Item 5.07. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

On January 19, 2018, Strayer Education, Inc. (“Strayer”) held a special meeting of stockholders (the “Special Meeting”) in connection with the previously announced merger pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 29, 2017, by and among Strayer, Capella Education Company (“Capella”) and Sarg Sub Inc. (“Merger Sub”), whereby Merger Sub, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Strayer, will merge with and into Capella (the “Merger”). As of December 11, 2017, the record date for the Special Meeting, there were 11,167,425 shares of Strayer common stock, par value $0.01 per share (“Strayer common stock”), outstanding and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. At the Special Meeting, a total of 10,384,073 shares of Strayer common stock were present in person or represented by proxy, constituting a quorum to conduct business.

A summary of the voting results for each of the proposals listed below, each of which is described in detail in Strayer’s definitive joint proxy statement/prospectus filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on December 8, 2017 (the “Proxy Statement”), is set forth below:

Proposal 1 – Share Issuance Proposal. The stockholders voted on the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of Strayer common stock to shareholders of Capella in connection with the Merger. Stockholders voted as follows:

For	Against	Abstain	Broker Non-Votes
10,278,067	75,026	30,980	—

Accordingly, the proposal regarding issuance of Strayer common stock to shareholders of Capella in connection with the Merger was approved.

Proposal 2 – Charter Amendment Proposal. The stockholders voted on the proposal to amend and restate Strayer’s charter to provide for certain changes as shown in Annex B to the Proxy Statement (such changes to include changing Strayer’s corporate name from “Strayer Education, Inc.” to “Strategic Education, Inc.” and increasing the number of shares of Strayer common stock that Strayer is authorized to issue under its charter to 32,000,000). Stockholders voted as follows:

For	Against	Abstain	Broker Non-Votes
10,247,691	106,011	30,371	—

Accordingly, the proposal to amend and restate Strayer’s charter was approved. If Strayer and Capella do not consummate the Merger, Strayer will not amend and restate the Strayer charter to effect the amendments contemplated by the Charter Amendment Proposal, even though Strayer stockholders have approved the Charter Amendment Proposal.

Proposal 3 – Adjournment Proposal. Because a quorum was present at the Special Meeting and each of Proposal 1 and Proposal 2 received the requisite votes needed for their approval, a vote on the proposal to approve the adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies in favor of Proposal 1 and/or Proposal 2 if there were insufficient votes at the time to approve either or both proposals, was not called.

Item 8.01. Other Events

On January 19, 2018, Strayer issued a press release announcing the results of stockholder voting at the Special Meeting in connection with the Merger. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.

Forward Looking Statements

This communication contains certain forward-looking statements made pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the "Reform Act"). Such statements may be identified by the use of words such as "expect," "estimate," "assume," "believe," "anticipate," "will," "forecast," "outlook," "plan," "project," or similar words and may include statements with respect to, among other things, the proposed merger of a wholly-owned subsidiary of Strayer with and into Capella, including the expected timing of completion of the Merger; the anticipated benefits of the Merger, including estimated synergies; the combined company's plans, objectives and expectations; future financial and operating results; and other statements that are not historical facts. The statements are based on Strayer's current expectations and are subject to a number of assumptions, uncertainties and risks. In connection with the safe-harbor provisions of the Reform Act, Strayer has identified important factors that could cause Strayer's actual results to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such statements. The assumptions, uncertainties and risks include:

- the risk that the Merger may not be completed in a timely manner or at all due to the failure to satisfy other conditions (including obtaining required regulatory and educational agency approvals) to completion of the Merger;
- the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the merger agreement;
- the outcome of any legal proceeding that may be instituted against Strayer, Capella and others following the announcement of the Merger;
- the amount of the costs, fees, expenses and charges related to the Merger;
- the risk that the benefits of the Merger, including expected synergies, may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected;
- the risk that the Merger may not advance the combined company's business strategy and growth strategy;
- the risk that the combined company may experience difficulty integrating Strayer's and Capella's employees or operations;
- the potential diversion of Strayer's management's attention resulting from the proposed Merger; and
- other risks and uncertainties identified in Strayer's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Actual results may differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements. Strayer undertakes no obligation to update or revise forward-looking statements.
