NOTE 1 – ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

Staffing 360 Solutions, Inc. (the “Company”) was incorporated in the State of Nevada on December 22, 2009, as Golden Fork Corporation (“Golden Fork”). On March 16, 2012, the Company filed a Certificate of Amendment to its Articles of Incorporation (the “Amendment”) to change its name from Golden Fork to Staffing 360 Solutions, Inc. The business purpose of Golden Fork was to enter into the catering services industry and to become a recognized leader in our targeted market for onsite food preparation and catering services. Since the date of inception to February 2012, the Company’s development activities related to the catering service business were minimal.

On February 17, 2012, Alida Heyer (the “Seller”), who held the voting rights equivalent to 78.7% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Company entered into a stock purchase agreement (the “Stock Purchase Agreement”) with TRIG Special Purpose 1, LLC, a Nevada Corporation, (the “Purchaser”) to sell to the Purchaser all her shares of the Company’s common stock, consisting of 6,000,000 shares (the “Shares”). Pursuant to the Agreement, the Purchaser paid the Seller $240,000 for the Shares in a private transaction and the Company has become a 78.7% owned subsidiary of TRIG Special Purpose 1, LLC (“TRIG”) and there has been change in control. The Company’s President and Director, Alfonso J. Cervantes, through his beneficial ownership of Trilogy Capital Partners, Inc. (“Trilogy Capital”), beneficially holds 50% of TRIG.

In March 2012, the Company commenced its operations in the international staffing sector pursuant to a consolidation business model. The Company anticipates initially acquiring a platform company concurrent with an Alternative Public Offering as it pursues the acquisition of a broad spectrum of staffing agencies in the IT, financial, accounting, healthcare and banking industries.

On July 31, 2012, the Company formed Staffing 360 Alliance, Inc., a new wholly-owned division, incorporated in the State of Nevada for the purpose of exploring some business prospects in the staffing sector.

Basis of presentation and going concern

Management acknowledges its responsibility for the preparation of the accompanying interim consolidated financial statements which reflect all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments, considered necessary in its opinion for a fair statement of its consolidated financial position and the consolidated results of its operations for the interim period presented. The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements for the Company have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (the "U.S.") for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 8-03 of Regulation S-X. Operating results for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of results that may be expected for the fiscal year as a whole.

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Staffing 360 Solutions, Inc. and its subsidiary, Staffing 360 Alliance, Inc. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The Company is presented as a development stage company. Activities during the development stage include organizing the business and raising capital. The Company is a development stage company with no revenues and no profits. Since the Company has a limited operating history, there is only a limited basis upon which to evaluate the Company's performance and its prospects for achieving its intended business objectives. Accordingly, these financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which implies the Company will continue to meet its obligations and continue its operations for the next fiscal year. Realization value may be substantially different from carrying values as shown and these financial statements do not include any adjustments to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should Staffing 360 Solutions, Inc. be unable to continue as a going concern. As of August 31, 2012, the Company has a working capital deficiency of $420,161, has not generated revenues, has accumulated losses of $470,641 since inception, and for the three months ended August 31, 2012 had net cash used in operations of $94,582. The continuation of Staffing 360 Solutions, Inc. as a going concern is dependent upon the continued financial support from its shareholders, the ability of the Company to obtain necessary equity financing to continue operations, and the attainment of profitable operations. These factors raise substantial doubt regarding the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

These consolidated financial statements and related notes are presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, and are expressed in U.S. dollars. The Company's fiscal year-end is May 31.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of net revenue and expenses in the reporting period. We regularly evaluate our estimates and assumptions related to stock-based compensation and deferred income tax assets valuation allowances. We base our estimates and assumptions on current facts, historical experience and various other factors that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities and the accrual of costs and expenses that are not readily apparent from other sources. The actual results experienced by us may differ materially and adversely from our estimates. To the extent there are material differences between our estimates and the actual results, our future results of operations will be affected. Significant estimates in the three months ended August 31, 2012 and 2011 include the valuation of deferred tax assets.

Fair value measurements and fair value of financial instruments

The Company adopted ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements. ASC Topic 820 clarifies the definition of fair value, prescribes methods for measuring fair value, and establishes a fair value hierarchy to classify the inputs used in measuring fair value as follows:

- * Level 1-Inputs are unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities available at the measurement date.
- * Level 2-Inputs are unadjusted quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets and liabilities in markets that are not active, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable, and inputs derived from or corroborated by observable market data.

