Annual Report to Shareholders

FUND PERFORMANCE^A

The total return of Western Asset Premier Bond Fund (the Fund) including reinvestment of dividends for the year ended December 31, 2005 was -7.83% as measured by price and 4.31% as measured by NAV. We believe the major reason for the difference between the 2 measures is attributable to a reduction in the Fund's monthly dividend that was declared on April 1, 2005. The reduction was primarily a result of the flattening of the yield curve due to the continued general decline in the level of intermediate and long yields. For example, from December 31, 2004 to December 31, 2005 the yield curve as measured by comparing 2 year to 30 year US Treasury rates flattened over 150 basis points. The flattening of the curve had a negative impact on the Fund's use of leverage and the decline in rates reduced its reinvestment yields. The Fund maintained a position in US Governments (primarily inflation-protected securities), asset-backed securities, mortgages, investment grade credit, high yield credit and emerging market sovereign debt. All of these sectors generated positive absolute returns for the period.

^A Past performance does not guarantee future results. The investment return and principal value of the Fund will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than the original cost. Calculations are based on net asset value or market values and assume reinvestment of dividends and capital gain distributions. Returns do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund distributions or the sale of Fund shares.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Amounts in Thousands)

1. Organization and Significant Accounting Policies:

Western Asset Premier Bond Fund (the Fund) is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 as a diversified, closed-end management investment company. The Fund commenced investment operations on March 28, 2002.

The Fund's investment objective is to provide current income and capital appreciation by investing primarily in a diversified portfolio of investment grade bonds. The Fund currently seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing substantially all of its assets in bonds, including corporate bonds, U.S. government and agency securities and mortgage-related securities. The ability of the issuers of the securities held by the Fund to meet their obligations might be affected by, among other things, economic developments in a specific state, industry or region.

Preparation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements.

Security Valuation

Securities owned by the Fund for which market quotations are readily available are valued at current market value. Securities for which market quotations are not readily available are fair valued by the Fund's investment adviser, Western Asset Management Company (Western Asset), or its affiliates, acting in accordance with policies and procedures approved by the Board. In determining fair value, the Fund's investment adviser or its affiliates consider all relevant qualitative and quantitative information available. The factors are subject to change over time and are reviewed periodically. The values assigned to fair value investments are based on available information and do not necessarily represent amounts that might ultimately be realized, since such amounts depend on future developments inherent in long-term investments. Further, because of the inherent uncertainty of valuation, those estimated values may differ significantly from the values that would have been used had a ready market for the investments existed, and the differences could be material.

Where a security is traded on more than one market, which may include foreign markets, the securities are generally valued on the market considered by the Fund's adviser to be the primary market. The Fund will value its foreign securities in U.S. dollars on the basis of the then-prevailing exchange rates.

Security Transactions

Security transactions are recorded on the trade date. Realized gains and losses from security transactions are reported on an identified cost basis for both financial reporting and federal income tax purposes.

Purchases and sales of investment securities (excluding short-term investments, U.S. government securities and U.S. government agency securities) aggregated $110,843 and $103,306, respectively for the year ended December 31, 2005. There were purchases of $12,325 and sales of $6,339 of U.S. government and government agency obligations for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Foreign Currency Translation

Assets and liabilities initially expressed in terms of non-U.S. currencies are translated into U.S. dollars using currency exchange rates determined prior to the close of trading on the New York Stock Exchange, and generally at 2:00 PM ET. Purchases and sales of securities and income and expenses are translated into U.S. dollars at the prevailing market rates on the dates of such transactions. The effects of changes in non-U.S. currency exchange rates on investment securities and other assets and liabilities are included with the net realized and unrealized gain or loss on investment securities.

