

HILB ROGAL & HOBBS CO
Form 8-K
November 06, 2008

Edgar Filing: HILB ROGAL & HOBBS CO - Form 8-K

respect to the Hilb Rogal & Hobbs Retirement Savings Plan (the "Plan"), during which they would be subject to blackout restrictions with respect to transactions in HRH common stock and related equity securities. The blackout period was implemented in connection with the acquisition by Willis Group Holdings Limited of HRH by means of a merger which, as previously disclosed, closed on October 1, 2008. The blackout period was implemented in order to allow the Plan's trustee to process and implement participants' instructions with respect to the election of merger consideration. The notice provided that the blackout period was expected to begin at 4:00 p.m., eastern time, on September 23, 2008 and to end on October 13, 2008.

The blackout period was extended to 12:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on October 17, 2008, as a result of the Plan trustee requiring additional time to exchange the shares of HRH common stock in the Plan for shares of Willis common stock and/or cash and on November 5, 2008, HRH notified its directors and executive officers of the blackout period termination. Following the closing of the merger on October 1, 2008, all of the outstanding shares of common stock of HRH were directly or indirectly owned by Willis.
