PROXY STATEMENT

GENERAL INFORMATION

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying form of proxy are being mailed to the shareholders of Foodarama Supermarkets, Inc. ("Foodarama" or the "Company") in connection with the solicitation, by and on behalf of the management of the Company, of proxies to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Annual Meeting") to be held at the offices of the Company, 922 Highway 33, Building 6, Suite 1, Howell, New Jersey, on Wednesday, April 13, 2005 at 2:00 p.m. (local time) and at all postponements or adjournments thereof.

The securities entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting consist of shares of Common Stock, $1.00 par value ("Common Stock"), of the Company with each share of Common Stock entitling its owner to one vote on an equal basis. The number of outstanding shares of Common Stock on February 18, 2005 was 987,617. Only shareholders of record on the books of the Company at the close of business on that date will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. The holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, will constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting.

At the Annual Meeting, shareholders of the Company will consider and vote upon the election of five (5) nominees for director who will serve on the Board of Directors (the "Board" or the "Board of Directors") of the Company and any other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting. The affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote is required for the election of directors. The proxy card provides space for a shareholder to withhold votes for any or all nominees for director. All votes will be tabulated by the inspector of election appointed for the Annual Meeting who will separately tabulate affirmative votes, authority withheld for any nominee for director and any abstentions or broker non-votes. Authority withheld will be counted toward the tabulation of total votes cast in the election of directors and will have the same effect as a negative vote. Any proxy submitted and containing an abstention or a broker non-vote is not counted as a vote cast on any matter to which it relates and will only be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting.

All shares of Common Stock represented by properly executed proxies will be voted at the Annual Meeting, unless such proxies have previously been revoked. Unless otherwise instructed, the shares of Common Stock represented by such proxies will be voted "FOR" the election of management's nominees for director. Management does not know of any other matter to be brought before the Annual Meeting, but it is intended that, as to any such other matter, votes may be cast pursuant to the proxies in accordance with the judgment of the person or persons acting thereunder unless otherwise directed by the shareholders.

The Company's mailing address is 922 Highway 33, Building 6, Suite 1, Freehold, New Jersey 07728 and its telephone number is (732) 462-4700. The notice, proxy statement and enclosed form of proxy are being mailed to shareholders on or about February 28, 2005.

Any shareholder who executes and delivers a proxy may revoke it at any time prior to its use by (a) delivering written notice of such revocation to the Secretary of the Company at its offices; (b) delivering to the Secretary of the Company a duly executed proxy bearing a later date; or (c) appearing at the Annual Meeting and requesting the return of his or her proxy.

YOU ARE REQUESTED TO COMPLETE AND SIGN THE ACCOMPANYING PROXY AND RETURN IT PROMPTLY IN THE ENVELOPE PROVIDED FOR THAT PURPOSE.

PROXY STATEMENT

The Company's Third Amended and Restated Revolving Credit and Term Loan Agreement provides that an event of default shall occur if Messrs. Joseph J. Saker and Richard J. Saker together, do not own, beneficially, all voting rights with respect to at least 25% of all of the issued and outstanding Common Stock of the Company.

NOMINEES AS A DIRECTOR OF THE COMPANY

Edgar Filing: FOODARAMA SUPERMARKETS INC - Form DEF 14A

The By-laws of the Company provide that the number of directors shall be a minimum of three (3) and a maximum of eleven (11), and permit the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by the Board. Currently, the Board has fixed the number of directors at five (5).

Nomination Process

The Company does not have a standing nominating committee or a nominating committee charter. Instead it chooses to rely on the expertise of its independent directors, Charles T. Parton, Albert A. Zager and Robert H. Hutchins, who consider the criteria set forth below, to propose nominees for director and the judgment of the Board in determining the nominees for election. The independent directors of the Board currently meet the standards for independence as set forth in the rules of the American Stock Exchange, the exchange on which the Company's Common Stock is traded. The nominees named herein were unanimously proposed and recommended for approval by the full Board by the following independent directors of the Company, Charles T. Parton, Albert A. Zager and Robert H. Hutchins.

