chief Operating Officer and Chairman of the Board of our company, and serves as a director and Chief Executive Officer of Willi-Food, holds approximately 33.26% of the outstanding shares of Willi-Food (approximately 32.24% on a fully-diluted basis).

Our Articles of Association do not provide for cumulative voting rights with respect to the election of directors and every resolution of the company in the general meeting of shareholders is deemed duly passed if passed by a simple majority of the shareholders present and voting unless another majority is required by the Israeli Companies Law or by our Articles of Association.

If our ordinary shares are delisted from NASDAQ, the liquidity and price of our ordinary shares and our ability to iss

Our management could lose a major amount of its indirect ownership of our common stock through litigation.

In 2008, Mr. Arcadi Gaydamak (Gaydamak) borrowed approximately NIS 76 million (US $20 million) from companies owned by Messrs. Zwi Williger and Joseph Williger (the Williger Brothers). These loans were secured by Gaydamak s equity securities of Willi-Food, the parent company to G. Willi Food (Parent). The loans included a provision whereby the Williger Brothers had a call option to acquire the Parent equity if Gaydamak defaulted under the loans. On September 2008 Gaydamak defaulted under these loans and accordingly the Williger Brothers increased their ownership of Parent by exercising their call option to acquire such interests; Zwi Williger by 21.65% and Joseph Williger by 21.65%.

Gaydamak has now filed a lawsuit in September 2009 in Israel against the Williger Brothers and others, claiming, among other things, that the Williger Brothers did not rightfully exercise the call option. The Company is not a party to the lawsuit. The Williger Brothers have informed us that their legal counsel has advised them that the lawsuit is without merit, and that they intend to vigorously contest the dispute. The Williger Brothers indicated that their attorneys advised that, according to all the information and documents presented to them, that the Williger Brothers exercised the call options in a rightful and bona fide manner. We have been further advised that the loan agreements were breached by Gaydamak and, at the time of the breach, Gaydamak also declared that he had no intention of paying his debts to the Williger Brothers. At the same time, other creditors submitted significant claims against the assets of Gaydamak and placed attachments on his assets, and therefore a real risk arose that the Willi-Food securities would also be attached. Under these circumstances, in addition to the breach of the loan agreement, by not presenting all the required securities and other breaches, there was also a definite anticipatory breach of the loan payment and a real risk to the securities. Under these circumstances, management believes that the Williger Brothers clearly had the full right to exercise the call option and the lawsuit is without merit.

There are also currently criminal proceedings pending against Gaydamak in Israel for money laundering. Gaydamak left Israel a year ago and management believes he resides in Russia. According to the judge in these proceedings, it is probable that he will not return to Israel. He was also convicted of a crime in France and was sentenced to 6 years in prison. Israel has an extradition treaty with France while Russia does not. Therefore, if he were to return to Israel he could face criminal penalties in Israel and France. The Williger Brothers have indicated to us that their lawyers advised them that if Gaydamak does not return to Israel to testify in the lawsuit, there is a very good chance that the lawsuit will be rejected by the court since Gaydamak failed to testify. Again, according to the Williger Brothers' legal counsel, such lawsuit is presumably baseless and has a very low chance of success.

However, in the event the lawsuit is ruled against the Williger Brothers, their ownership interest in Willi-Food would be reduced (Zwi Williger from approximately 33.26% to approximately 15.46% and Joseph Williger from approximately 20.99% to approximately 3.19%) and Gaydamak would own a significant indirect interest in our company.

We are controlled by and have business relations with Willi-Food and its management.

Willi-Food, our controlling shareholder, is a holding company whose main asset is the ordinary shares it owns in our company. Willi-Food currently does not directly conduct any material business.

Willi-Food, Mr. Zwi Williger, a 33.26% shareholder of Willi-Food, the Chairman of our Board of Directors and our Chief Operating Officer and a director and Chief Executive Officer in Willi-Food, and Mr. Joseph Williger, a 20.99% shareholder of Willi-Food, a director and our Chief Executive Officer and the chairman of the Board of Directors of Willi-Food, have been and continue in certain cases to be party to certain agreements and arrangements relating to our operations. Such transactions include service and employment arrangements between each of Messrs. Joseph and Zwi Williger together with us, and a service agreement we have with Willi-Food. All such transactions include consideration.

In addition, certain of our key personnel also serve in management positions in Willi-Food. By serving in dual capacities, these persons may experience conflicts of interest involving the two companies. Israeli law imposes procedures, including, for certain material transactions, a requirement of shareholder approval, as a precondition to entering into interested party transactions. These procedures may apply to transactions between Willi-Food and us.

However, we cannot assure that we will be able to avoid the possible detrimental effects of any such conflicts of interest by complying with the procedures mandated by Israeli law.

Risks Related to this Offering.

As the public offering price is substantially higher than the pro forma net tangible book value per share, you will incur immediate and substantial dilution.

If you purchase ordinary shares in this offering, you will pay more for your ordinary shares than the amount paid by existing shareholders for their ordinary shares on a per ordinary share basis. As a result, you will experience immediate and substantial dilution of approximately NIS (US$) per ordinary share, representing the difference between our pro forma net tangible book value per ordinary share as of , 2010, after giving effect to this offering and the public offering price of US$ per ordinary share. See Dilution for a more complete description of how the value of your investment in our ordinary shares will be diluted upon the completion of this offering.

We may use these proceeds from this offering in ways with which you may not agree.

We have not determined a specific use of the net proceeds of this offering, other than to fund working capital and for other general corporate purposes. Our management will have considerable discretion in the application of these proceeds received by us. You will not have the opportunity, as part of your investment decision, to assess whether the proceeds are being used appropriately. You must rely on the judgment of our management regarding the application of the net proceeds of this offering. The net proceeds may be used for corporate purposes that do not improve our profitability or increase our ordinary share price. The net proceeds from this offering may also be placed in investments that do not produce income or lose value.

The sale or availability for sale of substantial amounts of our ordinary shares could adversely affect their market price.

Sales of substantial amounts of our ordinary shares in the public market after the completion of this offering, or the perception that these sales could occur, could adversely affect the market price of our ordinary shares and could materially impair our future ability to raise capital through offerings of our ordinary shares.

Volatility in the price of our ordinary shares may result in shareholder litigation that could in turn result in substantial costs and a diversion of our management's attention and resources.

The market price of our ordinary shares has fluctuated significantly and may be affected by our operating results, changes in our business, changes in the products we market and distribute, and general market and economic conditions which are beyond our control. In addition, the stock markets in general have, from time to time, experienced significant price and volume fluctuations that are unrelated or disproportionate to the operating performance of individual companies. These fluctuations have affected stock prices of many companies without regard to their specific operating performance. The price of our ordinary shares may fluctuate significantly in the future.

Also, the financial markets in the United States and other countries have experienced significant price and volume fluctuations, and market prices of public companies have been and continue to be extremely volatile. Volatility in the price of our ordinary shares may be caused by factors outside of our control and may be unrelated or disproportionate to our results of operations. In the past, following periods of volatility in the market price of a public company's securities, shareholders have frequently instituted securities class action litigation against that company. Litigation of this kind could result in substantial costs and a diversion of our management's attention and resources.

If we fail to maintain an effective system of internal controls, we may be unable to accurately report our financial results or prevent fraud, and investor confidence and the market price of our ordinary shares may be adversely affected.

Our reporting obligations as a public company will place a significant strain on our management, operational and financial resources and systems for the foreseeable future. We are a relatively young company with limited accounting personnel and other resources with which to address our internal controls and procedures. In addition, we must implement financial and disclosure control procedures and corporate governance practices that enable us to comply, on a stand alone basis, with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and related Securities and Exchange Commission, or the SEC, rules. For example, we will need to further develop accounting and financial capabilities, including the establishment of an internal audit function and development of documentation related to internal control policies and procedures. Failure to quickly establish the necessary controls and procedures would make it difficult to comply with SEC rules and regulations with respect to internal control and financial reporting. We will need to take further actions to continue to improve our internal controls. If we are unable to implement solutions to any weaknesses in our existing internal controls and procedures, or if we fail to maintain an effective system of internal controls in the future, we may be unable to accurately report our financial results or prevent fraud and investor confidence and the market price of our ordinary shares may be adversely impacted.

Our auditors will be required to attest to our evaluation of internal controls over financial reporting. Unless we successfully design and implement changes to our internal controls and management systems, or if we fail to maintain the adequacy of these controls as such standards are modified or amended from time to time, we may not be able to comply with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. As a result, our auditors may be unable to attest to the effectiveness of our internal controls over financial reporting. This could subject us to regulatory scrutiny and result in a loss of public confidence in our management, which could, among other things, adversely affect the price of our ordinary shares and our ability to raise additional capital.

All of our assets are pledged to creditors

We have pledged substantially all of our assets to Bank Leumi Le Israel, Bank Mizrahi-Tefahot Ltd. and Bank Hapoalim Ltd. in order to secure credit lines from each of these banks. If we were to utilize these credit lines, we expect that the proceeds from the sale of any of these assets may be used to prepay the principal amount owed on the credit lines secured by these pledges. As a result of these arrangements, our ability to dispose of pledged assets may require the consent of these banks, and our ability to incur further debt (whether secured or unsecured) is limited.

Risks Related to Our Location in Israel

We are subject to regulations and other policies of the Israeli government and of other countries into which we import and export. If we are unable to obtain and maintain regulatory qualifications or approvals for our products, our business may be adversely affected.

Regulatory, Licensing and Quotas: The import, export, storage, marketing, manufacturing, distribution and labeling of food products are subject to extensive regulation and licensing by various Israeli government and municipal agencies, principally the Ministry of Health, the Ministry of Trade and Industry, the Ministry of Agriculture and the Ministry of Finance. To the extent that we have imported and exported, or will import and export, food products outside of Israel, we may be subject to quotas and other import and export laws and regulations which may limit our ability to sell certain of our food products into these countries. We are required to maintain our distribution processes in conformity with all applicable laws and regulations. In the event that such laws and regulations change, or we fail to comply with such laws and regulations, we may be prevented from trading within Israel or another part of the world.

Tariffs: The Ministry of Finance and the Ministry of Trade and Industry of the State of Israel may increase the levels of tariffs on importing goods. This would have a direct impact on us and our financial performance by increasing our costs which we may not be able to pass on to our customers.

Kosher Licenses: Under kosher regulations, we are required to ascertain that the foodstuffs which we offer for sale bear kosher certification approved by certain authorities such as the Chief Rabbinate of Israel. There is a risk that the relevant authorities in Israel or other areas of the world responsible for issuing kosher licenses may change the criteria for obtaining such licenses. In such circumstances, we may be prohibited from obtaining kosher licenses for various products that we sell into the various kosher markets. Failure to comply with such applicable laws and regulations in relation to kosher licenses could subject us to civil sanctions, including fines, injunctions, recalls or seizures, as well as potential criminal sanctions, any of which could have a material adverse effect on us and our financial performance.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Economic conditions in Israel affect our financial performance.

