(FN1) Includes (i) 2,611,770 shares of common stock, $0.01 par value per share (Common Stock), of Boston Properties, Inc., a Delaware corporation; (ii) 6,261,768 common units of limited partnership interest in Boston Properties Limited Partnership, a Delaware limited partnership (Common Units), of which Boston Properties, Inc. is the general partner, that are redeemable for cash or exchangeable for shares of Common Stock on a one-for-one basis at the option of Boston Properties, Inc., 46,474 of which are held by limited partnerships; (iii) 64,471 long term incentive units (LTIP Units) of partnership interest in Boston Properties Limited Partnership, that, upon the satisfaction of certain conditions, are convertible into Common Units; and (iv) 1.036.132 shares of Common Stock underlying currently exercisable options. As of the close of business on September 27, 2005 (i.e., the last trading day before the related ex-dividend date), the Company s Board of Directors adjusted the number of options beneficially owned and the corresponding exercise prices to ensure that its employees, directors and other persons holding stock options are not disadvantaged by the special cash dividend paid on October 31, 2005 to the stockholders of record as of the close of business on September 30, 2005. Pursuant to this adjustment, the number of shares underlying Mr. Zuckerman s options increased by 36,132 from 1,000,000 to 1,036,132 and the per share exercise prices were correspondingly decreased. Under the rules issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission regarding beneficial ownership of securities, beneficial ownership of Common Stock includes (i) any shares as to which the individual or entity has sole or shared voting power or investment power and (ii) any shares which could be purchased by the exercise of options at or within 60 days of December 31, 2005. The Reporting Person has opted to include in this report his beneficial ownership of Common Units and LTIP Units which are convertible into Common Units even though ownership of such units does not constitute beneficial ownership of Common Stock under Rule 13d-3 because, pursuant to section 8.6 of the limited partnership agreement of Boston Properties Limited Partnership, the holder of the Common Units does not have the right to require Boston Properties, Inc. to redeem the Common Units in exchange for shares of Common Stock.