The members of the Board as a whole believe that, at a minimum, the Board should be comprised of directors who have expertise that may be useful to the Company as well as directors who have in the past exhibited the highest personal and professional ethics. When considering nominees for director, the independent directors consider several factors, including (i) relevant business experience; (ii) independence from management; (iii) judgment, skill, integrity and reputation; (iv) existing commitments and potential conflicts of interest; (v) financial and accounting background; and (vi) the size and composition of the existing Board. Because the nominees named below are all sitting directors of the Company who are up for re-election at the Annual Meeting, the independent directors also considered each director's past performance on the Board. The Board seeks to identify individuals who satisfy these criteria from among persons known to them.

The independent directors of the Board will also consider nominees for director suggested by shareholders of the Company. The process by which a shareholder of the Company may suggest a nominee for director of the Company can be found under "Shareholder Proposals and Nominees for Director." The independent directors will apply the same criteria described above to any candidate suggested by a shareholder as well as evaluate any additional information required to be submitted therewith. The Company does not pay any fees to third parties to identify, evaluate or assist in identifying or evaluating potential nominees.

Nominees

It is the intention of the persons named in the accompanying proxy to vote, unless otherwise instructed, in favor of the election of the five (5) nominees for director named herein, each for a term expiring at the annual meeting in 2006 or until such time as his successor has been duly elected and qualifies. If for any reason any of the said nominees should be unable or unwilling to serve, which is not now anticipated, the proxies will be voted for a substitute nominee(s) who will be designated by the Board.

The following table sets forth certain information relating to the individuals nominated by the Board to serve as a director of the Company:

Audit Committee Charter

The Audit Committee developed an Audit Committee Charter (the "Charter") in consultation with the Company's accounting and finance department, its internal audit department, the Company's independent auditors and outside general counsel. The Board adopted the Charter on June 7, 2000, and the Charter was filed with the SEC on (i) February 26, 2001 as Appendix "A" to the Company's proxy statement delivered in connection with the 2001 Annual Meeting of shareholders and (ii) February 27, 2004 as Appendix "A" to the Company's proxy statement delivered in connection with the 2004 Annual Meeting of shareholders. The Charter filed with the SEC on February 27, 2004 reflects the September 25, 2003 and January 15, 2004 amendments.

The Audit Committee has discussed with Amper, Politziner & Mattia, P.C., the Company's independent auditors, those matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees). The Audit Committee also met with the Company's Disclosure Committee, which is responsible for taking appropriate measures to assure that the reports that the Company files with the SEC pursuant to the Exchange Act disclose all information required to be disclosed in such reports and for modifying the Company's disclosure controls and procedures, as necessary.

The Audit Committee has also received the written disclosures and the letter from Amper, Politziner & Mattia, P.C. required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussion with Audit Committees), and the Audit Committee has discussed the independence of Amper, Politziner & Mattia, P.C. with that firm. Amper, Politziner & Mattia, P.C. confirmed, in its professional judgment, that it is not aware of any relationship between Amper, Politziner & Mattia, P.C. and the Company that would reasonably bear on its independence.

Edgar Filing: FOODARAMA SUPERMARKETS INC - Form DEF 14A

Based on the Audit Committee's review and discussions noted above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board that the Company's audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 30, 2004 for filing with the SEC.

(1) Incentive compensation paid or accrued pursuant to the Company's Incentive Compensation Plans (the "Incentive Plans"). The Incentive Plans were adopted by the Board for each of the fiscal years presented in the table to attract, retain and motivate salaried employees by providing incentive compensation awards in cash. The Board administers the Incentive Plans, which includes designating salaried employees eligible to participate in the Incentive Plans and awarding incentive compensation to the eligible employees, subject to the Company achieving certain specified levels of pre-tax profit. In administering the Incentive Plans, the Board took into account the recommendations of the Company's executive officers, except that determinations made with respect to the Company's Chairman of the Board and President were made solely by the Company's independent directors.

(2) These amounts represent the projected annual benefit at retirement as of the end of each fiscal year for the applicable Named Officers under the Company's Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan ("SERP"), which was approved by the Board on January 17, 1989. Amounts payable at retirement under the SERP range from 40% to 50% of the employee's highest average compensation over a five-year period less primary Social Security, pension plan benefits and 401(k) benefits and are payable until death, but for a minimum of 120 months, except for Mr. Joseph J. Saker (See Note (4) below). This Plan covers eight (8) executive officers and other key employees and is intended to supplement the Company's retirement benefits. Such amounts are not payable until the earlier of the death, disability or retirement of the covered employee. The Company anticipates paying for benefits as they become due out of current operating income.