A major part of our sales are made in Israel, and consequently our financial performance is dependent to a significant extent on the economy of Israel. In recent quarters, the global economic instability and economic uncertainty have negatively impacted economic conditions in Israel. A recession has started in Israel, and the unemployment rates have increased. This has resulted in our customer base, both in the retail and in the wholesale markets, reducing their purchases from us, both in quantities and by purchasing lower cost food products. A deterioration of the economic situation in Israel may erode the real wages and lower the buying power of our potential customers. This in turn may adversely affect our activities and business results.

We may be affected by political, economic and military conditions in Israel and the Middle East.

Political, economic and military conditions in Israel have a direct influence on us because our operations are located there. Any hostilities involving Israel or the interruption or curtailment of trade between Israel and its present trading partners could materially and adversely affect our operations. Several Arab countries still restrict business with Israeli companies and these restrictions may have an adverse impact on our operating results, financial condition or the expansion of our business. We could be adversely affected by restrictive laws or policies directed towards Israel and Israeli businesses. The establishment in 2006 of a government in the Palestinian Authority by representatives of the Hamas militant group has created additional unrest and uncertainty in the area. In December 2008, Israel was engaged in an armed conflict with Hamas in the Gaza Strip, in the southern region of Israel. During the summer of 2006, Israel was engaged in an armed conflict with Hezbollah, a Lebanese Islamic Shiite militia group, which disrupted most daily civilian activity in northern Israel. These events have at times caused considerable damage to the Israeli economy. As a result of the political and military situation, Israel's economy has at times suffered considerably. Ongoing or revived hostilities related to Israel may have a material adverse effect on our business and on our share price.

Many of our executive officers and employees in Israel are obligated to perform annual military reserve duty in the Israeli Defense Forces and may be called to active duty under emergency circumstances at any time. If a military conflict or war arises, these individuals could be required to serve in the military for extended periods of time. Our operations could be disrupted by the absence for a significant period of one or more of our executive officers or key employees or a significant number of our other employees due to reserve duty. Any disruption in our operations may harm our business.

Additionally, boycotts of products, prompted by political, religious or other factors, may affect our financial condition and results of operations. For example, the recent war on Gaza and the United Nations fact-finding mission on the Gaza conflict at the start of 2009, commonly known as the Goldstone Report, have found evidence that both Israeli forces and Palestinian militants committed serious war crimes and breaches of humanitarian law, which may amount to crimes against humanity. The Goldstone Report and the Gaza conflict has resulted in grass root boycott movements all over the world on Israeli products or boycotts on products that are distributed by Jews. If such boycott movements were to become widespread, it could have a significant impact on our revenues.

It will be extremely difficult to acquire jurisdiction and enforce liabilities against our officers and directors who are based in Israel.

The majority of our officers and present directors reside outside of the United States and most of our operations at the time of the filing of this registration statement are located outside the United States. As a result, it may not be possible for United States investors to enforce their legal rights, to effect service of process upon our directors or officers or to enforce judgments of United States courts predicated upon civil liabilities and criminal penalties of our directors and officers under Federal securities laws. Moreover, we have been advised that Israel does not have treaties providing for the reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments of courts with the United States. Further, it is unclear if extradition treaties now in effect between the United States and Israel would permit effective enforcement of criminal penalties of the Federal securities laws.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Initiation and Enforcement of Legal Action in Israel.

We are organized under the laws of the State of Israel. Most of our executive officers and Directors and some of the experts named in this Prospectus are non-residents of the United States, and a substantial portion of our assets and the assets of these persons are located outside the United States. Therefore, it may be difficult to enforce a judgment obtained in the United States against us or any of those persons. It may also be difficult to enforce civil liabilities under United States federal securities laws in actions initiated in Israel.

Our international operations may be adversely affected by risks associated with international business.

We purchase food products from over 250 suppliers located around the world. Therefore, we are subject to certain risks that are inherent in an international business. These include, but are not limited to:

varying regulatory restrictions on sales of our products to certain markets and unexpected changes in regulatory requirements;

tariffs, customs, duties, quotas and other trade barriers;
difficulties in managing foreign operations and foreign distribution partners;
longer payment cycles and problems in collecting accounts receivable;
fluctuations in currency exchange rates;
political risks;
foreign exchange controls which may restrict or prohibit repatriation of funds;
export and import restrictions or prohibitions, and delays from customs brokers or government agencies;
seasonal reductions in business activity in certain parts of the world; and potentially adverse tax consequences.

Depending on the countries involved, any or all of the foregoing factors could materially harm our business, financial condition and results of operations.

TABLE OF CONTENTSUSE OF PROCEEDS

We estimate that we will receive net proceeds from this offering of approximately US$18.5 million, after deducting underwriting discounts and the estimated offering expenses payable by us and based upon an assumed initial offering price of US $ per ordinary share (the mid-point of the estimated public offering price range shown on the front cover of this prospectus). A US$1.00 increase (decrease) in the assumed public offering price of US $ per ordinary share would increase (decrease) the net proceeds of this offering by US $ million, assuming the sale of ordinary shares at US $ per ordinary share, the midpoint of the range shown on the front cover page of this prospectus and after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and the estimated offering expenses payable by us.

The principal purposes of this offering are to create a public market for our ordinary shares for the benefit of all shareholders, retain talented employees by providing them equity incentives, fund working capital and raise capital for general corporate purposes. Other than as set forth in the preceding sentence, as of the date of this prospectus, we have not allocated any specific portion of the net proceeds of this offering for any particular purpose.

TABLE OF CONTENTSDILUTION

If you invest in our ordinary shares, your interest will be diluted to the extent of the difference between the public offering price per ordinary share and our net tangible book value per ordinary share after this offering. Dilution results from the fact that the public offering price per ordinary share is substantially in excess of the book value per ordinary share attributable to the existing shareholders for our presently outstanding ordinary shares.

Our net tangible book value as of September 30, 2009 was approximately NIS 178.6 million (US$47.5 million), or NIS 17.4 (US$4.9) per ordinary share outstanding at that date. Net tangible book value is determined by subtracting the value of our intangible assets and total liabilities from our total assets. Dilution is determined by subtracting net tangible book value per ordinary share from the assumed public offering price per ordinary share, which is the mid-point of the estimated public offering price range shown on the front cover of this prospectus.

Without taking into account any other changes in such net tangible book value after _____, other than to give effect to our sale of the ordinary shares offered in this offering at the assumed public offering price of US$____ per ordinary share, with estimated net proceeds of US$__ million after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses, our pro forma net tangible book value at NIS __ million (US$__ million) would have been NIS __ million (US$__ million), NIS __ (US$__) per outstanding ordinary share. This represents an immediate increase in pro forma net tangible book value of NIS __ (US$__) per ordinary share to existing shareholders and an immediate dilution in pro forma net tangible book value of NIS ____ (US$__) per ordinary share to new investors in this offering.

The following table illustrates this per share dilution:

	NIS	US$
Assumed public offering price per ordinary share
Net tangible book value per ordinary share at NIS (US $)
Increase in net tangible book value per ordinary share attributable to this offering Net tangible book value per ordinary share as of June 30, 2009 after giving effect to the offering Dilution in net tangible book value per ordinary share to new investors in the offering

The following table summarizes on a pro forma basis the differences as of September 30, 2009 between the shareholders at our most recent fiscal year end and the new investors with respect to the number of ordinary shares purchased from us, the total consideration paid and the average price per ordinary share paid. The total ordinary shares do not include ordinary shares issuable if the underwriter exercises its option to purchase additional ordinary shares.

A US$1.00 increase (decrease) in the assumed public offering price of US $ per ordinary share would increase (decrease) our adjusted net tangible book value after giving effect to the offering by NIS million (US $ million), the adjusted net tangible book value per ordinary share after giving effect to this offering by NIS (US $) per ordinary share and the dilution in adjusted net tangible book value per ordinary share, assuming no change to the number of ordinary shares offered by us as set forth on the cover page of this prospectus, and after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses payable by us.

TABLE OF CONTENTSEXCHANGE RATE INFORMATION

We conduct our business in Israel and substantially all of our revenues are denominated in New Israeli Shekels (NIS). However, periodic reports made to shareholders will be expressed in U.S. dollars using the then current exchange rates. This prospectus contains translations of NIS amounts into U.S. dollars at specified rates solely for the convenience of the reader.

These translations should not be construed as representations that the translated amounts actually represent such dollar or NIS amounts, as the case may be, or could be converted into U.S. Dollars or NIS as the case may be, at the rates indicated or at any other rate. Therefore, unless otherwise stated, the translations of NIS into U.S. Dollars have been made at the rate that corresponds to the financial statements.

The following table sets forth information concerning exchange rates between the NIS and the U.S. dollar for the periods indicated.

ENFORCEMENT OF CIVIL LIABILITIES

We are registered under the laws of Israel as our headquarters and our operations are located there. However, Israel has a lesser developed body of securities laws as compared to the United States and provides protections for investors to a significantly lesser extent. In addition to the below, please refer to the section Risk Factors for additional information regarding risks associates with our operations in Israel.

Substantially all of our assets are located outside the United States. In addition, a majority of our directors and officers are nationals or residents of jurisdictions other than the United States and all or a substantial portion of their assets are located outside the United States. As a result, it may be difficult for investors to effect service of process within the United States upon us or these persons, or to enforce against us or them judgments obtained in United States courts, including judgments predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the securities laws of the United States or any state in the United States. It may also be difficult to enforce in U.S. courts judgments obtained in U.S. courts based on the civil liability provisions of the U.S. federal securities laws against us, our officers and directors.

We have appointed Puglisi & Associates, 850 Library Avenue, Suite 204, Newark, Delaware 19711, as our agent to receive service of process with respect to any action brought against us in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York under the federal securities laws of the United States or of any state in the United States or any action brought against us in the Supreme Court of the State of New York in the County of New York under the securities laws of the State of New York.

We believe there is uncertainty as to whether the courts of Israel would, respectively, (1) recognize or enforce judgments of United States courts obtained against us or our directors or officers predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the securities laws of the United States or any state in the United States, or (2) entertain original actions brought in Israel against us or our directors or officers predicated upon the securities laws of the United States or any state in the United States.

We also believe that the uncertainty with regard to Israeli law relates to whether a judgment obtained from the U.S. courts under civil liability provisions of the securities law will be determined by the courts of Israel. The courts of Israel may not recognize or enforce such judgments against an Israeli company, and because such a determination has not yet been made by a court of Israel, it is uncertain whether such civil liability judgments from U.S. courts would be enforceable in Israel. We have concluded that the courts of Israel would recognize a final and conclusive judgment in the federal or state courts of the United States under which a sum of money is payable (other than a sum of money payable in respect of multiple damages, taxes or other charges of a like nature or in respect of a fine or other penalty) and would give a judgment based thereon provided that:

- (1) the judgment was rendered by a court which was, according to the foreign country's law, competent to render it;
- (2) the judgment is no longer appealable;
- (3) the obligation in the judgment is enforceable according to the rules relating to the enforceability of judgments in Israel and the substance of the judgment is not contrary to public policy in Israel; and
- (4) the judgment can be executed in the state in which it was given.