Edgar Filing: Staffing 360 Solutions, Inc. - Form 10-Q

Level 3-Inputs are unobservable inputs which reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions on what assumptions the market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability based on the best available information.

The carrying amounts reported in the consolidated balance sheets for cash, prepaid expenses, accounts payable, accounts payable – related parties, accrued interest and accrued interest - related parties approximate their fair market value based on the short-term maturity of these instruments. Notes payable carrying value approximate fair value based on the market interest rates under such notes. The Company did not identify any assets or liabilities that are required to be presented on the consolidated balance sheets at fair value in accordance with ASC Topic 820.

The following table presents assets and liabilities that are measured and recognized at fair value as of August 31, 2012 on a recurring and non-recurring basis:

Description	Level	Level	Level	Gains
	1	2	3	(Losses)
	$ –	$ –	$ –	$ –

The following table presents assets and liabilities that are measured and recognized at fair value as of May 31, 2012 on a recurring and non-recurring basis:

Description	Level	Level	Level	Gains
	1	2	3	(Losses)

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid instruments with original maturities of three months or less when acquired, to be cash equivalents. We had no cash equivalents at August 31, 2012 or May 31, 2012.

Income taxes

The Company is governed by the Income Tax Law of the United States. The Company utilizes ASC Topic 740, "Accounting for Income Taxes," which requires the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the financial statements or tax returns. Under this method, deferred income taxes are recognized for the tax consequences in future years of differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their financial reporting amounts at each period end based on enacted tax laws and statutory tax rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established, when necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized.

The Company applied the provisions of ASC 740-10-50, “Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes”, which provides clarification related to the process associated with accounting for uncertain tax positions recognized in our financial statements. Audit periods remain open for review until the statute of limitations has passed. The completion of review or the expiration of the statute of limitations for a given audit period could result in an adjustment to the Company’s liability for income taxes. Any such adjustment could be material to the Company’s results of operations for any given quarterly or annual period based, in part, upon the results of operations for the given period. As of August 31, 2012 and May 31, 2012, management believes the Company had no material uncertain tax positions, and will continue to evaluate for uncertain positions in the future.

Advertising

Advertising is expensed as incurred. For the three months ended August 31, 2012 and 2011, the Company did not incur advertising expenses.

Research and Development

Research and development costs are expensed as incurred. For the three months ended August 31, 2012 and 2011, the Company did not incur research and development costs.

Stock-based compensation

The Company accounts for stock-based instruments issued to employees in accordance with ASC Topic 718. ASC Topic 718 requires companies to recognize in the statement of operations the grant-date fair value of stock options and other equity based compensation issued to employees. The Company accounts for non-employee share-based awards in accordance with ASC Topic 505-50.

Net loss per share of common stock

Basic net loss per common share is computed by dividing net loss available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. Diluted net loss per common share is computed by dividing net loss by the weighted average number of shares of common stock, common stock equivalents and potentially dilutive securities outstanding during each period. All potentially dilutive common shares were excluded from the computation of diluted shares outstanding as they would have an anti-dilutive impact on the Company's net losses. Potential dilutive securities include securities issuable upon the future conversion of convertible debt (see Note 2) and upon the attainment of certain milestones pursuant to an employment agreement (see Note 5).

Forward stock split

The Company effected a one-for-three forward stock split on April 13, 2012. All share and per share information has been retroactively adjusted to reflect this forward stock split.

Recent accounting pronouncements

Accounting standards that have been issued or proposed by FASB that do not require adoption until a future date are not expected to have a material impact on the financial statements upon adoption.

NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

August 31, 2012

NOTE 2 – CONVERTIBLE NOTES PAYABLE

Pursuant to a term sheet whereby the Company is offering for sale promissory notes in the aggregate principal amount of up to $500,000 to provide funds for expenses related to the acquisition of a privately held staffing company, on March 5, 2012, May 4, 2012, August 13, 2012 and August 20, 2012, the Company entered into Note Purchase Agreements and related Note Agreements (the “Note Agreements”).