Repurchase Agreements

The Fund may engage in repurchase agreements. Under the terms of a typical repurchase agreement, the Fund takes possession of an underlying debt obligation subject to an obligation of the seller to repurchase, and the Fund to resell, the obligation at an agreed-upon price and time, thereby determining the yield during the Fund's holding period. This arrangement results in a fixed rate of return that is not subject to market fluctuations during the Fund's holding period. The value of the collateral is at all times at least equal to the total amount of the repurchase obligation, including interest. In the event of a counterparty default, the Fund has the right to use the collateral to satisfy the terms of the repurchase agreement. However, there could be a potential loss to the Fund in the event the Fund is delayed or prevented from exercising its right to dispose of the collateral securities, including the risk of a possible decline in the value of the collateral securities during the period while the Fund seeks to assert its rights. The Fund's investment adviser reviews the value of the collateral and the creditworthiness of those banks and dealers with which the Fund enters into repurchase agreements to evaluate potential risks.

Annual Report to Shareholders

Reverse Repurchase Agreements

The Fund may engage in reverse repurchase agreements. Under the terms of a typical reverse repurchase agreement, the Fund sells an underlying debt obligation subject to an obligation to repurchase the security from the buyer at an agreed-upon price and time, thereby determining the yield during the buyer's holding period. A reverse repurchase agreement involves the risk that the market value of the securities the Fund has sold and is obligated to repurchase exceed the cash retained by the Fund. In the event the buyer of the securities under a repurchase agreement files for bankruptcy or becomes insolvent, the Fund's use of the proceeds of the agreement may be restricted pending a determination by the party, or its trustee or receiver, whether to enforce the Fund's obligation to repurchase the securities. At the time the Fund enters into a reverse repurchase agreement, it will segregate, on its books, liquid assets having a value at least equal to the repurchase price or take other actions permitted by law to cover its obligations.

Options, Futures and Swap Agreements

The current market value of a traded option is the last sale price or, in the absence of a sale, the mean between the closing bid and asked price. Futures contracts are valued daily at the settlement price established by the board of trade or exchange on which they are traded. Futures contracts are marked-to-market on a daily basis. As a contract's value fluctuates, payments known as variation margin are made or received by the Fund each day, depending on the daily fluctuation in the value of the contract. The daily changes in contract value are recorded as unrealized gains or losses, and the Fund recognizes a gain or loss when the contract is closed. Swap agreements are priced daily based upon quotations from brokers and the change, if any, is recorded as unrealized appreciation or depreciation.

Investment Income and Distributions to Common Shareholders

Dividend income and distributions are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Dividends from net investment income are declared and paid monthly to common shareholders. Net capital gain distributions are declared and paid after the end of the tax year in which the gain is realized. If necessary, a second distribution on such gains will be paid in December to avoid imposition of a federal excise tax. Distributions are determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations, which may differ from those determined in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; accordingly, periodic reclassifications are made within the Funds' capital accounts to reflect income and gains available for distribution under federal income tax regulations. Interest income and expenses are recorded on the accrual basis. Bond discounts and premiums are amortized and included in interest income for financial reporting purposes and federal income tax purposes.

Short Sales

The Fund may sell a security it does not own in anticipation of a decline in the market price of that security. The Fund must then borrow the security sold short and deliver it to the dealer that brokered the short sale. A gain, limited to the price at which the security was sold short, or a loss, potentially unlimited in size, will be recognized upon the termination of the short sale. With respect to each short sale, the Fund must segregate collateral consisting of cash or liquid securities with a value at least equal to the current market value of the shorted securities, marked-to-market daily, or take other actions permitted by law to cover its obligations. Dividend expenses and fees paid to brokers to borrow securities in connection with short sales are considered part of the cost of short sale transactions. The Fund had no open short sales at December 31, 2005.

2. Federal Income Taxes

No provision for federal income or excise taxes is required since the Fund intends to continue to qualify as a regulated investment company and distribute all of its taxable income and capital gains to its shareholders. Because federal income tax regulations differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, income and capital gains distributions determined in accordance with tax regulations may differ from net investment income and realized gains recognized for financial reporting purposes. Accordingly, the character of the distributions and composition of net assets for tax purposes differ from those reflected in the accompanying financial statements.