The SERP provides for a pre-retirement death benefit of one-half the amount payable upon retirement, actuarially computed, payable to the employee's beneficiary over 120 months. If the employee dies after retirement, such employee's beneficiary will receive the same benefit the employee would have received if the employee had lived for 120 months. The Company has amended the SERP for Mr. Joseph J. Saker as described in Note (4) below. During fiscal 2004, the Company recorded $763,000 of deferred compensation expense with respect to the SERP.

(3) Represents amounts contributed by the Company under its 401(k) Plan (the "401(k) Plan"). The Company maintains a 401(k) Plan for all qualified non-union employees. Employees are eligible to participate in the 401(k) Plan after completing one (1) year of service (1,000 hours) and attaining age 21. Employee contributions are discretionary to a maximum of 30% of compensation but may not exceed $14,000 per year. The Company has elected to match 25% of the employee's contributions up to 6% of employee eligible compensation not exceeding $205,000. The Company may make additional discretionary contributions. These discretionary contributions amounted to 2% of eligible compensation for the three calendar years ending December 31, 2004.

FOODARAMA SUPERMARKETS, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

- (4) Effective November 2, 2003, Joseph J. Saker relinquished his position as Chief Executive Officer of the Company, but continues to serve as an executive officer of the Company, occupying the position of Chairman of the Board pursuant to a two (2) year employment agreement (the "Employment Agreement") commencing November 2, 2003 and ending October 29, 2005. Richard J. Saker was elected by the Board to assume the position of Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Saker's base salary under the Employment Agreement is $325,000 and $275,000 during the first and second years, respectively, of the term of the agreement. Mr. Saker is eligible to participate in the Company's Incentive Plans and 401(k) Plan and is entitled to receive insurance benefits made available to other employees of the Company during the term of the Employment Agreement. The Company has agreed to pay for the transportation of Mr. Saker to and from the Company's offices and store locations.

In addition, the Employment Agreement provides certain post-retirement benefits for Mr. Saker and his wife. Specifically, the Company has agreed to provide fully paid medical and dental insurance coverage for Joseph Saker and his wife during their respective lives. The Company will provide certain supplemental life insurance for Mr. Saker post retirement and the premiums to be paid by the Company for such insurance shall not exceed $22,104. Also, the Company amended its SERP, as to Mr. Saker only, to provide for payments under that plan for the joint and several lives of Joseph Saker and his wife. Each other executive participating in the SERP is entitled to a benefit payable for his life and, in the event of death, his beneficiary is entitled to receive a benefit for a period of up to 120 months. See Note (2) above.

- (5) The members of the Board elected Richard J. Saker to assume the position of Chief Executive Officer of the Company effective November 2, 2003.

PROXY STATEMENT

PENSION PLAN

The Company maintains a defined benefit pension plan for eligible employees. Full vesting occurs after five (5) years of service. Benefits upon retirement prior to age 65 are reduced actuarially. Benefits under the plan are determined by a formula equal to .6% times the highest five (5) consecutive year average of a participant's compensation from the commencement of employment through September 30, 1997, times the total years of service at September 30, 1997. The plan also provides for lump sum payments, which are payable under certain circumstances. The table set forth below specifies the estimated annual benefits payable upon normal retirement at age 65. Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Board on September 24, 1997, years of service and benefit accruals for participants in the plan were frozen effective September 30, 1997. In lieu of contributions to the defined benefit pension plan for the seven (7) calendar years ended December 31, 2004, the Board has approved contributions to the 401(k) Plan in an amount equal to the sum of (a) two percent (2%) of the eligible compensation of 401(k) Plan participants; and (b) $.25 for every $1.00 contributed to the 401(k) Plan by the participants for up to 6% of the participant's eligible compensation. The Company did not make any contributions to the 401(k) Plan prior to freezing benefit accruals under the defined benefit pension plan.

For purposes of vesting benefits under the pension plan, the Company has credited Richard J. Saker with 23 years of service; Michael Shapiro with 3 years of service; Joseph J. Saker, Jr. with 21 years of service; and Carl L. Montanaro with 35 years of service. The highest five (5) consecutive year average, or pro-rated portion thereof, of compensation through September 30, 1997 for each of the Company's Named Officers, after giving effect to applicable limitations under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, is as follows: Richard J. Saker--$150,000; Michael Shapiro--$150,000, Carl L. Montanaro--$119,000, and Joseph J. Saker, Jr.--$99,000.