Pursuant to the Note Agreements, on March 5, 2012, May 4, 2012, August 13, 2012 and August 20, 2012, the Company issued Notes in the principal amount of $50,000, $200,000 and $70,000 and $30,000 (the “Notes”), respectively. The Notes bear interest at the rate of 12% per annum and are due on February 20, 2013. Interest shall accrue and be payable on the last day of every fiscal quarter commencing on the first calendar quarter subsequent to the respective Note date and ending on the Maturity Date. The Company shall not have the right to prepay this Note. However, within 15 days following the closing of an acquisition of a suitable platform company, the Company will pay the Notes (principal amount and accrued but unpaid interest) by delivering to the holders shares of common stock of the Company at a common stock price equal to 50% of the following: (i) if the securities sold in the equity raise (“PIPE”) consist solely of common stock, the per share price of the common stock; (ii) if the securities sold in the PIPE consist solely common stock and securities exercisable for (e.g. warrants) or convertible into (e.g. convertible preferred stock or convertible debt) or common stock, the lowest of the per share price of the common stock and the exercise or conversion price of the other securities; and (iii) if the securities sold in the PIPE consist solely of securities exercisable for or convertible into common stock, the lowest of the exercise price or conversion price of such securities.

Since the convertible notes include an embedded conversion feature, management evaluated this feature to determine whether it meets the definition of a beneficial conversion feature (“BCF”) within the scope of ASC 470-20, “Debt with Conversion and Other Options”. The Note holders shall have the option to exchange all or a portion of the face amount of the Note, plus any accrued and unpaid interest thereon, into the applicable dollar amount of any other securities issued by the Company in connection with the subsequent financing, at a conversion price equal to 50% of the subsequent financing offering price. In accordance with ASC 470-20, which deals with instruments containing a fixed percentage conversion feature dependent on a future event, the Company estimated the intrinsic value of the beneficial conversion features at March 5, 2012, May 4, 2012, August 13, 2012 and August 20, 2012 (the “Commitment Dates”) of $50,000, $200,000, $70,000 and $30,000, respectively. However, these amounts will only be recorded at the date the Company enters into the subsequent financing arrangement.

For the three months ended August 31, 2012, interest expense related to the convertible notes amounted to $8,117 and the Company made a payment for interest due of $1,433 during August 2012. At August 31, 2012 and May 31, 2012, accrued and unpaid interest under the convertible notes amounted to $9,176 and $2,491, respectively, and is included in accrued interest on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

On July 2, 2012, the Company entered into a six-month consulting agreement for business development services. In connection with the agreement, the Company shall pay this consultant $5,000 per month during the term of the contract payable in a combination of cash and stock of the Company as determined at time of payment. The Company will pay the Consultant a performance fee (the “Performance Fee”) at the time of closing of a transaction in the event that Consultant or the designee of the Consultant originates a merger, acquisition or other similar transaction to which the Company is party. Performance Fee will be based on purchase price and will be paid at 5% of the first million dollars, 4% of the second million dollars, 3% of the third million dollars, 2% of the fourth million dollars, and 1% of the fifth million dollars and each million over the fifth million. Notwithstanding the aforementioned, it is understood and agreed that the total of all monthly cash retainers paid by the Company under this Agreement will be deducted from the Performance Fee. The Performance Fee for any merger or acquisition that the Consultant or designee of the Consultant originates shall include fee sharing with any qualified sell side broker fees. If, at any time within two years after the date of termination of this Agreement, the Company enters into any transaction that has been identified to the Company by Consultant during the term of this Agreement, then the Company shall pay the Performance Fee to Consultant. At August 31, 2012 and May 31, 2012, the Company owed this advisor $10,000 and $0, respectively, which has been included in accounts payable on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. As of August 31, 2012 and May 31, 2012, no merger, acquisition or other similar transaction to which the Company is party were originated by the consultant or the designee of the consultant; thus, no performance fee has been recognized.

