Item 8.01 Other Events

On January 5, 2012, CleanTech Innovations, Inc., or the Company, filed an amended complaint in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against the NASDAQ Stock Market, LLC and NASDAQ OMX Group, referred to collectively as NASDAQ, attached hereto as Exhibit 99.13. The complaint is based partly on NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Staff's extensive discriminatory and racially biased remarks captured on testimony records. The Company alleges in the complaint that NASDAQ engaged in racially-motivated discriminatory acts and policies against the Company in connection with the determination of the NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Department, led by Michael Emen, NASDAQ Senior Vice President and head of Listing Qualifications, under its so called "broad discretionary authority" to delist the Company's common stock for engaging in a fully disclosed financing transaction negotiated at arm's length with Chinese institutional investors. The Company further alleges that NASDAQ's discriminatory actions and racist remarks made by Michael Emen resulted in a violation of the Company's equal protection rights under the United States Constitution, amounted to selective prosecution and intentionally breached the Company's attorney-client privilege. The Company is seeking a permanent injunction enjoining NASDAQ from using its discriminatory policies against the Company and is also seeking at least $300 million in monetary damages. The Company is represented by former United States Senator Arlen Specter, Esq., former Chairman of the United States Senate Committee on the Judiciary, and Fensterstock & Partners LLP in this action.

On January 8, 2012, The China LiaoNing Provincial Government Small and Medium Enterprises Bureau, a major provincial government regulatory agency, sent official letters to The United States Department of Commerce and The Office of the United States Trade Representative, expressing the agency's grave concerns regarding the racially-motivated discriminatory acts of NASDAQ against the Company and the resulting damage to the Company and China-U.S. business and trade relations. The English translations of the official letters are attached as Exhibit 99.14.

The Company has also applied to the Securities and Exchange Commission for a review of the final delisting decision made by NASDAQ. Among other reasons for review, the Company is setting forth the inherent procedural unfairness attendant to NASDAQ's Listing and Hearing Review Council's, or the Council's, improper and bizarre decision to overturn its own decision to remand the Company's delisting to NASDAQ's Hearings Panel for further fact finding. The decision to overturn this decision was based on an alleged "ex-parte communication" by the Company. As described in correspondence sent from the Company's legal counsel to T. Sean Bennett of NASDAQ, a colleague of Mr. Emen, head of NASDAQ Listing Qualifications, attached hereto as Exhibit 99.15, the Company fully complied with NASDAQ's procedures and explicit direction to email information related to its appeal to the Council to appeals@nasdaqomx.com only. Nonetheless, the submission of the Company's appeal brief in accordance with NASDAQ's explicit instructions was unfairly determined to be an ex-parte communication by NASDAQ's Office of Appeals and Review after the Council's favorable decision.

The Exhibits furnished in this report shall not be deemed "filed" for the purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall they be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, unless specifically identified therein as being incorporated therein by reference.