A foreign judgment will not be declared enforceable by Israeli courts if it was given in a state, the laws of which do not provide for the enforcement of judgments of Israeli courts (subject to exceptional cases) or if its enforcement is likely to prejudice the sovereignty or security of Israel. An Israeli court also will not declare a foreign judgment enforceable if it is proven to the Israeli court that:

- (1) the judgment was obtained by fraud;

- (2) there was no due process;
- (3) the judgment was given by a court not competent to render it according to the laws of private international law in Israel;
- (4) the judgment conflicts with another judgment that was given in the same matter between the same parties and which is still valid; or
- (5) at the time the action was brought to the foreign court a claim in the same matter and between the same parties was pending before a court or tribunal in Israel.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

We are an Israeli-based company engaged, directly and through our subsidiaries, in the design, import, manufacturing, marketing and distribution of a broad range of food products purchased from over 120 suppliers worldwide and marketed throughout Israel and abroad. The products imported or manufactured by us are marketed in Israel and sold to over 1,500 customers, including supermarket chains, mini-markets, wholesalers, manufacturers and institutional consumers. We also sell our products outside Israel to a variety of customers world-wide (such as in the U.S., England, Belgium, France, Switzerland, Russia Etc.).

We were incorporated in Israel in January 1994 and commenced operations in February 1994.

Our operating divisions include Willi-Food in Israel, Gold Frost, a wholly-owned subsidiary that is a designer, developer and distributor of branded kosher dairy food products, and Shamir Salads, an Israeli manufacturer and distributor of Mediterranean style salads. As we previously reported on July 27, 2009, we now hold 100% of the shares of Gold Frost following completion of our tender offer for Gold Frost shares. In June 2009, Gold Frost sold all of its 51% interest in a Danish dairy distributor. In addition, on September 2, 2009 we signed an agreement to sell all of our holdings in Y.L.W Baron International Trading Ltd. (Baron), kosher food exporters located in Israel, and to assign all of our rights and obligations under the founders agreement from February 2007 to a private company owned by the Baron family, who held, as of the date of the agreement, the remaining shares in Baron.

The financial information below reflects our operations and our subsidiaries' operations on a consolidated basis.

Critical Accounting Policies

Management's discussion and analysis is based upon the consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with IFRS as issued by the IASB for all reporting periods presented. The use of these International Financial Reporting Standards requires the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting accounting periods presented.

These estimates include, among other things, assessing the collectibility of accounts receivable and the use of recoverability of inventory. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The markets of the Company's products are characterized by intense competition and a rapid turnover of products and frequent new introductions of products, all of which may impact future ability to value the Company's assets.

The following critical accounting policies may affect significant judgments and estimates used in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements.

Revenue Recognition Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable.

1. Management estimates is required to determine the amounts to be reduced for estimated customer returns, rebates and other credits.

Allowance for Customer Returns

In determining the accrual for customer returns, management considers past experience for the each specific type of the products as well as the Company's ability to utilise the product returned.

Allowance for Rebates and Other Credits

Allowance for rebates is determined based on expected level of revenues volumes applied to the rebate percentage agreed with the customer. Other credits relates mainly to disagreement with customers over prices and quantities. The determination of the allowance for other credits is highly subjective and management can exercise great deal of discretion over it. For our primary customers, allowance for other credits is determined based on past experience of collecting such differences, the aging of the balance and the Company's familiarity of the customer. Changes in these assumptions could affect our future results of operations.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Inventories Inventories are assets held for sale in the ordinary course of business, in the process of production for 2. such sale or in the form of materials or supplies to be consumed in the production process or in the rendering of services.

We value our Inventories at the lower of cost and net realizable value.

Cost is determined as follows:

Raw material, components and packaging	by the first-in, first-out method;
Processing goods	cost of materials plus labor
finished products	on the basis of standard cost which approximates actual production cost (materials, labor and indirect manufacturing costs).
Products	weighted average method

The Company's management is required to make certain judgments and estimates that may significantly impact the ending inventory valuation at cost as well as the amount of gross profit recognized. Judgments made, include recording markdowns used to sell through inventory and shrinkage. When management determines the salability of inventory has decreased, markdowns for clearance activity and the related cost impact are recorded at the time the price change decision is made. Factors considered in the determination of markdowns include current and anticipated demand, customer preferences and age of merchandise.

Useful Lives of Property, Plant and Equipment the management of the Company reviews the estimated useful lives of property, plant and equipment at the end of each annual reporting period in order to determine the amount of depreciation expense to be recorded. The useful life of an asset is estimated at the time the asset is acquired based on historical experience, the expected usage, wear and tear of the asset. Changes in industry conditions may cause the estimated period of use or the value of these assets to change. We perform periodic reviews to confirm the 3. appropriateness of estimated economic useful lives for each class of fixed assets. These factors could cause management to conclude that impairment indicators exist and require that impairment tests be performed, which could result in management determining that the value of long-lived assets is impaired, resulting in a write-down of the long-lived assets. For the two years ended December 31, 2008, no changes in assets useful lives have been recorded.

Impairment of Goodwill Goodwill is not amortized, but is evaluated for impairment annually or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the value of the goodwill may be impaired. This evaluation requires management to make judgments relating to future cash flows, growth rates, and economic and market conditions. These evaluations are based on determining the fair value of a cash generating unit using a valuation method 4. discounted cash flow or a relative. During 2008 and 2007, the management of the Company assessed the recoverability of goodwill, and determined that goodwill associated with the Company's overseas marketing of refrigerated products activity and with the Company's export activity (WF) was not recoverable and was written off in the amount of NIS 1,067 thousands and NIS 3,054 thousands, accordingly. The primary factor leading to the decisions that goodwill was not recoverable in both subsidiaries, was the substantial adverse difference between management's expectations regarding results of operation as predicted at the purchase deliberations and the actual amounts. The operations of both entities were eventually discontinued as part of the discontinuation of the export segment.

5. Deferred Taxes Deferred tax is provided for temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes. The amount of deferred tax provided is based on the expected manner of realisation or settlement of the carrying amount of assets and liabilities, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date. A deferred tax asset is recognised only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the asset can be utilised.

Deferred tax assets are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised. We recognise a deferred tax asset in our balance sheet only where we determine that it is probable that it will be recovered. A portion of the deferred tax asset recorded in our balance sheet relates to current or prior period tax losses where management considers that it is more likely than not that we will recover the benefit of those tax losses in future periods through the generation of sufficient future taxable profits. Our assumptions in relation to the generation of sufficient future taxable profits depend on our estimates of future taxable profits from the Company's regular course of business. These estimates are subject to risk and uncertainty, hence there is a possibility that changes in circumstances will alter the projections, which may impact the recoverability of the deferred tax asset recorded in our balance sheet and those tax losses currently provided as not recoverable. In such circumstances, some or all of the carrying value of the deferred tax asset may require provisioning and we would charge the expense to the profit and loss account, and conversely, some or all of the amounts provided as not recoverable may be reversed and we would credit the benefit to the profit and loss account.

Severance Pay The current value of the Company's obligation in respect of severance pay is based on actuarial assumptions, including discount rate (which is based on the discount rate of government bonds), market conditions, etc. The actuarial assumptions are based on the information provided by the management of the Company regarding expected rate of termination, employees insurance policies payments, probability for compensation payments. Any change of the assumptions given by the management of the Company may change the book value of the Company's obligation in respect of severance pay and could affect our future results of operations.

Sales

Sales for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2009, increased by 2.6% to NIS 223.7 million (US $59.5 million) compared to sales of NIS 218.1 million (US $58.0 million) in the first nine-month period ended September 30, 2008. The increase in gross profit was primarily attributed to the continued devaluation of the US dollar compared to the New Israeli Shekel (NIS) in the second and third quarter of 2009 and to increased sales of higher margin products as well as new products that we have recently added to our product lines (for example: a new line of canned vegetables, pastry and snacks products, energy drinks and a variety of dairy products).

The decrease was mainly due to an increase in trade accounts payables of approximately NIS 2.8 million (US $0.7 million) (compared to a increase of NIS 3.8 million (US $1.0 million) in the three-month period ended September 30, 2008), offset by an unrealized gain on marketable securities of approximately NIS 0.4 million (US $0.1 million) (compared to unrealized loss of approximately NIS 1.0 million (US $0.3 million) in the three-month period ended September 30, 2008).

Sales

Sales for the year ended December 31, 2008 increased by approximately NIS 87.5 million (US$23.0 million), or 43.37%, to approximately NIS 289.1 million (US $76.0 million) from NIS 201.6 million (US $53.0 million) for the year ended December 31, 2007. This increase in sales was attributed to (i) consolidation of Shamir Salads that contributed NIS 70.4 million and (ii) internal growth that contributed NIS 17.1 million.

Cost of Sales

Cost of Sales for the year ended December 31, 2008 increased to approximately NIS 228.8 million (US $60.2 million), or 79.16% of sales, from approximately NIS 156.1 million (US $41.0 million), or 77.41% of sales, for the year ended December 31, 2007. The increase in Cost of Sales was mainly due to the strengthening of the U.S. dollar versus the NIS (devaluation of 13% in the second half of 2008) and due to the sharp decrease in the global purchase prices of food products in the fourth quarter of 2008.

Gross Profit

Gross profit for the year ended December 31, 2008 increased to NIS 60.2 million (US $15.8 million), or 20.84% of sales, in the year ended December 31, 2008, as compared to a gross profit of approximately NIS 45.6 million (US $12.0 million), or 22.59% of sales, in the year ended December 31, 2007. The decrease in the gross profit margin was due to the strengthening of the U.S. dollar versus the NIS (devaluation of 13% in the second half of 2008) and due to the sharp decrease in the fourth quarter of 2008 in the global purchase prices of food products, resulting in the sharp decrease in the selling prices of our products as well. Because our commitments to purchase food products were based on higher prices from its vendors, the immediate consequence was a decline in the gross margin in the fourth quarter of 2008.

Sales and Marketing Expenses

Sales and marketing expenses for the year ended December 31, 2008 increased to approximately NIS 31.8 million (US $8.4 million), or 11.00% of sales, from approximately NIS 20.6 million (US $5.4 million), or 10.22% of sales, for the year ended December 31, 2007. OUR BUSINESS

Overview

We are an Israeli-based company engaged, directly and through our subsidiaries, in the development, import, export, manufacturing, marketing and distribution of a wide variety of over food products world-wide. Most of our sales are made in Israel with widespread demand in the Israeli marketplace, as well as products which cater to more select groups.