On July 19, 2012, the Company entered into a one-year consulting agreement for business development services. In connection with the agreement, the Company shall pay this consultant 1) a flat rate of $25,000 plus expenses per acquisition target for due diligence; 2) effective August 1, 2012, $5,000 per month during the term of the contract, and 3) the Company will pay the Consultant performance fee (the “Performance Fee”) at the time of closing of a transaction in the event that Consultant or the designee of the Consultant originates a merger, acquisition or other similar transaction to which the Company is party. Performance Fee will be based on purchase price and will be paid at 5% of the first million dollars, 4% of the second million dollars, 3% of the third million dollars, 2% of the fourth million dollars, 1% of the fifth million dollars and each million over the fifth million. The Performance Fee for any merger or acquisition that the Consultant or designee of the Consultant originates shall include fee sharing with any qualified sell side broker fees. If, at any time within two years after the date of termination of this Agreement, the Company enters into any transaction that has been identified to the Company by Consultant during the term of this Agreement, then the Company shall pay the Performance Fee to Consultant; 4) for assisting the Company in its bridge financing activities, the Company shall provide the consultant 100,000 shares of its common stock; and 5) a bonus fee of 3.0% of the amount of any debt, mezzanine or equity capital invested via any transaction introduced by the consultant. As of August 31, 2012 and May 31, 2012, no merger, acquisition or other similar transaction to which the Company is party was originated by the consultant or the designee of the consultant; thus, no performance fee has been recognized.

NOTE 6 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Convertible notes payable

Pursuant to a term sheet whereby the Company is offering for sale promissory notes in the aggregate principal amount of up to $500,000 to provide funds for expenses related to the acquisition of a privately held staffing company, on September 14, 2012, the Company entered into a Note Purchase Agreement and related Note Agreement (the “Note Agreement”). Pursuant to the Note Agreement, on September 14, 2012, the Company issued Note in the principal amount of $50,000 (the “Note”). The Note bears interest at the rate of 12% per annum and is due on February 20, 2013. Interest shall accrue and be payable on the last day of every fiscal quarter commencing on the first calendar quarter subsequent to the Note date and ending on the Maturity Date. The Company shall not have the right to prepay this Note. However, within 15 days following the closing of an acquisition of a suitable platform company, the Company will pay the Note (principal amount and accrued but unpaid interest) by delivering to the holder shares of common stock of the Company at a common stock price equal to 50% of the following: (i) if the securities sold in the equity raise (“PIPE”) consist solely of common stock, the per share price of the common stock; (ii) if the securities sold in the PIPE consist solely common stock and securities exercisable for (e.g. warrants) or convertible into (e.g. convertible preferred stock or convertible debt) or common stock, the lowest of the per share price of the common stock and the exercise or conversion price of the other securities; and (iii) if the securities sold in the PIPE consist solely of securities exercisable for or convertible into common stock, the lowest of the exercise price or conversion price of such securities.

Since the convertible note includes an embedded conversion feature, management evaluated this feature to determine whether it meets the definition of a BCF within the scope of ASC 470-20, “Debt with Conversion and Other Options”. The Note holder shall have the option to exchange all or a portion of the face amount of the Note, plus any accrued and unpaid interest thereon, into the applicable dollar amount of any other securities issued by the Company in connection with the subsequent financing, at a conversion price equal to 50% of the subsequent financing offering price. In accordance with ASC 470-20 which deals with instruments containing a fixed percentage conversion feature dependent on a future event, the Company estimated the intrinsic value of the beneficial conversion feature of the Note (the “Commitment Date”) of $50,000. However, the amount will only be recorded at the date the Company enters into the subsequent financing arrangement.

Notes payable – related parties

Subsequent to August 31, 2012, the Company entered into a one-year note agreement with Trilogy Capital in the aggregate amount of $6,000. This note is unsecured, bears interest at 5.0% and is due one year from the respective note date. Additionally, the Company repaid principal balance on notes due to Trilogy capital in the amount of $8,500.

Subsequent to August 31, 2012, the Company entered into various note agreements with a Robert Y. Lee and Grandview Capital Corp. shareholders of TRIG in the aggregate amount of $1,750. These notes are unsecured, bear interest at 5.0% and are due one year from the respective note date. Additionally, the Company repaid principal balances due on notes in the amount of $16,500.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following plan of operation provides information which management believes is relevant to an assessment and understanding of our results of operations and financial condition. The discussion should be read along with our financial statements and notes thereto. This section includes a number of forward-looking statements that reflect our current views with respect to future events and financial performance. Forward-looking statements are often identified by words like believe, expect, estimate, anticipate, intend, project and similar expressions, or words which, by their nature, refer to future events. You should not place undue certainty on these forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from our predictions.

Plan of Operation

In March 2012, we commenced limited operations in the international staffing sector pursuant to a consolidation business model. We anticipate initially acquiring a platform company concurrent with an Alternative Public Offering as we pursue the acquisition of a broad spectrum of staffing agencies in the IT, financial, accounting, healthcare and banking industries. We are a start-up corporation and have not yet generated or realized any revenues from our business operations.

