BARCLAYS PLC PARTIAL SALE OF MONUMENT BUSINESS TO COMPUCREDIT CORPORATION

Barclays PLC ('Barclays') today announces the sale of part of the Monument credit card portfolio ('the Sale Portfolio'). Barclays credit card and consumer lending business, Barclaycard, has agreed to sell the Sale Portfolio and associated servicing capabilities to CompuCredit International Acquisition Corporation and CompuCredit UK Limited, which are both subsidiaries of CompuCredit Corporation ('CompuCredit') for a consideration of approximately GBP390 million payable in cash. The consideration is subject to final adjustment following determination of the actual amount of the gross receivables sold. The consideration is expected to be finalised during the second quarter of 2007.

The Sale Portfolio is being sold for a consideration which is broadly in line with net book value and includes approximately GBP490 million of gross receivables, including a tranche of accounts in collections. The Sale Portfolio represents about 2% of Barclaycard's loans and advances to customers as at 31st December 2006.

Barclaycard will retain a proportion of the Monument portfolio, representing

Forward looking statements

This announcement contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 27A of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended, with respect to certain of the Group's plans and its current goals and expectations relating to its future financial condition and performance.

By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to future events and circumstances, including, but not limited to, UK domestic and global economic and business conditions, market related risks such as changes in interest rates and exchange rates, the policies and actions of governmental and regulatory authorities, changes in legislation and the impact of competition- a number of which factors are beyond the Group's control. As a result, the Group's actual future results may differ materially from the plans, goals, and expectations set forth in the Group's forward-looking statements. Any forward-looking statements made by or on behalf of Barclays speak only as of the date they are made. Barclays does not undertake to update forward-looking statements to reflect any changes in Barclays expectations with regard thereto or any changes in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based. The reader should, however, consult any additional disclosures that Barclays has made or may make in documents it has filed or may file with the SEC.