We purchase food products from over 250 suppliers located in Israel and throughout the world, including from the Far East (China, India, the Philippines and Thailand), Eastern Europe (Hungary, Poland, Latvia and Bulgaria), South America (Argentina, Ecuador and Costa Rica), the United States, Western and Northern Europe (The Netherlands, Belgium, Germany, Sweden, Denmark and France) and Southern Europe (Spain, Portugal, Italy, Turkey, Greece and Cyprus).

Our products are marketed and sold to over 1,500 customers in Israel and around the world (for example to the United States, England, Belgium, France, Switzerland, Russia etc.), including supermarket chains, wholesalers and institutional consumers. We market most of the products under the brand name Willi-Food, our chilled salads under the name Shamir Salads and some of our chilled and frozen products under the brand name Gold Frost. Certain products are marketed under brand names of the manufacturers or under other brand names. In addition, we distribute some of our products on an exclusive basis, as described further below.

We have acquired controlling interests in several businesses and have formed joint ventures with other businesses during the last three years. Some of these businesses were not successful and, accordingly, we sold them at prices similar to our original acquisition costs. We continue to re-evaluate our strategic position and consider other business opportunities. As part of this re-evaluation, we are also considering forming strategic alliances with or entering into different lines of business. We have no current plans, arrangements or agreements with respect to any mergers, acquisitions, or additional financing.

Business Strategy

Our business strategy is:

to promote the Willi-Food and Shamir Salads brand names and to increase market penetration of products that we currently sell through, among other things, marketing efforts and advertising campaigns; to expand our current food product lines and diversify into additional product lines, as well as to respond to market demand; and to expand our activity in the international food markets, mainly in the U.S. and Europe.

Utilizing management's expertise in identifying market demand and preferences, as well as its sourcing abilities, we intend:

to continue to locate, develop and distribute additional food products, some of which may be new to Israeli consumers; to increase its inventory levels from time to time both to achieve economies of scale on its purchases from suppliers and to more fully meet its customers' demands;

to further expand the international food markets, mainly in the U.S. and Europe, by purchasing additional food distribution companies and/or increasing cooperation with local existing distributors and/or exporting products directly to the customer; and to penetrate new markets within the Middle East through the establishment of business relationships and cooperation with representatives in such markets subject to a positive political climate.

We have developed certain trade relationships locally, as well as in areas administered by the Palestinian Authority, although current sales volumes to the Palestinian administered areas are low.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

In addition, we have:

promoted the value of the Willi-Food brand and introduced additional food products to the Israeli marketplace under the brand name Willi-Food ;

initiated sales in the U.S. and Europe; and entered into arrangements with recognized manufacturers to market their products under their respective brand names, in addition to brand names under which we currently market our products.

Suppliers

Import Segment

We are not a manufacturer in the import segment and purchases final food products only. We purchase food products from over 250 suppliers, including suppliers located in Israel, the Far East (China, India, the Philippines and Thailand), Eastern Europe (Hungary, Poland, Latvia and Bulgaria), South America (Argentina, Ecuador and Costa Rica), the United States and in Western, Northern and Southern Europe (Sweden, Denmark, Greece, The Netherlands, Italy, Portugal, Spain, Belgium, Germany, France, Turkey and Cyprus).

In addition, we actively maintain contact with approximately 150 suppliers worldwide through which it assesses, on an on-going basis, world market trends, fluctuations in prices, international trends, and other issues relevant to our business. Our management and personnel visit food trade fairs worldwide on a regular basis and endeavor to create new business relationships with potential suppliers.

Certain of the import segment products we import are seasonal agricultural products, such as artichokes, cherries, mushrooms and peaches. In order to assure ourselves a continued supply of these seasonal items, we generally make arrangements with the producers of such products at the beginning of the season for the terms of purchase of such items for the upcoming year.

A substantial portion of our purchases from suppliers in the import segment is made in US Dollars (such as purchases from the Far East, the United States, South America and certain European countries) with the remaining purchases usually made in Euros and other foreign currencies (e.g., Swedish Kronas). Supply is generally made to us against letters of credit for a period of up to 90 days.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Manufacturing Segment

In the case of the manufacturing segment, Shamir Salads manufactures all of the chilled salads. In the manufacturing segment we purchase raw ingredients from over 30 non-exclusive local suppliers to manufacture the chilled salads. Most of those purchases are denominated in NIS.

General

We are not dependent on any given supplier for the supply of a majority of our products. We purchase most of our products from several suppliers. We are dependent on one source of supply Arla from Denmark with respect to a large part of our dairy and dairy substitute products a part of the import segment. A distribution agreement between us and Arla grants us exclusive and non-transferable right to market and distribute cheese and butter products manufactured by Arla and its affiliated companies in Israel. Our exclusivity is subject to our purchase of certain minimum quotas of products. The agreement was signed in March 2005 for a period of 5 years. In July 2007, the agreement was extended for a period of 10 years from March 2005 and is renewable automatically for a further period of five years, unless notice of termination is provided by either party. Arla has the right to terminate the agreement on three months notice in certain circumstances, including in the case of the death or permanent incapacity of Zwi Williger or his ceasing to be involved in our business or if we fail to satisfy its minimum purchase requirements under the agreement.

Although we are not dependent on any one supplier with respect to most of our products, termination of our business relationships with certain suppliers and/or a material adverse change in the terms at which we purchase such products from such suppliers could have a material adverse effect on our financial results. There can be no assurance that alternative sources for such products, if required, will be readily available nor can we assure the terms of purchase of such products from such alternative sources.

We do not generally enter into written agency or other agreements with our suppliers. However, we have written agreements with 16 foreign suppliers from the import segment that confirms our exclusive appointment as the sole agent and/or distributor of such suppliers either with respect to a specific product or with respect to a line of products, within the State of Israel. These exclusivity rights have generally been granted for a period of 12 – 24 months and are automatically extendable unless terminated by either party upon notice, and in certain cases are conditioned upon our compliance with certain minimum purchase requirements. The suppliers from which we received such letters of confirmation accounted for 24% of our purchases in 2008 and in 2007. In a few instances we did not fulfill our commitment to the minimum purchase requirements, but since the commencement of our activities, no supplier has terminated its agreement with us due to our failure to comply with the minimum purchase requirements. Our purchases are not motivated by a desire to meet minimum purchase requirements, and the considerations in purchasing products from these suppliers are identical to those for purchasing from other suppliers.

In the years 2008 and 2007, no supplier accounted for more than 10% of our total purchases.

The average volume of our credit balance with its suppliers amounted in 2008 to NIS 48.6 million (US$12.8 million) consisting of 62 days of suppliers credit on average, and in 2007 to NIS 31.0 million (US$8.2 million) consisting of 58 days of suppliers credit on average.

Customers

Our products (import and manufacturing segments) are marketed and sold to over 1,500 customers throughout Israel and outside of Israel.

Our customers generally fall within one of the following two groups:

large retail supermarket chains in the organized market, and private supermarket chains, mini-markets, wholesalers, manufactures, institutional customers and the customers in the Palestinian Authority referred herein as the private sector.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The first major group includes the largest Israeli supermarket chains in the organized market in Israel, including: (i) Shufersal Ltd. (including the chains: Shufersal Deal, Shufersal Big, Shufersal Sheli, Shufersal, Yesh and Katif); (ii) Blue Square Israel Ltd. (which also includes MegaCenter, MegaBool and Shefa Shuk); and (iii) Co-Op Israel (which also includes Co-Op Jerusalem, Mister Zol, Pashut Zol and M.M.N). We contract with the supermarket chains in the organized market through the buyers in the head office of the supermarket chain, and then we receive orders from the logistic center or directly from their stores. Merchandise is then delivered directly to each branch or to the supermarket s chain distribution center.

The second major group includes private supermarket chains, mini-markets, wholesalers, food manufacturers, institutional consumers, such as catering halls, hotels, hospitals and food service companies and food producers, and customers in the Palestinian Authority.

Our sales, by customer group, for the years ended December 31, 2008 and 2007 are as follows:

Customer Groups	Percentage of Total Sales
	Year Ended December 31
	2008	2007
Supermarket Chains in the organized market	23%	24%
Private Supermarket Chains, mini-markets, wholesalers, manufacturers, institutional consumers and the customers in the Palestinian Authority	77%	76%
	100%	100%

Our largest customer (a supermarket chain in the organized market) accounted for 16% of our sales both in 2008 and 2007.

The loss of this major customer would have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations. We are seeking to expand our operations in other areas so as to reduce our dependence on any single significant customer.

We agreed to pay the large supermarket retail chains in the organized market incentives calculated as a fixed percentage of the annual sales to such customer. Other incentives include penetration discounts for sales of our new products, limited discounts for opening of new branches that sell our products and payments for participation in our product advertisements. The above mentioned incentives vary among customers and are usually awarded as part of a written annual framework agreement.

These incentives typically range from 5% to 8.5% of our annual sales to such customers and are generally paid at the beginning of each year with respect to the previous year s sales. These arrangements also generally include specific exclusions, such as direct or joint importing of products that are not considered for purposes of such incentives. Certain of these commitments are not evidenced in written agreements. For the years ended December 31, 2008 and 2007, we paid and/or are obligated to pay approximately NIS 4.7 million (US$1.2 million) and NIS 3.8 million (US$1.0 million), respectively, with respect of such incentives.

Our engagement with private sector customers is not subject to any exclusivity provisions or framework agreement, and they have no specific term. Prior to any engagement with a potential private sector customer, we examine the financial stability of such potential customer and determine the extent of the credit and period for which credit would be granted. Most of the private sector customers are required to deposit securities as collateral (personal and/or bank guarantees as well as post-dated checks). Some of the customers of this sector (mainly private supermarket chains and wholesalers) are also awarded incentives based on the increase in volume of sales to such customers in excess of a certain agreed amount, or incentives calculated as a fixed percentage of the annual sales to such customer. The extent of such incentives varies between 0.5% - 4.5% of the increase in volume of sales to such customers in excess of a certain agreed amount or of the annual sales turnover of each relevant customer (depending on the agreement with each customer).

The average aggregate debit balance of our customers with us amounted in 2008 to NIS 83.3 million (US$21.9 million) and the average time period within which our accounts receivable were paid was 81 days and in 2007 the average aggregate debit balance of our customers with us amounted to NIS 67.6 million (US$17.8 million) and the average time period within which our accounts receivable were paid was 95 days.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

In the event that a client does not respect its financial commitments, we may elect to foreclose on the collateral or the promissory note given by customers in the private sector. In 2006 – 2008, no significant use of this means was implemented.

We strive to minimize our credit risks by constantly reviewing the credit we extend to customers versus the security we receive. As a result, we have ceased selling products to certain customers and considerably reduced sales to other customers, and may continue to do so.

Our bad debt expenses for the years ended December 31, 2008 and 2007 amounted to NIS 0.7 million (US$0.2 million) and NIS 0.1 million (US$0.02 million), respectively.