On February 15, 2012, TRIG Capital Group, an affiliate of us, executed a Letter of Intent to acquire IDC Technologies, Inc., a successful Silicon Valley IT staffing and business processing outsourcing company ("IDC"). On February 21, 2012, TRIG Capital Group assigned the Letter of Intent to us.

On July 31, 2012, we formed Staffing 360 Alliance, Inc., a new wholly-owned division, incorporated in the State of Nevada for the purpose of exploring some business prospects in the staffing sector.

Limited Operating History

We have generated no independent financial history and have not previously demonstrated that we will be able to expand our business. Our business is subject to risks inherent in growing an enterprise, including limited capital resources and possible rejection of our business model and/or sales methods.

There is no historical financial information to base an evaluation of our performance. We are in development stage operations and have yet to generate revenues. We cannot guarantee we will be successful in our business operations. Our business is subject to risks inherent in the establishment of a new business enterprise, including limited capital resources and possible cost overruns.

We will be seeking equity financing in the future in order to obtain the capital required to implement our business plan. We have no assurance that future financing will be available to us on acceptable terms. If financing is not available to us on satisfactory terms, we may be unable to continue, develop or expand our operations. Equity financing could result in additional dilution to our existing shareholders.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Our significant accounting policies are more fully described in Note 1 to our consolidated financial statements for the three months ended August 31, 2012 contained herein. We believe that the following accounting policies are the most critical to aid you in fully understanding and evaluating this management discussion and analysis.

Our consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The preparation of these financial statements requires us to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. We continually evaluate our estimates, including those related to income taxes, and the valuation of equity transactions. We base our estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that we believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Any future changes to these estimates and assumptions could cause a material change to our reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions. We believe the following critical accounting policies affect our more significant judgments and estimates used in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements.

Stock-based compensation

We account for stock-based instruments issued to employees in accordance with ASC Topic 718. ASC Topic 718 requires companies to recognize in the statement of operations the grant-date fair value of stock options and other equity based compensation issued to employees. There were no options outstanding as of August 31, 2012. We account for non-employee share-based awards in accordance with ASC Topic 505-50.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Accounting standards that have been issued or proposed by FASB that do not require adoption until a future date are not expected to have a material impact on us upon adoption.

Results of operations

For the three months ended August 31, 2012 as compared to the three months ended August 31, 2011

Revenues

Since inception, we have not generated any revenues.

Operating expenses

For the three months ended August 31, 2012, operating expenses amounted to $197,668 as compared to $11,100 for the three months ended August 31, 2011, an increase of $186,568 or 1,680.8%. For the three months ended August 31, 2012 and 2011, operating expenses consisted of the following:

Edgar Filing: Staffing 360 Solutions, Inc. - Form 10-Q

	For the Three Months Ended August 31, 2012	For the Three Months Ended August 31, 2011
Compensation and benefit	$31,465	$-
Consulting fees – related parties	16,183	750
Rent – related parties	4,500	750
Professional fees	118,948	2,770
Other general and administrative	26,572	6,830
 Total Operating Expenses	 $197,668	 $11,100

For the three months ended August 31, 2012, the increase in our operating expenses as compared to the three months ended August 31, 2011 was primarily attributable to:

An increase in compensation and benefit of $31,465. In February 2012, we hired our chief executive officer pursuant to an employment agreement.

An increase in consulting fees to related parties incurred for administrative overhead services and business development services of $15,433. We expect the expense to continue to increase in the near future as we implement our business plan.

An increase in rent to related parties for office space used by us of $3,750.

For the three months ended August 31, 2012, we incurred professional fees of $118,948 including consulting fees of $84,181 for business development services, accounting fees of $2,600 for quarterly review, legal fees of $29,855, and other professional fees of $2,312. We expect professional fees to increase substantially as we incur significant costs associated with our public company reporting requirements, costs associated with newly applicable corporate governance requirements, including requirements under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and other rules implemented by the Securities and Exchange Commission and professional fees in connection with our new business model.

We also experienced an increase of $19,742 in general and administrative expenses in the three months ended August 31, 2012 as compared to the three months ended August 31, 2011 and expect these expenses to increase in the near future as we implement our business plan.