Annual Report to Shareholders

3. Financial Instruments:

Forward Foreign Currency Exchange Contracts

As part of its investment program, the Fund may utilize forward foreign currency exchange contracts. Forward foreign exchange contracts are marked-to-market daily using forward foreign currency exchange rates supplied by an independent pricing service. The change in the contract's market value is recorded by the Fund as an unrealized gain or loss. When a contract is closed or delivery is taken, the Fund records a realized gain or loss equal to the difference between the value of the contract at the time it was opened and the value at the time it was closed.

The use of forward foreign currency exchange contracts does not eliminate fluctuations in the underlying prices of the Fund's securities, but it does establish a rate of exchange that can be achieved in the future. These forward foreign currency exchange contracts involve market risk in excess of amounts reflected in the financial statements. Although forward foreign currency exchange contracts used for hedging purposes limit the risk of loss due to the decline in the value of the hedged currency, they also limit any potential gain that might result should the value of the currency increase. In addition, the Fund could be exposed to risks if the counterparties to the contracts are unable to meet the terms of their contracts. The Fund had no outstanding forward foreign currency exchange contracts as of December 31, 2005.

Option and Futures

As part of its investment program, the Fund may utilize options and futures. Options may be written (sold) or purchased by the Fund. When the Fund purchases a put or call option, the premium paid is recorded as an investment and its value is marked-to-market daily. When the Fund writes a put or call option, an amount equal to the premium received by the Fund is recorded as a liability and its value is marked-to-market daily.

When options, whether written or purchased, expire, are exercised or are closed (by entering into a closing purchase or sale transaction), the Fund realizes a gain or loss as described in the chart below:

Purchased option: The option expires The option is closed through a closing sale transaction The Fund exercises a call option The Fund exercises a put option	Impact on the Fund: Realize a loss in the amount of the cost of the option. Realize a gain or loss depending on whether the proceeds from the closing sale transaction are greater or less than the cost of the option. The cost of the security purchased through the exercise of the option will be increased by the premium originally paid to purchase the option. Realize a gain or loss from the sale of the underlying security. The proceeds of that sale will be reduced by the premium originally paid to purchase the put option.
Written option: The option expires The option is closed through a closing purchase transaction A written call option is exercised by the option purchaser. A written put option is exercised by the option purchaser	Impact on the Fund: Realize a gain equal to the amount of the premium received. Realize a gain or loss without regard to any unrealized gain or loss on the underlying security and eliminate the option liability. The Fund will realize a loss in this transaction if the cost of the closing purchase exceeds the premium received when the option was written. Realize a gain or loss from the sale of the underlying security. The proceeds of that sale will be increased by the premium originally received when the option was written. The amount of the premium originally received will reduce the cost of the security that the Fund purchased when the option was exercised.

The risk associated with purchasing options is limited to the premium originally paid. Options written by the Fund involve, to varying degrees, risk of loss in excess of the option value reflected in the portfolio of investments. The risk in writing a covered call option is that the Fund may forgo the opportunity of profit if the market price of the underlying security increases and the option is exercised. The risk in writing a put option is that the Fund may incur a loss if the market price of the underlying security decreases and the option is exercised. In addition, there is a risk the Fund may not be able to enter into a closing transaction because of an illiquid secondary market, or, for over-the-counter options, because of the counterparty's inability or unwillingness to perform.

Activity in written call during the year ended December 31, 2005, was as follows:

	Calls		Puts
	Actual Contracts	Premiums	Actual Contracts	Premiums
Options outstanding at December 31, 2004		$		$
Options written	155	189
Options closed	(150)	(185)
Options expired	(5)	(4)
Options exercised
Options outstanding at December 31, 2005	0	$	0	$

Upon entering into a futures contract, the Fund is required to deposit with the broker cash or cash equivalents equal to a certain percentage of the contract amount. This is known as the initial margin. Subsequent payments (variation margin) are made or received by the Fund each day, depending on the daily fluctuation in the value of the contract. The daily changes in contract value are recorded as unrealized gains or losses and the Fund recognizes a realized gain or loss when the contract is closed. Futures contracts are valued daily at the settlement price established by the board of trade or exchange on which they are traded.

