Item 8.01 Other Events

On August 13, 2007, HAPC, INC., a Delaware corporation (HAPC) issued a press release announcing that it had filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission its definitive proxy statement relating to the previously announced acquisition of InfuSystem, Inc., a California corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of I-Flow Corporation (InfuSystem). A special annual meeting of HAPC stockholders has been scheduled for Wednesday, September 26, 2007 at the offices of Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP, 101 Park Avenue, New York, 10178. HAPC stockholders of record as of August 6, 2007 will be eligible to vote at the special annual meeting. If the acquisition is approved, upon closing of the transaction, InfuSystem, will become wholly owned by HAPC, which will be renamed InfuSystem Holdings, Inc.

HAPC s press release announcing the filing of its definitive proxy statement is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Additional Information and Where to Find It

In connection with the proposed acquisition and required stockholder approval, HAPC filed a definitive proxy statement with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. HAPC commenced mailing the definitive proxy statement to its stockholders on August 8, 2007. HAPC's stockholders are urged to read the definitive proxy statement and other relevant materials as they contain important information about the acquisition of all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of InfuSystem. HAPC stockholders may obtain a free copy of such filings at the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>). Copies of such filings can also be obtained, without charge, by directing a request to HAPC, INC., 350 Madison Avenue, New York, New York 10017, Tel: (212) 418-5070.

HAPC and its directors and executive officers may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from the stockholders of HAPC in connection with the proposed transaction. Information regarding the special interests of these directors and executive officers in the proposed transaction is included in the definitive proxy statement of HAPC described above.

Forward Looking Statements

This Report on Form 8-K includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as may, should, could, would, expect, plan, anticipate, believe, estimate, continue, or the negative of such to similar expressions. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding whether the transaction will be completed and the expected timing of the closing. Readers are cautioned that these forward-looking statements involve certain risks and uncertainties. These risks and uncertainties, which could cause these forward-looking statements to not be realized, include delays in or failure to obtain necessary regulatory approvals or clearances or third-party consents for the parties to complete the acquisition, material changes in the business and financial condition of InfuSystem, increased competition in the markets in which InfuSystem competes, adverse changes in financial markets and the markets for InfuSystem's products, unanticipated material adverse developments regarding InfuSystem such as new actual or contingent liabilities, litigation or the loss of key personnel, and the availability of companies to acquire on terms and conditions acceptable to HAPC. HAPC disclaims any obligation to update any information contained in any forward-looking statement.