Distribution, Marketing and Sales

We primarily distribute and market our products on our own. We market our products via internal sales agents, though in cases of sales of certain products to clients situated in different areas of Israel, we distribute products through external distributors, with whom we do not have exclusivity agreements. Sales by these distributors are not significant.

We generally have no written agreements with our customers, nor are our arrangements with our customers on an exclusive or binding basis. We generally extend our customers approximately 60 – 90 days credit beginning at the end of the month in which the sale took place. The supermarket chains in the organized market generally effect payment by wire transfers or cash payments on the due date, while other customers are generally required to provide post-dated promissory notes at least one month prior to the date of the expected payment. We generally do not require the supermarket chains in the organized market to provide any kind of security for payments; however, other customers may be required to provide security, including personal guarantees.

Sales are made by the placement of customers' orders (except for part of the dairy and dairy substitute products), which are directed to our regional office and placed by the sales personnel or directly by the customers. Orders are delivered by our transport network (including, as of the date of this prospectus, 15 refrigeration trucks, eight regular trucks and four combined trucks) and by independent transporters. In certain cases, we transport products directly from port to customers, utilizing the services of independent transporters. In some instances, we transfer the merchandise to the logistic centers of the supermarket chains, and the supermarket chains themselves are responsible for the distribution of the merchandise to their chain stores for a commission charged to us.

The sale of part of the dairy and dairy substitute products is performed by van sale sales agents using small terminals. The sales agents supply these products immediately from the stock of products in the refrigeration trucks in which they travel.

Some of the marketing and distribution to institutional clients in the private sector (such as hotels, police, prisons, and the Ministry of Defense and Kibbutz collective settlements) is done by winning tenders or direct distribution or by wholesalers.

In the import segment, we generally hold an inventory of products which we believe to be sufficient to meet market requirements for a period of up to 45 days. Occasionally, we may take advantage of low priced merchandise and purchase larger amounts than usual of a product with long shelf life. In those cases, the inventory quantities may be even higher than 70 days. Products ordered by customers in full container loads are generally forwarded directly to the customers' facilities without being stored in our facilities. In the manufacturing segment, we generally hold an inventory of products which we believe to be sufficient to meet market requirements for a period of up to 20 days. We do not regularly maintain significant backlog of orders from customers; orders received by customers are generally filled within one week.

Our inventory as of December 31, 2008 amounted to NIS 34.4 million (US$9.1 million) compared with NIS 31.0 million (US$8.2 million) as of December 31, 2007.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

We also participate in various sales campaigns within the supermarket chains that are intended to stimulate sales volume. Among such campaigns are food festivals initiated by the supermarket chains and certain importers, including us, in which the import and marketing of products from a specific country or region are celebrated and promoted. Such festivals typically involve increased display space as well as enhanced promotional activities, both with respect to the festival itself and the products. Such activities are sponsored by the supermarkets in collaboration with the importers participating in the festival. Within the framework of these festivals, we imports a wide variety of products which include pastries, vegetables, jams, cheese, fish, and dairy products, as well as certain articles typical to the culture and/or cuisine of each specific festival.

We maintain close contact with our consumer markets in an effort to be attentive to market needs, market trends, demand for certain products and their value to the market. We also regularly gather information on new products manufactured worldwide, including by attending food exhibitions and maintaining close relations with manufacturers and suppliers worldwide.

We are responsible for the products we market in Israel under the Israeli Law of Defective Products of 1980, and we have also purchased an insurance policy for product liability.

Seasonality

Each year as the Passover and Rosh Hashana festivals approach, we usually increase our inventories in order to provide a fast response to the market's demand. Usually there is an increase in our sales prior to the Rosh Hashanah holiday (celebrated in September – October) and the Pesach (Passover) holiday (celebrated in March – April). Despite the impact of the holiday season on our activities, our quarterly sales are not materially affected as a result of these holiday seasons.

Competition

The food distribution business in Israel is highly competitive with respect to imported, as well as locally manufactured, food products. We believe that it presently faces direct competition from both local manufacturers, as well as from a number of importers of food products. The food market in Israel is very price sensitive.

For each of the categories of products we distribute, there exists competition by dozens of local manufacturers as well as from other importers. The barriers to entry in the food market are low, and new potential competitors are constantly joining the market. We believe that we may also face competition from potential new-comers to the food business, as well as from existing importers and/or manufacturers currently not involved in the same lines of products as us.

For example, certain of the products imported by us such as canned fish, corn, edible oils, certain pickles, olives, pasta, cereal, sweet pastry and crackers and certain dairy products are also produced by local manufacturers in Israel. Local producers are not subject to the financial risks of importing food products or to governmental policies regarding taxation of imported food products to which we are subject.

To our knowledge, several of our competitors (Shemen, Tet-Bet and Solbar with respect to edible oils, Fodor (Starkist and Yona), Posidon and Williger of the Neto Group, Filtuna and Shastowitz with respect to fish products, Pri HaGalil-Vita, Yachin-Zan laKol, Williger of the Neto Group, Alaska and Johnson with respect to canned vegetable and canned fruits products, Osem, Barila, Pri HaGalil-Vita, Williger of the Neto Group and Tomer with respect to pasta products, Tnuva, Tara, Strauss, Siman, Machlvot Gad and Meshek Zuriel with respect to dairy and dairy substitute products, Strauss, Osem, Miki's salads and Yad-Hamelech salads with respect to chilled salads, for example) are substantially more established, have greater market recognition and have greater financial, marketing, human and other resources than those of our company. If any of our major competitors materially reduces prices, we would experience significantly more competitive pressure and a decrease in profitability. We cannot predict whether it could successfully compete with these pressures and, if it were unable to do so, our business would be adversely impacted.

Our management does not have precise information regarding the extent of the import of food products to Israel. However, management believes that it is currently one of the leading companies in Israel in our line of products.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

We endeavor to compete by reacting to the availability of products, their prices, offers for performing transactions and business opportunities, while diversifying sources of supply as well as following the selling prices of competing products and setting our product prices according to changing market conditions.

Intellectual Property Rights

We market certain products under the trademark Willi-Food, which was approved for registration in Israel in May 1997 for certain uses relating to the food industry. In 2001, the trademark's validity was extended for an additional fourteen years (until 2015). We market certain products under the trademark Gold-Frost, which was registered in Israel in February 2002. We also market certain products under the trademark Shamir Salads, which was registered in Israel in January 1995.

We also market cheeses and cheese substitute for pizza under the trademark Pizza Top which was registered in Israel in September 2002. On February 16, 2006, we entered into an agreement with Gold Frost under which we assigned to Gold Frost all our rights, title and interest in and to the trademark Pizza Top .

We also market certain products under the trademark Gold Food , which was registered in Israel in November 2002 for different uses in the food industry.

We also market cheeses and cheese substitute under the trademark Bloose, which was registered in Israel in October 2007, market breakfast cereals under the trademark Bubles, which was registered in Israel in December 2006, market snacks under the trademark Krisponim, which was registered in Israel in January 2007, and market edamame soybeans under the trademark Manchow, which was registered in Israel in June 2007.

We also market pasta and sauces under the trademark Donna Rozza, which was registered in Israel in August 2005 for different uses in the food industry. Other products marketed by us under their original brand name are Completa , Raskas , Puck , Nobeleza Gaucha , Hazer Baba , Sera , Daawat , Zanetti , Ferro , Hahne , Brillo , A import several products for the Supersol chain under the brand name Supersol .

There can be no assurances as to the degree of protection registration of our trademarks will afford. In 2008 and 2007, we applied for two new trademarks and in relation to one of them we received some objections. There is no certainty that these trademarks will be registered as we requested.

We also own four trademarks which are not currently used. Our investment in registering these trademarks was insignificant.

Legal Proceedings

Class Action Litigation

On April 16, 2009 we were served with a purported class action lawsuit alleging that we misled our customers by illegally marking a product that we import and sell as sugar free , according to the Israeli Consumer Protection Law, 1981.

The group which the lawsuit desires to represent are any Israeli resident who bought this product due to such person's preference for a sugar free or a reduced sugar product (the Group). According to the plaintiff, the Group consists of 2,000 customers. The plaintiff appraises our own damages at NIS 2,000 (approximately US$510) and the damages of the entire Group to be NIS 4 million (approximately US$1 million).

On October 12, 2009 a preliminary hearing was held. In the beginning of the hearing, the judge mentioned to the plaintiff's attorney that the lawsuit does not meet a procedure of a purported class action and asked both parties to reach for a settlement within 30 days. We received an offer from the plaintiff attorney to settle the lawsuit for NIS 30,000 (approximately US$8,000). We are currently examining the offer with our legal counsel.

Shamir Agreement

On May 14, 2009 we received a notice from the minority shareholders of Shamir Salads (the Sellers), with whom we had entered into a January 2, 2008 agreement to purchase approximately 51% of the shares of Shamir Salads (the Shamir Agreement), cancelling the Shamir Agreement due to an alleged violation of the Agreement by us. In addition, on May 18, 2009, the Sellers notified us that the board of directors and the shareholders of Shamir Salads had convened without our board and shareholder representatives and resolved to cancel the Shamir Agreement, change Shamir Salads' board composition and signatory rights, and replace the articles of association of Shamir Salads depriving us of our board representation and signatory rights in Shamir Salads.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Our position is that the Sellers' actions referred to above are illegal, violate the Shamir Agreement and Shamir Salads' articles of association, and did not constitute a proper corporate action of Shamir Salads. We believe that the actions taken by the Sellers are in response to the claim by us that the Sellers return a portion of the advance payment made by us to the Sellers in connection with the acquisition of shares in Shamir Salads. We have claimed that the Sellers made false representations to us as to the 2007 financial results of Shamir Salads, inflating the amount of the advance payment made by us, and the Sellers have not responded to this claim.

We submitted an urgent application to the district court in Tel Aviv requesting, among other things, a declaratory judgement that the Shamir Agreement is in full force and effect and various injunctions against the Sellers.

On May 27, 2009, the district court in Tel Aviv issued a temporary injunction against the Sellers. Pursuant to the injunction issued by the court, the Sellers are prohibited from taking any action not in accordance with the signatory rights in Shamir Salads in effect prior to May 18, 2009, performing any disposition of the shares of Shamir Salads held by the Company, taking any action not in accordance with the articles of association of Shamir Salads as in effect prior to May 18, 2009, and/or interfering with the functions of Shamir Salads' board of directors as composed prior to May 18, 2009. In addition, pursuant to the injunction, the Sellers are prohibited from interfering with the functions of the co-CEO of Shamir Salads nominated by us and/or from preventing the deputy CFO of Shamir Salads from participating in the discussions to approve the financial statements of Shamir Salads.

On June 17, 2009, the Sellers petitioned the district court in Tel Aviv for temporary relief against us and others, a declaratory judgment and other relief in connection with an alleged fundamental breach by us of the Shamir Agreement and for the return of the shares in Shamir Salads and the consideration paid therefore.

