Australian Government Withdraws Bank Wholesale Guarantee Scheme

On February 7, 2010, the Australian Government announced the withdrawal of its Guarantee Scheme for Large Deposits and Wholesale Funding (the Guarantee) on March 31, 2010. The announcement does not affect the Financial Claims Scheme, which will continue to cover deposits of up to A$1 million until the cap is reviewed in October 2011.

The Australian Government announced that existing guaranteed liabilities of authorized deposit-taking institutions will continue to be covered by the Guarantee to maturity, for wholesale funding and term deposits, or to October 2015, for at call deposits. The final date for authorized deposit-taking institutions to apply for access to the Guarantee is March 24, 2010.

Disclosure regarding forward-looking statements

The information contained in this Report on Form 6-K contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of section 21E of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The forward-looking statements include statements regarding our intent, belief or current expectations with respect to our business and operations and results of operations and financial condition.

We use words such as may, expect, indicative, intend, forecast, likely, estimate, anticipate, believe or similar words to identify forward-looking statements. These statements reflect our current views with respect to future events and are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Should one or more of the risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from the expectations described herein. Factors that may impact on the forward-looking statements made include those described in the section entitled Risk and risk management in Westpac's 2009 Annual Report on Form 20-F filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on November 13, 2009. When relying on forward-looking statements to make decisions with respect to us, investors and others should carefully consider such factors and other uncertainties and events. We are under no obligation, and do not intend, to update any forward-looking statements contained in these materials.
