The aggregate purchase price of the 96,840 shares of Common Stock beneficially held by private clients of J O Hambro Capital Management is $616,471 (exclusive of brokerage fees and commissions). All of the shares of Common Stock beneficially held by such private clients were paid for using their working capital funds.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

The Filing Parties believe that the shares of Common Stock of the Company are undervalued and represent an attractive investment opportunity and they are considering pursuing any and all of the actions enumerated below.

The Filing Parties may take such actions with respect to their investment in the Company as they deem appropriate, including without limitation: (i) having open communications with the Company s management in order to monitor their efforts to increase shareholder value, (ii) purchasing additional shares of Common Stock in the open market or otherwise, (iii) seeking a change of control of the Company through various means, including without limitation, an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization, recapitalization or tender offer, (iv) seeking to amend the Company s charter and by-laws, (v) seeking to elect a slate of directors to the Company s board of directors, (vi) presenting proposals for stockholders consideration at an annual or special meeting of the Company s stockholders and (vii) reviewing the Company s securities filings for compliance with federal securities laws and, where appropriate, making referrals to the SEC.

On June 30, 2003, the Company filed a Current Report on Form 8-K disclosing that it had filed a lawsuit in federal district court in Los Angeles against the Filing Parties, Acquisitor Holdings (Bermuda) Ltd. and Executive Air Support, Inc. alleging that the Filing Parties and the other defendants had made false and/or misleading statements in SEC filings and misused proprietary, confidential and trade secret information in an attempt to take control of the Company sassets. Following a review of the action filed by the Company, the Filing Parties intend to vigorously defend themselves against these claims.

The Filing Parties believe that the current corporate governance of the Company relating to its officers falls well short of acceptable practice. The Filing Parties intend to thoroughly investigate what appears to be a pattern of self-dealing by members of the Company s board of directors by which certain individuals have engaged in a scheme to enrich themselves at the Company s expense and, depending on the findings of their investigation, the Filing Parties may commence litigation.

In light of the current corporate governance of the Company, the Filing Parties are considering means by which some or all of the directors may be removed from the board of directors. On August 1, 2003, one of the Filing Parties, Trident North Atlantic, submitted a request to the Company, through its registered agent in Delaware, seeking a complete list of the Company s stockholders and a copy of the Company s by-laws and any other rules of the Company regarding the nomination and election of directors, shareholder proposals and the conduct of the Company s 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The August 1st request was made by way of a formal demand under oath pursuant to Section 220 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and the common law of the State of Delaware submitted by Goldman Sachs International as record holder of 111,660 shares of Common Stock on behalf of Trident North Atlantic as beneficial owner of 111,660 shares of Common stock. By facsimile sent August 8, 2003, Wayne Lovett, Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of the Company denied the request through Goldman Sachs International. Trident North Atlantic disagrees with the Company s decision to reject the formal demand made through Goldman Sachs International. That demand was entirely proper under Delaware law and Mr. Lovett s August 8th facsimile rejecting the demand offered no sufficient justification for the Company s decision to refuse the request to inspect stockholder records.

On August 28, 2003, Trident North Atlantic, as record holder of 100 shares of Common Stock and beneficial owner of 111,560 shares of Common Stock, submitted a follow up request to the Company, through its registered agent in Delaware, renewing the August 1st request. In addition, Trident North Atlantic s August 28th letter requests materials relating to a series of troubling allegations made by shareholders in derivative actions against the Company and its management. Through its counsel, Trident North Atlantic, along with American Opportunity Trust, also has forwarded a letter to a Special Litigation Committee of the Company s board of directors, purportedly established for the purpose of reviewing these allegations.

These letters reflect the concern of the Filing Parties that the Company's management repeatedly has acted in its own self-interest at the expense of the interests of shareholders generally. The allegations raised by shareholders in recent derivative actions are directed in particular at the actions of Philip J. Fagan, Jr., the Chairman of Mercury Air Group's Board of Directors, Joseph A. Czyzyk, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and a board member; and Frederick H. Kopko, Jr., also a board member, and at CFK Partners LLC, a partnership controlled by these three officers and directors and a substantial shareholder. According to the allegations, for example, CFK Partners LLC and these insiders have been the principal beneficiaries of several transactions with or by the Company, including, for example, a Management Stock Purchase Plan pursuant to which the Company funded purchases of Mercury Air Group shares at a premium from CFK Partners LLC, the sale of the Company sheadquarters building to CFK Partners LLC, and fees paid by the Company to Mr. Kopko's law firm.

At the same time, the Company recently has taken steps to insulate management from outside challenge. For example, it recently enacted a series of changes to its by-laws which (a) impose material new qualification requirements on nominees to the board of directors which the sitting directors themselves would not be able to satisfy; (b) require that nominees to the board of directors agree not to require the Company to purchase directors and officers insurance on their behalf; and (c) disqualifies any person from membership on the board if that person has, in the past three years been adverse to the Company it litigation. The Filing Parties are concerned that management may be taking steps to protect itself from shareholder challenge at precisely the time that management also allegedly has engaged in a series of self-interested transactions.

The purpose of Trident North Atlantic s request to the Company was to allow Trident North Atlantic to investigate these allegations and determine what course, if any, would be best to ensure that the Company s management would act to protect the interests of shareholders instead of insiders. In its letter to the Company s Special Litigation Committee, Trident North Atlantic and American Opportunity Trust enlist the help of Mercury Air Group s outside directors, if any, in securing the Company s cooperation with the request to review Company records. A copy of Trident North Atlantic s August 28th request letter to the Company, and a copy of the letter sent on behalf of Trident North Atlantic and American Opportunity Trust to the Company s Special Litigation Committee are attached hereto.

The purpose of the August 1st request was to allow Trident North Atlantic to communicate with stockholders regarding the Company s corporate governance and management practices, the lawsuit filed by the Company against Trident North Atlantic, among others, and to facilitate the possible nomination and election of directors to serve on the Company s Board of Directors. The purpose of the August 28th request, in addition to renewing the August 1st request, is to allow Trident North Atlantic to investigate and gain a more informed understanding of the basis of the substantial allegations concerning corporate mismanagement raised against the Company and its managers in recent derivative class actions, some of which are described immediately above.

In addition, the Filing Parties believe it is in the interest of all shareholders if either the current board or a new board immediately appoint an independent firm of investment bankers to find ways to maximize shareholder value.

The Filing Parties may also participate in discussions with potential purchasers of their shares of Common Stock, sell some or all of their shares of Common Stock in the open market or through privately negotiated transactions, or change their intention with respect to any and all of the matters referred to above.