On June 22, 2009, in a hearing which took place before the Hon. Vice-President of the District Court, Judge Y. Zaft, it was agreed to (i) suspend the proceedings between the parties, (ii) to appoint the arbitrator in all aspects of the dispute which is the subject of these proceedings, (iii) to hear any claim that either of the parties has against the other, in anything concerning and emanating from the contractual relations between them, as well as their status in our company, and to decide any dispute concerning the conduct of the parties as our shareholders, including temporary relief, and (iv) that the application for temporary relief that was filed by the Sellers be struck out. The temporary injunction against the Sellers will remain in effect until the arbitration procedures will end.

In the framework of these proceedings we submitted a claim for declaratory reliefs in the matter so that the Seller's notice of cancellation of the agreement was given unlawfully and is void, as well as for an advance that was paid in excess and of additional damages that were caused us in a sum of approximately NIS 3.9 million.

In the framework of the arbitration being conducted between the parties, on August 4, 2009, the Sellers submitted a counterclaim against us and others for declaratory orders determined in proceedings that were submitted to the court, as well as for payment to Sellers of a sum of NIS 6.97 million for non-payment of the consideration in the agreement and tarnishing the Sellers' reputation and good name, and a sum of NIS 3.5 million to the Shamir Salads for damages that we allegedly caused it and our reputation, as well as a petition to split relief. Claims for additional relief against additional defendants (but not including our company) were also included in the framework of the claim.

On September, 22, 2009, filing of the complaints and primary evidence declarations on behalf of the parties was completed.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

On October 20, 2009, a preliminary meeting was held in the chambers of the Hon. arbitrator, during which the manner of hearing the witnesses and evidence in the claim was arranged. The evidentiary stage of the arbitration proceedings commenced on November 3, 2009.

On November 15, 2009, the Sellers allegedly filed a complaint with the Israeli police against the Williger Brothers as well as against other members of our management team and against the legal counsel representing us. The complaint was not filed against the Company. In their alleged complaint the Sellers accused the Williger Brothers of an alleged fabrication and forgery of corporate documents, alleged abstraction of justice and alleged harassment of witness. It should be noted that this information was brought to the Company's knowledge through an article published on the Internet. Furthermore, until now, the Israeli police have not approached the Williger brothers or the Company in connection with this matter. To the Company's best judgment, according to all the information and documents presented to us, these alleged claims are similar to the claims raised by the Sellers in the arbitration and that there is no substantiated legal basis for such allegations. The Company estimates that this alleged complaint is another desperate attempt by the Sellers to improve their condition in the arbitration.

Employees

Since December 31, 2008, we, including our subsidiaries, employed a total of 246 persons (most of them are located in Israel), 21 of whom were in management, 32 of whom were in accounting and importing positions, 45 of whom were involved in our sales and marketing departments, and 148 of whom were employed in logistics networks (manufacturing, warehousing and transportation). This compares with 135 employees as of December 31, 2007, 18 of whom were in management, 22 of whom were in accounting and importing positions, 37 of whom were involved in our sales and marketing departments, and 58 of whom were employed in logistics networks (warehousing and transportation).

Since December 31, 2008, 79 additional employees (stewards and sales people) were engaged on an hourly basis, as compared to 24 as of December 31, 2007. Other employees were supplied by temporary manpower companies.

The increase in the number of employees in all of the departments is mainly due to the expansion of the Group with the addition of two new subsidiaries, Shamir and Kirkeby.

Most of our employees are party to written employment contracts. We currently have management services agreements with companies controlled by Messrs. Joseph and Zwi Williger, pursuant to which Messrs. Joseph and Zwi Williger provide management services on behalf of such companies to us.

We believe that our working relations with our employees are satisfactory. Israeli labor laws are applicable to most of our employees, as are certain provisions of the collective bargaining agreements between the Histadrut (General Federation of Labor in Israel) (the Histadrut) and the Coordination Bureau of Economic Organizations (including the Manufacturers Association of Israel) (the MAI), by order of the Israeli Ministry of Labor. These provisions, along with the Israeli labor laws, principally concern the length of the work day, minimum daily wages for professional employees, paid annual sick leave, prohibition of discrimination, insurance for work-related accidents, social security, procedures for termination of employment by dismissal, entitlement to and calculation of severance pay and other terms of employment.

In addition, Israeli employers, including us, are required to provide certain escalations in wages in relation to the increase in the Israeli CPI. The specific formula for such escalation varies according to agreements between the Government of Israel, the MAI and the Histadrut.

A general practice in Israel, which is followed by us, is the maintenance of a pension plan to the benefit of our employees (the Pension Plan). Each month, both we and our employees allocate sums to the Pension Plan. Types of Pension Plans may vary, while a commonly used Pension Plan is known as Manager s Insurance . Pension Plans provide a combination of savings plan, insurance and severance pay benefits to participating employees. Some of the sums allocated monthly by us to the employees Pension Plans are on account of Severance Pay to which the employees may be entitled, upon termination of employment. Each month the employee contributes an amount which equals 5% to 7.5% of his or her insured salary, and we contribute an additional sum of 13.3% to 15.83% of his or her insured salary. In addition, Israeli law generally requires payment of severance pay upon the retirement or death of an employee or termination of employment without due cause. Furthermore, Israeli employees and employers are required to pay predetermined sums to the National Insurance Institute (which is similar, to some extent, to the United States Social Security Administration). The payments thereto amount to 7.35% to 17.43% of wages; the employee's share being 3.5% to 12% (depending on the marginal level of wages) and the employer's share being 3.85% to 5.43%.

Recent Developments

Gold Frost

In June 2009, Gold Frost Ltd. ("Gold Frost"), our wholly-owned subsidiary, executed an agreement to sell Gold Frost's 51% interest in a Danish dairy distributor ("Distributor") to the Distributor and/or to the Distributor's other shareholder ("Other Shareholder") for $400,000. Gold Frost acquired this 51% interest from the Other Shareholder in February 2008 for the same amount. According to the terms of the agreement, an amount equal to the balance of outstanding invoices owed by Gold Frost to the Distributor will be deducted as a down payment, and the rest will be paid by deduction in the purchase price by a pre-determined amount for each shipment of goods that Gold Frost will purchase from the Distributor or from the Other Shareholder, and the balance of the consideration, if any, will be paid in April 2011.

Gold Frost was granted the exclusive right to distribute all of the products of the Distributor and the Other Shareholder in Israel until April 2012, as long as Gold Frost purchases a minimum quantity of products from the Distributor or from the Other Shareholder at fair market prices and that meet specified quality standards.

Following a tender offer for shares and/or depositary interests of Gold Frost, that we commenced on February 5, 2009 and which had expired, we commenced a second tender offer on June 22, 2009 to purchase from the holders of shares and/or depositary interests of Gold Frost all of the issued and outstanding share capital of Gold Frost not already held by us for a price of 7 pence per share or per depositary interest in cash. On July 27, 2009 we announced that we had successfully completed the tender offer. In accordance with Israeli law, we purchased all of the issued and outstanding Gold Frost shares and depositary interests that had not been owned by us at the time of the tender offer (including those not tendered in the tender offer) at the tender offer price and paid an aggregate amount of approximately £370,430 for all such shares and depositary interests.

Sale of Baron

On September 2, 2009 we signed an agreement ("Agreement") to sell all of our holdings in Y.L.W. Baron International Trading Ltd. ("Baron"), kosher food exporters located in Israel, and to assign all of our rights and obligations under the founders' agreement from February 2007 to a private company owned by the Baron Family, who hold, as of the date of the Agreement the remaining shares in Baron.

In exchange for the sale of shares and the assignment of rights and obligations, the Baron Family agreed to pay US$937,500, which was paid to us on the date of execution of the Agreement.

With the consummation of the sale of Baron, our export segment was effectively discontinued. We re-cast our financial statements to display the export segment as discontinued operations.

REGULATION

The import, export, storage, distribution, manufacturing, marketing and labeling of food products is subject to extensive regulation and licensing by various Israeli government and municipal agencies, principally the Ministry of Health, the Ministry of Finance and the Ministry of Trade and Industry. We are required to maintain our distribution processes, as well as the products imported and manufactured by us, in conformity with all applicable laws and regulations. Failure to comply with these applicable laws and regulations could subject us to civil sanctions, including fines, injunctions, recalls or seizures, as well as potential criminal sanctions, any of which could have a material adverse effect on us. We believe that we comply in all material respects with the above-mentioned requirements. To the extent that we have imported, or will import, food products outside of Israel, we may be subject to quotas and other import laws and regulations which may limit our ability to sell certain of our food products into these countries.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

In 1978, the Israeli government issued the free import decree, which exempts the import of most food products from the requirement to acquire a license. However, preliminary permits from the Ministry of Health or the Ministry of Agriculture are still required. These preliminary permits are granted based on laboratory analysis reports and other data.

Customs duties and charges are levied on a portion of our products. Israeli government policy in favor of exposing the local market to certain imported products has directly impacted our operations since September 1991, when certain customs duties levied by category, formerly levied on products, including those imported by us, were canceled.

We are required to obtain import licenses for the import of certain food products from the Ministry of Trade and Industry of the State of Israel. We have obtained the necessary import licenses for the products imported by it as required by the import authorities. We have also obtained the necessary authorization required by the Ministry of Health (Food Authority) for the import of all of our food products to Israel. Our products are packaged by various manufacturers and suppliers abroad and labeled in Hebrew, English and, in certain cases, Arabic and Russian, according to our instructions and the requirements of the Israeli authorities. Since the beginning of our activities, we have been found to have mislabeled packages four times, as a result of which we were required to pay an immaterial amount of fines.

Most of the products which we import and market in the import segment are approved as Kosher by and/or under the supervision of various supervisory institutions including, the Chief Rabbinate of Israel, Chug Chatam Sofer, certain Jewish organizations administering Kashrut procedures and certifications (such as the Union of the Orthodox Jewish Congregation of America (OU), Badatz Igud Harabanim Manchester, OK, Circle K, Triangle K, etc.) and rabbis of local Jewish congregations abroad. Such procedures include, in certain cases, personal supervision by a Kashrut supervisor sent by such institutions to the manufacturing facilities from which we purchase products, who is present at the plant during the processing of the product. Under Israeli law, we are required to ascertain that the kosher foodstuffs which it offers for sale bear kosher certification approved by certain authorities, such as the Chief Rabbinate of Israel, and also bear the name of the individual authorized to certify such product. Not all products marketed by we have been so certified, although they do bear certain kosher certification from other certification bodies. The expenses for obtaining the Kashrut approval are relatively low.

Most of the products which we manufacture in the manufacturing segment are approved as Kosher by and/or under the supervision of Badatz Ha'eda Hacharedit (except for Kosher to Passover products) and the Chief Rabbinate of Israel.

