ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

Washington Real Estate Investment Trust (we , us or WRIT) will enter into an indemnification agreement with each of its trustees and executive officers. Each indemnification agreement will obligate WRIT to indemnify the trustee or officer (indemnitees) against all judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses actually incurred by the indemnitee in connection with a proceeding to which the indemnitee is, or is threatened to be made, a party by reason of his or her status as a present or former trustee or officer of WRIT or any other corporation or entity for which the indemnitee is or was serving at WRIT 's request (other than a proceeding initiated by or on behalf of us as to which the indemnitee shall have been adjudicated to be liable to us).

The indemnitee will not be entitled to indemnification if it is established that one of the following exceptions to indemnification under Maryland law exists: (a) the act or omission of the indemnitee was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding and (i) was committed in bad faith or (ii) was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty, (b) the indemnitee actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property, or services or (c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the indemnitee had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful.

In addition, the indemnification agreement will require us to advance reasonable expenses incurred by the indemnitee within 20 days of the receipt by us of a statement from the indemnitee requesting the advance, provided the statement evidences the expenses and is accompanied by:

a written affirmation of the indemnitee 's good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification, and a written undertaking by or on behalf of the indemnitee to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined that the standard of conduct was not met.

The indemnification agreement also provides for procedures for the determination of entitlement to indemnification, including requiring such determination be made by independent counsel after a change of control of us.

The form of the indemnification agreement is attached as Exhibit 10(nn) hereto.