Mr. Joseph J. Saker received a lump sum distribution of $403,878 in January 1995, representing the amount of his vested interest in the pension plan.

DIRECTORS' COMPENSATION

All non-employee directors receive, in addition to reimbursement for their reasonable expenses associated with attendance at meetings of the Board, an annual retainer fee of $15,000 payable quarterly in advance, and a participation fee of $1,000 for each meeting of the Board attended. All non-employee members of the Audit Committee receive, in addition to reimbursement for their reasonable expenses associated with attendance at Audit Committee meetings, a fee of $1,000 for each Audit Committee meeting attended if held on a day other than a day on which a Board meeting is held, and a fee of $500 for each Audit Committee meeting attended if held on the same day as a meeting of the Board. All non-employee members of the Stock Option Committee receive, in addition to reimbursement for their reasonable expenses associated with attendance at Stock Option Committee meetings, a fee of $500 for each Stock Option Committee meeting attended if held on a day other than a day on which a Board meeting is held.

The Company paid a total of $71,500 during the fiscal year ended October 30, 2004 to directors who are not employees of the Company.

FOODARAMA SUPERMARKETS, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

COMPLIANCE WITH REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's executive officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent (10%) of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes of ownership on Forms 3, 4 and 5 with the SEC. Executive officers, directors and greater than ten percent (10%) shareholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all Forms 3, 4 and 5 they file.

Based solely on the Company's review of the copies of such forms it has received, the Company believes that, during the fiscal year ended October 30, 2004, all of its officers, directors and greater than ten percent (10%) beneficial owners required to file reports pursuant to Section 16 (a) of the Exchange Act complied with all filing requirements applicable to them, except that Thomas Flynn, Vice President-Chief Accounting Officer, filed two Forms 4 in June 2004 that were due in September 2002 in connection with his exercise of stock performance units.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION IN COMPENSATION DECISIONS

For the fiscal year ended October 30, 2004, the full Board performed the functions of a board compensation committee. Executive officers who served on the Board during fiscal 2004 were Mr. Joseph J. Saker, Chairman of the Board, and Mr. Richard J. Saker, President and Chief Executive Officer. The Board acted on matters of compensation for the Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer, with each of such officers abstaining from any compensation decisions relating specifically to them.

COMPENSATION REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Company's independent directors are responsible for determining the compensation of the Company's Chairman and its Chief Executive Officer. During fiscal 2004, Joseph J. Saker served as the Company's Executive Chairman and Richard J. Saker served as the Company's Chief Executive Officer. In order to arrive at an appropriate level of compensation for the Company's Chief Executive Officer for the fiscal year ended October 30, 2004, the independent directors considered a variety of factors presented in this report.

Corporate data for chief executive officers of similar sized grocery retailing organizations throughout the country as well as the Company's financial performance and other achievements during the fiscal year ended November 1, 2003 were reviewed and considered by the Company's independent directors in determining compensation levels for the Company's Chief Executive Officer for fiscal 2004. In addition, the independent directors took into account the fact that the Chief Executive Officer of the Company has personally guaranteed significant amounts of indebtedness owed by the Company to Wakefern.

After careful consideration of the various factors, including, among others, the facts referenced above, the independent directors determined the base salary of the Chief Executive Officer should be increased by four percent (4%) for the fiscal year ended October 30, 2004. See "Executive Compensation--Summary Compensation Table."

As of the end of the 2003 fiscal year, Joseph J. Saker relinquished his role as Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Recognizing the substantial contribution that Mr. Saker has made and is expected to continue to make to the growth, development and successful operation of the Company, including his personal guaranty of the Company's indebtedness to Wakefern, the Board determined that it was in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders that Joseph Saker's judgment and experience remain available to the Company and that he continue to serve as an executive officer of the Company occupying the position of Chairman of the Board. The Board approved a two (2) year employment agreement between the Company and Joseph J. Saker beginning November 2, 2003. See Note (4) to the Summary Compensation Table.