Other Expenses

For the three months ended August 31, 2012, we incurred aggregate interest expense of $8,117 and $296 related to outstanding convertible notes payable and related parties notes payable, respectively. We did not incur interest expense in the three months ended August 31, 2011.

Net Loss

As a result of the factors described above, our net losses for the three months ended August 31, 2012 and 2011 were $206,081 and $11,100, respectively, or a net loss per common share of $0.03 and $0.00 (basic and diluted), respectively.

Liquidity and capital resources

Liquidity is the ability of a company to generate funds to support its current and future operations, satisfy its obligations, and otherwise operate on an ongoing basis. We have been funding our operations through the sale of our common stock and from advances from our former majority shareholder/office/director.

Our primary uses of cash have been for professional fees related to our operations and financial reporting requirement and for the payment of compensation and benefits. All funds received have been expended in the furtherance of growing the business and implementing our business plan. The following trends are reasonably likely to result in a material decrease in our liquidity over the near to long term:

- An increase in working capital requirements to finance targeted acquisitions,
- Addition of administrative and sales personnel as the business grows,

· Increases in advertising, public relations and sales promotions for existing and new brands as the company expands within existing markets or enters new markets,

- The cost of being a public company, and
- Capital expenditures to add additional technology.

We are not aware of any known trends or any known demands, commitments or events that will result in our liquidity increasing or decreasing in any material way. We are not aware of any matters that would have an impact on future operations.

Since inception, we have not had any revenue. At August 31, 2012, we had a cash balance of $45,785. Since inception we have funded our operations as follows:

Since inception, we raised $27,000 from the sale of common stock to fund our operating expenses and pay our obligations.

Pursuant to a term sheet whereby we are offering for sale promissory notes in the aggregate principal amount of up to $500,000 to provide funds for expenses related to the acquisition of a privately held staffing company, during the period from March 2012 through August 2012, we entered into Note Purchase Agreements and a related Note Agreements (the "Note Agreements"). Pursuant to the Note Agreements, we issued Notes in the aggregate principal amount of $350,000 (the "Notes"). The Notes bear interest at the rate of 12% per annum and are due on February 20, 2013. Interest shall accrue and be payable on the last day of every fiscal quarter and on the Maturity Date. We shall not have the right to prepay these Notes. However, within 15 days following the closing of an acquisition of a suitable platform company, we will pay the Notes (principal amount and accrued but unpaid interest) by delivering to the holders shares of common stock of the Company at a common stock price equal to 50% of the following: (i) if the securities sold in the equity raise ("PIPE") consist solely of common stock, the per share price of the common stock; (ii) if the securities sold in the PIPE consist solely common stock and securities exercisable for (e.g. warrants) or convertible into (e.g. convertible preferred stock or convertible debt) or common stock, the lowest of the per share price of the common stock and the exercise or conversion price of the other securities; and (iii) if the securities sold in the PIPE consist solely of securities exercisable for or convertible into common stock, the lowest of the exercise price or conversion price of such securities.

During the period from April 2012 to August 2012, we entered into various note agreements with Trilogy Capital Partners, Inc. ("Trilogy Capital"), a company majority owned by Company's president and director in the aggregate amount of $14,800 and we made repayment of $6,300 for these notes. These notes are unsecured, bear interest at 5.0% and are due one year from the respective note date.

During the period from April 2012 to August 2012, we entered into various note agreements with a Robert Y. Lee and Grandview Capital Corp. shareholders of TRIG in the aggregate amount of $27,600 and we made repayment of $5,000 for these notes. These notes are unsecured, bear interest at 5.0% and are due one year from the respective note date.

Subsequent to August 31, 2012, we entered into various one-year note agreements with Trilogy Capital in the aggregate amount of $6,000 and we made repayment of $8,500 for notes. These notes are unsecured, bear interest at 5.0% and are due one year from the respective note date.

Subsequent to August 31, 2012, we entered into various note agreements with a Robert Y. Lee and Grandview Capital Corp. shareholders of TRIG in the aggregate amount of $1,750 and we made repayment of $16,500 for notes. These notes are unsecured, bear interest at 5.0% and are due one year from the respective note date.