The Fund enters into futures contracts in connection with its interest rate management strategy, or for other purposes. Futures contracts involve, to varying degrees, risk of loss in excess of the amounts reflected in the financial statements. The change in the value of the futures contract primarily corresponds with the value of their underlying instruments, which may not correlate with changes in interest rates (if applicable). In addition, there is a risk that the Fund may not be able to enter into a closing transaction because of an illiquid secondary market.

The open futures positions and related appreciation or depreciation at December 31, 2005, are listed at the end of the Fund's portfolio of investments.

Reverse Repurchase Agreements

For the year ended December 31, 2005, the average amount of reverse repurchase agreement outstanding was $26,252 and the daily weighted average interest rate was 3.27%.

Swap Agreements

The Fund may invest in swaps for the purpose of managing its exposure to interest rate, credit or market risk, or for other purposes. The use of swaps involves risks that are different from those associated with ordinary portfolio transactions.

Total return swaps are agreements to exchange the return generated by one instrument for the return generated by another instrument, for example, the agreement to pay interest in exchange for a market-linked return based on a notional amount. To the extent the total return of the index exceeds the offsetting interest obligation, the Fund will receive a payment from the counter-party. To the extent it is less, the Fund will make a payment to the counterparty. Periodic payments received or made by the Fund are recorded in the accompanying statements of operations as realized gains or losses, respectively.

Annual Report to Shareholders

Credit default swaps involve the exchange of a fixed-rate premium for protection against the loss in value of an underlying debt instrument in the event of a defined credit event (such as payment default or bankruptcy). Under the terms of the swap, one party acts as a guarantor, receiving a periodic payment that is a fixed percentage applied to a notional principal amount. In return, the party agrees to purchase the notional amount of the underlying instrument, at par, if a credit event occurs during the term of the swap. The Fund may enter into credit default swaps in which the Fund or its counterparty act as guarantors. By acting as the guarantor of a swap, the Fund assumes the market and credit risk of the underlying instrument, including liquidity and loss of value. Interest rate swap contracts involve the exchange of commitments to pay and receive interest based on a notional principal amount.

Swaps are marked-to-market daily and changes in value are recorded as unrealized appreciation/(depreciation). Gains or losses are realized upon termination of the swap agreement. Swaps may be considered to be illiquid. Periodic payments and premiums received or made by the Fund are recorded in the accompanying statements of operations as realized gains or losses, respectively. Collateral, in the form of cash or securities, may be required to be held in segregated accounts with the Fund's custodian in compliance with swap contracts. Risks may exceed amounts recognized on the statements of assets and liabilities. These risks include changes in the returns of the underlying instruments, failure of the counterparties to perform under the contracts' terms, and the possible lack of liquidity with respect to the swap agreements.

The following is summary of open swap contracts outstanding at December 31, 2005.

As of December 31, 2005, the components of accumulated earnings on a tax basis were as follows:

Undistributed ordinary income net	$ 374
Undistributed long-term capital gains net	—
Total undistributed earnings net	$ 374
Capital loss carryforward	$ (1,529)*
Unrealized gains/(losses) net	10,019
Total accumulated earnings/(losses) net	$ 8,864

* At December 31, 2005, the Fund had a net capital loss carryforward of $1,529, which expires in the year 2011. This amount will be available to offset like amounts of any future taxable gains.

 The difference between book-basis and tax-basis unrealized gains/(losses) is primarily attributable to the tax deferral of losses on wash sales, the difference between book and tax amortization methods of premium and discount and the mark to market rules for options and futures contracts and other book/tax temporary differences.

For financial reporting, capital accounts and distributions to shareholders are adjusted to reflect the tax character of permanent book/tax differences. For the period ended December 31, 2005, the Fund increased accumulated net realized loss on investments, options, futures and swaps by $21, and decreased Under/(over) distributed net investment income by $21.