The underwriters have entered into an agreement in which they agree to restrictions on where and to whom they and any dealer purchasing from them may offer ordinary shares, as a part of the distribution of the ordinary shares. The underwriters also have agreed that they may sell ordinary shares among themselves.

We have agreed with the underwriters that we will not, without the prior consent of the representative of the underwriters, for a period of 180 days following the date of this prospectus, offer, sell, contract to sell, pledge, grant any option to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, right or warrant to purchase, make any short sale, file a registration statement with respect to any of our ordinary shares or any securities that are convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for our ordinary shares, or otherwise transfer or dispose of (including entering into any swap or other agreement that transfers to any other entity, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership interest): (1) our ordinary shares and depositary shares representing our ordinary shares; (2) shares of our subsidiaries or controlled affiliates and depositary shares representing those shares; and (3) securities that are substantially similar to such shares or depositary shares.

We have also agreed to cause our subsidiaries and controlled affiliates to abide by the restrictions of the lock-up agreement. In addition, each of our directors and executive officers will abide by similar 180-day lock-up agreement with respect to our ordinary shares, depositary shares representing our ordinary shares and securities that are substantially similar to our ordinary shares or depositary shares representing our ordinary shares, subject to customary exceptions for transfers among affiliates. The restrictions of our lock-up agreement do not apply to: (1) the issuance of securities pursuant to our employee share incentive plan outstanding on the date of this prospectus of which the underwriters have been advised in writing and which is described in this prospectus, and (2) a transfer by us to our affiliate, provided that such transfer is not a disposition for value and that such affiliate agrees to be bound in writing by the restrictions set forth in the lock-up agreement to which we are subject.

The 180-day restricted period described in the preceding paragraph will be automatically extended if: (1) during the last 17 days of the 180-day restricted period, we issue an earnings release or announce material news or a material event; or (2) prior to the expiration of the 180-day restricted period, we announce that we will release earnings results during the 16-day period beginning on the last day of the 180-day period, in which case the restrictions described in the preceding paragraph will continue to apply until the expiration of the 18-day period beginning on the date of the earnings release or the announcement of the material news or material event.

The public offering price of the ordinary shares has been determined by agreement between us and the representative. Among the factors considered in determining the public offering price of the ordinary shares, in addition to prevailing market conditions, were our historical performance, estimates of our business potential and earnings prospects, an assessment of our management and the consideration of the above factors in relation to market valuation of companies in related businesses.

Our ordinary shares are quoted on the Nasdaq Capital Markets under the symbol WILC .

In connection with the offering, the underwriters may purchase and sell our ordinary shares in the open market. These transactions may include short sales, stabilizing transactions and purchases to cover positions created by short sales.

Short sales involve the sale by the underwriters of a greater number of ordinary shares than they are required to purchase in the offering. Covered short sales are sales made in an amount not greater than the underwriters' option to purchase additional ordinary shares from us in this offering. The underwriters may close out any covered short position by either exercising their option to purchase additional ordinary shares or purchasing ordinary shares in the open market. In determining the source of ordinary shares to close out the covered short position, the underwriters will consider, among other things, the price of ordinary shares available for purchase in the open market as compared to the price at which they may purchase additional ordinary shares pursuant to the option granted them. Naked short sales are any sales in excess of such option. The underwriters must close out any naked short position by purchasing ordinary shares in the open market. A naked short position is more likely to be created if the underwriters are concerned that there may be downward pressure on the price of our ordinary shares in the open market after pricing that could adversely affect investors who purchase in the offering. Stabilizing transactions consist of various bids for, or purchases of, ordinary shares made by the underwriter in the open market prior to the completion of the offering.

The underwriters may also impose a penalty bid. This occurs when a particular underwriter repays to the underwriters a portion of the underwriting discount received by it because the representative has repurchased ordinary shares sold by, or for the account of, such underwriter in stabilizing or short covering transactions.

Purchases to cover a short position and stabilizing transactions, as well as other purchases by the underwriters for its own accounts, may have the effect of preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of the ordinary shares, and together with the imposition of the penalty bid, may stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the market price of the ordinary shares. As a result, the price of the ordinary shares may be higher than the price that otherwise might exist in the open market. If these activities are commenced, they may be discontinued at any time. These transactions may be effected on the Nasdaq Capital Markets.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of G. Willi-Food International Ltd.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of G. Willi-Food International Ltd. (the Company) and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2008 and 2007 and the related consolidated statements of operations, shareholders' equity and cash flows for each of the two years in the period ended December 31, 2008. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, such the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Company and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2008 and 2007 and the consolidated results of their operations and their consolidated cash flows for each of the two years in the period ended December 31, 2008, in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB).

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(NIS in Thousands)

Note 2 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

According to IFRS No. 1 the transition date for the purpose of implementing IFRS standards commenced January 1, 2007.

The Company has applied in a retroactive manner the IFRS standards for all reporting periods presented in the financial statements. The Company implemented the IFRS standards which have been published as of the preparation date of the Financial Statements and expected to be effective as of December 31, 2008. While applying the said transition instructions the Company chose to apply two relieves allowed under IFRS 1. See note 31.

Until the adoption of IFRS the Company conducted the Financial Reporting in accordance with the Israeli GAAP. The annual financial statements as of December 31, 2007 and for the periods then ended were prepared under the Israeli GAAP standards. The comparative financial statements were represented in the financial statements in accordance to the IFRS standards. See note 31 for the relevant material adjustments between the Israeli GAAP and the IFRS.

B. Basis of Preparation

Until December 31, 2003, Israel was considered a country in which hyper-inflation conditions exist. Therefore, non-monetary balances in the balance sheet were presented on the historical nominal amount and were adjusted to changes in the CPI. As of December 31, 2003 when the economy ceased to be hyper-inflationary and the Company no longer adjusted its financial statements to the ISRAELI CPI, the adjusted amounts as of this date were used as the historical costs. The financial statements were edited on the basis of the historical cost, except for:

Assets and liabilities measured by fair value: financial assets measured by fair value recorded directly as profit or loss.

Non-current assets are measured at the lower of their previous carrying amount and fair value less costs of sale.

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value.

Property, plant and equipment and intangibles assets are presented at the lower of the cost less accumulated amortizations and the recoverable amount.

Liabilities to employees as described in note 12.

C. Foreign Currencies

The individual financial statements of each group entity are presented in New Israeli Shekel the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (its functional currency). The consolidated financial statements are also presented in the New Israeli Shekel (NIS), which is the functional currency of the Company and the presentation currency for the consolidated financial statements.

In preparing the financial statements of the individual entities, transactions in currencies other than the entity's functional currency (foreign currencies) are recorded at the rates of exchange prevailing at the dates of the transactions. At each balance sheet date, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at the balance sheet date. (Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at the date when the fair value was determined). Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they accrue.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (NIS in Thousands)

Note 2 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

(1) Functional and Presentation Currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the functional, currency). The consolidated financial statements are presented in NIS, which is the company's functional and the group's presentation currency.

(2) Transactions and Balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions or valuation where items are remeasured. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at year-end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in the income statement, except when deferred in equity as qualifying cash flow hedges and qualifying net investment hedges.

D. Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents include unrestricted liquid deposits, maturity period of which, as at the date of investments therein, does not exceed three months.

E. Basis of Consolidation

(1) General

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and entities controlled by the Company (its subsidiaries). Control is achieved where the Company has the power to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities.

Where necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies into line with those used by other members of the Group.

All intra-group transactions, balances, income and expenses are eliminated in full.

For the effect of the issuance of IAS 27 (revised) Consolidated and Separate Financial Statements see note 2Y below.

(2) Noncontrolling Interest

In instances that the Group acquires noncontrolling interest, the excess of cost of acquired interest over the carrying value is recognized as goodwill. In cases of excess of carrying value over the cost, such amount is recorded in earnings.

When the Group interest is reduced, without loss of control (either by sale or by issuance of shares by the subsidiary) the differences between the consideration received and the book value of the Group's sold is recognized in income statements.

The group applies a policy of treating transactions with noncontrolling interests as transactions with parties external to the group. Disposals to noncontrolling interests result in gains and losses for the group and are recorded in the income statement. Purchases from noncontrolling interests result in goodwill, being the difference between any consideration paid and the relevant share acquired of the carrying value of net assets of the subsidiary.

F. Business Combination

Acquisitions of subsidiaries and businesses are accounted for using the purchase method. The cost of the business combination is measured as the aggregate of the fair values (at the date of exchange) of assets given, liabilities incurred or assumed, and equity instruments issued by the Group in exchange for control of the acquiree, plus any costs directly attributable to the business combination. The acquiree's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities that meet the conditions for recognition under IFRS 3 Business Combinations are recognised at their fair values at the acquisition date, except for non-current assets (or disposal groups) that are classified as held for sale in accordance with IFRS 5 Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations, which are recognised and measured at fair value less costs to sell.

Goodwill arising on acquisition is recognised as an asset and initially measured at cost, being the excess of the cost of the business combination over the Group's interest in the net fair value of the identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities recognised. If, after reassessment, the Group's interest in the net fair value of the acquiree's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities exceeds the cost of the business combination, the excess is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

The interest of minority shareholders in the acquiree is initially measured at the minority's proportion of the net fair value of the assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities recognised.

G. Goodwill

Goodwill arising on the acquisition of a subsidiary represents the excess of the cost of acquisition over the Group's interest in the net fair value of the identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities of the subsidiary or jointly controlled entity recognised at the date of acquisition. Goodwill is initially recognised as an asset at cost and is subsequently measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses.

For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination. Cash-generating units to which goodwill has been allocated are tested for impairment annually, or more frequently when there is an indication that the unit may be impaired. If the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit is less than the carrying amount of the unit, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the unit and then to the other assets of the unit pro-rata on the basis of the carrying amount of each asset in the unit. An impairment loss recognised for goodwill is not reversed in a subsequent period.

On disposal of a subsidiary, the attributable amount of goodwill is included in the determination of the profit or loss on disposal.

H. Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipments are tangible items, which are held for use in the manufacture or supply of goods or services, or leased to others, which are predicted to be used for more than one period. The Company presents its property, plant and equipments items according to the cost model.

Under the cost method a property, plant and equipment are presented at the balance sheet at cost (net of any investment grants), less any accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. The cost includes the cost of the assets acquisition as well as costs that can be directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management.

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method at rates considered adequate to depreciate the assets over their estimated useful lives. Amortization of leasehold improvements is computed over the shorter of the term of the lease, including any extention period, where the Company intends to exercise such option, or their useful life.

The annual depreciation and amortization rates are:

Construction	4
Motor vehicles	15 20 (mainly 20%)
Office furniture and equipment	6 15 (mainly 15%)
Computers	20 33 (mainly 33%)
Machinery and equipment	10

The gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognized in the income statement.

