NOTE B - DEVELOPMENT STAGE COMPANY

E and S Holdings, Inc. (a Nevada corporation) has been in the development stage since its formation on June 20, 2001. It is primarily engaged in the development and marketing of new products on which it holds the patent. Realization of a major portion of its assets is dependent upon the Company's ability to successfully develop and market the patent, meet its future financing requirements, and the success of future operations. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

NOTE C - FORGIVENESS OF DEBT

ITEM 2 - MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION

Trilliant, Inc. (Trilliant) formerly known as E & S Holdings, Inc. is a developmental stage company that has received revenues of approximately $328 during the three-month period ending February 28, 2007. Trilliant has received no significant revenues since its inception.

As of February 28, 2007, Trilliant has cash assets of $1,111 and accounts receivable of $348. The inventory of the Company is $ 20,923. After experiencing initial favorable response to the Company's sole product, the Portable Pipe Vise, Trilliant has experienced a continuing decrease in the public interest for its product. Due to the lack of market response to the product, the management of Trilliant has decided that it is necessary to review the focus of the business's operation at this time. Management does not believe that additional funding of the Portable Pipe Vise will in itself create sufficient interest in the product to justify raising additional capital. Instead, management is now focusing its efforts toward developing additional business directions for the Company to pursue or acquiring additional products to market or either through the purchase of a product or through acquisition of assets sufficient an additional business direction. In this vein management on February 1st, 2007 entered into an agreement to purchase a mineral property located in the Fort a la Corne area of Saskatchewan, Canada. The acquisition did not satisfy the Company's due diligence and the transaction did not proceed. However management currently believes there are opportunities for the Company in the resource sector and will continue to pursue opportunities in this area.

The Company has also received revised quotations for producing the Portable Pipe Vise, which would significantly reduce the cost of manufacture. However the Company has not yet decided whether it will order additional units of the Portable Pipe Vise from this manufacturer.

The shares of Trilliant are currently listed on the OTC Bulletin Board, under the symbol TRLL.

Over the past three months, Trilliant has sustained operating losses in the amount of $12,498. Of this amount, $7,216 involves costs for legal and accounting fees occurred during the last quarter. As of February 28, 2007, Trilliant has total liabilities of $109,823. These liabilities include approximately $57,020 of liabilities owed to shareholders for advances and loans made to the company.

There are no off balance sheet arrangements involving Trilliant at this time.

ITEM 3 - CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

The management of Trilliant recognize its responsibility for establishing and maintaining adequate internal controls over financial reporting for Trilliant. Due to the small size of Trilliant, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer is aware of all matters pertaining to the operations of Trilliant, Inc and has reviewed all aspects of the financial information included in the Company's financial reporting. At the present time, management is of the opinion that the Company's internal controls over financial reporting for the past fiscal year are adequate. However, management has identified a material weakness in its procedures in that the small size of management causes a lack of segregation of duties and limits management's ability to recognize potential inadequacies of the internal controls over the financial reporting.