At December 31, 2005, the cost of securities for federal income tax purposes was $260,050. Accordingly, gross unrealized appreciation of investments was $14,350 and gross unrealized depreciation of investments was $4,314, resulting in net unrealized appreciation of $10,036.

5. Common Shares:

The Preferred Shares have a liquidation value of $25,000 per share, plus any accumulated but unpaid dividends whether or not earned or declared.

Dividends on the Series M and Series W Preferred Shares are cumulative and are paid at a rate typically reset every seven and twenty-eight days, respectively, based on the results of an auction. Dividend rates ranged from 2.22% to 4.50% from January 1, 2005 to December 31, 2005. Under the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Fund may not declare dividends or make other distributions on common shares or purchase any such shares if, at the time of the declaration, distribution or purchase, asset coverage with respect to the outstanding Preferred Shares would be less than 200%.

The Preferred Shares are redeemable at the option of the Fund, in whole or in part, on the second business day preceding any dividend payment date at $25,000 per share plus any accumulated but unpaid dividends. The Preferred Shares are also subject to mandatory redemption at $25,000 per share plus any accumulated but unpaid dividends, whether or not earned or declared, if certain requirements relating to the composition of the assets and liabilities of the Fund as set forth in the Bylaws are not satisfied.

Preferred Shareholders, who are entitled to one vote per Preferred Share, generally vote as a single class with the common shareholders, but will vote separately as a class (and, in certain circumstances, vote separately by series) with respect to certain matters set forth in the Bylaws. The preferred shareholders are entitled to elect two Trustees of the Fund.

OTHER INFORMATION

Dividend Reinvestment Plan

Western Asset Premier Bond Fund (WEA or Fund) and EquiServe Trust Company N.A. (Agent), as the Transfer Agent and Registrar of WEA, offer a convenient way to add shares of WEA to your account. WEA offers to all common shareholders a Dividend Reinvestment Plan (Plan). Under the Plan, cash distributions (e.g., dividends and capital gains) on the common shares are automatically invested in shares of WEA unless the shareholder elects otherwise.

As a participant in the Dividend Reinvestment Plan, you will automatically receive your dividend or net capital gains distribution in newly issued shares of WEA, if the market price of the shares on the date of the distribution is at or above the net asset value (NAV) of the shares, minus estimated brokerage commissions that would be incurred upon the purchase of common shares on the open market. The number of shares to be issued to you will be determined by dividing the amount of the cash distribution to which you are entitled (net of any applicable withholding taxes) by the greater of the NAV per share on such date or 95% of the market price of a share on such date. If the market price of a share on such distribution date is below the NAV, minus estimated brokerage commissions that would be incurred upon the purchase of common shares on the open market, the Agent will, as agent for the participants, buy shares of WEA through a broker on the open market. All common shares acquired on your behalf through the Plan will be automatically credited to an account maintained on the books of the Agent. Full and fractional shares will be voted by EquiServe in accordance with your instructions.

Additional Information Regarding the Plan

WEA will pay all costs applicable to the Plan, with the exceptions noted below. Brokerage commissions for open market purchases by the Agent under the Plan will be charged to participants. All shares acquired through the Plan receive voting rights and are eligible for any stock split, stock dividend, or other rights accruing to shareholders that the Board of Trustees may declare.

You may terminate participation in the Plan at any time by giving written notice to the Agent. Such termination shall be effective prior to the record date next succeeding the receipt of such instructions or by a later date of termination specified in such instructions. Upon termination, a participant may request a certificate for the full shares credited to his or her account or may request the sale of all or part of such shares. Fractional shares credited to a terminating account will be paid for in cash at the current market price at the time of termination.

Dividends and other distributions invested in additional shares under the Plan are subject to income tax just as if they had been received in cash. After year end, dividends paid on the accumulated shares will be included in the Form 1099-DIV information return to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and only one Form 1099-DIV will be sent to participants each year.

