Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 11, 2006, the Compensation Committee and the independent members of the Board of Directors of Capital One Financial Corporation (the Company) approved the 2007 annual compensation of Richard D. Fairbank, its Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President. Under this compensation arrangement, in lieu of any salary, annual cash incentive, other cash or equity-based long-term incentives, and retirement plan contributions for 2007, Mr. Fairbank received a grant of nonstatutory options to purchase 594,851 shares of the Company's common stock. The stock options have an exercise price of $76.45 (which was the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the grant date), will become exercisable in full on the fifth anniversary of the grant date and will expire ten years from the grant date. The stock options also shall become exercisable in full upon the death or disability of Mr. Fairbank, or a change in control of the Company (as such terms are defined in the Capital One Financial Corporation 2004 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended and restated, the 2004 Stock Incentive Plan). The stock options shall immediately expire, to the extent not already exercisable, in the event Mr. Fairbank ceases to be employed by the Company for any reason other than death, disability or retirement. Upon retirement by Mr. Fairbank, these options will continue to vest post-retirement with an exercisability period of the shorter of five years from his retirement date or the remaining term for the expiration of the options. The stock options were granted from the Company's 2004 Stock Incentive Plan.

This arrangement reflects the Company's continued commitment to aligning the interests of its Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President with those of its stockholders through a compensation program designed to encourage management decisions that increase stockholder value over the long term. The Compensation Committee and the independent members of the Board of Directors also believe the 2007 compensation program for Mr. Fairbank is an important component of retaining a successful and highly talented senior executive.

A form of the stock option agreement for this grant is attached to this filing as Exhibit 99.1
