3. Management Discussion and Analysis

3.1 Brief analysis of overall operating activities during the reporting period

For the period ended March 31, 2007, the results of the Group are as follows:

On March 31, 2007, total assets of the Group reached RMB760,291 million, an increase of RMB33,206 million or 4.57% over that on December 31, 2006.

For the three-month period ended March 31, 2007, gross written premiums were RMB73,861 million, net investment income was RMB16,760 million, and net fair value gains reached RMB3,906 million.

As at March 31, 2007, shareholders' equity (excluding minority interest) was RMB127,101 million, an increase of RMB11,544 million or 9.99% over December 31, 2006. As a result of rapid business growth and increase in investment income, the Group achieved a net profit of RMB8,887 million for the three-month period ended March 31, 2007.

The Company's rapid growth in insurance business and further increase in investment income are due to the following reasons. The Company has been actively pursuing the changing demands of its customers. The Company also accelerated its insurance business development and continued to optimize its business structure. The Company's investment return increased remarkably as a result of the satisfactory performance of the capital market in China since 2006 and the Company's optimization in its investment portfolio. At the same time, the Company further enhanced its internal control and risk management systems and has been striving to accelerate its business development with high level of quality to maintain its leading market position. The Company completed its A Share listing successfully which further strengthened the capital base and social influence of the Company, and substantially improved the business development of the Company.

With effect from January 1, 2007 the Company has adopted new applicable accounting standards. As a result, fluctuation in the capital market may impact on the investment income and operating results and the Company.