Inquiries regarding the Plan, as well as notices of termination, should be directed to EquiServe Trust Company, N.A. c/o Computershare Investor Services, P.O. Box 43010, Providence, Rhode Island 02940-3010 Investor Relations telephone number (866) 290-4386.

Trustee Consideration of the Management Agreements

The Executive and Contracts Committee of the Board of Trustees considered the Investment Management Agreement (the Management Agreement) between the Fund and Western Asset and the Portfolio Management Agreement (together with the Management Agreement, the Agreements) between Western Asset and WAML with respect to the Fund at meetings held on September 13, 2005, October 24, 2005 and November 8, 2005. At a subsequent meeting held on November 8, 2005, the Executive and Contracts Committee reported to the full Board of Trustees their considerations with respect to the Agreements, and the Board of Trustees, including a majority of the Independent Trustees, considered and approved renewal of the Agreements.

In arriving at their decision to renew the Agreements, the Trustees met with representatives of Western Asset and WAML (together, the Advisers), including relevant investment advisory personnel; reviewed a variety of information prepared by the Advisers and materials provided by Lipper Inc. (Lipper) and counsel to the Independent Trustees; and reviewed performance and expense information for peer groups of comparable funds, selected and prepared by Lipper. These reviews were in addition to information obtained by the Trustees at their regular quarterly meetings with respect to the Fund's performance and other relevant matters, such as information on differences between the Fund's share price and net asset value per share, and related discussions with the Advisers' personnel.

As part of their review, the Trustees examined the Advisers' ability to provide high quality investment management services to the Fund. The Trustees considered the investment philosophy and research and decision-making processes of the Advisers; the experience of their key advisory personnel responsible for management of the Fund; the ability of the Advisers to attract and retain capable research and advisory personnel; the capability and integrity of the Advisers' senior management and staff; and the level of skill required to manage the Fund. In addition, the Trustees reviewed the quality of the Advisers' services with respect to regulatory compliance and compliance with the investment policies of the Fund; the pending acquisition of Citigroup Asset Management by Legg Mason, Inc., the Advisers' parent company, and the impact such acquisition may have on the Advisers; and conditions that might affect the Advisers' ability to provide high quality services to the Fund in the future under the Agreements, including the Advisers' business reputation, financial condition and operational stability. Based on the foregoing, the Trustees concluded that the Advisers' investment process, research capabilities and philosophy were well suited to the Fund given its investment objectives and policies, and that the Advisers would be able to meet any reasonably foreseeable obligations under the Agreements.

In reviewing the quality of the services provided to the Fund, the Trustees also reviewed comparisons of the performance of the Fund to the performance of certain comparable leveraged funds in peer groups investing primarily in corporate debt. The Trustees discussed the factors involved in the Fund's performance relative to the performance of its peer groups. In that connection, the Trustees noted that the performance of the Fund over all but one of the periods reviewed was above the average of each peer group.

The Trustees also gave substantial consideration to the management fee and total expenses payable by the Fund. They reviewed information concerning management fees paid to investment advisers of similarly-managed funds, as well as fees paid by the Advisers' other clients, including separate accounts managed by the Advisers. The Trustees observed that the management fee paid by the Fund was below the average of its Lipper peer group. They noted that the management fee paid by the Fund was generally higher than the fees paid by clients of the Advisers, but that the administrative and operational responsibilities for the Advisers with respect to the Fund were also relatively higher. In light of these differences, the Trustees concluded that the differences in management fees were reasonable. The Trustees noted that the Fund's total expenses were above the average of its Lipper peer group, and that the difference tended to be attributable to the fees of the Fund's service providers other than the Advisers. Management indicated that efforts had been made to reduce these expenses and they would be expected to be lower on a going forward basis.

The Trustees further evaluated the benefits of the advisory relationship to the Advisers, including, among others, the profitability of the Fund to the Advisers and the direct and indirect benefits that the Advisers may receive from their relationship with the Fund, including any so-called fallout benefits to the Advisers, such as reputational value derived from serving as investment adviser. In that connection, the Trustees concluded that the Advisers' profitability was consistent with levels of profitability that had been determined by courts not to be excessive.

