Brehl to have Mr. Brehl serve as the Chief Accounting Officer and Controller of the Company, commencing January 3, 2006. The following summary describes certain material provisions of the Employment Agreement.

The Employment Agreement provides Mr. Brehl with a base salary of $190,000 per year, subject to increase from time to time, and the ability to be eligible for bonuses and to participate in the Company's incentive and other employee benefit plans. The Employment Agreement also provides for a one-time equity grant to Mr. Brehl, on the commencement date, of 2,000 shares of restricted stock and 5,000 options to purchase shares of the Company's common stock, such shares and options to vest ratably over three years.

The Company may terminate Mr. Brehl's employment at any time for any reason whatsoever or for no reason and with or without cause. However, if Mr. Brehl's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause (as defined in the Employment Agreement), he is entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to one-half of his annual base salary as then in effect. In addition, if, within 180 days following a Change of Control (as defined in the Employment Agreement), Mr. Brehl's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause, or Mr. Brehl terminates his employment for Good Reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement), he would receive a lump sum payment equal to one-half of his annual base salary as in effect on the date of the Change of Control.

During the term of his employment with the Company and for six months thereafter, Mr. Brehl is subject to certain noncompetition, nonsolicitation and noninterference provisions.
