RYANAIR LAUNCHES BIGGEST EVER WINTER SCHEDULE

125 ROUTES TO 84 DESTINATIONS

WITH FARES FROM GBP9.99*

Ryanair, Europe's No. 1 low fares airlines today (Tuesday, 15 July 2003) launched its BIGGEST ever Winter Schedule which will see the airline operate on 125 routes, serving 84 destinations across 16 countries in Europe, with fares starting at just GBP9.99. The new Winter Schedule, which runs from October 2003 until March 2004, includes the 50 new routes launched earlier this year and will feature almost 500 flights a day.

For added convenience, the Winter Schedule can now be downloaded as PDF file from the Timetables page on www.ryanair.com.

Announcing details of the Winter Schedule, Sinead Finn, Ryanair's Sales and Marketing Manager for Europe, said:

"Ryanair is No.1 for Low Fares, No. 1 for Punctuality, No. 1 for Customer Service and this schedule confirms we're also No.1 for choice. This year, we launched two new bases in Europe - Milan and Stockholm - and added new routes to France, Germany, Italy, Netherlands, Portugal, Spain, and Scandinavia.

"We've increased the frequency and put larger aircraft on some of our popular routes so that people have an even greater choice over when they travel. For example, we've increased capacity on our London-Brussels and London-Dusseldorf routes, which will be great news for disappointed BA passengers who've just had those routes cancelled by the airline.

"We're also flying to popular ski resorts such as Salzburg, Turin, St Etienne and Graz, which will enable skiers plan their own ski programmes at fares that nobody else can match.

"Flights for the winter will be in huge demand, so passengers are advised to book early on www.ryanair.com to get the lowest fares, especially around peak times such as Christmas, public holidays and school breaks."