Annual Report to Shareholders

Finally, the Trustees considered, in light of the profitability information provided by the Advisers, the extent to which economies of scale would be realized by the Advisers as the assets of the Fund grow. The Trustees concluded that, because the Fund is a closed-end fund and does not make a continuous offer of its securities, the Fund's size was relatively fixed and it would be unlikely that the Advisers would realize economies of scale from the Fund's growth. The Trustees further concluded that, because the Advisers' profitability was consistent with levels of profitability that had been determined by courts not to be excessive, any economies of scale that may currently exist need not be shared with shareholders at this time.

In their deliberations with respect to these matters, the Independent Trustees were advised by their independent counsel, who are independent of the Advisers within the meaning of the SEC rules regarding the independence of counsel. The Independent Trustees weighed the foregoing matters in light of the advice given to them by their independent counsel as to the law applicable to the review of investment advisory contracts. In arriving at a decision, the Trustees, including the Independent Trustees, did not identify any single matter as all-important or controlling, and the foregoing summary does not detail all the matters considered. The Trustees judged the terms and conditions of the Agreements, including the investment advisory fees, in light of all of the surrounding circumstances.

Based upon their review, the Trustees, including all of the Independent Trustees, determined, in the exercise of their business judgment, that they were satisfied with the quality of investment advisory services being provided by the Advisers; that the fees to be paid to the Advisers under the Agreements were fair and reasonable, given the scope and quality of the services rendered by the Advisers; and that approval of the Agreements was in the best interest of the Fund and its shareholders.

The Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures of the Advisers are attached as an exhibit to this Form N-CSR.

Item 8. Portfolio Managers of Closed-End Management Investment Companies

A team of investment professionals at the Advisers, led by Chief Investment Officer S. Kenneth Leech and Deputy Chief Investment Officer Stephen A. Walsh, manages the Western Asset Premier Bond Fund (the Fund).

Messrs. Leech and Walsh have each served as portfolio managers for the Advisers for over 10 years.

The Fund is managed by a team of portfolio managers, sector specialists and other investment professionals. Mr. Leech and Mr. Walsh serve as co-team leaders responsible for day-to-day strategic oversight of the Fund's investments and for supervising the day-to-day operations of the various sector specialist teams dedicated to the specific asset classes in which the Fund invests.

Other Accounts

As of February 28, 2006, in addition to the Fund, the portfolio manager(s) were responsible for the day-to-day management of certain other accounts, as follows:

S. Kenneth Leech:

Type of Account	Number of Accounts Managed	Total Assets Managed	Number of Accounts Managed for which Advisory Fee is Performance-Based	Assets Managed for which Advisory Fee is Performance-Based
Registered Investment Companies	36	$ 23,661,545,735	0	0
Other pooled investment vehicles	19	$ 19,795,303,572	0	0
Other accounts	740	$ 205,776,184,176	77	$ 20,675,562,028

Stephen A. Walsh:

Registered Investment Companies	36	$ 23,661,545,735	0	0
Other pooled investment vehicles	19	$ 19,795,303,572	0	0
Other accounts	740	$ 205,776,184,176	77	$ 20,675,562,028

Note: The numbers above reflect the overall number of portfolios managed by the Advisers. Mr. Leech and Mr. Walsh are involved in the management of all the Advisers' portfolios, but they are not solely responsible for particular portfolios. The Advisers' investment discipline emphasizes a team approach that combines the efforts of groups of specialists working in different market sectors. The individuals that have been identified are responsible for overseeing implementation of the Advisers' overall investment ideas and coordinating the work of the various sector teams. This structure ensures that client portfolios benefit from a consensus that draws on the expertise of all team members.

Potential Conflicts of Interest

Potential conflicts of interest may arise in connection with the management of multiple accounts (including accounts managed in a personal capacity). These could include potential conflicts of interest related to the knowledge and timing of the Fund's trades, investment opportunities and broker selection. Portfolio managers may be privy to the size, timing and possible market impact of the Fund's trades.