We currently have no material commitments for capital expenditures. We must raise funds to implement our business plan in order to pursue the acquisition of a broad spectrum of staffing agencies in the IT, financial, accounting, healthcare and banking industries and for working capital. Currently, we are unable to generate positive cash flow as a result of our operations. We estimate that based on current plans and assumptions, that our available cash will not be sufficient to satisfy our cash requirements under our present operating expectations, without further financing, for up to 12 months. Other than working capital, we presently have no other alternative source of working capital. Currently, we do not have sufficient working capital to fund the expansion of our operations and to provide working capital necessary for our ongoing operations and obligations. We will need to raise significant additional capital to fund our operating expenses, pay our obligations, and grow our company. Therefore our future operations will be dependent on our ability to secure additional financing. Financing transactions may include the issuance of equity or debt securities, obtaining credit facilities, or other financing mechanisms. However, the trading price of our common stock and a downturn in the U.S. equity and debt markets could make it more difficult to obtain financing through the issuance of equity or debt securities. Even if we are able to raise the funds required, it is possible that we could incur unexpected costs and expenses, fail to collect amounts owed to us, or experience unexpected cash requirements that would force us to seek alternative financing. Furthermore, if we issue additional equity or debt securities, stockholders may experience additional dilution or the new equity securities may have rights, preferences or privileges senior to those of existing holders of our common stock. The inability to obtain additional capital will restrict our ability to grow and may reduce our ability to continue to conduct business operations. If we are unable to obtain additional financing, we will likely be required to curtail our marketing and development plans and possibly cease our operations.

We anticipate that depending on market conditions and our plan of operations, we may incur operating losses in the foreseeable future. Therefore, our auditors have raised substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern.

Our liquidity may be negatively impacted by the significant costs associated with our public company reporting requirements, costs associated with newly applicable corporate governance requirements, including requirements under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and other rules implemented by the Securities and Exchange Commission. We expect all of these applicable rules and regulations to significantly increase our legal and financial compliance costs and to make some activities more time consuming and costly.

Operating activities

For the three months ended August 31, 2012, net cash flows used in operating activities amounted to $94,582 and was attributable to our net loss of $206,081, offset by the cash receipt from the changes in operating assets and liabilities such as: a decrease in prepaid expenses of $16,125, an increase in accounts payable of $68,298, an increase in accounts payable – related parties of $20,095, an increase in accrued interest of $6,685 and an increase in accrued interest - related parties of $296.

For the three months ended August 31, 2011, net cash flows used in operating activities amounted to $9,550 and was attributable to our net loss of $11,100, offset by the add back of the non-cash item of donated services and rent expense of $1,500, and changes in operating assets and liabilities of $50.

Financing activities

For the three months ended August 31, 2012, net cash flows provided by financing activities was $121,500 and was attributable to the proceeds from convertible notes payable of $100,000, and cash received from related parties notes of $29,000, offset by the repayment of related parties notes of $7,500. For the three months ended August 31, 2011, net cash flows provided by financing activities was $27,000 and was attributable to the sale of our common stock.

Contractual Obligations

We have certain fixed contractual obligations and commitments that include future estimated payments. Changes in our business needs, cancellation provisions, changing interest rates, and other factors may result in actual payments differing from the estimates. We cannot provide certainty regarding the timing and amounts of payments. We have presented below a summary of the most significant assumptions used in our determination of amounts presented in the tables, in order to assist in the review of this information within the context of our financial position, results of operations, and cash flows.

The following tables summarize our contractual obligations as of August 31, 2012 and the effect these obligations are expected to have on our liquidity and cash flows in future periods.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

We are a smaller reporting company as defined by Rule 12b-2 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and are not required to provide the information under this item.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

We carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, of the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Exchange Act (defined below)). Based upon that evaluation, our principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that, as of the end of the period covered in this report, our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed in reports filed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the required time periods and is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, does not expect that our disclosure controls and procedures or our internal controls will prevent all error or fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Due to the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, have been detected. Accordingly, management believes that the financial statements included in this report fairly present in all material respects our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In addition, our management with the participation of our Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer have determined that no change in our internal control over financial reporting occurred during or subsequent to the quarter ended August 31, 2012 that has materially affected, or is (as that term is defined in Rules 13(a)-15(f) and 15(d)-15(f) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II – OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

From time to time, we may become involved in various lawsuits and legal proceedings, which arise, in the ordinary course of business. However, litigation is subject to inherent uncertainties, and an adverse result in these or other matters may arise from time to time that may harm our business. We are currently not aware of any such legal proceedings or claims that we believe will have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition or operating results.
