Items To Be Included In This Report

Item 1.01 Entry Into Material Definitive Agreements

On October 3, 2005, MVB Bank, Inc. (MVB Bank) entered into a supplemental life insurance agreement with each of seven executives of MVB Bank. MVB Bank is a wholly-owned subsidiary of MVB Financial Corp. (MVB), and James R. Martin, Larry Mazza and Eric Tichenor of MVB Bank are also President and Chief Executive Officer, Executive Vice President and Treasurer, respectively, of MVB and each of them have entered into a supplemental life insurance agreement.

Under the supplemental life insurance agreement, death proceeds of certain life insurance policies which are owned by MVB Bank on the life of an executive are divided by MVB Bank and an executive's designated beneficiary. Under each agreement, MVB Bank pays the life insurance premiums on those life insurance policies subject to the agreement.

MVB Bank owns the policies and may terminate a policy without the consent of the executive. If the executive dies while employed by MVB Bank, the executive's beneficiary is entitled to a benefit equal to $250,000 in the cases of Larry Mazza and Roger Turner, $150,000 in the case of James R. Martin (in addition to the benefit of $100,000 currently available to him) and $100,000 for the remaining officers, provided that such benefit shall not exceed the net death proceeds. The net death proceeds means the total death proceeds of the policy minus the greater of the cash surrender value or the aggregate premiums paid by MVB Bank. The insurance benefit becomes vested upon the earliest of the following: (i) attainment of the age of 62 while employed by MVB Bank; (ii) separation from service due to disability; (iii) a change in control while employed by MVB Bank; or (iv) upon board determination. However, the executive forfeits any right to benefits if MVB Bank terminates the executive for cause (as defined in the agreement) or if the executive competes with MVB Bank after such executive's retirement.