The members of the Board elected Richard J. Saker to assume the position of Chief Executive Officer of the Company based upon his substantial experience in supermarket operations, his long tenure as an executive officer of the Company and his substantial contribution to the growth and development of the Company.

Historically, the Company's Chief Executive Officer makes determinations with respect to cash compensation paid to other executive officers of the Company. In addition to considering market comparisons, salaries paid to executive officers are based on the executive's level of responsibility, experience in his role, and the overall performance and condition of the Company and the economy at large.

PROXY STATEMENT

The Company's Board is responsible for administration of the Company's 2004 Incentive Compensation Plan (the "Incentive Compensation Plan"). Pursuant to the Incentive Compensation Plan, the Company has undertaken to pay incentive compensation to designated employees if it achieved certain adjusted pre-tax profit levels. The terms of the Incentive Compensation Plan are generally consistent with the terms of incentive compensation plans adopted and approved by the Company for prior fiscal years. Pursuant to the Incentive Compensation Plan, the Board awarded cash incentive compensation to certain salaried employees of the Company, including Mr. Joseph J. Saker and Mr. Richard J. Saker. See "Executive Compensation--Summary Compensation Table."

The Stock Option Committee of the Board, which consists of its outside directors, administers the Company's Stock Incentive Plan. The Stock Incentive Plan enables the Company to grant stock-based and other forms of incentives, including stock options, stock appreciation rights, phantom stock, and restricted stock, among others. The Stock Option Committee may select from among these types of awards, and may combine different types of awards within individual grants, to establish individual grants affording long-term incentives, for the purpose of better aligning the interests of the Company's management with those of its shareholders. The Stock Option Committee did not grant any awards to the Company's key executives and directors during the fiscal year ended October 30, 2004.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code places a limit of $1,000,000 (per person) on the amount of compensation that may be deducted by a public company in any year for compensation paid to each of a corporation's Named Officers. Qualifying performance-based compensation is not subject to the deduction limit if certain requirements are satisfied. The grant of options to the Named Officers in 2001 under the Stock Incentive Plan does not qualify as performance-based compensation. The exercise of these options could result in deductible compensation in excess of the limit imposed by Section 162(m). The Board may award compensation that may be non-deductible under Section 162(m) when, in the exercise of its business judgment, such award would be in the best interests of the Company. The Section 162(m) limitation has not yet had any effect upon the Company and its ability to deduct, for tax purposes, compensation paid to its Named Officers.

The Company's independent directors believe that the best interests of the Company and its shareholders are served by the Company's current compensation programs. The Board members will continue to review the Company's compensation plans periodically to determine what changes, if any, should be implemented to their structure, taking into account the Company's financial condition and performance.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

(a) Transactions with Management and Certain Business Relationships

As required by the By-Laws of Wakefern, the obligations owed by the Company to Wakefern are personally guaranteed by Joseph J. Saker, Richard J. Saker, Joseph J. Saker, Jr. and Thomas A. Saker. As of October 30, 2004 the Company was indebted to Wakefern in the amount of approximately $39,639,000 for current charges in the ordinary course of business. Wakefern presently requires each of its shareholders to invest up to $650,000 in Wakefern's non-voting capital stock for each store operated by it, computed in accordance with a formula based on the volume of such store's purchases from Wakefern. As of October 30, 2004, the Company had a 15.5% investment in Wakefern of $16,444,000. As a shareholder member of Wakefern, the Company earns a share of any annual Wakefern patronage dividend. The dividend is based on the distribution of operating profits on a pro rata basis in proportion to the dollar volume of business transacted by each member with Wakefern during each fiscal year. As of October 30, 2004, the Company was indebted in connection with an investment in Wakefern. The debt of $4,457,000 was non-interest bearing and payable in scheduled installments over a period of up to seven (7) years. Additional information with respect to the Company's relationship with Wakefern is contained in the Company's 2004 Annual Report on Form 10-K and in the notes to the Company's 2004 financial statements.

The Company also has an investment in Insure-Rite, Ltd., another company affiliated with Wakefern, of $1,211,000 as of October 30, 2004. Insure-Rite, Ltd. provides the Company with a portion of its liability insurance coverage with the balance paid through Wakefern to private carriers. The Company paid $5,014,000 for such insurance coverage in fiscal 2004 and believes that such amount is comparable to the amount that would be charged by a similarly situated unaffiliated general liability and property insurer.