It is possible that an investment opportunity may be suitable for both the Fund and other accounts managed by a portfolio manager, but may not be available in sufficient quantities for both the Fund and the other accounts to participate fully. Similarly, there may be limited opportunity to sell an investment held by the Fund and another account. A conflict may arise where the portfolio manager may have an incentive to treat an account preferentially as compared to the Fund because the account pays a performance-based fee or the portfolio manager, the Advisers or an affiliate has an interest in the account. The Advisers have adopted procedures for allocation of portfolio transactions and investment opportunities across multiple client accounts on a fair and equitable basis over time. All eligible accounts that can participate in a trade share the same price on a pro-rata allocation basis in an attempt to mitigate any conflict of interest. Trades are allocated among similarly managed accounts to maintain consistency of portfolio strategy, taking into account cash availability, investment restrictions and guidelines, and portfolio composition versus strategy.

With respect to securities transactions for the Fund, the Adviser determines which broker or dealer to use to execute each order, consistent with their duty to seek best execution of the transaction. However, with respect to certain other accounts (such as pooled investment vehicles that are not registered investment companies and other accounts managed for organizations and individuals), the Advisers may be limited by the client with respect to the selection of brokers or dealers or may be instructed to direct trades through a particular broker or dealer. In these cases, trades for the Fund in a particular security may be placed separately from, rather than aggregated with, such other accounts. Having separate transactions with respect to a security may temporarily affect the market price of the security or the execution of the transaction, or both, to the possible detriment of the Fund or the other account(s) involved. Additionally, the management of multiple accounts may result in a portfolio manager devoting unequal time and attention to the management of the Fund and/or other account.

It is theoretically possible that portfolio managers could use information to the advantage of other accounts they manage and to the possible detriment of the Fund. For example, a portfolio manager could short sell a security for an account immediately prior to the Fund's sale of that security. To address this conflict, the Advisers have adopted procedures for reviewing and comparing selected trades of alternative investment accounts (which may make directional trades such as short sells) with long-only accounts (which includes the Fund) for timing and pattern related issues. Trading decisions for alternative investment and long-only accounts may not be identical even though the same portfolio manager may manage both types of accounts. Whether an Adviser allocates a particular investment opportunity to only alternative investment accounts or to alternative investment and long-only accounts will depend on the investment strategy being implemented. If, under the circumstances, an investment opportunity is appropriate for both its alternative investment and long-only accounts, then it will be allocated to both on a pro-rata basis.

A portfolio manager may also face other potential conflicts of interest in managing the Fund, and the description above is not a complete description of every conflict of interest that could be deemed to exist in managing both the Fund and the other accounts listed above.

Compensation of Portfolio Managers

With respect to the compensation of the portfolio managers, the Advisers' compensation system assigns each employee a total compensation target and a respective cap, which are derived from annual market surveys that benchmark each role with their job function and peer universe. This method is designed to reward employees with total compensation reflective of the external market value of their skills, experience, and ability to produce desired results.

Standard compensation includes competitive base salaries, generous employee benefits, and a retirement plan.

In addition, employees are eligible for bonuses. These are structured to closely align the interests of employees with those of the Advisers, and are determined by the professional's job function and performance as measured by a formal review process. All bonuses are completely discretionary. One of the principal factors considered is a portfolio manager's investment performance versus appropriate peer groups and benchmarks. Because portfolio managers are generally responsible for multiple accounts (including the Fund) with similar investment strategies, they are compensated on the performance of the aggregate group of similar accounts, rather than a specific account. A smaller portion of a bonus payment is derived from factors that include client service, business development, length of service to the Advisers, management or supervisory responsibilities, contributions to developing business strategy and overall contributions to the Advisers' business.

Finally, in order to attract and retain top talent, all professionals are eligible for additional incentives in recognition of outstanding performance. These are determined based upon the factors described above and include Legg Mason, Inc. stock options and long-term incentives that vest over a set period of time past the award date.