I. Intangible Assets Acquired in a Business Combination

An intangible asset is an identifiable non-monetary asset without physical substance. Intangible assets acquired in a business combination are identified and recognised separately from goodwill where they satisfy the definition of an intangible asset and their fair values can be measured reliably. The cost of such intangible assets is their fair value at the acquisition date.

Subsequent to initial recognition, intangible assets acquired in a business combination are reported at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses, on the same basis as intangible assets acquired separately.

An intangible asset with an indefinite useful life shall not be amortized.

In accordance with IAS 36, an entity is required to test an intangible asset with an indefinite useful life for impairment by comparing its recoverable amount with its carrying amount:

- (a) annually, and
- (b) whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired.

Intangible assets with a finite useful life are stated at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses. Amortization is charged according to the straight-line method over their estimated useful life. See also Note 9.

Useful lives of Intangible assets:

	Years
Intangible assets acquired in a business combination:
Technology knowledge	10

Other intangible asset:

J. Impairment of Tangible and Intangible Assets Excluding Goodwill

At each balance sheet date, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible and intangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any). Where it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. Where a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be identified, corporate assets are also allocated to individual cash-generating units, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of cash-generating units for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be identified.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and intangible assets not yet available for use are tested for impairment annually, and whenever there is an indication that the asset may be impaired.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

K. Inventories

Inventories are assets held for sale in the ordinary course of business, in the process of production for such sale or in the form of materials or supplies to be consumed in the production process or in the rendering of services.

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost of inventories includes all the cost of purchase, direct labor, fixed and variable production overheads and other cost that are incurred, in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Cost determined as follows:

Raw material, components and packaging	by the first-in, first-out method;
Processing goods	cost of materials plus labor
finished products	on the basis of standard cost which approximates actual production cost (materials, labor and indirect manufacturing costs).
Products	weighted average method

L. Financial Assets

(1) General

Investments are recognized and derecognized on trade date where the purchase or sale of an investment is under a contract whose terms require delivery of the investment within the timeframe established by the market concerned, and are initially measured at fair value, plus transaction costs, except for those financial assets classified as fair value through profit or loss, which are initially measured at fair value.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(NIS in Thousands)

Note 2 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Financial assets are classified into the following specified categories:

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL)
Loans and receivables

(2) Financial Assets at FVTPL

Financial assets are classified as at FVTPL where the financial asset is either held for trading or it is designated as at FVTPL.

A financial asset is classified as held for trading if:

it has been acquired principally for the purpose of selling in the near future; or it is a part of an identified portfolio of financial instruments that the Group manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or it is a derivative that is not designated and effective as a hedging instrument.

Financial assets at FVTPL are stated at fair value, with any resultant gain or loss recognized in profit or loss. The net gain or loss recognized in profit or loss incorporates any dividend or interest earned on the financial asset.

(3) Loans and Receivables

Trade receivables, loans, and other receivables that have fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market are classified as loans and receivables. Loans and receivables are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment. Interest income is recognized by applying the effective interest rate, except for short-term receivables when the recognition of interest would be immaterial.

(4) Impairment of Financial Assets

Financial assets, other than those at FVTPL, are assessed for indicators of impairment at each balance sheet date.

Financial assets are impaired where there is objective evidence that, as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the financial asset, the estimated future cash flows of the investment have been impacted.

For all other financial assets, an objective evidence of impairment could include:

Significant financial difficulty of the issuer or counterparty; or Default or delinquency in interest or principal payments; or
It becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or financial re-organization.

For financial assets carried at amortized cost, the amount of the impairment is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate.

The carrying amount of the financial asset is reduced by the impairment loss directly for all financial assets with the exception of trade receivables, where the carrying amount is reduced through the use of an allowance account.

When a trade receivable is considered uncollectible, it is written off against the allowance account. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited against the allowance account. Changes in the carrying amount of the allowance account are recognized in profit or loss.

In a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognized, the previously recognized impairment loss is reversed through profit or loss to the extent that the carrying amount of the investment at the date the impairment is reversed does not exceed what the amortized cost would have been had the impairment not been recognized.

M. Financial Liabilities and Equity Instruments Issued by the Group

(1) Classification as Debt or Equity

Debt and equity instruments are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangement.

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Group are recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Financial liabilities are classified as either financial liabilities at FVTPL or other financial liabilities .

(2) Convertible Debentures

The component parts of convertible debentures are classified separately as financial liabilities and equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangement. At the date of issue, the fair value of the liability component is estimated using the prevailing market interest rate for a similar non-convertible instrument. This amount is recorded as a liability on an amortized cost basis until extinguished upon conversion or at the instrument's maturity date. The equity component is determined by deducting the amount of the liability component from the fair value of the convertible debentures as a whole. This is recognized and included in equity and is not subsequently remeasured.

(3) Consumer Price Index Financial Liabilities

The Company has Consumer Price Index (CPI)-linked financial liabilities that are not measured at fair value through profit or loss. For those liabilities, the Company determines the effective interest rate as a real rate plus linkage differences according to the actual changes in the CPI up to the balance sheet date.

N. Derivative Financial Instruments

The Group enters into a certain derivative financial instruments to manage its exposure to interest rate and foreign exchange rate risk, including foreign exchange forward contracts, interest rate swaps and cross currency swaps.

Further details of derivative financial instruments are disclosed in note 25.

Derivatives are initially recognized at fair value at the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured to their fair value at each balance sheet date. The resulting gain or loss is recognized in profit or loss immediately unless the derivative is designated and effective as a hedging instrument, in which event the timing of the recognition in profit or loss depends on the nature of the hedge relationship. The Group designates certain derivatives as either hedges of the fair value of recognized assets or liabilities or firm commitments (fair value hedges), hedges of highly probable forecast transactions or hedges of foreign currency risk of firm commitments (cash flow hedges), or hedges of net investments in foreign operations.

A derivative is presented as a non-current asset or a non-current liability if the remaining maturity of the instrument is more than 12 months and it is not expected to be realized or settled within 12 months. Other derivatives are presented as current assets or current liabilities.

O. Embedded Derivatives

Derivatives embedded in other financial instruments or other host contracts are treated as separate derivatives when their risks and characteristics are not closely related to those of the host contracts and the host contracts are not measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognized in profit or loss.

P. Forwards

Changes in the fair value of forwards transactions are recorded in profit or loss immediately as they occurred.

Q. Revenue Recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Revenue is reduced for estimated customer returns, rebates and other similar allowances.

(1) Sale of Goods

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised when all the following conditions are satisfied:

The Group has transferred to the buyer the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods;
The Group retains neither continuing managerial involvement to the degree usually associated with ownership nor effective control over the goods sold

The amount of revenue can be measured reliably;

It is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the entity; and

The costs incurred or to be incurred in respect of the transaction can be measured reliably.

(2) Interest Revenue

Interest revenue is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable, which is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to that asset's net carrying amount.

(3) Dividend Revenue

Dividend revenue from investments is recognised when the shareholder's right to receive payment has been established.

R. Leasing

(1) General

Leases are classified as finance leases whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

(2) The Group as Lessee

Assets held under finance leases are initially recognised as assets of the Group at their fair value at the inception of the lease or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments. The corresponding liability to the lessor is included in the balance sheet as a finance lease obligation.

Lease payments are apportioned between finance charges and reduction of the lease obligation so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Finance charges are charged directly to profit or loss, unless they are directly attributable to qualifying assets, in which case they are capitalised in accordance with the Group's general policy on borrowing costs.

Operating lease payments are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term, except where another systematic basis is more representative of the time pattern in which economic benefits from the leased asset are consumed.

Contingent rentals arising under operating leases are recognised as an expense in the period in which they are incurred.

In the event that lease incentives are received to enter into operating leases, such incentives are recognised as a liability.

The aggregate benefit of incentives is recognised as a reduction of rental expense on a straight-line basis, except where another systematic basis is more representative of the time pattern in which economic benefits from the leased asset are consumed.

S. Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that the Group will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

The amount recognized as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the balance sheet date, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation.

Where a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows.

When some or all of the economic benefits to settle a provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, the receivable is recognized as an asset if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

T. Share-Based Payments

Equity-settled share-based payments to employees and others providing similar services are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments at the grant date.

The fair value determined at the grant date of the equity-settled share-based payments is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the Group's estimate of equity instruments that will eventually vest.

At each balance sheet date, the Group revises its estimate of the number of equity instruments expected to vest. The impact of the revision of the original estimates, if any, is recognized in profit or loss over the remaining vesting period, with a corresponding adjustment to the equity-settled employee benefits reserve.

Equity-settled share-based payment transactions with other parties are measured at the fair value of the goods or services received, except where the fair value cannot be estimated reliably, in which case they are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments granted, measured at the date the entity obtains the goods or the counterparty renders the service.

For cash-settled share-based payments, a liability equal to the portion of the goods or services received is recognized at the current fair value determined at each balance sheet date.

Through the liability settlement, the Company shall re-measure the fair value of the liability at each reporting date and at the date of settlement, with any changes in the fair value is to be recognized in profit or loss for the period.

U. Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

(1) Current Tax

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from profit as reported in the income statement because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and it further excludes items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

(2) Deferred Tax

Deferred tax is recognised on differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit, and are accounted for using the balance sheet liability method. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences, and deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised.

Such assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill or from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset realised, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date. The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the reporting date, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority and the Group intends to settle its current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis.

(3) Current and Deferred Tax for the Period

Current and deferred tax are recognized as an expense or income in profit or loss, except when they relate to items credited or debited directly to equity, in which case the tax is also recognized directly in equity, or where they arise from the initial accounting for a business combination. In the case of a business combination, the tax effect is taken into account in calculating goodwill or in determining the excess of the acquirer's interest in the net fair value of the acquirer's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities over the cost of the business combination.

V. Employee Benefits

(1) Post-Employment Benefits

The Group's post-employment benefits include: benefits to retirees and liabilities for severance benefits. The Group's post-employment benefits are classified as Defined Benefit Plans.

Expenses in respect of a Defined Benefit Plan are carried to the income statement in accordance with the Projected Unit Credit Method, while using actuarial estimates that are performed at each balance sheet date. The current value of the Group's obligation in respect of the defined benefit plan is determined by discounting the future projected cash flows from the plan by the market yields on government bonds, denominated in the currency in which the benefits in respect of the plan will be paid, and whose redemption periods are approximately identical to the projected settlement dates of the plan.

Actuarial profits and losses are recognized in earning when incurred.

The Group's liability in respect of the Defined Benefit Plan which is presented in the Group's balance sheet, includes the current value of the obligation in respect of the defined benefit, net of the fair value of the Defined Benefit Plan assets.

(2) Short Term Employee Benefits

Short term employee benefits are benefits which it is anticipated will be utilized or which are to be paid during a period that does not exceed 12 months from the end of the period in which the service that creates entitlement to the benefit was provided.

Short term company benefits include the company's liability for short term absences,
